

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2864

“We’re saved!”

“It’s the fen family’s warship!”

After fleeing for a while, a large ship appeared in the distance. Everyone cheered, almost crying tears of joy.

“Fellow Daoist of the fen clan, quickly let us go up!”

“Let’s go! That demon is about to catch up. Don’t ask who he is, we don’t know. Don’t ask how terrifying he is, just look at us!”

They rushed onto the ship and immediately urged the fen clan to escape and meet up with the remaining forces.

The people of the fen clan were stunned when they saw the group of people who were completely frightened out of their wits.

One, two, three ...

How could the men of five big shots be frightened to this extent by a so-called demon?

This was ridiculous!

Under repeated urging, they finally changed their direction and sailed toward the nearest giant warship. They accelerated continuously and occasionally pierced through the void.

“Devil? Where did this devil come from?”

“What? He even hit fairy ning? Preposterous!”

Soon, they met up with the people of the great emperor mountain.

The people of the great emperor mountain were also shocked.

If they didn’t see the sorry state of the people on the ship, they would never believe it.

“Don’t take revenge, don’t! When we return to the sect, we’ll ask for Dao integration and peak experts to kill him. Otherwise, we’ll be sending ourselves to death!”

Seeing that the people of the great emperor mountain were filled with righteous anger and wanted to destroy this demon, the people of the myriad beasts sect and the heaven of great joy were all anxious and hurriedly stopped them.

Revenge?

What a joke!

If he went over now, he would just be delivering food.

Even if the people of the Daluo heavenly Palace were involved, it would probably be difficult to kill that guy.

“Let’s go, let’s go. Let’s escape first. The further the better!”

They started to escape again and met up with the remaining two forces.

“I really didn’t expect that there would be such a person on the Azure meteor star ...”

When the people from the two forces heard this, they were also extremely shocked.

They had originally thought that with the strength of the nine magnates, it was more than enough to annihilate an entire planet, let alone seize the keys and suppress some disobedient forces. It was even easier.

However, he had never expected that this unremarkable Azure meteor would actually have such a Savage and terrifying demon.

“This person ... Who is he?”

“I don’t think they’re from our origin immortal realm. They might be from some other immortal realm far away!”

They discussed, all extremely puzzled.

“Don’t worry about him. Let’s settle the matter of the spiritual void realm first. There are still some keys left. Let’s go and collect them together. When this matter is over, we’ll plan how to deal with this demon!”

“Alright!”

They discussed for a while and then continued to collect the keys.

In the distance, Tang Hao watched them leave coldly. He did not give chase.

He had already achieved his goal.

There were already 35 ninth tribulation Saint ancestors in his divine furnace. Most of them were from the heaven of great joy. Including the most powerful evil child, there were 15 of them. Six of them were at the Dao gathering realm, and the remaining nine were at the Dao glimpse realm.

There were also those from the Tian long celestial dynasty. Including ao Hong, all six of them were at the Dao glimpse stage.

Among the remaining people, there were those from the Taiyin sect, the myriad beasts sect, and a few from the Xuanyuan clan.

There were a total of 11 Dao condensation and 24 Dao glimpse.

Among them, the evil child was the most powerful, and his cultivation was close to the immortal soul third level. If he extracted and refined all the ninth tribulation Taoist connotation, it would be enough for him to cultivate his Taoist attainment and advance to the immortal soul third level.

This was enough to save him a thousand years of time.

“The Ji family will be fine for now, and no one will want to go to the great fate sect either. Even if they do, I still have my true spirit, so there won’t be any problems. Let’s find a place to cultivate first.”

He muttered to himself for a moment before falling down.

He found a place, set up a formation, and sat down cross-legged.

He flicked his sleeve and the divine furnace flew out.

Inside, the divine fire was blazing, and the 35 divine ancestors had long since been killed by the divine fire. Their bodies floated in the furnace, and each of them had balls or wisps of golden light floating above them.

They were all Taoist connotation.

The masses were all at the Dao condensation realm, while the wisps were at the Dao glimpse realm.

“Let’s start with these scattered ones!”

“I’m going to die!” He muttered. With a thought, the golden threads flew out of the furnace and were swallowed by him.

Once the Taoist connotation entered his stomach, it entered his dantian and sea of Dao.

Buzzzzzz!

In the Holy realm dwellers “mansion, his Taoist connotation trembled slightly and started to rotate, producing a strong suction force that sucked in all the Taoist connotation and devoured it.

By the time it had swallowed all of the Taoist connotation, it had more than doubled in size.

It was originally the size of a fist, but now it was the size of a disc.

“Continue!”

With a thought, the balls of golden light in the furnace flew over and were swallowed into his stomach.

He had to pause for a while after each pill he swallowed. It took some time to refine these Taoist connotations.

And with each one he swallowed, his own Taoist connotation would expand and become larger and larger.

Moreover, it became more and more solid, and the light it emitted became more and more dazzling. If one looked closely, one could see that countless great Dao laws were flowing on this ball of Taoist connotation. Some of them were great Dao that he had never refined before, but he had seized them and refined them into it.

“This is the last one!”

His spiritual will moved again, and the last Dao accumulation bead flew out of the furnace. It was as big as a millstone, and it was golden and dazzling.

Compared to the one in his body, it was not inferior.

It was the Taoist connotation in the evil child’s body.

After absorbing this Dao accumulation into the immortal abode, he began to devour it. He was very careful throughout the whole process, slowly devouring it bit by bit.

In his immortal abode, the two golden balls of light slowly merged together and finally turned into a huge ball of light.

This ball of light was as solid as a crystal ball. Its surface was covered by countless Dao laws, and it emitted a shocking aura of Dao accumulation.

Looking from afar, it was like a blazing sun, the brilliance it gave off made one unable to look directly at it.

The ball of light spun slowly, and all kinds of phenomena of the great Dao appeared in the immortal abode one after another. It was extremely magical.

“Hu!”

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief, then his face lit up with joy.

He had succeeded!

This was a Dao attainment, the symbol of a Dao integration stage expert.

This also meant that he was already half a step into the gate of immortality. As long as he cultivated more Dao, he would be able to knock open the gate of immortality and become a true immortal.

“It’s so sturdy. I’m afraid even a tribulation artifact can’t break it open!”

He used his divine thoughts to summon this cultivation bead and pinched it with his palm. He found that not only was the structure of this cultivation bead extremely stable, but it was also extremely hard. No wonder people said that this thing could be traded.

“Hahaha!”

After playing with it for a while, he put away his cultivation, got up, and tried to activate the celestial core power in his body.

As his celestial core power moved, this Dao attainment also started to rotate. There was a rolling Dao accumulation that surged out, increasing the power of his spell by several times.

“Not bad!”

After getting used to it, he nodded his head in satisfaction and even joy.

Then, he removed the formation and headed back to the Ji family.
