

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2650

The roars of the Dragon and the ape shook the world.

The two giant beasts rolled together, biting and wrestling. Their bodies were extremely huge, millions of feet tall and millions of feet long. As they rolled, mountains were crushed one after another.

BOOM!

With a thunderous sound, the earth trembled.

The black ape roared continuously as its eyes glowed with a blood-red light. It waved its huge palm and slapped, tearing at the Black Dragon's body. However, it could not break through the black Dragon's hard scales.

Every bite of the Black Dragon left a deep gash on the black ape's body, and golden blood flowed out.

The blood was steaming with extremely dense immortal Qi.

"What a waste!"

Tang Hao slapped his thigh anxiously.

This giant ape was a great ancient beast. It was unknown how many years it had lived. Ordinary Supreme martial artists would not dare to provoke it. One could only imagine how precious its blood was. It would be a waste of a heavenly treasure if it was wasted.

"Go!"

Tang Hao did not dare to go there personally, so he sent out a split soul with the bottle to collect the blood.

The black ape's strength was obviously inferior to the Black Dragon's. After a short battle, it appeared to be on the losing end. Half of its face had been bitten off by the Black Dragon, and its body was covered in blood, looking a little miserable.

The Black Dragon became more and more excited after being stained with the blood. It opened its mouth wide and bit off half of the black ape's shoulder. It chewed a few times and swallowed it.

Tang Hao's eyes burned with desire.

That was the meat of a nine tribulation fierce beast. Even a small piece of it was comparable to the meat of an eight tribulation fierce beast.

"It seems like it's time!"

Tang Hao knew that his chance had come when he saw the black ape gradually lose its strength and get bound by the Black Dragon, which then began to devour it.

The black ape had lost all its strength to resist, while the Black Dragon was busy devouring the flesh and blood, so it would not care about him.

“Eh? Who is that?”

Just as he was about to rush out, he suddenly heard a sharp hiss from the distance.

Following that, an incomparably huge bird descended from the sky and grabbed at the Black Dragon.

“Heaven splitting Sparrow!”

Tang Hao was shocked. It was another ancient beast.

This heaven splitting Sparrow was as large as the giant ape. When it spread its wings, it covered the sky and its might was monstrous.

“You little flat-haired thing, you’re looking for death!”

The Black Dragon was furious. It raised its head and opened its mouth, shooting out a beam of shocking divine light.

Buzzzzzz!

The heaven splitting Sparrow let out a cry and used its wings to block the attack.

Bang!

The boundless divine light exploded and the heaven splitting Sparrow was immediately forced back.

This heaven splitting Sparrow’s cultivation realm was still inferior to the Black Dragon’s.

The Black Dragon let go of the giant ape and took advantage of the momentum to bite the wing of the heaven splitting Sparrow. With a fierce tug, it tore off a large piece of the wing, chewed it a few times, and swallowed it.

As for the heaven splitting Sparrow, it let out a few miserable shrieks and its expression became crazed.

He angrily howled and began to fight with the Black Dragon.

On the other side, the heavily injured black ape stood up and joined the battle.

Before Tang Hao could recover from his shock, another great beast arrived, accompanied by a deafening howl. It joined the battle, and the battle became even more intense.

The four great beasts were all enormous beasts, and their battle was earth-shattering, creating an extremely terrifying scene.

“How did this happen?”

Tang Hao stood where he was with a grave expression on his face.

According to his plan, he would first take care of the black ape, then deal with the other great beasts. But he didn't expect the heaven-splitting Sparrow and the blood Wolf to come uninvited and join forces with the black ape to fight the Black Dragon.

“Oh right! The great beasts here should all be of similar strength and have maintained a relative balance over the years. However, the Black Dragon's arrival has broken this balance and made them feel uneasy, so they have joined forces. ”

Tang Hao quickly understood.

The Black Dragon's strength was too powerful, causing these great beasts to feel fear.

“This is also good! The more chaotic it is, the greater my chances!”

Tang Hao wanted the situation to be as chaotic as possible.

“It's almost time!”

After observing for a while, Tang Hao made his move.

If he didn't make a move now, he was afraid that other Supreme martial artists would also come after these treasure chests.

He tore open the void and shuttled through it. In the next moment, he was behind the black ape. This black ape was the most seriously injured and was also the least threatening. This treasure chest was the easiest to obtain.

After he flashed, he reached out with his palm to take the treasure chest down. However, when he pulled hard, the treasure chest did not move.

“F * ck!”

He took a closer look and saw that the chest was nailed to the black ape with divine materials.

The black ape seemed to have noticed him. It put its left hand behind its back and tried to grab him.

Tang Hao made a prompt decision. He grabbed the bloody Butcher knife and activated it crazily. He then activated the world-destroying sacred Thunder and wrapped it around the knife.

Tang Hao grabbed the treasure chest and quickly retreated.

Then, he escaped into the void and retreated to a safe area.

“I’ve finally got it!”

Tang Hao was extremely excited as he held the treasure chest in his arms.

There must be the best treasure inside!

He fumbled around and unlocked the mechanism on the treasure chest. The moment the lid was opened, a dense green divine light leaked out, and a powerful Qi of true immortality hit him in the face.

A celestial artifact!

It was a complete true immortal weapon!

“That’s great!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed.

He was really lacking in celestial artifacts. He only had one complete one. The bloody Butcher knife and the celestial halberd were incomplete, and they had been given to mo hun.

“It’s a gun!”

He opened it and took a closer look. Tang Hao’s breath caught in his throat.

A ball of green light floated in the box, and there was a green spear inside. It was elegantly shaped and extremely beautiful. It was surrounded by fine sand that surged like clouds. It was crystal clear and bright, like a dream.

“It should be the treasure of a fairy!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

The design and style of this gun were too beautiful and dreamy. It didn’t look like it was made by a man.

However, it didn’t matter to him. Whether it was a fairy or a male fairy, this was a good celestial artifact!

“Azure smoke spear! That’s a good name!”

Tang Hao reached out and grabbed the spear.

In an instant, countless pieces of information surged into his mind. They were left behind by the owner of the divine spear.

“Good treasure!”

Tang Hao easily obtained the Spear's acknowledgment without any trials. He successfully refined it and gained complete control over it.

He waved it a few times and couldn't help but be extremely happy.

Just this divine spear alone was worth the risk.

"There are three more, oh no, four treasure chests!"

Tang Hao looked toward the battlefield and saw another great beast approaching from the distance. It was a Giant Tiger that was half black and half white.

He watched for a moment and waited for an opportunity to attack again.

This time, his target was the heaven splitting Sparrow.

This heaven splitting Sparrow's injuries were also very serious, so it was less of a threat.

With the experience from last time, Tang Hao activated the bloody Butcher knife as soon as he appeared.

Kachaa!

With a swing of the saber, the rainbow treasure chest rolled into his arms.

Then, before the heaven-splitting Sparrow could react, he had fled and retreated.
