

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2718

“Then you kill them!”

Tang Hao put his hands behind his back and smirked at the Taixu sovereign.

“You ...”

The great void sovereign’s face turned red.

If he could kill them, he would have done so long ago. Why would he wait until now?

Although this kid was only at the early-stage Dao glimpse realm, his combat strength had reached the mid-stage, so even he, a Dao integration old monster, would find it difficult to kill him.

Moreover, he didn’t have a chance to make a move. In the sacred zone, he couldn’t touch this kid at all.

“Since you can’t kill me, then you will never be able to gather all the imprints and obtain the divine treasure.” Tang Hao said coldly.

“Hmph!”

The great void sovereign snorted and flicked his sleeve in anger.

Although his words were unpleasant to hear, he was right. As long as this brat didn’t die, he wouldn’t be able to obtain the divine treasure.

“So, it’s better for us to cooperate and take this divine treasure together.” “We’ll enter together after we open the divine treasure,” Tang Hao said. “We’ll fight for the treasure with our own abilities. What do you think?”

Sovereign Taixu frowned and hesitated.

“Are you afraid ... You can’t beat me?”

Tang Hao said with a mocking smile.

“Hahaha! How is this possible?” Supreme Taixu sneered and said disdainfully.

Although he couldn’t kill this kid, he could easily suppress him. How could he lose to this kid?

“Then what do you have to worry about?” “I wouldn’t have taken such a risk to work with you if it weren’t for the fact that the war is imminent and the sacred zone is weak. I want to find some opportunities to improve myself,” Tang Hao said.

This kid is right, I have nothing to worry about. This kid can’t possibly have any means to threaten me.

Perhaps, this was a happy event that had come to his door!

Once he entered the divine treasure, the imprint on this brat's forehead would be useless. I wouldn't have any more scruples and would be able to attack with my full strength. The chances of killing this brat would increase by a few degrees.

Taking a step back, even if I can't kill this brat in the end, I can still suppress him and take all the divine treasures for myself.

"Good! Let's do this! When was that?"

After thinking it through, he nodded and said.

"Now!"

Tang Hao said.

"You found that Xue guy?" Sovereign great void asked in surprise.

Then, he was stunned and said in realization, ""That's true! If you didn't find it, you wouldn't have come to my great void sect!"

"Let's go!"

Tang Hao turned around and left the training hall.

"Brat, don't you regret it!"

Sovereign Taixu laughed hideously, flicked his sleeves, and followed.

Two hours later, three figures stood in a Valley near the tianmang mountain.

"Take it out!"

Tang Hao stood with The Blood King and looked at the great void sovereign.

The great void sovereign glanced at the two of them coldly and snorted. He waved his hand, and the seven heads flew out one by one, floating in front of him.

"I'll go first!"

The Blood King said as he looked at Tang Hao.

As he spoke, he raised his hand and touched his glabella. The next moment, a bright mark appeared between his eyebrows.

After the mark lit up, the marks on the seven heads lit up one after another. The eight marks all bloomed with brilliant divine light and echoed each other.

At that moment, Tang Hao felt a warm sensation on his glabella. The mark that he had hidden earlier was revealed on its own. It was also shining with divine light.

The nine marks emitted nine beams of divine light.

These divine lights gathered together and burst out with an even more intense and dazzling brilliance.

At the center of the divine light, ripples gradually appeared, and a void passage silently appeared.

In an instant, the great void sovereign narrowed his eyes and fixed his gaze on the passageway. His eyes were burning with desire, and even his breathing became rapid.

At the other end of this passage was the great void divine treasure that he had been dreaming of!

This was a divine treasure left behind by an ancient great God. There must be a world-shaking divine item inside that might help him become a true immortal!

Tang Hao's eyes were burning.

"I won't be going in, be careful!" The Blood King glanced at the tunnel, then turned around and said to Tang Hao,"

"You do have some self-awareness!"

The great void sovereign sneered at The Blood King and said,"let's go, kid!" As he said that, his figure flashed and he had already rushed into the passage.

Tang Hao nodded at The Blood King, then flashed into the tunnel.

After passing through the passage, he was already in the middle of a vast starry sky. There was a road in front of him that was made of golden bricks, leading to a magnificent palace.

"The divine treasures must be there!"

The great void sovereign looked around and his gaze fell on the palace.

All four directions were a void, and those starry skies were all illusions. Only this path and that Palace were real, so the divine treasures could only be inside.

With a flash of his body, he pounced toward the palace.

Tang Hao followed closely behind.

"What is that ... A furnace?" he asked.

When they arrived in front of the palace, the two of them saw the situation inside.

The hall inside was extremely vast and filled with a piercing golden light. Indistinctly, the roars of Dragons, phoenixes, and tigers could be heard. At the same time, there was a terrifying heat wave that hit them in the face, causing the two of them to be somewhat apprehensive.

When they squinted and activated their divine eyes, they could see clearly.

In this vast Hall, an indescribably large divine furnace floated. It was dark gold in color and there was a golden divine fire burning inside. The dragon's cry and Phoenix's cry were also coming from the furnace.

"This aura ... No, what kind of fire is this?"

Tang Hao's expression changed when he sensed it.

This was definitely not real fire!

Could it be ... That this was some kind of flame that was even more powerful than the true flame?

True fire was the most powerful flame in the world today. Even the true immortal experts used true fire in the past. If there was a flame more powerful than true fire, wouldn't it be the flame that only existed in legends?

Tang Hao was skilled in alchemy and the great Dao of fire, so he had a good understanding of fire. The most powerful fire mentioned in ancient books was true fire, but some also mentioned that there were some flames stronger than true fire.

For example, some flames that were born at the beginning of the world, or some flames that were born in the body of some immemorial super creatures.

He wondered what kind of golden Spirit Fire it was.

"There seems to be something else in the furnace? With such a strong fire, could they be refining something?"

Then, Tang Hao's expression changed again.

He could also sense an aura in the divine furnace. The divine flames seemed to be refining something.

However, this was a little shocking. The great void realm had opened and the great void divine treasure had appeared more than ten thousand years ago. Didn't this mean that this thing had been refined for more than ten thousand years?

What kind of thing could be refined for more than 10000 years?

"This is ... The great void divine furnace! It's a furnace that the great void God once used. The fire inside is the great void God's unique great void divine fire. This is a Supreme flame that surpasses the true fire!"

"Hahaha! That's great!"

Supreme Taixu, who was standing at the side, laughed out loud after being stunned for a moment. He was overjoyed.
