

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2566

“What did that human look like?”

“What are his characteristics?”

The nine color race’s Hierarch found a few great emperors and asked.

“That man looked very ordinary. Judging from his appearance, he looked harmless and inexperienced, like a young genius who had not seen much of the world. Who would have thought that he was an old monster? he’s so sinister and despicable!”

“That guy is very fierce and overbearing. Just look at his murderous aura. He has killed countless people. He is a ruthless man!”

After hearing this, he was a little confused.

One moment, it was a harmless young genius, the next moment, it was a sinister and despicable old monster, and then, it was a domineering and ruthless person ...

This was too strange!

How could a person have so many different qualities?

Since he was an old monster, and a domineering and ruthless man at that, how could he look harmless?

“It’s really strange!”

He couldn’t figure it out.

From these descriptions, he could not imagine what kind of man he was!

“Maybe they were so frightened that they didn’t see the person’s face clearly, so they made it up.”

He pondered for a moment and finally came up with an explanation.

That guy was a half-zhizun with a 10000-foot true spirit and a celestial artifact in his hand. His combat strength was enough to crush these great emperors. These guys would be so scared that they’d turn and run when they saw him. How could they see his face?

“Mm! It must be like this!”

He nodded, feeling that his explanation was perfect.

“I’ll look for it myself! He should still be here!”

He swept forward and began to search.

“Since that guy is an old monster who is about to enter the Supreme-being realm, his temperament must be extraordinary. The description of a domineering and ruthless person is very fitting.”

As he searched, he pondered.

About two hours later, he suddenly heard the sound of an intense battle not far in front of him.

“Eh? Could it be that guy?”

He was overjoyed.

However, when he took a closer look, he was stunned. Over there, a few humans were fighting among themselves. Two of them were besieging one person. The one being besieged looked like a young man, while the other two looked like middle-aged men.

“That’s weird, why are they fighting among themselves?”

He felt a little strange.

He immediately stopped and watched.

After fighting for a while, the young man obviously couldn’t hold on and ran away.

However, it was blocked by the two of them.

“Hand over the treasure!”

The two of them shouted fiercely.

“Treasure? No wonder!” He nodded in realization.

Fighting over treasures was a common occurrence everywhere, and it was common even in his nine-colored God race.

“I guess it’s a nine tribulations weapon!”

He laughed, his expression somewhat disdainful.

In the eyes of a Hierarch like him, a nine tribulations weapon wasn’t anything precious. Only these Emperor realm experts would treat it as a treasure.

However, at this moment, the young man reached out and pulled out a handful of golden things.

His eyes widened when he saw it.

F * ck!

Was this a F * cking celestial artifact?

Although it was a little broken, it was still a celestial artifact! There was also a bit of blood-colored soil on it. It was obvious that it had just been dug out.

His gaze immediately became a little hot.

“Hahaha! I didn’t expect my luck to be so good, what a pleasant surprise!” He smiled, his expression overjoyed.

A broken immortal artifact was a great treasure even for a reverent-God like him.

At this moment, the human youth raised his celestial artifact and roared, “Didn’t you guys want the treasure? Go and pick it up yourself! I don’t want this broken thing anymore!”

After he finished speaking, he casually threw the celestial artifact to the ground as if it was some kind of trash.

“F * ck!”

He almost cursed out loud.

That was a true God weapon level treasure, and you just F * cking casually threw it on the ground? He was being too disrespectful to his baby!

He was about to snatch the celestial artifact and kill the three venerable sovereigns.

However, someone was faster than him.

From a nearby pit, a few beams of divine light suddenly shot out and pounced on the immortal artifact that had been thrown down.

He was taken aback, but he recognized them as the great emperors of his nine-colored celestial race.

“Forget it. It’s just a broken celestial artifact. I won’t fight with them.” He stopped and didn’t attack again.

“Hahaha! The treasure is mine!”

One of the divine lights was the first to grab the immortal artifact and shouted excitedly.

“Mm! Not bad! It’d be perfect if we could keep the three human great emperors!” Seeing this, he nodded slightly with a smile.

However, at this moment, a sudden change occurred.

The human youth’s body suddenly sank as he charged toward the great emperors of the nine-colored celestial race. Then, his aura changed.

Previously, his aura was unstable and he was on the verge of collapsing, but now, he suddenly became extremely powerful. His entire body even bloomed with extremely bright divine light, like a small sun.

In this glow, the aura of a true immortal emanated. It was extremely sharp, as if it could cut through the sky and split the earth.

The smile on his face froze.

He was completely stunned.

'What ... What's going on?

Why did this guy suddenly seem like a different person? he looked like a young genius without any threat earlier, but now, he had suddenly become so powerful and fierce!

This change completely stunned him!

'Wait a minute, harmless, sinister old monster, overbearing and ruthless ...'

At this moment, he suddenly had an idea.

In an instant, he understood everything.

This guy was the old human monster he was looking for!

Then, his face twitched and turned red.

F * ck!

So it was this guy!

He had even squatted at the side and watched for a long time. Even he, a reverent-God, had been deceived by this guy!

What a disgrace!

What a great humiliation!

He clenched his fists, and the anger of shame and anger burned in his heart.

In the instant that he fell into a daze, a terrifying saber projection sliced through the air, killing the great emperor with the immortal artifact.

He was stunned again.

Then, his face twisted and became extremely ferocious.

Not only had this human bastard fooled him, but he had also killed a great emperor from his nine-colored celestial race right in front of him!

This humiliation was too great!

He really wanted to rush out right now and kill this bastard, but he couldn't, because there were still a few of his clansmen here. If they discovered his existence and spread this matter, he would lose all his face!

I'll endure!

He clenched his fists tightly and suppressed the anger and killing intent in his heart.

"I didn't expect that what they said was true. Harmless to humans and animals, sinister and cunning, yet domineering and ruthless. In this world, there really is a person who has all these qualities in one body!"

He narrowed his eyes and stared at the figure in the distance. He was even more shocked.

He had never expected that there would be such a person in this world!

Who was this person?

Why had he never heard of such a powerful figure in the human race?

For a time, his mind fell into extreme confusion.
