

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2303

“Another celestial medicine!”

“Heavens! How can there be so many immortal herbs?”

Not long after, another celestial medicine appeared.

All the cultivators were a little shocked. Up until now, there were a total of seven immortal herbs!

This was a celestial medicine!

In the past hundreds of years, only one of them had appeared in Pangu. It was the one on King Roc mountain. It could be said that it was even rarer than a supreme weapon. But now, seven of them had appeared in the divine tomb.

“This is the divine tomb, and the one buried here is the green wood celestial clan. How can the king Roc mountain be compared with this?”

A xiuzhe shouted.

“That’s true!”

All the cultivators thought about it and agreed. It was not strange for any treasure to appear in the tomb of a God!

“Al! What a pity!”

Then, they felt a sense of regret. The celestial medicine was good, but how could it be their turn? even a powerful clan like the Yao clan could only follow behind and pick up the things that were left behind.

Those divine herbs and top-notch divine herbs had all fallen into the hands of divine Lord Tang and the thousand-blood experts from the various orthodoxies.

This was especially true for divine Lord Tang, who had taken two immortal herbs for himself.

“That’s two immortal herbs!”

The xiuzhe present were both jealous and envious.

The group of people from the wilderness were so angry that their eyes were spewing fire.

Especially the old lion, his eyes were red.

“This human brat is really abnormal. How does he even know divine restrictions!”

He was even more depressed.

It was fine that this human brat's cultivation was so powerful, but what was even more terrifying was that he actually knew so much. He was even more powerful than an old fogey like him who had lived for five to six thousand years. This was a little difficult for him to accept.

"Hmph! We'll let this kid be proud for a while, the more treasures he gets, the better. Later on, we'll make him spit them all out!"

Then, he snorted coldly and greed flashed in his eyes.

This time, he was not the only old monster from the untainted land. There were even more powerful existences. After all, this was the divine tomb. No xiuze could resist such temptation.

It was just that it was not convenient for them to show themselves. Similarly, there should be people of the same level from the human race, but they did not show themselves.

The two sides had always kept each other in check and wouldn't easily make a move. At the moment, these celestial herbs weren't enough for them to show up and fight for them. Only when they entered the tomb and saw the real treasures left by the gods would they make a move.

At that time, when the two sides fought, it would definitely be an extremely chaotic situation. For a figure at that level, it would be an easy thing to take care of this damn kid.

Besides, the eight tribulations of the untainted tribe were not the only ones eyeing this kid. The human tribe, the great void tribe, the divine curse tribe, and the three heavens of the South Pole might have venerable sovereigns here. Even if they did not, they must have prepared some means to deal with this kid.

At that time, the two races would launch an attack together. Would they still be afraid that this kid would not die?

The elder Lion King thought to himself and couldn't help but feel a little pleased, the corners of his mouth widening into a smile.

The team at the front advanced all the way. Under Tang Hao's guidance, the group of thousand blood broke through the divine restrictions like a hot knife through butter. It only took them six hours to break through all the divine restrictions and finally arrived in front of the tomb.

"It's quite high!"

Standing in front of the pyramid, Tang Hao discovered that it was even taller than he could see from a distance.

"The door is here ... It seems to have a barrier. Don't panic. Let's break the barrier first!"

Tang Hao activated his heaven's eye and scanned the door. He found traces of a divine restriction.

The cultivators behind him all responded and nodded in unison.

Tang Hao took a deep breath. After he had a clear look at the divine seals, he thought of a way to break them. Then, he commanded the thousand Blood Sword to break them one by one.

As soon as the last restrictive spell was broken, the door trembled. Then, the vines on it twisted and shrank to the sides.

These two doors were originally made of vines. When the vines spread out, the door would open, revealing a dark passage.

No one dared to step forward after taking a few glances at the passage.

The faces of the thousand blood disciples were filled with apprehension and fear.

They couldn't be blamed for this. After all, this was a divine tomb. The way here was already so dangerous and full of divine restrictions. The inside of the tomb must be even more dangerous. They didn't know what kind of formation or restriction was set up!

"There shouldn't be any problems!"

Tang Hao was equally nervous. He peeked into the room a few dozen times and only relaxed when he found that there were no traps or restrictions.

"I'm fine! I'm really fine, there's no trap at all. "

Tang Hao turned around and said to thousand blood.

"Really?"

"It can't be?"

They were all suspicious.

"It's true!"

Tang Hao strode into the tomb and continued walking.

Seeing that he had walked in for more than a dozen steps and was completely fine, the apprehensions in the hearts of those thousand blood disciples were dispelled. They all gathered their courage and walked in.

"Hurry up! Follow them!"

Behind them, a few people from the large clans hurriedly followed.

However, many people from the smaller clans knew that they couldn't fight for the treasures inside, so they didn't go in. They stayed outside and fought for the godly medicines outside.

The passage under his feet was wide and straight, extending all the way to the center of the pyramid.

Tang Hao led the way. After about ten minutes, they reached the end of the corridor. Another door appeared in front of them, just like the previous one.

He did the same thing and directed the thousand Blood Sword to break the restriction.

“This is ...”

When the wooden door opened, a huge space appeared before Tang Hao and the others. It was empty and vast, like a boundless starry sky.

The interior of the divine tomb was a universe of its own.

“Guys, look ... What’s that?”

The group took a few steps forward and stood at the edge of the passage. They scanned the void inside and soon discovered that there seemed to be something floating in the middle of the void. From a distance, it looked like an altar.

Just like the pyramid, this altar was made of wood. In the middle of the altar, a ball of green divine light was floating.

This ball of divine light attracted everyone’s attention.

They had looked around, but apart from the altar, there was nothing else. In other words, the item on the altar was the only treasure left behind by the God.

“What is this?”

“I can’t see it clearly!”

They focused their eyes and activated their most powerful spiritual eyes to look at the ball of divine light. But strangely, no matter what kind of spiritual eyes they used, they could not see through the ball of divine light.

“This divine light ... Is definitely not an ordinary item. The things inside are even more extraordinary!”

This discovery surprised everyone. Then, they realized that the things inside were not ordinary.

Tang Hao was also a little shocked, because he realized that even his heavenly eyes and the ancestor of technique’s divine eye could not see through the ball of divine light. This was something he had never encountered before.

“Let’s take it first!”

Tang Hao was about to step forward and grab the treasure.

However, at this moment, a deep voice came from behind him.

“Of course! This is a God’s core, a crystal core from a God’s body. Do you think it’s an ordinary thing?”

Along with this voice, a figure swept over like a ghost, passed through them, stepped into the void, and then went to the altar.

Tang Hao looked over and was shocked.

It was a venerable sovereign!
