

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2809

“That’s right!”

Tang Hao nodded.

The patriarch of the Ji family heaved a sigh of relief. His heart, which had been hanging in the air, was now at ease.

It was good that he didn’t exterminate his entire clan!

This divine ancestor was so powerful that he might not be an early stage nine tribulations expert, but a middle stage or even late stage one. He had the power to make the Ji family submit to him.

Submitting to an outsider didn’t sound very honorable, but it was still beneficial to the Ji family. Not only would they be able to keep their lives, but they would also be able to find a powerful backer.

The elders also came to their senses and patted their chests, heaving a sigh of relief.

Ji Ruyin was frozen in place, still in a daze.

“I don’t want this person!”

Those words were like a curse that kept reverberating in her mind.

Was she really of no value at all?

For a moment, she fell into a Deep State of self-doubt.

“Senior, the Ji family is willing to submit!”

The patriarch of the Ji family knelt down again and said respectfully.

The elders behind him also followed suit.

“Ru Yin!”

Seeing that Ji Ruyin was still standing there in a daze, a woman called out to her softly.

Only then did Ji Ruyin wake up and kneel down.

“Then open your soul seas!”

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve, and countless thoughts flew out.

The Ji family hesitated for a moment before finally accepting it.

If they didn't accept Dao hun, he wouldn't believe that they had really surrendered. This was the only way to save their lives.

"Very good!"

Tang Hao nodded with satisfaction when he saw that they had accepted his idea.

He had never thought of taking in the Ji family, but on the way here, he had thought about it and came up with this idea.

There was a Chamber of Commerce under the Ji family called Cloud Sea Chamber of Commerce.

This was a small trading company that was only distributed among the islands of the cloud Sea. It was unlike the four treasures trading company, which was a large trading company that spanned across the stars.

But it was this Chamber of Commerce that caught his eye.

He needed this Chamber of Commerce to help him purchase enough soul crystals. This way, he wouldn't have to go around buying them himself, which would save him a lot of effort.

This Chamber of Commerce could also help him collect some divine materials and spiritual essences.

That was why he wanted to take in the Ji family and help him.

"I still don't know senior's name. How should I address you in the future?"

The patriarch of the Ji family raised his head and asked respectfully.

"My surname is Tang. You can just call me divine ancestor!" Tang Hao said.

"Yes, divine ancestor!" The Ji family's patriarch said.

"Get up!" He said.

Tang Hao raised his hand at them.

Everyone from the Ji family stood up with a complicated expression on their faces. Although they had managed to keep their lives, they still felt a little uncomfortable to submit to this man.

Ji Ruyin also got up and looked up with her beautiful eyes, which were filled with a trace of resentment.

She still couldn't accept the fact that she was of no value to the divine ancestor and had been rejected.

This was a heavy blow to her self-confidence.

In the past, she had a sense of pride in her heart. Her beauty and unparalleled talent had made her the target of the entire clan, as well as countless young and handsome men from all over the vast meteor star. She also felt that she was extremely precious.

But now she realized that in the eyes of such a peerless figure, she was nothing. This made her feel very frustrated.

“Divine ancestor, my name is Ji juechen. You can just call me Jue Chen!”

The Ji family’s patriarch bowed and smiled warmly. “Also, what do you need the Ji family to do, divine ancestor?”

He was also a veteran of the martial world and had a meticulous mind. After a little thought, he understood that this person had something for the Ji family to do. Otherwise, with this person’s magical power and status, how could he be interested in the small Ji family?

“Don’t you have Cloud Sea Chamber of Commerce?”

Tang Hao said.

“Chamber of Commerce?”

Ji juechen was stunned. The Ji family did have a Chamber of Commerce, but it was only a small one.

“Take these things and sell them all. Exchange them for Jingshi and then develop the Chamber of Commerce well. It would be best if it could be expanded. This Chamber of Commerce will be useful to me in the future!” Tang Hao took out a few rings and tossed them over.

He had arranged all the treasures in these rings. He was prepared to pay for all the treasures that were useless to him and Exchange them for crystals to buy Soul Source crystals in the future.

“These ... These are ...?”

When Ji juechen opened it, he was shocked.

In these rings, there were countless treasures. The resplendent mountains of treasures dazzled his eyes.

“That’s right!”

Tang Hao nodded. “They’re all new. Take care of them!”

“Yes! Holy ancestor!”

Ji juechen immediately closed the ring and said solemnly, “I will do my best to complete the task you have given me, divine ancestor.”

“That’s right, divine ancestor, let’s not just stand here. Let’s go down! Also, I’ll prepare a cave abode for you. The best one is in the center of the island. There’s a loft there, where the immortal Qi is the most abundant and the scenery is the best. I’ll arrange it for you!”

He said enthusiastically, raising his hand and pointing to a place not far away.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao hesitated for a moment, then nodded.

He still had to stay in the cloud Sea for a few days, so there was no harm in staying in the Ji family.

“Holy ancestor, please!”

Ji juechen turned to the side and gestured for him to go down.

He followed at Tang Hao’s side, and the row of elders respectfully followed behind him as they descended together.

“My relationship with the Ji family is only known to the two of you. Don’t let anyone else know that I’m in the Ji family. Just treat it as I’ve left the cloud Sea.” Tang Hao said as he flew.

“Yes, divine ancestor!”

Ji juechen hurriedly nodded.

“Also, do you know where the nest of the nine tribulation sea beast is?”

Tang Hao asked again.

“A nine tribulation sea beast?”

Ji juechen was taken aback. “Why are you asking this? It’s said that there’s indeed a ninth tribulation beast in the cloud Sea, but no one has ever seen it. It’s now a legend. ”

“Oh! I just wanted to catch him and refine him, but he just didn’t appear. ”

Tang Hao said.

“Refined ... Refined?”

Ji juechen’s eyes widened, and he was speechless.

F * ck!

That’s a nine tribulation beast that has lived for tens of thousands of years. It’s a terrifying monster that’s millions of feet long. Ordinary nine tribulations would avoid it if they saw it, but you actually want to capture it and refine it?

The group of elders behind him were also shocked and in disbelief.

This was the first time they had heard that someone had set their eyes on the legendary creature of the sea.

“Cough! Divine ancestor, you may not know this, but the nine tribulations divine ancestor in the cloud Sea has been here for a long time. It’s said that it’s extremely powerful. Once, a nine tribulations divine ancestor came to the cloud Sea to hunt for ferocious beasts, but he didn’t expect to alert the nine tribulations divine ancestor and was scared away. ”

Ji juechen said.

The sacred ancestor’s magical power was indeed terrifying, but the legend of the nine tribulations was also quite terrifying. Moreover, his strength was unknown. In his opinion, it was better not to act rashly.

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao’s eyes brightened.

The more powerful he was, the happier he would be.

Seeing him like this, Ji juechen was a little stunned. Why wasn’t this senior worried at all? instead, he seemed a little excited.
