

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2206

“This kid is quite bold!”

A giant beast snorted.

They looked coldly at the mountain, where a figure in white was walking out. His clothes were fluttering, and his black hair was flying. His temperament was out of this world, like an immortal.

“It’s divine Lord Tang! He’s out!”

A commotion arose among the surrounding spectators.

“Why is he alone?”

Looking behind him, they did not see any other seven tribulations old monsters. They were a little puzzled, and then revealed a touch of worry.

How could divine Lord Tang control the situation by himself?

The medicine master was surprised to see this. He didn’t expect the kid to come out alone.

“This kid is still so arrogant! However, this is just what I want!”

The medicine master sneered.

This kid had come out alone, so it was very likely that he had chosen to compromise and wanted to hand over a few Dragon corpses to send these ancient monsters away. But how could he let this kid have his way?

He had long been prepared to make this kid bleed profusely this time and spit out everything he had eaten!

“Human brat, you’re finally out! If you’d come out any later, I’d have razed your old nest to the ground!”

A Golden Lion roared.

The lion was huge and had thick golden mane. It was majestic and powerful. Its whole body shone with a brilliant light, as if it was forged from real gold without a trace of flaw.

On his forehead, one could vaguely see a strange pattern, like a crack.

It was a Golden Lion! A seven tribulation expert from the lion deity mountain!

“Human boy, hand over the Dragon’s corpse. That’s an ancestor of our untainted land, so their bodies naturally belong to our tribe!”

“That’s right! Quickly hand it over!”

All the giant beasts in the area roared impatiently.

They had waited for a few months and their patience had long been worn out.

“Boy, don’t think you can get rid of us by throwing out a few Dragon corpses. I heard that you got tens of thousands of Dragon corpses there. You got at least a thousand! We won’t make things difficult for you. You discovered the Dragon burial ground, so you should get a part of it. Take out a thousand Dragon corpses and keep the rest. ”

The black demonic Python said in a cold voice.

“Right! Don’t try to fool us! At least a thousand!”

When the giant beasts from all directions heard this, they all echoed.

“A thousand?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself and chuckled.

“What’s wrong? You don’t want to hand it over?”

The black demonic Python snorted angrily.

Tang Hao glared at him coldly. “Let’s not even talk about whether or not there are a thousand of them. Even if there are, why should I hand them over?”

“You ... How dare you!” The black demonic Python was furious. It shrieked, “that’s the ancestor of our primitive tribe. How can you humans defile their bodies? you have to hand over the Dragon corpse today!”

The giant beasts around them were also furious.

This kid’s attitude was really a little arrogant!

A human kid who had just broken through not long ago, where did he get the confidence to talk to so many ancient monsters like that?

“What if I refuse? So What if I do?”

Tang Hao stood in the air and looked around coldly.

There wasn’t the slightest fear in his eyes, only coldness.

“You ...”

“You have guts!”

Hearing this, all the giant beasts were stunned and found it hard to believe.

Then, they were furious!

This kid was clearly provoking them. He was determined not to hand over the Dragon corpse.

“Human brat, you will regret this!”

“Only death awaits those who dare to go against the untainted clan!”

They roared in anger.

For a time, the roars of Dragons, Tigers, snakes, and birds shook the sky.

Waves of violent auras turned into raging waves that spread out, shaking the entire land.

Si si si!

In the distance, the xiuzhe that were watching couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air. They were scared by this situation.

“Hahaha! This kid ... Is he looking for death!”

In the air, the medicine master was amused.

He had thought that the kid had chosen to compromise, which was why he dared to come out alone. However, he did not expect that the kid had no intention of compromising at all. He even dared to provoke this group of old monsters. Wasn't he clearly courting death?

Today, even if this brat didn't die, he would at least shed a layer of skin.
