

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2998

“What are these?”

Inside the heaven seeking Pavilion, Feng Qingyan looked at the gorgeous underwear in front of her, and her eyes widened a little.

She was stunned!

These are master’s new products?

These things were too embarrassing! Can I really wear it?

“Miss, those few sets are too shameless! Who would wear it! These are not bad, they look good!” The maid beside her mumbled.

“That master doesn’t seem to be a decent person!”

She even pouted and muttered.

Feng Qingyan burst out laughing.

“You! What do you know? these series are specifically for male customers. It’s a kind of boudoir fun, but these are for us women.” She laughed and said, “that master is really amazing. He can clearly see the needs of different groups of people.”

“Boudoir fun?”

The maidservant was stunned, and her face immediately blushed.

“Who ... Who would wear this kind of thing in front of the person they like! It’s too embarrassing!” She glanced at the sets of undergarments and quickly retracted her gaze in embarrassment, not daring to look at them anymore.

“Miss, these are really nice.”

She then looked at the other sets, and her beautiful eyes lit up.

“Yup! It’s really good!”

Feng Qingyan praised.

These undergarments were of different styles. Some were seductive, some were dreamy, but they were all the same. They could show the curves of a woman’s body vividly and thoroughly. They were like works of art!

The more she looked at it, the more she liked it.

“I really want to meet that master ...”

She mumbled as her beautiful eyes revealed a look of anticipation.

From the divine Thunder to the Jade talisman, then the heavenly Peach, and then these undergarments, the master’s style had been changing constantly, and it was simply unpredictable.

He must be a genius who was different from the rest. Otherwise, how could he create such unique products?

“These undergarments ... Just leave them all here!”

She glanced at them and kept all the undergarments.

“I’m using it for research! I’ll only look good in those. I don’t wear the rest.” Seeing that the maidservant’s expression was a little strange, she hurriedly explained, and her fair face instantly flushed red.

“Oh!”

The maidservant responded, but her eyes were still very strange.

“You little girl, get out!”

Feng Qingyan glared at her and threw her out.

She came to the mirror, took off her clothes, and put on a set of beautiful and dreamy underwear.

“It’s so beautiful!”

Looking at the dream-like figure in the mirror, she was a little dazed.

Her body was slender and graceful, with a few curves. With this set of dream-like underwear, her curves were even more prominent and perfect.

“This one looks good too!”

She admired it for a while, then changed into a black suit, which was more seductive and sexy.

“This set looks better!”

After admiring it for a while, she suddenly felt that she preferred this kind of style that was slightly bolder and hotter than the aesthetic style.

“These ... No! No! It’s too explicit!”

After changing a few sets and picking up the male series, her face turned red.

“Forget it, no one can see it anyway, it’s fine to wear it!” After hesitating for a moment, she gritted her teeth, mustered her courage, and tried it on.

“That master is really not a decent person! How did he come up with so many tricks?”

She couldn’t stand it anymore after wearing one.

These things ... Were too embarrassing!

“If I see him, I’ll definitely ask him ...”

She mumbled as she looked at herself in the mirror. Her beautiful face was completely red and full of shyness.

-----

“President, it’s too explosive! Sold out again!”

“The bewitching Fairy series is too popular. Many fellow Daoists are asking about it.”

A few days later, Tang Hao’s stock was sold out.

This series of undergarments was selling like hotcakes!

“Let’s not talk about the entire spirit Toad continent. Just in Nantian city, there are countless female cultivators. Even if each person exchanged for a set, it would be a huge demand. And for this thing, one set is definitely not enough.”

“There are also male cultivators who buy several or even more than ten sets at a time. This market is really huge!”

All the agents were extremely excited.

They had thought that Qi Tian peach was popular enough and the market was big enough. They didn’t expect that the president and the master would easily open up an even bigger market!

And this market had never been explored by others.

This was simply too amazing!

They were both excited and anxious.

The market was too big and too popular, causing the supply to not be able to keep up. There was a shortage everywhere, which made them very anxious.

They would send Jade talismans to Dragon Mountain every day to urge the goods.

Tang Hao was helpless about that.

He had already increased his speed. Other than the origin core clone, he had also created many other clones to help out. He had given the processes of cutting and sewing to the other clones, and he was mainly refining the talisman formation inside.

These undergarments were not only good-looking, but they also had extremely powerful defensive abilities.

However, no matter how fast he moved, he still could not keep up with the speed of the demand.

Now, the Haotian Association had developed extremely rapidly. Many agents joined every day, which expanded the territory of the Haotian Association. Originally, it was only a corner of Nantian city, but now it had long gone out and spread everywhere.

Although the spirit Toad continent was huge, there were teleportation formations in all places, which made it easy to travel, and it also accelerated the expansion of the Haotian faction.

Of course, he didn't forget about the other three products, which were the divine Thunder, the instant teleportation talisman, and the heaven's equal peach. They were also constantly produced and sold to various parties through many agents.

These goods were constantly being sent out, so money naturally came rolling in.

In the past, he would personally count the money he earned and calculate his net worth. But now, he was too lazy to do so. Once the money was collected, it would pile up, and it would pile up day by day.

He didn't even know how much money he had earned now, but he couldn't even count it.

"After a while, when I have more free time, I will buy some cultivation. It should be enough for me to advance to the middle stage. At that time, I will also let chunxuan and Qiuci advance."

Tang Hao thought about it for a moment, then continued to make more.

As the days went by, his business was getting better and better.

The Haotian faction continued to expand and was now in the central region of the spirit Toad continent.

Over there, the Haotian club's products were also popular, attracting more people to join the Haotian club.

Soon, all four sides of the spirit Toad continent had representatives from the Haotian faction.

The name of Haotian faction had truly spread throughout the entire spirit Toad continent and was known to the world.

Although the Haotian club only sold four products, in many people's eyes, this Chamber of Commerce was better than the other Chambers of Commerce, because it not only sold them at a low price, but also two of its products were unique.

The underwear series, in particular, had set off a wave and a revolution in the entire spirit Toad continent.

In the past, the female cultivators had always worn self-made and relatively simple undergarments, but now, the situation had completely changed.

Nowadays, which female cultivator didn't like the products of the Haotian club? every time a new product was launched, they would fight for it. It had become a trend among them.

The male cultivators were also crazily chasing after the new products of the Haotian club. Every time a new product was launched, it would be the same Grand occasion.

In the eyes of many, this was a magical Chamber of Commerce.

The speed of his rise was unbelievably fast!

The products they launched were even more different.

When Haotian became famous, master Haotian's reputation also spread far and wide.