

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2177

“This alchemy Scripture is a priceless treasure!”

Ling Zhanxu looked at the “great expansion elixir Scripture,” his expression somewhat excited.

The elixir Scriptures left behind by any alchemy God in the ancient times were priceless treasures. Moreover, this was left behind by one of the hundred Immortals in the ancient times, the Grand Yan immortal venerable.

The Grand Yan golden pill created by this immortal reverent was a wondrous pill that had shaken the world, a treasure that many clans and sects dreamed of.

And the pill formula of this Great Yan golden pill was very likely to be recorded in this pill Scripture.

Tang Hao opened the pill Scripture and quickly browsed through it.

After flipping through a few pages, he revealed a surprised expression.

This elixir Scripture had obviously been carefully compiled. There was an outline, a table of contents, and the content was neat and tidy.

“As expected of an alchemy God!”

Tang Hao exclaimed after a while.

This elixir Scripture was all-encompassing and had the shadow of many ancient elixir DAOs. Obviously, Great Yan immortal venerable had absorbed the essence of these elixir DAOs and even written his own insights into this elixir Scripture.

It was Tang Hao’s first time hearing about many of the techniques and secret techniques.

In terms of understanding of many medicinal herbs, the descriptions in the book were extremely profound, making Tang Hao feel ashamed of his inferiority.

However, that was all.

There weren’t many things he could learn from this alchemy Scripture.

In terms of alchemy Dao attainments, he wasn’t much weaker than the Grand Yan immortal supremacy. In fact, he was even stronger in some aspects.

The elixir Scripture that he had compiled was much better than this great evolution elixir Scripture in terms of content and depth.

What caught Tang Hao’s attention the most was the recipe for the Golden Yan pill.

“The Grand Yan golden pill ... I have it!”

He quickly flipped through and found the Grand Yan golden pill at the place where the pill recipe was recorded.

This Grand Yan golden pill was very easy to find and was ranked first among all the pill formulas. Clearly, this Grand Yan immortal venerable was very proud of this pill he had invented.

“Aperture opening fruit, dreamsoul flower ... The soul of the nine-eyed spirit ape, and the brain ...”

Tang Hao glanced at it. There were many materials, and they were densely written. Some of them were quite rare materials, and some were more exotic, like the brain of the nine-eyed spirit ape. It was Tang Hao’s first time seeing this material.

“This nine-eyed spirit ape is extremely intelligent, and its intelligence is one of the best among the ape clan. Moreover, this clan is naturally gifted and is naturally close to the great Dao, which makes it easier to comprehend the Dao. This should be the reason why the Grand Yan immortal venerable chose it as the material!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

The Grand Yan golden pill could allow one to comprehend a great Dao overnight, and its effects could be said to be heaven-defying.

All the materials were for the sake of comprehending the Dao.

Looking at these materials, all of them were related to Dao Comprehension.

“A total of three hundred and sixty types. This pill ... Is not easy to refine!”

Tang Hao sighed with emotion after he finished reading.

Even the creation divine pill didn’t have so many materials. The complexity of this pill recipe was even higher than that of the creation divine pill.

Ling Zhanxu leaned over to take a look and was immediately left speechless.

“This pill, my Ling clan can forget about it!”

He said, shaking his head.

His Ling clan’s alchemy Dao wasn’t strong to begin with. They didn’t even have an alchemy Saint, so how could they refine such an abnormal pill recipe?

“Little Tang, do you lack the materials on it? I’ll find some for you. After you’ve refined the pills, don’t forget to give the Ling clan a few. ”

He rubbed his hands together and grinned at Tang Hao.

Even though his Ling clan didn't have the ability to refine pills, they were still able to help in gathering materials.

As long as he had enough materials, he would definitely be able to make it.

He knew that the young Tang's alchemy skills were extremely high. He was a leader in the alchemy world. Many people compared him to the old monster of the Yao clan.

If that Tang kid can't refine it, who else in this world can?

Tang Hao smiled. "I really do need some. How about this? I'll make a list for you. You can help me find them. When I'm done, I'll give a few to the Ling clan."

"Good, good, good!"

Ling Zhanxu was overjoyed.

A Great Yan golden pill meant a 6th tribulation expert. And for a clan, a 6th tribulation expert was the main pillar and an extremely important force. Naturally, the more the better.

Tang Hao looked at the recipe again. He compared it to his own collection and noted down all the ingredients he didn't have.

In the end, he organized it into a list and gave it to Ling Zhanxu.

"One, two, three ... Only 39?"

Ling Zhanxu counted, and couldn't help but be shocked.

There were a total of 360 ingredients in the entire pill recipe. Why was this brat Tang only lacking 39 ingredients? Most of them were beast ingredients.

"I've got everything else, this is all I have." Tang Hao smiled at him. "Remember, the more the better. The more you find, the more pills I can make!"

Hearing this, Ling Zhanxu was even more shocked.

Many of the spirit herbs on this pill formula were extremely rare and hard to find in the world. How many spirit herbs did this Tang kid have?

"I'm afraid it's hard to estimate ..."

Ling Zhanxu thought to himself, feeling a little shocked.

"Don't worry, Tang kid. I'll definitely collect all of them for you. There are many big Chambers of Commerce under my Ling clan. It's easy to find them."

Then, Ling Zhanxu patted his chest and said.

“Then I’ll leave it to senior!”

Tang Hao smiled.

He continued to read the alchemy Scripture and read through all the alchemy recipes recorded in it. He had seen most of them before, but he memorized the ones he had not seen before and prepared to supplement them in his own alchemy Scripture.

After reading through the alchemy Scripture, he kept it and paid attention to the situation outside with Ling Zhanxu.

Li Changhe was still looking for him like a madman. Tang Hao could not go out.

The two of them hid in the void and paid attention to the situation in the entire immortal Palace. When they saw that there were treasures to fight for, they took action and snatched some before returning to the void.

After about four hours, a loud noise suddenly came from the side of the immortal Palace, as if a restriction had been broken.

The two of them didn’t pay much attention at first, but then they heard exclamations.

“That’s the core!”

Their expressions changed and they both looked over.

In that direction, a brilliant five-colored divine light was shooting out of a Grand Hall. It was extremely dazzling.

“Five-colored? That’s right, the divine light that guards the immortal Palace is five-colored, so it must be the core!”

Ling Zhanxu said.

“Hurry up! Let’s hurry over, we must get the core!”

He shouted at Tang Hao excitedly.

Tang Hao immediately activated the scroll of the world and shot through the air.

At this time, the cultivators in all directions also discovered it. One figure after another swept out from the various palaces and rushed towards the hall where the five-colored divine light came from.

The core of the immortal Palace was the most important treasure in the entire immortal Palace.

As long as he could get the core, he would be able to control the entire immortal Palace!

Almost in an instant, countless figures swept to the front of the Great Hall. Their eyes shot out divine light as they looked into the hall, wanting to see the situation inside.

Tang Hao walked out of the void and went into the hall.
