

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3105

“You want these corpses?”

“Let’s go,” the woman said softly. She could tell what Tang Hao was thinking.

“I hope senior can help me!”

“Thank you,” Tang Hao said respectfully.

“Good! They were just some useless things anyway! I’ll give it to you! However, don’t forget what you just said! You’re going to kill planet Tianhuang!” The woman said sternly.

“Senior, don’t worry. I swear that I will never forgive that dog!”

Tang Hao made a solemn vow.

He wasn’t lying about this.

He did have a grudge against Emperor Tianhuang.

Emperor Tianhuang was a traitor of the human race. He had led a group of Immortals to betray the human race and become the Lackey of the Dragon count celestial race. As the true inheritor of Pangu world, he naturally didn’t like Emperor Tianhuang. On top of that, he had also inherited the treasures of the ancient Dao immortal Emperor, so his hatred for him had increased.

However, they were far from irreconcilable.

After all, with his current strength, how could he even talk about revenge!

He was only a half-step golden immortal now, while Tianhuang old man was an immortal Emperor of the ancient times, who had lived tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of years longer than him. The gap was too big.

“I’ll give these to you!”

As the woman spoke, a few swooshing sounds were heard. A group of people came from the side and stood in a line in front of Tang Hao.

There were a total of five of them, all of them at the gold immortal level.

“Senior, can I start refining?”

Tang Hao asked.

How could he be at ease if he just took it away like this? he had to completely refine it and make it his own before he could bring it out with ease.

“You can refine it!”

“Many thanks, senior!”

Tang Hao turned around and walked toward the corpses. He refined them one by one.

“Thank you, senior. I won’t disturb you any longer. When I reach the Emperor realm, I’ll definitely kill those bastards on planet Tianhuang and avenge you!” Tang Hao kept the yin corpses, then turned around and bowed to the woman to thank her.

“You, go!”

The woman muttered.

Tang Hao bowed again, then left.

“The successor of the ancient Dao? I hope he can do it! If you can’t do it, then it’s good to give that bastard some trouble. ”

The woman muttered again and slowly sank back into the well.

On the other side, Tang Hao walked faster and faster until he finally ran out of Mount reincarnation.

“Hu!”

He heaved a sigh of relief as soon as he left the death Qi’s range.

When he turned around to look, he still had a lingering fear.

He had never expected that the person being suppressed here was actually someone with such a great background!

Fortunately, he was good at bluffing and managed to escape. He even managed to trick five Yin corpses at the level of golden immortal.

“Six true immortals and five Yin corpses at the Golden immortal level. This trip to Mount reincarnation has been a great harvest!”

He calculated for a moment, then grinned.

There were nearly 400000 beads on the bodies of the six genuine Immortals alone, which was already a huge harvest, not to mention these Yin corpses at the Golden immortal level.

“With these golden immortal Yin corpses, it will be much easier for me to do things. I can easily kill a heaven immortal. Even if it’s a peak heaven immortal, I can kill them.”

“I’ll kill more evil Immortals and collect more Dao attainment first. Then, I’ll go back to the land of absolute beginning to hide.”

He pondered for a while and had a plan.

Then, he went to the white bone continent.

There were the most evil Immortals in this continent.

When he arrived at the white bone continent, he didn’t take the initiative to attack. Instead, he first investigated and went to dangerous places. Then, like what he did at the reincarnation mountain, he deliberately found some people to go with him and lured them to attack.

This way, his success rate would be higher than if he chose his own target.

In just half a month, he had succeeded twice, both of which were earth immortal realm Warriors. In total, he had more than 30000 Dao beads.

He continued to wander around and got what he wanted a few more times.

Every time he made a move, he was very cautious and did not leave any traces. Naturally, his identity was not exposed.

In the blink of an eye, three months had passed.

He had succeeded six times in total, and his Dao attainment was as high as 120000.

At this time, the old Daoist and the others who had been suppressed at the reincarnation mountain were also refined to death by him one after another, and all their cultivation had been extracted.

He had originally estimated that it would take about a year, but with the help of a few golden immortal Yin corpses, he could weaken these people’s strength even faster, and the refining process would be much faster.

These people had refined 400000 Dao attainment. Adding the Dao attainment they had obtained during this period of time, they had a total of about 520000 Dao attainment.

He had refined all of them, and the number of Dao attainment in his body had already reached a huge 620000.

With the support of so much cultivation, the speed at which the Golden flowers matured became even faster. Two of the Golden flowers had already begun to solidify and become translucent.

Tang Hao continued.

In the blink of an eye, another three months passed. He killed a few more Immortals and obtained another 200000 Dao attainment points.

In another two months, he had seized 170000 Dao attainment.

At this point, the number of Dao attainment in his body had reached an astonishing one million!

“A million Dao attainment points!”

He looked inside and saw the endless golden glow in the immortal mansion. He was a little happy.

The more Dao attainment he had, the faster he could nurture the Golden Flower. At this speed, he would have hope of transcending the Tribulation in about a year.

“Let’s go back to spirit Toad Island to take a look! After that, I’ll go to the Li Water Tribe continent!”

Tang Hao did some calculations.

He was going to see Fei Wan again and then return to the land of absolute beginning.

He arrived at the Li Water Tribe continent through the teleportation formation and went directly to the spirit Moon Mountain. At the same time, he sent a message to Fei Wan.

Soon, he saw a divine light flying over from the sky and landing on the mountain.

She was dressed in black, and her figure was curvaceous and alluring. It was Yun feiwan.

She was excited to see Tang Hao.””Why did you come out? it’s not safe outside. There are still many people looking for you. If you’re discovered, it’ll be troublesome.”

She grabbed Tang Hao’s hand nervously.

“I’m fine! I’ve been outside all this time!” Tang Hao comforted her.

Then, he briefly explained what had happened during this period of time, which made her a little speechless.

“That’s good!”

Then, she revealed a look of joy.

The stronger he became, the more at ease she felt.

“Did anything happen to the Holy beast Palace during this period of time?” Tang Hao asked.

“No, I didn ‘t!”

Yun feiwan shook her head.”Not many have seen you in the beast Palace. Only elder su and the few you have seen have heard of the news. They don’t know it’s you. They won’t think of it.”

Tang Hao nodded when he heard that.

When he had first come to the Li Water Tribe continent, he had deliberately changed his appearance. Su changgong and the others should not recognize him, and there should be no problem with the Holy beast Palace.

“Keep this Yin corpse for now, just in case!”

Tang Hao took out a Yin corpse and gave it to her.

Now, the only person he was worried about in the immortal world was her, and she still had the Yun family to take care of. It was impossible for her to leave with him, so he could only do this and do his best to ensure her safety.

With the protection of this golden immortal Yin corpse and her cultivation base at the peak of heaven immortal, he did not have to worry anymore.
