

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2367

Ding! Ding!

Old devil MU's things fell to the ground.

Tang Hao retracted his primordial spirit. With a wave of his sleeve, he dispersed the poisonous mist and the light screen around the divine boat.

Then, he collected all the things left behind by the five old monsters.

"That's quite a lot!"

Tang Hao weighed the Rings in his hand and smiled happily.

These were five Hua Xing old monsters, and one of them was even an old antique with nine thousand blood. One could imagine how astonishing the collection in these rings was.

"Aiya! If I had known earlier, I would have let them live!"

Tang Hao suddenly thought of something. He slapped his forehead in regret.

He had forgotten that these people had stars. The five old monsters had five stars.

If he had known earlier, he would have dug out the positions of the stars from their minds before killing these five old monsters.

"However, it's fine. There's still a chance to find them. Their things are still there. We can still find them with some tracking methods. Besides, even if we can't find them, it's fine. The stars aren't very useful to me!"

Tang Hao was relieved.

"Let's rush over to my clone and stop the old monsters of the three great orthodoxies. Then, we'll look for the planets of these old guys,"

"The divine boat!" Tang Hao mumbled. He drove the divine boat with all his might toward his clone.

In order to deal with these five old monsters, he had wasted some time. He had to speed up and try to get there before those old monsters broke all the formations.

The divine boat continued to accelerate and galloped through the void.

He sat down on the deck and opened the Rings in his hands one by one, carefully arranging them.

There were many treasures in each ring, especially old devil MU's ring. The number of treasures in it was so great that even Tang Hao was shocked.

In the old monster's ring, all kinds of treasures were piled up like a mountain. There were so many that it was hard to imagine. Just the saint's bones alone were enough to form a small mountain.

"He must have killed many monsters!"

Although there were many monstrous talents in Pangu, and there were many who were born with Saint bones, the number of Saint bones here was simply too much.

There were also many other kinds of divine bones, sovereign blood, and even Supreme blood in there.

"I found it! It's here!"

He found the Starcore true gold among the mountains of mystical materials.

He also found the Thunder immortal's inheritance in the place where the cultivation methods were stored. There were also many rare ancient cultivation methods and venerable sovereign's inheritance.

In terms of tribulation weapons, he also had several Supreme weapons.

"This old devil is quite powerful. I don't know how many people he has robbed. But it's a pity that he's not blessed enough to enjoy it. It's just nice that I've benefited from it!"

Tang Hao chuckled.

With so many treasures, the creation sect would be able to create many more geniuses and even high-level Saints.

He spent a lot of effort to sort out the collection of the five old monsters.

"Right, pig slaughtering knife!"

Then, he thought of his pig slaughtering knife.

He immediately took out the knife and the bag of miscellaneous items.

"What exactly is it that caused the butcher knife to move?"

Tang Hao scanned the items in the bag one by one.

"Let's try them one by one!"

He pondered for a moment and had an idea.

He randomly picked a piece of Jade from his bag and placed it next to the pig slaughtering knife.

The butcher knife didn't respond.

"It doesn't look like it!"

He casually threw the Jade aside, picked up another piece, and tried it one by one.

When he tried one of the beads, the pig slaughtering knife finally reacted.

Clang clang clang!

The pig slaughtering knife that was laid flat on the deck started to tremble slightly.

“It’s this Pearl ... But, what’s the secret of this Pearl?”

Tang Hao picked up the bead and examined it closely.

The bead was about the size of a pellet. It was crystal clear. When he touched it, it had a clear feeling. When he put the bead near the pig slaughtering knife, the bead would also react. There were traces of blue light blooming from the inside.

However, the light was very faint. If one didn’t look carefully, they wouldn’t be able to see it.

Tang Hao tried to immerse his mind into it.

Vaguely, he saw some images that were constantly changing.

“It’s the memory of this bead!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

These images were a little messy, but he looked at them with full attention. Soon, he found that there was a gorgeous seven-colored light in the beads. In the light was a blade, a huge blade.

The blade was indescribably large, as if it could split the entire world in half.

It looked like a butcher’s knife.

“It’s a pig slaughtering knife. Why are there seven balls of light on the blade ... These are seven beads, red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple ... They just happen to be seven colors!”

“That’s right. This is the Pearl on the saber. It’s the blue one.”

Tang Hao immediately understood.

It turned out that this pig slaughtering knife was really broken, and it was missing seven pearls. The one he had obtained was the blue one, and there were six pearls left.

The scene quickly changed, and another scene appeared. There was a human voice.

They seemed to be ... Fighting.

“The great immortal Bloody Butcher? Could he be the owner of this saber? A true immortal?”

Tang Hao watched for a while. The name ‘great immortal sanguine Slayer’ appeared several times.

The scene continued to change, but after a while, it began to repeat. It was obvious that the memory of the bead was limited.

“It seems like ... The owner of this saber is indeed a true immortal. His name is the great immortal Bloody Butcher!”

“A complete saber is a celestial artifact. However, something happened and the saber was broken. The seven precious pearls on it were all lost. That’s why the saber is useless and has no reaction at all.”

“If I can find all the orbs, I might have a chance to recover!”

Tang Hao examined the orb in his hand. He was excited.

He did not lack Supreme weapons now. Even the gods Palace that he had refined was more powerful than a supreme weapon. He only lacked a true fairy weapon. After all, although the divine boat of fate was good, there were many restrictions when it was used. It was far less convenient than a true fairy weapon.

“I’ve only found one so far, so there are still six more! I don’t know where they are!”

Tang Hao glanced at the vast void. He was a little troubled.

It was not an easy task to gather all seven orbs!

“After all, it’s a celestial artifact. How can it be simple?” Tang Hao said with a smile.

In this world, celestial artifacts were rare to begin with. It was already good enough to have the opportunity to find one.

“Why is it getting more and more pleasing to the eye! It’s worthy of being a celestial artifact!”

Tang Hao fiddled with the knife for a while. The more he looked at it, the more he found it pleasing to the eye. In fact, it even looked good. He used to think that the knife was ugly and could not be used to it.

“So handsome!”

“Amazing!” Tang Hao exclaimed when he saw it.

In his eyes, the saber had changed from good-looking to handsome.

After playing with it for a while, he put it away.

He looked up and realized that he was still far from his clone. He opened the herb garden and went in to plant the roots of the star nether grass and the branches of the primordial spirit wood.

After a few days, he finally got close to where his clone was.
