

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2674

In the sky above the battlefield, a sea of lightning rolled with a terrifying aura.

The aura of the Thunder tribulation had already spread to half of Qi Yuan planet, attracting the attention of countless people.

Even the two parties who were fighting in the starry sky noticed the sea of lightning that had appeared in the sky above the stars below.

“Someone’s going through a tribulation!”

“Who is he?”

After they saw it clearly, they were both shocked and confused.

When did the human race produce such a shocking monster who had cultivated 20 true spirits that were 10000 feet long!

As for those Dragon count giant gods, they were also a little puzzled.

They didn’t know why, but they sensed an unusual aura from this human ant, which made them feel a sense of fear.

It was as though there was a power within this human that they were afraid of.

However, they could not see clearly what kind of power it was.

As the commotion spread, in the distant starry sky, the true immortals who were fighting fiercely, causing the void to collapse and the stars to shatter, gradually noticed it. Immediately, a beam of light swept over from a distance.

It was a silver giant God with eight arms and a pair of wings on his back. His entire body shone with dazzling divine light.

His body was huge, and the stars around him were the size of footballs.

This was not a God, but an immortal!

This was an immortal spirit body that had been refined by a true immortal!

“Eh? What is this?”

He swept his gaze and was stunned, revealing a look of disbelief.

“That’s the self! A complete self body!” He cried out in shock, unable to believe his eyes.

The self body of great success!

It had been a long time since anyone had refined it! Even the Dao of self was something that very few people dared to cultivate!

But now, someone had done it, and he had refined twenty true spirits!

This kind of aptitude was simply too heaven-defying!

He definitely had the potential to become an immortal Emperor!

“Self Dao? It’s this damn heaven-defying Dao again!”

“Could it be another heaven destroyer?”

The Dragon counts at the true immortal realm also swept their gazes over and discovered the existence of their true bodies. They whispered among themselves, and their expressions were slightly fearful.

Even though their Dragon count divine clan had always thought highly of themselves and looked down on the human race, treating them like ants, they had no choice but to admit that there were indeed some formidable figures within the human race. Some of them were even feared by their divine clan.

One of them was sky-destroying immortal Emperor!

This was a terrifying existence that could contend against the few ancestral gods of his celestial race!

And this person’s most powerful sacred art was the Dao of self!

“Kill! Kill this demon!”

“I can’t let him grow!”

The group of Dragon counts muttered in low voices, and their killing intent was dense.

A few of them turned around and were about to charge towards planet Qi Yuan.

However, they were stopped very quickly. In this part of the starry sky, an even more intense battle broke out. Stars constantly exploded, and there were also giant gods whose bodies and heads were crushed in the battle. The battle was tragic.

“Come on!”

On Qi Yuan star, Tang Hao stood in the void and looked straight at the sea of lightning.

Perhaps in the eyes of other half-zhizun realm experts, this lightning tribulation was extremely terrifying. However, in his eyes, this was nothing. He had even survived an even more terrifying world-destroying lightning tribulation.

“Boom boom boom!”

The sea of lightning surged, as if it was enraged.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

After a while, bolts of lightning struck down at almost the same time, striking the 20 true spirits.

Aooo!

Roar!

The true dragon and the wizard ancestor were roaring. They were bathed in the lightning, but they did not move.

The true dragons turned around and charged up to meet the lightning tribulation.

Very quickly, the first wave of tribulation lightning dispersed and he easily withstood it.

All the cultivators were stunned.

This was way too easy!

Didn't they say that the ninth tribulation was very difficult?

“There are still 80 more. Let's see how you're going to hold on!”

In the distance, the great void sovereign gritted his teeth in anger as he watched this scene.

He couldn't wait for this brat to fail the Tribulation and have his divine soul wiped out by the lightning tribulation. That way, he would still have a chance to grab the body.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

Wave after wave of tribulation lightning struck down.

Tang Hao was still as relaxed as ever. He easily withstood the twenty true spirits.

Ten!

Twenty!

Another thirty!

Under the shocked gazes of countless living beings, the lightning tribulation quickly passed and entered the late stage. Although each wave was stronger than the last, it still couldn't shake the true spirits.

“The Seventy-ninth Dao! It's almost there!”

” 80!”

“This is the last one!”

At this moment, everyone held their breath, their expressions nervous.

“I’ve succeeded!”

When they saw that the Tribulation lightning had finally dispersed and the 20 true spirits were still intact, they were first stunned, then they burst into an uproar.

The four sides were completely boiling.

Another nine tribulations Supreme martial artist had been born!

Furthermore, he was a heaven-defying genius with 20 true spirits!

“Congratulations, little friend Tang!”

The Supreme-beings from all four sides had already congratulated him.

After surviving the lightning tribulation, the lightning tribulation would be considered over. The next step was to accept the transformation of the Qi of heaven and earth, strengthen the body, rebuild the immortal mansion, and completely transform the true spirit into an uncrying true spirit.

The sea of lightning in the sky quickly dispersed. A pillar of light descended from the sky, enveloping Tang Hao and the twenty true spirits.

Within the light pillar, his Truesoul began to transform.

After being tempered by the 81 bolts of tribulation lightning, these true spirits had already undergone a qualitative change. Now that they had absorbed the purest Qi of heaven and earth, they began to transform and emitted an even more dazzling glow.

At the same time, Tang Hao’s physical body was also being strengthened. The immortal abode in his body had already disintegrated. He needed to rebuild the immortal abode, which would be the place where he would absorb the essence of the great Dao, turn it into a Taoist connotation, and then condense his Dao attainment.

This immortal estate was the foundation of his entire life, and it was extremely important.

Tang Hao had prepared for this long ago. He had countless ninth tribulation divine materials on him. There were all kinds of dragon bones, Qilin bones, and all kinds of rare gold and iron. There were countless of them, all of which were top-grade materials for refining an immortal mansion.

He flicked his sleeve, and countless divine materials flew out and began to refine.

At this moment, in the starry sky outside, many true immortals, Dragon counts, were rushing over with all their might. They grabbed pieces of broken stars and threw them at Qi Yuan star.

More true immortals and gods were trying their best to stop them.

“Little friend, this is a small token of my appreciation to help you refine the immortal estate!”

“Little friend, my broken body is useless now, so I’ll give it to you!”

Many true immortals grabbed the pieces of their bodies and sent them over.

To them, it was only a small fragment, but to Tang Hao, it was enormous.

These fragments were made of gold and iron, and they exuded a strong aura of true immortality. Moreover, they also emitted a strong Taoist connotation.

When the fragments landed in front of him, they automatically melted.

Tang Hao was stunned. He could not believe what he was seeing.

This was an immortal material!

Moreover, these were the bodies of genuine Immortals, which naturally carried a trace of Taoist connotation and was compatible with the great Dao. These materials were simply perfect for refining the immortal mansion.

After that, he would be able to condense his Taoist connotation much faster than those of the same level!
