

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3114

“This ...”

When the heavenly Dao Daoist focused his eyes, his body trembled as if he had been hit hard.

His eyes were wide open as he stared at the dark golden giant in the picture.

“Impossible! This is impossible!”

“He’s just a little brat, how could he refine it? also, what kind of immortal spirit body is this? why have I never seen it before?”

He gradually became excited as he muttered.

The giant in the image was indeed an immortal spirit body!

Although his body wasn’t very big and was considered small among immortal spirit bodies, it was already incredible that the kid could refine a small immortal spirit body!

Moreover, this immortal spirit body was a little strange. He had never seen it like this before.

After a long time, he finally calmed down. His brows were tightly furrowed and his eyes were serious.

“This kid is really not simple! He can even cultivate an immortal spirit body and I heard that he’s also very good at crafts. He’s been on the immortal list several times, right?” He said in a deep voice.

“Celestial venerable, it’s five times!”

The Golden immortal elder said.

“Five times on the immortal list! It was no wonder that he could cultivate an immortal spiritual body! Tsk! It would be great if this kid wasn’t from the lower realm but a disciple of our sect.”

He shook his head in regret.

Even the ancient celestial emperors were shocked by this demon’s talent. He was also an earth-shattering blacksmith. He was truly a talent!

Hearing this, ye Futian’s face immediately turned red, and he felt even more ashamed.

Motherf * cker! This was a F * cking pervert. How could there be such a person in this world!

He was cursing in his heart.

It was fine that this guy was talented, but his craftsmanship was also so abnormal. How could they let a Daluo disciple like him live?

In the immortal world, there were many monstrous geniuses like him, but none of them were as abnormal as that kid.

“Exalted celestial, this monster is really ... AI! I don’t even know how to describe him. Tell me, is he the reincarnation of an ancient Almighty? Otherwise, how could he be so powerful and so cunning?”

A golden immortal elder said.

He said with a bitter expression.

He really couldn’t understand how a hundred-year-old monster could still be so cunning.

It seemed like there was no other explanation other than the reincarnation of a powerful being.

“Yes, yes! He must be the reincarnation of a powerful being!”

When the others heard this, they immediately echoed excitedly.

“How is that possible? How can there be a reincarnation of a powerful being now?”

The heavenly Dao Daoist immediately rolled his eyes.

The reincarnation of a mighty figure was rare to begin with, and in the immortal world, it was even rarer. Who would reincarnate for no reason? He had never heard of such a thing in the past ten thousand years!

“But, Empyrean exalt, didn’t many celestial Kings and Celestials of the great all-embracing heaven disappear a long time ago?”

A golden immortal elder said.

When the heavenly Dao Daoist heard this, his expression changed slightly. Then, he chided, “Who told you that he has fallen and reincarnated? it’s impossible for that kid to be the reincarnation of an Almighty. He’s just a monster that has never been born!”

That person immediately bowed and did not dare to make a sound.

“Alright, ye ‘er, you can’t be blamed for this. That kid is too devilish and cunning. You don’t have to blame yourself. You don’t have to pay attention to the voices outside either. We’ll Catch That Kid eventually.”

The heavenly Dao Daoist looked at ye Futian on the ground and said.

“Thank you, master!”

Ye Futian bowed and thanked her before standing up.

“Exalted celestial, that monster ... How are we going to capture him?”

A golden immortal elder said.

The heavenly Dao Daoist pondered for a moment, then waved his hand and said, "There's no hurry. According to what you said, this brat is extremely cunning. We have no way to force him out for the time being. We can only wait. Wait for him to come out himself."

"Wait? Will he come out on his own?"

Everyone was a little surprised.

That brat had already gone into hiding, why would he come out to court death?

"Woof! That brat is already a half-step golden immortal, is he not going to come out and face his tribulation?" The heavenly Dao Daoist sneered. "And with that kid's freakishness, how far do you think he's from transcending the Tribulation?"

"This ... The celestial is right! He'll definitely undergo a tribulation. Once he does, we'll be able to find him."

"I think he'll be going through his tribulation in about three years."

"Three years? It's a little long, I think two years at most!"

The crowd immediately started discussing.

"The way I see it, at most a year! In less than a year, he will appear and undergo the Golden immortal tribulation!" The heavenly Dao Daoist laughed and said, "with his supernormal ability, crossing the Golden immortal tribulation is just a piece of cake. It's extremely easy."

"A year? It's too fast!"

"Yup!"

Everyone was shocked.

"Just wait and see!" The heavenly Dao Daoist said with a smile, "you don't have to worry about him during this period of time. Just pay attention to the movements of the Golden immortal tribulation. Once he appears to transcend the Tribulation, I will personally take action and capture him."

"Two Celestial Emperor's Supreme treasures and an immortal spirit body! All his treasures and even his luck will belong to the primordial beginning sect!"

As he spoke, he looked at the dark golden giant on the screen, and his eyes became a little hot.

An immortal spirit body!

Even in the ancient times, it was an extremely rare treasure that even he coveted.

Not to mention, that kid had two Celestial Emperor Supreme treasures!

As long as he could get it, the primordial beginning sect would have two more treasures that could suppress the luck of a major sect!

“Yes, celestial venerable!”

Everyone immediately responded, a touch of excitement appearing on their faces.

With a celestial venerable taking action, capturing that evildoer would be a piece of cake!

Even if that demon had transcended the Tribulation and advanced to the Golden immortal stage, he was still far from being the opponent of a zenith heaven immortal.

“Let’s go!”

The heavenly Dao Daoist waved his hand, and everyone dispersed.

In the blink of an eye, more than three months had passed.

In the absolute beginning land, Tang Hao had already recovered his immortal spirit body. He had also gone out a few times and killed many evil Immortals. He had seized a large amount of Dao attainment and raised su Xuezi and ye Siyao’s cultivation to the peak of the heaven immortal realm.

To him now, Dao attainment was no longer a problem, and he could easily obtain it.

As for his Golden Flower, it was almost done with its nourishment.

“At most two more months before the Tribulation!”

He sat cross-legged in the hall, thinking about the Tribulation.

He knew very well that going through the Tribulation was a very dangerous thing for him now because he would expose his whereabouts. Whether he was going through the Tribulation in the absolute beginning land or above, the movement caused by it couldn’t escape the detection of the mighty people in the immortal world.

Therefore, he had to think carefully about whether he should cross the river and when.

“I can only try my best!”

After pondering for a long time, his face revealed a determined expression.

He couldn’t hide for his whole life. He had to cross this tribulation. It wouldn’t do him any good if it dragged on. He could only take a gamble. As long as he crossed the Tribulation and survived the wave of danger after the tribulation, he had nothing to worry about.

After a long time, he stood up and went to see Chun Xuan, lady su, and the others to prepare for the Tribulation.
