

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2186

In the sky above the North Sea, a large ship was speeding.

On the ship, there were many figures, including the night Lord, the medicine master, and the sect master of the Qingyuan sect.

At this moment, their faces were extremely gloomy.

They did not gain much from the immortal Palace's appearance this time, especially when the medicine master and the others came late. By the time they arrived, there was nothing. Even Li Changhe did not gain much.

However, their enemy, that damn brat, had taken the core of the celestial Palace in one fell swoop and became the biggest winner this time.

Moreover, not only did that brat obtain treasures, he had also been in the limelight.

It was such a great honor to suppress many array Masters and crack the ancient array set up by the Grand Yan immortal venerable!

In a few days, this matter would spread in Pangu. By then, that kid would be in the limelight again. From the youngest seven-tribulation Sir God, he would become the number one expert in the array Dao world and be worshipped by the world.

This was something they didn't want to see.

"This kid ... How can he be so powerful in array Dao too!"

The medicine master frowned and asked in confusion.

As the head of the Yao clan, he understood that brat's alchemy Dao attainments very well.

In terms of alchemy, that kid was even better than him. He could even be compared to the ancestor of the Yao clan. In terms of theoretical knowledge, that kid's level was even more shocking. The entire Yao clan could not compare to him.

The Yao clan had also managed to obtain a portion of the alchemy Scripture. After the old ancestor had read it, he had even said that he was not as good as him.

This also showed that, in theory, that kid's level had already surpassed the old ancestor's.

What kind of terrifying attainment was this! It was even more unbelievable!

The Yao clan was a great clan that had existed since ancient times. Furthermore, they were a foreign race. They were born with magical powers that were close to plants and were most suitable for the Dao of alchemy. For tens of thousands of years, the Yao clan had always been known for their Dao of alchemy and had accumulated a deep foundation.

However, the accumulation of tens of thousands of years could not even be compared to a young kid!

This was enough to prove how freakish that kid's alchemy talent was!

However, in history, such a monster would occasionally appear, so it was not surprising. He could accept it.

However, he now realized that this kid was not only good at alchemy, but also in array. He had an extremely monstrous talent, which was a little difficult for him to accept.

"I don't know either. I've only heard that the kid has some knowledge in the array Dao. I didn't expect that his attainments in the array Dao were so high that even the three elders of Emperor Xi were not as good as him. This is simply a bit abnormal!"

The others were also puzzled.

It wasn't a big deal to be proficient in one Dao, but to be able to master two at the same time and reach the level of peak Pangu ... This was simply unbelievable!

"This kid's talent ... Is too terrifying!"

The night patriarch said with a frown.

"He's proficient in both the Dao of elixirs and the Dao of formations. He's at the peak of his attainments. In the Dao of cultivation, he's also at the peak. The blood he cultivated is comparable to the immortal blood of no beginning. Even young master Taixu is inferior to him!"

"When young master Taixu refined the immortal blood, he wanted to use the power of the No beginning immortal blood to kill this kid. Unexpectedly, he was defeated, took the immortal blood, and became a disabled man. That kid only reached the 7th tribulation after devouring the No beginning immortal blood, and has such amazing combat strength!"

The night patriarch said in a serious tone.

"Heavens!"

"There's such a thing!"

When Li Changhe and the others heard this, their eyes widened, and they revealed expressions of extreme shock.

This was the first time they had heard of this.

They had always thought that young master Taixu was still cultivating in seclusion and was preparing to break through to the 7th tribulation! However, he didn't expect that young master Taixu had already fought with that kid once and was even crippled!

"The immortal blood of no beginning is the first immortal blood in the world. How could it be defeated?"

"What kind of blood in this world can surpass the No beginning immortal blood?"

They were shocked and suspicious, their faces full of disbelief.

"I don't know about that!" The night Lord shook his head. "The title of the number one immortal bloodline was also conferred by later generations. Before the era of the hundred Immortals, there might have been more powerful immortal bloodlines, but they were not known to the world!"

"That's true!"

When everyone heard this, they all nodded.

No beginning immortal venerable was merely the number one expert in the era of hundred Immortals, before that, there were even more ancient Almighty.

That kid's luck was astonishing, and it was hard to guarantee that he wouldn't obtain some ancient secret techniques.

"Back then, I followed the aura of the Thunder tribulation and found him after he had just advanced. I exchanged a few moves with him, but I didn't have much of an advantage. The power of his mysterious immortal blood is really terrifying!"

"With this mysterious immortal blood, he is already able to resist me. With ye Xi, I can't stop him at all. Now that his origin core avatar is also at the seventh tribulation, he will be even more difficult to deal with."

As the night patriarch spoke, he shook his head and his expression became more and more distressed.

How to deal with that kid was a huge headache for him.

"Ye Xi! It is indeed difficult to deal with!"

Everyone shook their heads in distress.

Ye Xi was a legendary battle armor that had been refined by the night race's primogenitor! Not to mention a 7th tribulation, even if a 6th tribulation xiuzhe had him, it would be hard to kill him.

"If I had known this earlier, I would have killed that kid even at the risk of being retaliated by old demon Xue!"

“Ai! Who would have thought! At that time, we all thought that it would take a long time for that kid to get up, so we were not worried. We never thought that he would be such a demon. In just a dozen years, he reached the seventh tribulation.”

They sighed and regretted their actions.

Before that kid advances to the seventh tribulation, they still have many opportunities.

However, they were all worried about the old demon blood, so they did not dare to act rashly. That was why the kid had grown up so smoothly.

At this point, even if they were to attack with all their might, it would be very difficult to kill that brat.

“Not to mention the strength of that kid, the force behind him is even more troublesome. This time, it was old monster Ling who brought him there. The Ling clan, Shi clan, Zhao clan, Jiang clan and Liu clan were originally with us. When they saw that kid had advanced to the 7th tribulation, they immediately turned their heads and went to curry favor with him.”

“Also, it’s said that Vermillion Bird heaven has a close relationship with that kid. Now, he’s even close to a group of array Dao forces. There’s a chance to rope them in ...”

As the cultivators discussed, their expressions became more serious.

Not only did that kid’s strength become stronger, but his influence had also become greater.

More than half of the alchemy Dao, as well as the Ling, Jiang, and Shi clans, had all become the faction behind that kid ...

His power was already so strong that it was even stronger than the Alliance of these clans!
