

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2690

The tea was brewed three times.

After Three Cups of Tea, Tang Hao's immortal abode had already condensed three wisps of Taoist connotation.

He and Apotheon green bamboo talked about the advantages and disadvantages of the ancient alchemy techniques, some rare pill recipes, and how to increase the fertility of the spiritual soil.

When they were discussing this issue, Apotheon green bamboo mentioned a treasure that caught Tang Hao's attention.

"Speaking of spirit soil, I have to mention a treasure. Many people don't know that this treasure is a Supreme divine weapon of our medicinal world!"

"You know about the plain Jade Immortal King, right? She has a very powerful treasure called the Jade bottle of the origin. This bottle is very magical and can absorb the essence of the sun, moon, and heaven and earth, turning it into the purest spiritual liquid in the world. "

"And this spiritual liquid is also a Supreme divine item for watering spiritual soil and growing spiritual herbs."

"She's very low-key, so many people don't know the existence of this divine item. "

"The mixed element ... Jade bottle?"

Tang Hao mumbled. He was moved.

He suddenly remembered his magical Jade bottle.

That Jade bottle was definitely not an ordinary item. When he had obtained this Jade bottle on planet Dong Ling in the nine elements mountain, he had already guessed that it might be a celestial treasure.

Later on, he also slowly confirmed this guess.

Could it be that the Jade bottle was the so-called mixed element Jade bottle?

They were both Jade bottles, and they could absorb the essence of the sun and moon and turn them into spiritual liquid. It seemed to match!

"What color is this Jade bottle? Are there any special characteristics?"

Tang Hao asked.

“It’s white, like suet white jade, pure and flawless. As for its characteristics, there’s nothing special about it. It’s roughly like this.” Venerable green bamboo said. Then, he raised his hand and used a spell to create the shape of a Jade bottle.

Tang Hao’s eyes froze when he saw that.

There was no mistake!

It was exactly the same!

His magical Jade bottle was the so-called mixed element Jade bottle, a treasure of an Immortal King.

“It’s a Celestial king’s treasure. No wonder!”

He mumbled, but then he came to a realization.

Genuine Immortals had several levels. The ordinary genuine immortal, then the Golden immortal, the zenith heaven golden immortal, and then the immortal King. Even in the glorious prehistoric times, there were only a few immortal kings. They were second only to the immortal Emperor and the great gods of ancient times, so their treasures were naturally extraordinary.

“Since it’s a Celestial king’s treasure, how did it end up on planet Dong Ling?”

Then, he was puzzled again.

“Maybe in the next battle, the heavens and earth collapsed, and the treasure passed through the cracks in the void and leaked to planet Dong Ling!”

He secretly guessed.

This was the most likely scenario that he could think of.

“What, you’ve seen it before?”

Venerable green bamboo asked when he saw Tang Hao’s strange expression.

“I’ve never seen him! I’m just curious!” Tang Hao came back to his senses and smiled. “By the way, is there any other use for this mixed element Jade bottle besides turning it into spiritual liquid?”

“No, it’s not. It’s a rare treasure and only has this use. However, just this use is enough. This is a treasure of the Dao of plants and vegetation, a Supreme divine artifact!” Venerable green bamboo said.

His tone was filled with envy.

“The spiritual liquid in the Jade bottle can’t compare to the green wood divine liquid, can it?” Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

The green wood divine liquid was recognized as the world's top essence of plants and vegetation. He had obtained many drops of it from the resurrected green wood Divine Spirit, and its effect was definitely far better than the celestial water.

"Green wood divine liquid? That's also a divine item!"

Green bamboo nodded her head,"however, that item is too hard to obtain. A green wood godly spirit would need hundreds of years to condense just a tiny bit of it. It's too rare. However, this treasure bottle is different. It can continuously condense spiritual liquid at an extremely fast speed."

"If the treasure bottle is activated to the extreme, the spiritual liquid condensed is actually not much worse than the divine liquid of green wood."

"Oh? Is it like this?"

Tang Hao's expression changed when he heard that.

The spiritual liquid that he had conjured from the Jade bottle was far from being comparable to the green wood divine liquid!

That's right, maybe it's because it hasn't been refined yet, so the Jade bottle's effects haven't been fully displayed.

When his clone and the others came out, he would try again to see if he could refine it. If he could refine it, the effect of the spirit liquid would be stronger, allowing him to cultivate more spirit herbs, solving the problem of his lack of celestial water in one fell swoop.

As they chatted, they drank another cup of tea.

They were so excited that they forgot the time.

When he came back to his senses, half a day had already passed.

"You should go now. These two tea leaves are for you!" Venerable green bamboo took two tea leaves, put them in a box, and handed them over.

"This ..."

Tang Hao wanted to decline, but when he remembered that the person was just an illusion, he hesitated for a moment before accepting the offer.

He raised his head, looked at venerable green bamboo and sighed in his heart.

If this person was real, how good would that be? he would have one more close friend.

In the real world, this person had died in battle long ago.

"Many thanks!"

Tang Hao accepted it solemnly, then stood up and bowed.

“Hey! Why are you being so polite?” Venerable green bamboo waved his hand and said with a smile.

He stood up and saw Tang Hao off.

Tang Hao left the attic and went to the herb garden. He left with Ji xuanmei.

Along the way, Ji xuanmei kept staring at him with a strange look in her eyes.

“What are you looking at me for?”

Tang Hao could not help but stop and ask.

“You’re too unbelievable!”

Ji xuanmei narrowed her eyes and sized him up. “That’s a true immortal! Although this isn’t the real world, they’re real here. They’re true immortals. You’re actually calling a true immortal a brother?”

“So what?”

Tang Hao was confused.

He had always been very friendly, and the other party was so enthusiastic, so wasn’t it normal to call him brother?

Even if he was a true immortal, he didn’t think there was anything wrong with it.

Ji xuanmei forced a smile and shook her head. “Take out that twenty-thousand-year soul fruit and give me half!”

“You can have this one!”

Tang Hao took out the soul fruit and threw it over.

“You’re giving me the entire one?”

Ji xuanmei was stunned.

“Yeah! Anyway, I still have one more!” Tang Hao said.

“Good! Then I won’t stand on ceremony and will accept it!”

Ji xuanmei reached out her hand and took the soul fruit, putting it into her bag. She looked a little excited. Her true spirit was already over 30000 feet long. As long as she absorbed this soul fruit, her true spirit would be able to break through 10000 feet, which would be enough for her to cross the heavenly Tribulation.

She looked up at Tang Hao. Suddenly, the corners of her lips curled up into a mischievous smile.

She tapped the ground with the tip of her foot and her figure glided over.

The next moment, she cupped Tang Hao's face with her fair fingers and kissed him.

After a while, she left and chuckled. Her charming and moving face was full of pride.

Tang Hao was stunned. After a while, he smiled wryly.

He began to regret why he had to go to the Ji clan in the first place, which caused him to provoke this Yao Ming and be unable to get rid of her.
