

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2651

“The second one!”

Tang Hao was grinning from ear to ear as he held the treasure chest in his arms.

The treasure chest just now was a celestial artifact. He wondered what kind of good treasure was in this treasure chest!

Filled with anticipation, he opened the treasure chest.

“This is ...?”

There was a white jade bottle in the box.

“Could it be a pill?”

Tang Hao took out the Jade bottle, opened the lid, and looked inside.

What surprised him was that it was not an elixir, but a wisp of ancient tai Chu Qi, the Qi of yin and yang.

“It’s alright!”

Tang Hao nodded.

This primordial Qi was rather precious. It could not be exchanged for or found. Only the divine temple had some.

Counting, he had only obtained three wisps of ancient Qi, two wisps of xuanhuang Qi, and one wisp of yin-yang Qi. Counting this wisp, he had four wisps.

Tang Hao put away the treasure and continued to look around.

The battle was still going on, and it was getting more and more intense.

The black ape, the sky-splitting Sparrow, the blood Wolf, and the yin-yang White Tiger joined forces to attack the Black Dragon.

But even so, the Black Dragon was still doing it with ease. It often sent its opponents flying or bit off a large piece of flesh. The four great beasts were all injured. They were either missing a piece here or there.

“Hahaha! It felt great! Is there more? come on, let’s do it together!”

The Black Dragon became more and more excited. With every mouthful of flesh it swallowed, its body would expand a little, and its aura would become more terrifying.

“Aowu!”

The blood Wolf raised its head and let out a deafening howl.

Very quickly, all around the world, great beasts kept raising their heads and looking in the direction of the wolf howls.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The earth began to shake, and sharp howls came from the sky, indicating that there were many huge beasts approaching.

“Heavens! What’s going on?”

At this moment, in an ancient forest, a Supreme martial artist who was catching immortal herbs suddenly raised his head and saw a huge beast passing by not far from him. Then, there was another roar from the other side, and another huge beast came ...

When he looked up again, he was shocked to find that there were also giant beasts flying in the sky.

When he flew into the air and looked around, he was completely stunned.

One, two, three ...

With just a glance, he saw the figures of more than a dozen giant beasts, each of which was terrifyingly large. They were walking in the mountains, exuding a shocking aura and shrouded in a shocking fighting spirit, like ancient demon gods.

Their destination was the same.

“What’s going on?”

The Supreme martial artist looked around and felt his scalp go numb.

This scene was too terrifying!

That was a dozen ancient beasts!

What were they going to do? What was attracting them from afar?

“Something big must have happened over there!”

He took a deep breath and calmed his mind. After these great evils were far away, he followed them.

This scene was playing out all over the ninth floor.

One by one, the Supreme-beings, who had concealed their auras and were collecting treasures, were alarmed by this shocking abnormality. They could no longer hold back and rose into the air one after another. They activated their divine eyes to look, and what they saw shocked them to the core.

Almost all the great beasts on this level moved and walked towards the same place in this world.

“What’s going on?”

“I’ve never seen anything like this!”

They all cried out in shock.

When they followed the direction of the great beasts and looked into the distance, they were stunned again and revealed an expression of extreme disbelief.

There, an earth-shaking battle was taking place. Four great peril beasts were surrounding a Black Dragon.

And that Black Dragon actually had the upper hand, firmly crushing those four great beasts to death.

“Heavens! What kind of monster is that!”

“Is this the origin of that dragon roar? But there doesn’t seem to be any Dragons on this floor, right?”

The group of Supreme martial artists was extremely bewildered.

They had been to the ninth level a few times and were very clear about the situation here. There were only about 30 great beasts, and this Black Dragon was not among them.

“Wait, I think I’ve seen this Dragon before. Last time, no, the last time I came here, I entered a cave and saw a Black Dragon Bound by chains. It should be this one!”

Suddenly, a Supreme martial artist tried to recall and remembered.

“Bound by chains?”

When the nearby Supreme martial artists heard this, they couldn’t help but turn pale.

These great evils that could move freely were already very terrifying. How terrifying would the great evils that were bound by chains and suppressed underground be?

“I remember that he was clearly suppressed. The chains and the formation were all intact. How could he have escaped?” The Supreme martial artist continued, “could it be that someone let him out? That’s impossible! That’s a formation set up by a true immortal! Who can break it?”

The Supreme martial artists around him also frowned, their faces full of doubt.

“Let’s go and take a look! Maybe we can take advantage of it!”

A Supreme martial artist suddenly said.

The others were stunned at first, then came to a realization.

That's right! Wasn't this a God-given opportunity?

"Let's go!"

They immediately headed in that direction.

Obviously, there were many Supreme martial artists who had such thoughts. Beams of divine light shot out from all directions of this world and followed these great beasts to the battlefield.

They were all prepared to watch and find an opportunity to make a move.

"Eh? Who is that?"

However, at this moment, they saw a figure shuttling back and forth in the chaotic battle. They saw him sweep to the abdomen of a Blood Wolf, swiftly cut down the treasure chest, put it in his bag, and then escape.

His series of actions were as smooth as floating clouds and flowing water. It was unbelievably fast.

The blood Wolf didn't react at all and didn't have the time to care.

All the Supreme martial artists were dumbfounded.

Before they could react, that figure appeared again. He flashed to the side of a great beast, aimed at the treasure chest, and slashed down. The entire process only took a few breaths, faster than lightning.

"F * ck! It's too fast!"

"Who the F * ck is this!"

After the Supreme martial artists recovered from their shock, they shouted one after another.

They had never expected that someone would beat them to it. Furthermore, this person's movements were so familiar. It was definitely not the first time. They did not know how many treasure chests he had collected. This made them a little jealous.

"It's brother Tang!"

Suddenly, a surprised shout was heard. It was the ye clan's Supreme martial artist.

"Hey! It really is!" The Hong clan's Supreme martial artist chimed in and laughed.

"It's him!"

The rest of the Supreme martial artists were all shocked and in disbelief.

Although this brat was known as the ancestor of alchemy and was on the same level as them, he was not a true Supreme martial artist. How would he dare to come to the ninth level and appear in front of a group of great beasts?

Wasn't he afraid that he would be killed by these vicious beasts with a single slap if he made a mistake?

If they were swallowed by that terrifying Black Dragon, they would lose their lives!

"Look, he's moving again! He's taken in another one!"

"How many is this already!"

Then, there were continuous exclamations of shock from all directions.

The group of Supreme martial artists stood in the distance, watching the figure shuttling back and forth between the great beasts and cutting down treasure chests one after another. Their faces were filled with shock.
