

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2940

Somewhere in the starry sky, a beam of divine light stopped.

A white-robed figure appeared.

He raised his hand, and two paintings appeared in his palm.

He glanced at the painting on the left and frowned.

This was the God spirit list that he had refined. In the past year, this immortal artifact had absorbed a large amount of Joss flame power, giving birth to thousands of peak Joss flame gods.

However, in this battle, they lost more than 200 of them, which was a great loss.

Fortunately, the power of Joss flames was endless. As long as he sent the God's spiritual index back and continued to collect the power of Joss flames, he would be able to replenish it quickly and give birth to more Joss flame gods in the future.

He then looked at the painting on the right, and his frown deepened.

Refining a living person into a painting just for the sake of viewing it was truly a bit perverted.

However, it was also a good thing that star Tong survived.

He took a light breath and unfurled the painting.

In the painting, smoke rose in spirals as figures flashed and danced. All of them were young and beautiful women dressed in luxurious clothes, looking magnificent.

However, their eyes were empty and lifeless, like puppets.

Tang Hao saw the most attractive figure among them.

He was a little terrified.

They had not seen each other for almost twenty years. She had changed a lot, but her face had not changed at all. It was still cold and beautiful.

After a long time, he came back to his senses and immersed his divine sense into the painting.

In the blink of an eye, he had figured out the structure and refining method of this picture scroll.

After refining it, his mind flickered and a ripple appeared on the surface of the scroll. A graceful and moving figure appeared and fell down.

He reached out and hugged her tightly.

“Where ... Is this?”

She gradually woke up, and her eyelids trembled. A pair of beautiful eyes slowly opened, filled with confusion.

“You are ...”

She felt the broad chest that was tightly hugging her. She looked up and was stunned.

“Am I dreaming?”

She mumbled with a dazed expression.

The face in front of her would only appear in her dreams.

“It’s me!”

Tang Hao hugged her tightly. His heart ached for her.

She was stunned and couldn’t believe it.

“Is it true?”

She mumbled as she pressed her face against his broad chest. Feeling the warmth of his body, she was a little dazed. Then, she pursed her lips and started to sob softly.

Soon, it turned into wailing.

“I’m fine now!” Tang Hao said as he hugged her tightly.

After a long time, she finally stopped sobbing and calmed down.

“How did you find this place? How long has it been? I only remember that I was harmed in the blue water Palace. After that, I can’t remember clearly, and I’ve been in a daze. ”

Tang Hao comforted her and told her everything he knew.

He had searched the souls of the elders of the blue water Palace, Xuanyuan Hongyi, and the 13 ancestors of Xuanyuan, so he knew everything that had happened back then.

After the mystic fairy Pearl was taken from her, she was sent to the Xuanyuan clan with a group of selected women and was directly refined into this painting. In this painting, there were not only a group of people from the blue water Palace, but also beautiful women from various forces in the starry sky, more than 3000 people.

“The Xuanyuan clan? You went to the Xuanyuan clan to save me?”

She was a little shocked.

She still remembered clearly how terrifying the Xuanyuan clan was.

“It’s alright!”

Tang Hao smiled, then briefly told him what had happened just now, as well as what had happened in Pangu in the past few years.

For a moment, she was a little confused.

The battle with the nine-colored God clan and his current strength had already reached such a high level. Both of these shocked her beyond words.

She only came to her senses after a long time.

“Let’s ... Go home, okay? I’m homesick!” She mumbled as she hugged Tang Hao.

“Good! I’m here to bring you back!”

Tang Hao patted her shoulder and smiled. “By the way, that Xiao guy is still in my furnace. You can take care of him!”

“Mm! I’ll deal with her after I recover my strength!” She said with a nod.

“And these people ...”

Tang Hao raised his hand and pointed at the paintings on the side. There were many women in the paintings, and they had been refined into the paintings just like star pupil.

“They’re all quite pitiful. They were betrayed by their own families and forces. Why don’t we take them back to Pangu?” Mu Xintong said.

“Alright!” Tang Hao nodded. “I’ll leave them to you!”

When she returned to Pangu and took care of this group of people, she would have something to do.

Such a group of female cultivators could also bring some vitality to the Haotian Daoist sect.

She acknowledged and kept the painting.

“This is for you!” Tang Hao took out the mystic fairy Pearl and an immortal ring and gave them to her.

Her cultivation was still at the eighth tribulation, so her seven apertures level was a little low. But Tang Hao was not in a hurry. He planned to study it when he returned to Pangu and make a pill for her. After all, she had the body of the fairy, so she could not use the clear sky elixir casually.

He wasn't in a hurry to increase his cultivation level. He had plenty of resources anyway, so he could increase his cultivation level very quickly.

During this period of time, he had traveled around the Tianhuang region, destroyed many evil forces, and collected a large amount of cultivation. Now, the number of cultivation in his body had exceeded 200.

He flicked his sleeve and took out the star Shuttle.

After boarding the ship, he summoned Ji Ruyin, Chun Xuan, and Qiu Ci from his mobile cave abode and introduced them to each other.

"Big sister mu!"

Ji Ruyin's mouth was extremely sweet, and she immediately called her sister.

Mu Xintong glanced at the three girls, then looked at Tang Hao with deep meaning.

But she didn't say anything. She didn't care much about these things.

After interacting with the three girls for a while, she, who was originally a little cold by nature, could not stand it anymore. She was attacked by the enthusiasm of the three girls and became familiar with them.

"I've finally reached perfection!"

Tang Hao breathed a sigh of relief.

Since he had found star pupil, he had basically accomplished his goal. As for the XI Fang race, he didn't find out anything about them and he didn't have much hope.

He was prepared to wait for the news of the spiritual void realm to spread completely before making some inquiries.

"Let's go back!"

He urged the ship beneath his feet to return to the origin immortal domain.

After such a long time, those clones might have already found the passage.

He couldn't wait to go back to Pangu and have a look.

However, not long after he left, he saw a ship jump through the void and land not far away.

A white-haired old man stood at the bow of the ship.

"Fellow Daoist, please wait!"

The moment he appeared, he waved at Tang Hao and shouted.

His old face was full of smiles, and he was very enthusiastic.

Tang Hao was shocked when he looked over.

He had been in the Tianhuang region for a long time, so he naturally recognized this ship. The symbol on it was the symbol of the Tianhuang Hall, another top force in the Tianhuang region.

“Why is the heaven desolate Palace looking for me?”

He was a little puzzled.

However, he still stopped and prepared to see what the heaven desolate Hall was up to.
