

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2983

“It’s quite simple!”

In three days ‘time, Tang Hao had produced more than ten blueprints.

All of them were treasures like quaking thunders.

He had refined this thing before, so he was very clear about the principle. Now, he was only raising its power to the immortal level, which was a piece of cake for him.

He could even design a super-complicated ship like the divine Pangu ship, let alone a ship with a simple structure like this.

“The next step is to calculate the cost.”

Under the conditions of similar power, the cheaper the required materials and the simpler the refining method, the better.

“This drawing is made of gold and iron, so it’s a little more expensive. The cost of a single pill is 27 pieces.”

“This one uses special magnetic sand. It has the best effect, but it’s also the most expensive one. Each one costs more than 30 pieces.”

“This crystal material is the cheapest. It’s only twenty-three pieces!”

He wrote down the market price of all the materials and did some calculations.

In the end, he chose the cheapest crystal material.

Compared to gold and iron, crystals were slightly more difficult to make. There was also the risk of them being wasted, but he didn’t have to worry about that.

“Purple Mystic Crystal, 11 immortal crystals per piece.”

“Heavenly Thunder of purple cloud, 12 immortal crystals per ball.”

“In total, the cost of the materials is twenty-three pieces. It should be more or less sold for one hundred pieces. The price is only one-fifth of the divine Thunder of the nine cloud Palace, but the power is about the same.”

“No! I won’t sell it for 100 yuan, I’ll sell it for 99 Yuan. It sounds better this way. ”

After some thought, he set a price.

Then, he went to Nantian city and bought a lot of things.

He originally had 4000 Yuan on him. After taking the teleportation formation, paying the entrance fee, and buying a Jiu Xiao divine Thunder to test its power, he only had 3200 Yuan left.

He bought 100 sets of materials, a total of 2300 Yuan. When he returned, he only had 900 Yuan left.

After returning to the hall, he immediately started refining.

He first refined one to practice, and after a few hours, he was done.

Then, he began to refine the remaining ninety-nine sets of materials at the same time.

In less than half a day, he had finished refining.

“Let’s just call it quaking Thunder. A simpler name. ”

After collecting the lightning, he pondered for a while and went out to Nantian city.

“Shopkeeper, do you accept treasures?”

“The quaking Thunder is as powerful as the Jiu Xiao divine Thunder, and it’s cheap. I’ll sell it to you for 75 Yuan, and you’ll sell it for 99 Yuan.”

Tang Hao entered a shop and began to sell a skybomb grenade.

“What? Only 75? What kind of broken thing is this? it must be crudely made! Similar to the nine Heavens divine Thunder? you’re really shameless to say such things!”

“Get lost! Get out of here!”

When the shopkeeper heard that, he glanced at Tang Hao and threw him out of the room.

“Where did this idiot come from?”

After shooing the person away, the shopkeeper cursed in a low voice.

The nine cloud Palace was an expert in the Dao of crafts, especially in Thunder-type Dharma Treasures. The nine Heavens divine Thunder was their signature. A guy who came from nowhere with a divine Thunder made of unknown materials dared to boast that it was on par with the nine Heavens divine Thunder. Wasn’t that a joke?

” 75? What did you use to refine this? It’s too cheap!”

“Extreme Purple Mystic Crystal? This is the worst material, the quality is not good enough! I’m sorry, we can’t accept it. ”

“You dare to compare this thing with the Jiu Xiao divine lightning? There’s nothing good cheap, who would buy your broken stuff! The divine lightning of nine clouds is expensive, but the quality is guaranteed. They will only take nine cloud Palace’s reputation for granted. ”

Tang Hao went to a few other shops, but was rejected.

The shopkeepers didn’t even look at it. When they heard the price and the materials, they frowned.

After walking around, there was only one shop left in the city, and it was also the largest shop here, heaven seeking Pavilion.

“Shopkeeper, do you accept this?”

Tang Hao went in and found the shopkeeper. As usual, he took out a divine mine and placed it on the counter.

“What’s this?”

The innkeeper glanced at him and asked.

“The power of the quaking Thunder is similar to that of the nine Heavens divine Thunder, but it’s cheap. If you don’t believe me, you can take one and try it out!” Tang Hao said.

When the shopkeeper heard this, he raised his eyebrows.

He sized up Tang Hao and smiled.

This guy’s bragging was a little too big!

How dare he compare it with the nine Heavens divine lightning? what a joke!

If the price was a little more expensive and the materials used were better, it might really be comparable to the Jiu Xiao divine Thunder. However, since you said that the price was cheap, how could it be compared to the Jiu Xiao divine Thunder?

“There’s no need to try!”

The shopkeeper smiled courteously, flicked his sleeve, and pushed the godly Thunder back. He said, “our heaven seeking Pavilion is a large Chamber of Commerce, and we never accept treasures from the outside world. You’d better find another place!”

He stretched out his hand and pointed at the door, making a gesture to chase away the guests.

“You really don’t want to try?” Tang Hao said.

“No need! There’s nothing to try!”

The shopkeeper laughed.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows but did not say anything. He picked up the divine lightning and prepared to leave.

“Manager li, what’s wrong?”

At this moment, a young woman walked down the stairs. She was dressed in blue and had a veil over her face. Half of her face was covered, only revealing her bright eyes.

His eyes were clear like glass.

She walked down leisurely, her figure swaying gently and her curves moving.

Tang Hao was surprised when he looked up.

He was not shocked by her looks, but by the celestial artifacts on her body, from her hairpin to her earrings, then to her dress, the Jade on her waist, and then to her bracelets, rings, necklaces, all of which were celestial artifacts.

Moreover, they were all of extraordinary quality. They were at least golden Immortals, and could even be refined by zenith heavens.

This outfit could be said to be extremely luxurious.

“Miss, why did you come down?” The shopkeeper was startled and quickly bowed.

“I’m done with the accounts, so I came down to take a look. ”

The woman chuckled, her voice clear and melodious.

“Oh! This man took a divine Thunder and said he wanted to sell it to us. He even said that it was comparable to the divine Thunder of the nine cloud Palace. Don’t you think it’s ridiculous? so, I wanted to send him away. ”

The shopkeeper said respectfully.

“On par with the nine cloud Palace?”

The woman was stunned for a moment before she burst out laughing.

This tone was really a little too big!

She shifted her gaze to Tang Hao and sized him up.””He’s an earth immortal! He must have just entered the earth celestial stage! Why don’t you tell me, what right does your thing have to be compared to the nine cloud Palace ‘s?”

“It’s cheap, and its power is similar to that of the nine cloud Palace ‘s!”

Tang Hao said as he lifted the divine lightning in his hand.

The woman burst out laughing again.

This guy’s skin was really a little thick. When he said this, his face didn’t even turn red, nor did his heart beat fast.

“Let me see!”

She reached out and took the divine lightning from Tang Hao’s hand.
