

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2412

There were many acupoints in the human body, and each of them had different functions.

When practicing cultivation techniques and treating illnesses, they would use these acupoints.

However, after his physical body underwent Nirvana and completely transformed into an immortal body, the structure of his physical body had completely changed. There were no more acupoints that needed to be opened later on.

This pure heaven and earth Qi had opened the first immortal aperture in Tang Hao's body.

Looking inside, this immortal aperture was like a huge Whirlpool of stars, it was extremely bright.

In this immortal aperture, a large amount of immortal essence could be stored, it was equivalent to a second Dao ocean.

After the immortal aperture was successfully opened, a large amount of immortal essence was already flowing out of the Dao ocean and into the aperture.

The heaven and earth Qi had not been exhausted. A part of it was absorbed by his flesh and blood, while the other part gushed into the immortal mansion, strengthening its power.

The immortal estate had evolved from his Dao pillar, and was his life artifact. With every tribulation he transcended, it would be strengthened by one.

After a long time, the heaven and earth Qi finally dispersed, and the lightning tribulation officially ended.

"Is this the power of an 8th tribulation?"

Tang Hao clenched his fists and tried to activate the power in his body.

In an instant, golden celestial core power surged out of his immortal aperture and Dao ocean. At the same time, the blood in his body also surged, exploding with a powerful force.

In the seventh tribulation, most of the blood in his body was ordinary. There were only 10000 drops of immortal blood that flowed through his meridians. However, after the Nirvana, all of his blood had turned into chaos immortal blood.

After being tempered by the lightning tribulation, the blood in his body had become much purer and the power contained in it was even stronger.

"I'm afraid it has increased by more than a hundred times!"

Tang Hao estimated that his current strength was at least a hundred times stronger than when he was at ten thousand blood. He only needed one finger to deal with his old self.

“I finally don’t have to fear old man Taixu and the others!”

Tang Hao sighed in relief and chuckled.

Before this, he could only rely on the divine fate boat and ye Xi to resist an 8th tribulation expert like the great void sect master. However, now that he had advanced to the 8th tribulation, he no longer had to fear.

“I’m still not as powerful as the great void sect master and the others. After all, they advanced early and have been cultivating in the 8th tribulation realm for hundreds or even thousands of years. However, they can’t do anything to me.”

Tang Hao was quite confident about that.

With his abilities, he was definitely not inferior to the great void sect master and the others.

Even if he had the star dew, he was confident that he could fight against void origin stage cultivators who had opened two apertures, or Ling Bao.

The only thing that he was afraid of was the Mahesvara Buddha.

As an existence who had gone through the nine tribulations, this Guardian Buddha of the Buddhist sect was not simple.

“And that old monster!”

Tang Hao’s gaze shifted toward the depths of the North Sea.

This old demon Emperor was the second person he feared.

“I tricked him last time. I don’t think he will recover so quickly. I still have time!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself, then looked away.

Even though he had advanced to the 8th tribulation, he was still under a lot of pressure. There were too many powerful enemies. Other than the old demon Emperor, Mahesvara Buddha, and the even more powerful nine-colored tribe, he had to improve his strength as soon as possible.

“The gods Palace needs to be strengthened and more god statues need to be erected ...”

“Also, I need to find the pearls of the great immortal sanguine butcher’s saber to restore the power of this immortal saber ...”

Tang Hao muttered to himself.

He had too many things to do.

“Let’s go down to the lower realm first and catch the people from the lower realm!”

After a moment's deliberation, he decided to go to the lower realm first and bring the people from the lower realm up. Then, he would look for the relics of the great immortal bloody massacre.

Therefore, he returned to the gate of fortune. After a short discussion with Zao Huazi, he immediately went to the ancient wilderness and returned to the lower realm.
