

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2601

“The ancestor is Suan ni!”

The rain master clan was filled with sorrowful cries.

The rain master clansmen were in disbelief.

In just one exchange, one of their patriarchs had his body pierced through and was injured, spitting out blood!

The white-haired old man was also shocked, and his mind was somewhat overwhelmed with shock.

Just now, she had activated a part of the power of the clan-protecting Grand array. But even so, she still could not block that halberd!

Whoosh!

Just as he was in shock, a sound of something breaking through the air was heard.

The white-robed figure had already appeared in front of him like a ghost. Under the dazzling immortal radiance, it was a cold face. The cold killing intent in his eyes made his heart tremble and his body turn cold.

Aooo!

A few deafening Dragon roars.

The true dragons behind the white-robed figure roared and pounced madly.

“Ah!”

His heart trembled violently, and he couldn't help but cry out in pain.

The opponent's true spirit was too powerful!

With his divine soul, he could not resist it at all and was completely suppressed.

Following that, there was another air-piercing explosion. His opponent had thrown a punch, hitting him right in the chest.

Pfft!

His entire body trembled and he immediately spat out a mouthful of blood as he flew backward.

“Hurry up! Quickly join forces!”

“This kid’s strength is too terrifying. We must join forces! Quickly get into formation!”

When he stopped, he shouted anxiously.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

The other two figures swept over from both sides, and the three of them stood together in a triangular formation.

Then, their bodies trembled, and each of them had a beam of immortal light shoot into the sky.

The three beams of immortal radiance instantly fused together and became one.

“A battle formation!”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow and mumbled.

Then, his expression turned serious.

This battle formation perfectly fused the auras of the three of them together, and it even had the effect of enhancing and enhancing them. The strength of three half-zhizun realm experts with true spirits of eight to nine thousand feet was not to be underestimated.

“Brat, to be able to force the three of us to this extent, you should be proud!”

Rain Master Huang Tian stood at the head of the group, gritting his teeth as he shouted.

They had only used this formation in the battlefield of the divines and Infernals to kill many of the nine color race’s venerable sovereigns.

“Don’t talk nonsense with him. We must cripple him today!”

The white-haired old man shouted, his eyes filled with killing intent.

This kid’s talent was too terrifying. To any faction, making such a huge enemy was a nightmare.

Only by taking advantage of today’s opportunity to suppress this fellow and completely cripple him would his rain master clan be able to survive.

As long as they joined forces and borrowed the power of the protective array, they would have a chance!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

From all directions of the rain master clan below, beams of divine light shot into the sky and surged toward the three.

The auras of the three of them continued to rise.

Clang! Clang!

All of a sudden, a loud Bell rang from the bottom of the deep lake in the rain master clan.

Then, hualala! The entire lake's water surface began to churn violently, especially at the center. The water surface surged violently, as if something was trying to break out.

"This is ... The aura of a true God!"

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he looked over.

"That's right! This is the Supreme treasure left behind by our rain clan's ancestor!" Rain Master Huang Tian shouted.

In the next moment, the surface of the water suddenly exploded, and an ancient Bell rushed out.

The ancient Bell was black and simple. There were only a few crooked tadpole-like patterns carved on it, but the aura it exuded was extremely shocking.

As soon as the bell appeared, it immediately hung high above the lake and rang.

A pitch-black Wave of water gushed out from the ancient Bell and instantly transformed into the appearance of a God spirit. Furthermore, it expanded rapidly and soon grew to a size of 10000 feet, like a giant God.

"The bell again!"

Tang Hao mumbled as he looked at the ancient Bell.

Qi Yuan's rain master clan also had a Bell called the divine rain Bell. Although it was very different from this one, and the grade was also different, it was enough to show how much the rain master clan liked this kind of treasure.

"Brat, die!"

At this moment, rain Master Huang Tian shouted.

The godly spirit formed by the black water roared at the sky and took a step forward. Then, it waved its huge palm and slapped forward.

"Hmph!"

"Hmph!" Tang Hao snorted disdainfully. He raised his hand, and the immortal halberd flew toward him.

He grabbed the halberd and poured his celestial core power into it. Then, he threw it.

Whoosh!

The immortal halberd tore open the void and turned into a dazzling light, crashing into the palm of the black God.

Bang!

A deafening explosion.

The palm exploded, and black water splashed.

The ray of light also dimmed.

“Kid, let’s see how many times you can block it!”

