

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2099

In the sky above the barren mountain, a figure swept over.

“I found it, it’s here!”

He looked around and fixed his eyes on a Valley.

The corner of his mouth twitched slightly as a cold smile appeared.

“Stop hiding, Tang kid. I know you’re inside! Do you think that you can stop me with these lousy formations? You must be dreaming!”

He rushed over and shouted.

There was a hint of mockery and satisfaction in his tone.

“How is it? it must be very painful now, right? Once you’re poisoned by the lifeless poison of the night race, you can’t be saved. Even if you’re a seven tribulation magnate, you can’t cure this poison. You can only wait for death.”

“If you want to live, you can! I am a very generous person. As long as you submit to me and become my spirit slave, I will help you get rid of this poison. How about it?”

He flew to the sky above the valley and shouted to the people below.

There was no movement in the valley below.

“Hmph! It seems that you are prepared to resist to the end. Alright, I will fulfill your wish!”

Ye Jiuxuan snorted and raised his hand. A huge black handprint appeared and slapped down.

Bang!

The handprint hit a layer of light.

The light screen trembled and dimmed.

“Let’s see how long you can block me!”

Ye Jiuxuan kept raising his hand and striking out one palm after another. The booming sounds were like muffled Thunder, shaking the sky.

After a short while, the first light screen shattered.

With a wave of his hand, a few black shadows swept out. They were a few puppets at the peak of the sixth tribulation. Then, he took out his tribulation weapon and continued to attack.

Soon, another layer of the light screen exploded.

One layer after another, in just over two hours, all the formations had been broken, revealing the figure sitting cross-legged in the valley.

He seemed to be recuperating, and in front of him, two clones stood on either side, protecting him.

“You still want to force the poison out? Hmph! You’re just wasting your time!”

Ye Jiuxuan sneered. This lifeless poison had no cure. No matter how this fellow struggled, it was to no avail.

“These two avatars of yours are not bad, I’ll kindly accept them!”

He glanced at the two avatars with a burning light in his eyes.

These two avatars were extraordinary. One was an avatar refined by the master of the Yao clan, and the other was the legendary heaven and earth origin embryo. Once he seized these two avatars, his strength would increase by several times.

“You want to take me in? You don’t have that ability!”

The origin core avatar snorted in anger. He stomped his feet and soared into the sky. He wielded the Taiyi mind-clearing banner and the ROC King’s divine halberd. He slashed the halberd at Ye Jiuxuan.

“It’s just a clone! Do you still want to overturn the heavens!”

Ye Jiuxuan snorted coldly and moved to meet him.

Clang clang clang!

The sword and the halberd collided, creating a series of ripples. The tremendous power caused the surrounding void to distort.

“What a good fellow!”

After exchanging a few blows, the origin core avatar was forced to retreat.

Ye Jiuxuan was, after all, one of the top ten among the younger generation. His equipment was also not bad. He was wearing the ancestral armor of the night clan, and the sword in his hand was also the ancestral supreme weapon of the night clan. His strength was extraordinary.

“As expected of a Heaven Earth origin core!”

Ye Jiuxuan’s eyes were burning with passion.

Just a clone was able to fight with him for so many moves. This heaven and earth origin core was really powerful.

“I’m not going to fight with you anymore. I’ll deal with you after I kill that guy!”

Seeing that he could not subdue this clone in a short time, ye Jiuxuan changed his target and rushed toward Tang Hao, who was sitting cross-legged in the valley.

That was the real body. As long as he could take care of the real body, he would be able to take care of a clone.

At the same time, he commanded the puppets to charge at the origin core clone and stall it.

“Get lost!”

He slashed his sword at the second clone that was charging at him, then dashed toward Tang Hao.

“Die, Tang kid!”

He laughed and slashed down with his sword.

However, at that moment, Tang Hao suddenly opened his eyes. His pupils shone with a shocking divine light. At the same time, his body shook, and a Buddhist light shot into the sky.

“You ...”

Ye Jiuxuan was stunned when he sensed the aura. His eyes widened and he looked at Tang Hao in disbelief.

This aura ... What was going on?

Wasn’t this guy poisoned? he should be extremely weak right now, but looking at his aura, he seemed to be completely fine and in his peak state.

He tried to sense it again and was stunned.

“Where’s the poison? Where’s your poison? How did it disappear?”

Tang Hao looked at him and smiled teasingly.

“What do you think?”

“No... This is impossible! This is the lifeless poison and there is no cure. How can you cure it?”

He was in complete disbelief.

His night race’s lifeless poison had never been cured since ancient times. How could this guy cure it?

“What’s impossible about it?”

Tang Hao smirked coldly. He clenched his right hand into a fist and threw a punch.

Bang!

After receiving this punch, ye jiuxuan let out a muffled groan and flew backward.

“This ... This is impossible!”

Ye jiuxuan was still in a daze and had yet to recover from the shock.

Only when another punch came close did he quiver and wake up.

“Not good!”

He exclaimed in his heart and was a little panicked.

He was definitely not this guy’s match in a direct confrontation.

He retreated quickly and urged ye Cha to escape.

However, Tang Hao would not give him the chance. He rushed forward and punched ye jiuxuan. Ye jiuxuan cried out in pain and was sent flying.

“Halberd, come!”

“Die!” Tang Hao shouted. He caught the halberd and swung it.

Wuwuwua!

Ye jiuxuan spat out a mouthful of blood after receiving the halberd attack. His face turned pale.

“Little ye, you still have me!”

The origin core avatar pushed aside the puppets and charged over with a spear in hand.

At the same time, the second clone drew the red bow, pulled the string, and shot an arrow.

A halberd, a spear, and an arrow turned into three streams of light and blasted on ye jiuxuan’s body. They broke through his defense directly, causing him to spit out blood repeatedly. He was seriously injured in an instant.

“This is revenge for the sword you stabbed me with!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao grunted coldly. He brandished the divine halberd and slashed wildly.

Ye jiuxuan vomited blood continuously. He was struck so hard that he had no power to fight back. In just a moment, he was seriously injured and on the verge of death.

“It’s such a waste for you to wear this armor!”

Tang Hao reached out and grabbed the armor. He ripped it off piece by piece.

Then, without any hesitation, he struck out with his halberd and killed ye Jiuxuan, along with his soul.

“It’s not that easy to kill me!”

Tang Hao grunted, then reached out to grab the treasure that had fallen from the man’s body.

There was a ring, a few pieces of jade, and a sword.

He first grabbed the ring and opened it with his spiritual will. There were many treasures inside.

Then, he grabbed the sword and sent his divine sense into it to take a look.

As soon as his divine will entered the sword, it buzzed and vibrated. An extremely powerful will burst out of it and charged toward Tang Hao.

“Not good!”

Tang Hao’s expression changed, and he immediately threw the sword away.

The sword trembled again and suddenly moved. It turned into a beam of divine light and rushed into the sky, disappearing.

This sword had the imprint of many of the night clan’s elders and the night Lord. Just like the divine rain Bell of the rain master clan, it could not be taken by outsiders.
