

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2622

The atmosphere around the divine Spirit Mountain continued to boil.

No one left. The xiuzhe were all gathered together, discussing enthusiastically, their expressions excited.

Their gazes were all directed at the white-robed young man in the middle, who was surrounded by many people. Their eyes were filled with strong admiration and respect.

The people around the young man were all Supremes. They were the top figures in the Holy region. They were all complimenting the young man with great enthusiasm.

This scene was too shocking!

However, they didn't find it strange, because that young man was the alchemy ancestor who invented the many children divine pill and benefited the entire Holy region. He was worthy of the warm compliments of these Supreme martial artists.

Although he was born in the lower realm and was only an ordinary elder of the divine temple, his status would change from today on. He would be respected as the alchemy ancestor and could be on equal footing with the Supremes.

What five prologue? they could no longer be mentioned in the same breath as him.

The status of the five progressors was equivalent to that of normal xiuzhe. It was indeed very high, but it could not be compared to those at the Supreme level.

"Who would've thought that he'd be the pill ancestor! He's too young!"

"Yup! It was too amazing! Our pill world will be very lively in the future!"

Among the cultivators, some alchemists were the most excited.

After the multi-child divine pill became famous, they were the ones who called out the title of the alchemy ancestor. They were also the firm believers of this person.

After learning that this brat from the lower realm was the alchemy ancestor, they were just as shocked and in disbelief as the others.

But then, he became excited.

The fact that this young man was able to invent the progeny divine pill at such a young age proved that he was extremely talented. With him around, the pill world of the Holy region would be able to flourish even more.

On the true dragon warship.

Tang Bukong raised his head and looked at the scene above him. He clenched his fists so hard that they cracked. He was so jealous that he was about to go crazy.

Not only did this brat's reputation not stink, but it instead soared to the peak all of a sudden, becoming some alchemy ancestor, a Supreme level figure!

He could not accept this difference.

"Let's go!"

The more he looked, the more unbearable it was. The compliments from all around were even more piercing to his ears.

He immediately turned around and shouted.

Soon, the ship started and left awkwardly under the strange gazes of all the cultivators.

"F * ck!"

In the crowd, Liu heihu also cursed, looking a little depressed.

He was still waiting to see that Tang kid make a fool of himself. In the end, that kid was in the limelight again. What the hell was this?

"I'm not looking! I'm not looking! The more I look, the more uncomfortable I feel!"

He mumbled to himself and turned to leave, heading straight back to the temple.

The Yao clan people who had been gloating were now in a daze. Many of them were even terrified.

They were shouting so happily just now. If this kid heard them and remembered them, they would be finished!

Previously, they had really thought that the kid was going to be captured by the great void master and imprisoned in the ice hell for ten years. That was why they dared to be so unscrupulous. But now, the kid was completely fine and even called a group of Supreme martial artists his brother.

With their status and connections, it would be too easy to kill them.

"Let's go!"

They turned around in fear and ran away.

They could only pray that the kid did not notice them, so that they could avoid this disaster.

"Brother Tang, remember to visit my ye clan! When my sons and daughters come out of the spirit wheel, I will invite everyone to a banquet. At that time, you should come too!"

After a while, Supreme ye laughed and waved goodbye to Tang Hao.

“I will! I will!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands.

“Al! Don’t just remember the ye clan, my Hong clan is also not bad! You must remember to come and visit!” The Hong clan’s Supreme martial artist was not to be outdone. He patted Tang Hao’s shoulder and laughed.

Then, the group of Supreme martial artists said their goodbyes and left.

“Hu!”

After sending off the last person, Tang Hao could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

Dealing with this group of Supreme martial artists wasn’t easy!

“Let’s go!”

Elder Ling Qing stepped forward and smiled.

Then, he glanced at Yu Shiyan who was standing behind Tang Hao.

“Fellow Daoist Yushi, I’ll make some arrangements for you later. From now on, you’ll be an elder of my temple.” He said with a smile.

“Many thanks, elder!”

Yu Shiyan bowed.

“Al! Please don’t be so polite!”

Elder Ling Qing chuckled as she stroked her beard.

“Many thanks, everyone!”

Tang Hao followed elder Ling Qing and flew forward for a distance. He then cupped his hands toward the alchemy gods and thanked them.

“No need!”

“If you really want to thank us, let’s have a good exchange of alchemy techniques later. That’ll do!”

The few alchemy gods laughed heartily.

Then, the group of them headed towards the temple.

When they arrived at the temple, elder lingqing quickly completed the procedures and arranged a cave abode.

Tang Hao sent her to the entrance of the cave abode.

“Many thanks!”

Yu Shiyuan stood at the entrance and bowed deeply.

“No need! Speaking of which, this matter was somewhat caused by me, so this is what I should do.” Tang Hao said.

“These are Nirvana pills. You’ve already lost 10000 blood. After taking these Nirvana pills, you’ll be able to achieve Nirvana very quickly. These are some wood element tribulation artifacts. They can help you withstand the lightning tribulation and attack the 8th tribulation!”

Then, he took out a few rings and handed them over. They were all treasures that he had prepared.

Even though the rain clan’s patriarchs were the ones who had caused this incident, sovereign Taixu had undoubtedly played a role in adding fuel to the fire. He still felt somewhat apologetic for implicating her.

“I’ll give you a few more aperture opening pills after you pass the Tribulation!” Tang Hao said.

The supply of aperture opening pills was tight, and he didn’t have any extra.

“En!”

Yushi min responded in a low voice and took the item.

She lifted her head and looked at Tang Hao. Her clear, beautiful eyes were glistening with radiance.

“Then ... I’ll take my leave first. If there’s anything, you can come to the cave to find me!”

Tang Hao said.

“En!”

“Yes,” she replied softly again as she watched him turn around and fly into the distance.

After the figure had disappeared for a long time, she stood there and looked at him in a daze.

After a while, she came back to her senses and turned around to look. Then, she looked down at the Rings in her palm and couldn’t help but purse her lips and smile.

Although they did not manage to take their relationship to the next level, it was still a happy thing to be able to live in this Sacred Palace and be closer to him!

Then, she turned around and entered the cave.

After leaving the cave abode area, Tang Hao went to the alchemy Pavilion and had a good chat with the alchemy gods to repay them.

After that, he went to take on a large number of aperture opening pill missions.

The supply of aperture opening pills in the hall had always been tight, and there were not many in stock. Now that sis Xiangyi and the others had reached great emperor, they were in urgent need of a large number of aperture opening pills.

In addition to the aperture opening pills that he had to give to the creation sect in the future, the gap was even greater.

Therefore, he was prepared to spend some time to refine another batch.

He received a total of 300 sets of materials before returning to his cave abode.