Rain Master Huang Tian shouted again. He gathered the three of them and the power of the rain master clan’s formation to activate the divine Bell.

The black God’s palm recovered in an instant, and his body grew a little taller. His aura was even stronger.

The deity roared in anger and struck again.

Wherever the energy went, the void twisted and black cracks appeared.

“Hmph!” Tang Hao snorted again. He did not look afraid at all.

He reached out his hand and recalled the immortal halberd. Then, he poured his immortal essence into it and struck it out.

Then, in his dantian’s sea of Dao, a beam of celestial light shot out and turned into a celestial blade. The seven celestial beads embedded in it all bloomed with a dazzling celestial glow.

Weng Weng Weng!

The blade trembled continuously, releasing a shocking blade aura. The aura was extremely sharp, as if it could tear the sky and the earth.

“It’s so eye-piercing!”

In an instant, the rain master clan cried out in alarm.

Everyone raised their hands to cover their eyes, but they couldn’t look directly at the extremely bright celestial light in the air.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

The rays of blade light continued to slash out, bombarding the black God.

Then, a series of earth-shaking explosions sounded.

Piercing divine light constantly exploded, causing the world to lose its color.

Tang Hao held the immortal saber with both hands and poured his immortal essence into it. One after another, the saber rays poured down like torrents and attacked madly.

The black God's body kept exploding. First, it was his right arm. Then, half of his body was blown apart. He fell backward and smashed a large part of the palace.

"How is that possible?"

Seeing this, the rain master's three ancestors were stunned.

Could it be that this guy's celestial core power could not be exhausted?

He was alone, no matter how special his physique was, even if his immortal aperture could contain more immortal essence, there was a limit, he could not use the immortal weapon endlessly like he was now.

Bang!

There was another loud bang.

Just as the black God got up, another shocking blade light came down, completely splitting his body apart.

"How could this be ..."

Rain Master Huang Tian's entire body trembled as his expression became more and more dazed.

The scene before his eyes was completely out of his expectations.

He had thought that by gathering the three of them and the power of the formation to activate their clan's Supreme treasure together, they would be able to suppress this kid. But in the end, they couldn't suppress this kid at all!

"Hurry up! Hurry up and activate the Supreme treasure!"

At this time, the white-haired old man shouted, his expression extremely anxious. He saw the white-robed figure in front of him holding a ball of dazzling immortal radiance in his hand, walking over step by step.

Rain Master Huang Tian's body trembled as he woke up.

He looked ahead and was a little frightened. He hurriedly activated the ancient Bell and summoned another Black God.

However, it was already too late. The celestial light in front of him suddenly surged, and a 10000-foot Saber Light rushed out with a sky-splitting momentum.

“Hurry up! Quickly block it!”

The white-haired old man and the old woman screamed, their expressions filled with panic.

The ancient Bell immediately flew over and blocked in front of him.

Water shields formed in front of them, protecting them.

However, it was completely useless. With a clang, the ancient Bell was easily struck away, and the layers of water shields of the clan-protecting Grand array were also torn apart as if they were dried weeds.

The blade light was extremely sharp and invincible.

Puchi! Puchi!

A few light sounds.

The blade aura tore through all the shields and slashed down, splitting the rain Master Huang Tian’s body in two. At the same time, it also cut off half of the old woman’s shoulder.

Then, the three of them were shredded into pieces by the energy of the saber flare almost at the same time, and blood exploded.

“This kid is too terrifying!”

“Run! Activate the formation and gather all the clansmen to defend!”

When the three of them came back to life, their faces were extremely pale and their expressions were extremely frightened.

Only now did they realize that this brat was a monster that they couldn’t fight against. They screamed in panic and fled down, wanting to return to their clan and defend with the formation, the Supreme treasure, and the strength of their clan.

However, Tang Hao was faster than them. His mind flickered, and a blade of light was immediately fired at the rain master clan.

BOOM!

The saber Light fell down, blowing up the vast Palace on the Water and turning it into powder.

There were people shouting in panic and fleeing frantically everywhere.

“It’s not enough!”

The true dragons behind him immediately surged downward and destroyed the Yushi clan's Palace. They also uprooted all of the Yushi clan's formations and destroyed them.

"We're finished!"

The three figures that were running down instantly stopped.

The three of them looked at the palace that had been reduced to ruins, their faces ashen.

It's finished!

He was completely finished!

The Yushi clan's 10000-year foundation in the Holy region had been destroyed just like that!
