

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2702

“He’s out!”

The moment Tang Hao stepped out of the passage and into the square, someone noticed him.

A cry of surprise attracted the attention of everyone in the square.

They all turned around, their faces filled with excitement and eagerness.

“He’s really at the ninth tribulation?”

“That was fast!”

They looked at Tang Hao and exclaimed in admiration.

After they came out, they had heard people say that this person had successfully passed the Tribulation and advanced to the ninth tribulation.

When they first heard about it, they didn’t believe it, because who would choose to cross the Tribulation in this immortal land! If there was any mishap, that would be the outcome of death and destruction!

But later on, even Daoist Tianhong appeared and confirmed this. Only then did they believe that this person had truly transcended the Tribulation.

“Greetings, Supreme martial artist Tang!”

They bowed one after another and greeted him respectfully.

When they stood up, their expressions were somewhat shocked.

This was a young Supreme martial artist who was less than a hundred years old! The first in history!

“Everyone, there’s no need to be so polite!” Tang Hao smiled at them and waved his hand.

“Fellow Daoist! Congratulations!”

Daoist Tianhong landed with a whooshing sound and thanked Tang Hao with cupped hands.

The moment the lightning tribulation started, he noticed it and paid close attention to it.

“You’re too polite, fellow Daoist!”

Tang Hao returned the gesture.

“Brother Tang, congratulations! We’re now considered to be of the same generation!” The ye clan and Hong clan’s two Supreme martial artists laughed as they walked over and congratulated him.

Tang Hao exchanged pleasantries with them.

Cultivators from all directions gathered around him. Many people had just come out of the immortal land and heard this shocking news. They also gathered and squeezed to the front of the crowd, congratulating him.

For a time, the square became extremely lively.

“Hmph! This kid!”

A figure flashed past. The great void sovereign had come out.

He looked at the bustling crowd and his face darkened.

The person in the middle of the crowd was none other than that brat. Everyone was complimenting him, like a myriad of stars surrounding the moon, which made him extremely unhappy. The more glorious this guy was, the more annoyed he was.

After watching for a while, he snorted angrily and left with a livid face.

Soon, the Mahesvara Buddha also came out. He was stunned when he saw the crowd, and then his expression changed.

That kid had actually advanced!

He looked at it for a while, shook his head, and left.

To him, it was not important whether this kid advanced or not. His top priority was to develop the dojo well and restore Buddhism. Then, he would consider settling the score with this kid.

When the Tang family’s patriarch came out, he laughed and squeezed into the crowd. He started calling Tang Hao his brother, as if he wanted to prove to everyone how good their relationship was.

The crowd only gradually dispersed after a long time.

“Congratulations!”

Elder lingqing also came and bowed.

“Al! Elder, you don’t have to be so polite!” Tang Hao said.

“You’re a Supreme martial artist now, so your status is different!” Elder Ling Qing rose to her feet and laughed heartily. “I heard from senior Tian Hong that you’ve gained a lot from inside!”

“It’s alright, I have some gains!”

Tang Hao nodded.

Although he had not counted the items and did not know how many treasures were left in the ring, there was definitely a lot.

“That’s good! By the way, you’ve already advanced, what are your plans for the future?” Elder Ling Qing said.

“Plan?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“You’re already a Supreme martial artist, you can’t be an elder!” Elder Ling Qing could not help but laugh. “You have two choices. One is to stay in the sacred Hall and become one of the Supremes. The other is to leave the sacred Hall and establish a dojo.”

Everyone was shocked by his words.

Another Dao field was opened!

The sixth Dao field had just been opened not long ago, and now a new one was going to be opened?

The reason why the sixth Daoist Rite was established was because it was Buddhism. If an entire orthodoxy wanted to revive Buddhism, it needed the scale of a Daoist Rite to support it. How could this person support a Daoist Rite?

No matter how monstrous he was, he was only powerful on his own. The Fortune sect that he was in, although powerful, was only considered decent in the lower realm. Compared to the forces in the Holy region, it was nothing.

How could a force like that support a training hall?

One had to know that the size and status of the training hall were higher than the Super clans like the eight great families.

The original five great sites were all formed by the merging of the 33 heavens’ orthodoxies. Whether it was their Foundation or scale, they were all extremely shocking. For example, Jiutian temple was formed by the merging of nine ancient orthodoxies. Its scale and strength were all extremely powerful.

Even Tang Hao was surprised. He did not expect the divine temple to give him the choice to open a training hall.

The divine temple should not know about the true strength of the gate of fortune and the existence of the demon God clan! Tang Hao had never told Supreme Xuan Hong or elder Ling Qing about the Kunlun Sect members on the Kunlun planet.

“He is the youngest Supreme martial artist in all of history. Naturally, he has the power to open up a training ground!”

Elder Ling Qing looked around and said to the people who were discussing, "this decision was not made by me. It was jointly made by several Supremes of the divine temple, including Supreme Xuan Hong. If you can break through to the Supreme-level before you turn 100 years old and master an immortal Emperor-grade divine power, you will naturally have this authority!"

When everyone heard this, they immediately fell silent.

This person was right. A monstrous figure like Supreme Tang was a rare sight in the ancient times. Naturally, he had to be treated with extraordinary treatment. There was no problem with this decision.

"You ... Which one do you choose?"

Elder lingqing turned around and looked at Tang Hao when she saw that the crowd had stopped questioning her.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. He looked hesitant.

For a moment, he was unable to make a decision.

Was this training hall going to open or not?

Of course, there were benefits to opening up a dojo. He had been to untainted land and the Jiutian dojo. The immortal Qi there was unusually high. It was directly extracted from the heaven-connecting creation wood. The immortal Qi in the gate of fortune and the Kunlun star could not compare to it.

The higher the concentration of immortal Qi, the better the cultivation environment, and the easier it would be for the disciples to cultivate, plant spirit herbs, and cultivate.

Even the power of the formation would be different.

The higher the density of immortal Qi, the stronger the power of the formation.

"I choose ... To open a training hall!"

Tang Hao pondered for a moment. After weighing the pros and cons, he finally made a decision.

"Alright!"

Elder Ling Qing stroked her beard and smiled. "Then let's open up a training hall. It's the seventh training hall in the history of the Holy region. What do you want it to be called?"

"Haotian!"

Tang Hao said after some thought.

Kun Lun or creation didn't seem to be suitable. He might as well use his own title, Haotian!

A Daoist sect was supposed to include many forces. By that time, Kunlun, fate, and demon deities would all be a member of the Haotian Daoist sect.
