

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2705

“The upper nine tribulations?”

In front of Tang Hao, the demon God’s sect master, Jiang Yang, was stunned. His eyes widened as he looked at the ring.

He was now a Demon God, not a human. The way he improved was different. He didn’t need to refine a 10000-foot true spirit, but he needed a large amount of spiritual essence and energy.

If he had to rely on his own cultivation to absorb the immortal Qi of heaven and earth, he didn’t know how many thousands of years it would take for him to advance.

But now, the thing in this ring could actually help him advance to the ninth tribulation?

“This is the flesh of an ancient great evil, a black ape. You are of the demon God race and have a part of the demon’s bloodline, so it will be more efficient for you to absorb the flesh. So, I estimate that this piece of flesh is enough for you to advance to the 9th tribulation.”

Tang Hao said.

Jiang Yang took it and put his mind into it. After taking a look, he swallowed his saliva.

Inside the ring, there was an unimaginably huge black ape’s body. Its exposed flesh and blood were bright gold, like gold, flowing with a divine light and exuding a shocking spiritual aura.

“Enough! That’s enough!”

He muttered as he looked on in a daze.

“Many thanks, my Lord!”

After receiving the ring, he knelt down on one knee and said emotionally.

“No need! You should absorb it as soon as possible and advance to the ninth tribulation!” Tang Hao said indifferently.

The demon God clan was one of his greatest trump cards. As the Lord of the demon God clan, he naturally had to improve his cultivation.

With a cultivation base of the ninth tribulation, a divine halberd of the immortal level, and a battle armor with a core that he had refined, this person’s combat power would be very impressive. He could lead the demon God Army to help him fight against the nine-colored divine clan.

“Oh right! You don’t need to share those armors with the demon God Army. I will prepare their armors.”

Tang Hao suddenly remembered something and said before he left.

He had another plan for the demon God Army's armor.

In his vision, the demon God Army's combat power would be the highest, and this could not be achieved without the support of powerful equipment. For an Army, what was needed was not a mess of different equipment, but standard equipment.

He was prepared to find a time to study it and make the most suitable armor for the demon God Army.

After leaving the demon God Realm, Tang Hao returned to the main hall and went to see sis Xiangyi again. He gave her the green immortal shield, the spiritual liquid essence refined from the soul fruit, and more than four hundred thousand true spirit pills.

Then, he left the sacred Hall and headed for the four symbols dojo.

"Greetings, Supreme vast heaven!"

In the Vermillion Bird path's territory, he met young master Li in a Pavilion.

She was still dressed in the same way, wearing a fire Phoenix dress and looking extremely beautiful.

She smiled and bowed to Tang Hao when she saw him.

Tang Hao chuckled and waved at her. "We're all old acquaintances, do you need to be so polite?"

"I want it!" She smiled and said, "you're not only a Supreme now, but you're also going to open a Dao Plaza. Your status is even higher than the Supremes of my Vermillion Bird orthodoxy. There aren't many Supremes in the Holy region who can compare to you!"

"There's no need to be so polite between you and me!" Tang Hao said with a bitter smile.

"Alright!"

She smiled mischievously and nodded. "You must be very busy now. How did you find the time to come and see me?"

"I had some gains in the spiritual fantasy wonderland. I have no use for them, so I'm here to give them to you!" Tang Hao took out a ring and handed it over.

"What is it?"

She was stunned as she looked at the dimensional ring in shock.

"You've just opened nine apertures, right?" Tang Hao said as he studied her.

“Mm! He has just opened his ninth aperture and is ready to refine his true spirit!” She said softly, her tone somewhat regretful. She had also heard about the matter of the spiritual fantasy immortal land. Many elders of the four symbols dojo had gone.

She had just opened nine acupores and had not yet refined her true spirit, so she had missed the trial.

“The Vermilion Bird True spirit?” Tang Hao said.

“En!”

“Not bad either!” Tang Hao said.

The Vermilion Bird was one of the divine beasts of the four symbols and was not inferior to a true dragon.

“Once you’ve refined your true spirit, you can use the things in here. That bottle of spiritual liquid is the essence of half a thirty thousand year soul fruit. In addition, there are many ancient pills and soul bodies. Together, it’s enough to raise your true spirit to more than ten thousand feet.”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

As she listened, her expression gradually became a little dull.

Could the treasures inside raise her true spirit to 30000 meters in an instant and allow her to break through to the Supreme-being realm?

This ... Was simply reaching the heavens in a single step!

“This is too expensive!” She said bitterly, feeling the ring in her hand was burning.

“I don’t need it anymore, so you can take it!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

She hesitated for a long time before nodding.

She looked up at Tang Hao and smiled wryly. “You’re even willing to give away such a treasure. How many opportunities did you get in the spiritual fantasy wonderland?”

“I’m quite lucky this time, and I’ve gained a lot!” “Oh, and this is for you too!” Tang Hao said.

As he spoke, he flicked his sleeve and a small red sword flew out, hovering in front of him.

On the small sword, the red immortal radiance was dazzling, and it exuded a shocking sword Qi.

“This is ...”

She was stunned again. This aura ... It was clearly the aura of a true immortal. This was a complete immortal artifact!

“Take it!” Tang Hao said, “that battle ... Is coming soon! When you reach the ninth tribulation, I’ll be more at ease if you have a celestial artifact with you!”

She was stunned and fell silent.

That battle ...

She had heard that it was indeed going to happen soon. Furthermore, she had heard from the seniors of the four symbols dojo that this battle would be the cruelest one in history. After several major battles, the strength of the Holy region had been greatly reduced, and it was getting worse and worse.

No one knew if they could hold on this time.

Even if they could defend it, the final result would be tragic. Many people would die. If they couldn’t defend it, everything would be over. The Holy region and Pangu would no longer exist.

“Then I’ll accept it!”

She muttered as she reached out to grab the celestial sword and put it away.

“Take care!”

She stood up and walked him to the door. She wanted to say something but stopped herself. In the end, all her thoughts turned into a “take care”.

She stood in front of the building for a long time, her face full of disappointment and frustration.

“In the future ... Let’s talk about it!”

After a long time, she sighed.

The war was imminent, and it was obviously not the time to be sentimental. When all this was over, she would have a lot of time to spend with him.

After the divine light disappeared into the horizon, she turned around and returned to the pavilion.

After leaving the four symbols dojo, Tang Hao did not return to the divine temple. Instead, he went straight down and landed at the border.

He returned to Pangu after crossing the border.

To open up the Haotian Daoist sect, he had to connect the gate of fortune and all the people on Kunlun. Not only the people, but also the treasures, the formation, and everything else. It was a huge project.

Therefore, he had to come down in advance and inform Zao Huazi and the others to make preparations. Once the land above was opened up, they could move up.
