

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2612

Peng Peng Peng!

A series of explosions shook the entire God Spirit Mountain like thunder.

Under the horrified gazes of the descendants of the gods on the mountain and the human cultivators in all directions, the green divine light beams were blasted back one after another, and blood spurted out and scattered in the air.

“It’s too ferocious!”

Many xiuzhe couldn’t help but sigh in praise.

After all, they were the descendants of gods, the descendants of ancient gods. They were born with powerful bodies and divine abilities. Humans of the same level would be crushed by them.

Now, these descendants of gods had been turned around and were crushed and swept away by human cultivators.

Bang!

There was another explosion.

The last member of the Qingshen clan was also sent flying away.

He didn’t use any fancy divine arts, just a punch. He shattered the arm inch by inch and then hit the chest. The descendant of gods immediately spat out blood and flew up with a miserable cry.

“This guy ... Is too terrifying!”

His body ... Is even stronger than the divine body of our green God clan!”

His face was deathly pale, and he had a terrified expression on his face. He had been frightened by the strength of his opponent.

He naturally knew that this human’s physical body was very strong and could easily defeat the mysterious underworld elder and the Holy Son of his green God clan. However, after experiencing it personally, he finally knew how terrifying this fellow’s physical body was.

He didn’t dare to believe that this was really a human’s body!

This body could be compared to the donghuang clan, which was the strongest clan among all the God clans.

And this was something that no beginning could not have done back then!

Wu Shi was known as the number one immortal and the great emperor. He could be said to be the most powerful figure born in the human tribe in tens of thousands of years. But even such a peerless figure did not have such a terrifying body at the eighth tribulation!

This brat had refined eight true spirits and was not even a hundred years old ...

If he could really advance to the Supreme Being realm, he would probably be the second no beginning and the second motherf * cking human King.

“There’s only so few people, not enough to fight!”

After sending the last person flying, Tang Hao reached out his hand and recalled his immortal halberd. He raised his eyes and looked at the group of descendants of gods above him.

“Hmph! Human brat, don’t be so arrogant!”

“Have a taste of the power of my Taiyin clan’s divine arts!”

Many descendants of the gods couldn’t stand it and jumped out.

One of them had three eyes. His body was as thin as a stick, and his skin was dark. In the middle of his brows, above the third eye, there was a crystal. It looked like a moon with a missing corner, and it was blooming with bright divine light.

These were the descendants of the ancient deity, the Taiyin clan.

Following that, more and more Taiyin clansmen walked out from behind him. On their foreheads, the moon that was missing a corner lit up.

Balls of divine light bloomed from their bodies, and the shadows of full moons appeared.

From a distance, it looked as if a dozen full moons had suddenly appeared on the godly Spirit Mountain.

At the same time, their third eyes trembled and gradually opened. A ray of divine light began to form in them, emitting an extremely cold aura.

“The divine light of the great Yin!”

Tang Hao looked around and understood immediately.

He was extremely familiar with the techniques of the Taiyin clan. On the fallen Dao mountain, there was the inheritance of the deity of the Taiyin clan.

Without hesitation, he threw the immortal halberd at one of them.

The man was shocked, and the divine light he was nurturing had to be activated in advance, blasting toward the immortal halberd.

Bang!

The divine light of the sun Moon collided with the immortal halberd and exploded into a boundless brilliance. The violent Qi spread out and shook the body of the sun Moon tribesman, almost causing him to fall back.

Tang Hao recalled the immortal halberd and continued to attack.

Another sun Moon tribesman was interrupted by him and blasted out divine light in advance.

“Hurry up! Let’s attack together and turn this detestable human brat into dust!”

The remaining few people were a little anxious. If this continued, they would be defeated by this kid one by one.

They gritted their teeth and activated it with all their might. The third eye immediately opened, and the divine light suddenly surged.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Almost at the same time, a dozen pitch-black divine lights shot out and blasted toward the figure below.

“Break!”

Tang Hao was fearless. He stepped forward and punched the divine light.

BOOM!

At the same time, monstrous flames of anger surged out of his body. He rushed out with this punch.

Bang!

As the divine light came, there was a loud bang and an explosion of light.

Tang Hao’s body did not fall. On the contrary, the divine light of the moon was dimmed by the attack.

Peng Peng Peng!

In the next moment, the remaining divine lights came at the same time and struck Tang Hao.

His body trembled and he was forced to retreat.

A dozen half-step Supreme elders of Sun Moon tribe activated their tribe’s strongest supernatural power at the same time. The power was indeed extraordinary. He almost couldn’t withstand it and was sent flying.

Seeing this, the human xiuzhe’s hearts tightened.

This kid ... Was he going to lose?

As for the descendants of the deity, they were all overjoyed.

That kid can't hold on any longer!

"The divine light of Taiyin is indeed extraordinary! It's a pity that it's still a little lacking!"

However, in the next moment, the figure stabilized himself. He stood there against the dozens of beams of Taiyin divine light, as steady as a mountain.

Then, his body trembled. With a few clanking sounds, rays of divine light rushed out and instantly formed a battle armor on his body. On the chest area of the battle armor, there was an extremely bright glow, as dazzling as the light of stars.

BOOM!

The armor shook slightly, and the figure's aura soared at a terrifying speed. The immortal radiance on his body also became more and more brilliant.

In the end, with a boom, an extremely terrifying force exploded from the figure, causing their divine Yin light to explode.

"This ... Is for you!"

Tang Hao grabbed the blood slaughterer and activated it crazily. Then, he slashed at the sun Moon tribe.

Whoosh!

There was no blade light, but the void was torn apart. At the same time, the group of Sun Moon tribesmen was also torn apart. Their bodies were cut in half.

This blade was too fast. The group of Sun Moon tribesmen did not even have time to react. After a few breaths, they realized that they had been cut in half. Their bodies had been cut in two. They immediately screamed in horror.

Hiss!

Seeing this scene, everyone around couldn't help but gasp.

He had resisted more than ten rays of sun Moon divine light and even cut off the bodies of more than ten Sun Moon tribesmen with a backhand slash. This kind of strength was too terrifying. It had completely exceeded the average half-step to Supreme!

"It should be because of that armor. His combat strength has been multiplied!"

"What kind of armor is that? What a shocking aura, it's like immortal armor!"

All the cultivators looked at the armor with bewilderment.

This armor didn't have the Qi of a true immortal, so it didn't look like an immortal armor. However, judging from its Qi, it was almost as strong as some immortal armor. It was really incredible!
