

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3153

“Old man di, Do You Believe Me Now?”

The old man from the nightless club stroked his long beard and sneered.

“You guys are really blind. You can’t even see such a powerful treasure and still despise him. Why don’t you just give him to the nightless club?”

Elder di opened his mouth, but he was speechless.

He lowered his head to look at the token in the bag, still in disbelief.

“He ... He’s only an early heaven immortal!”

He muttered.

“So what if he’s an early stage heaven immortal? Who said that an early heaven immortal can’t take first place? we’ve been watching him since the first day. We’ve seen all his actions. Let’s not talk about talent, just in terms of heart and methods, all the disciples of our two sects can’t compare to him!”

The nightless club’s old man sneered.

“You guys saw it?”

Elder di was stunned.

If that was the case, then everything was real.

He raised his head and looked at the disciple, his eyes somewhat dazed.

Was this kid’s heart and means really so powerful that even this group of nightless club old monsters were convinced?

“Wait ... No way!”

Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something. His mind trembled, and his eyes were filled with extreme shock.

He was thinking of the legendary mission.

Previously, he had thought that everything was just the kid’s good luck and nothing much. But now, it seemed that that was not the case at all. Everything was probably controlled by the kid.

He had single-handedly toyed with the entire che clan and five heaven immortal monsters!

It was the same now. This kid easily eliminated the nightless club's disciples with his extraordinary temperament and means. In just a few days, he had won one or two hundred tokens, and then he found a place to rest.

That was why he had seen the scene of the kid sleeping soundly. That was why he had such a misunderstanding.

Si si si!

When he came back to his senses, he took in a breath of cold air and was extremely shocked.

He was wrong!

Everyone was wrong!

This kid wasn't lazy at all. He was just too powerful and disdained everything!

"He's really that powerful?"

"It can't be!"

Behind him, the group of Emperor puppet sect elders were also shocked.

To be able to make the old monsters of the nightless club think so highly of him, this kid was probably really very powerful. They had seen wrongly and misunderstood.

"Heavens! Is this all true?"

All the disciples in the surroundings exclaimed in shock.

When they looked at the figure surrounded by a group of golden immortal elders, their eyes changed.

In the beginning, everyone thought that he was an ordinary, lazy, and unmotivated hooligan. His only advantage was that he had good luck, but now it seemed that this was not the case at all!

This person was hiding his true strength. His true strength was far beyond their imagination. He was an extremely powerful monster!

In fact, he was even more powerful than Zi Yang and long Xiaozi.

That was because he was able to take the first place with just his early stage heaven immortal cultivation.

"How could it be like this!"

In the crowd, long Xiaozi and the others clenched their fists, their faces ashen.

They were completely unable to accept such an outcome.

“Could it be that this guy harmed us in King Yan’s field?” One of them suddenly thought of what had happened before, and his face couldn’t help but reveal a bit of fear.

Everything in King Yan’s realm was planned by this guy?

If that was the case, then this kid was too terrifying!

Not far away, Princess Zi Yang was also in a daze.

Behind her, the female cultivators were a little dazed at first, then their faces turned livid and they looked disdainful.

Just now, they were still mocking him for being a parasite of their Emperor puppet sect. It was a disgrace. But in the end, he was actually the first in this competition. It was undoubtedly a slap to their faces, making them feel embarrassed.

“You guys are really stupid!”

The old man from the nightless club looked around and sneered.

Then, he turned to Tang Hao and smiled. “Kid, if you don’t want to stay in Emperor puppet sect anymore, you can come to my nightless club. We welcome you with open doors.”

He really admired this kid, but he also knew that it was impossible to poach him like this. Even if the Emperor puppet sect didn’t like this kid, they wouldn’t allow him to join their nightless club.

However, it would be hard to say in the future. Perhaps there would really be a chance to take this kid into the sect.

“Many thanks!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands and smiled.

This group of nightless club elders had helped him a lot. If it weren’t for this group of people, when he took out the token, he was afraid that it would attract the elders’ speculation and suspicion.

Now, with them around, the elders would not have any more doubts.

“Hahaha! Kid, we’ll meet again!”

The old man laughed and led the people behind him to the mountain peak at the side, returning to his own sect.

The mountain peak immediately quieted down, and the atmosphere was a little awkward.

Those elders looked at each other in dismay, their expressions incomparably mocking.

They were too embarrassed to say anything. This brat had clearly taken the first place and put in so much effort for the sect, but they still treated him coldly and even wanted to punish him. This was simply too much.

Wasn't this going to chill the heart of such a talented person?

"I'm really sorry, we misunderstood. Please don't take it to heart!"

Elder di stammered for a long time before saying, "how about this? we'll give you more rewards as compensation. Whatever you want, just say it!"

Then, he patted his chest and said boldly.

"Really?"

Tang Hao said, raising an eyebrow.

He didn't really care about what had happened just now. With his realm, he wouldn't care about such a small thing. However, he naturally wouldn't refuse to take advantage of it.

"Of course. Just tell me what you want. First, I'll tell you the reward for first place. There are two connate spirit items, five immortal artifacts, one immortal King grade, four zenith heaven grade, and ten top-grade immortal materials ..."

Elder di said with a smile.

"Then I'll have two more connate spirit items. Elder, what do you think?"

Tang Hao said after some thought.

"Two ... Two?"

Elder di was stunned.

These connate spirit items were quite precious. He felt a bit pained to take out two more at once.

"Elder, didn't you say that I can casually mention it?"

Tang Hao said with a smile.

"It's just two innate spirit items! Here you go!"

"Yeah! Here! We can't lose to those old guys from the nightless club!"

Behind him, a group of elders hurriedly said.

What happened just now had already made them lose a lot of face. At this time, they had to get back their face.

“Good! Then I’ll add two more, making it four in total!”

Elder di hesitated for a moment before he gritted his teeth.

“Thank you very much, elder!”

Tang Hao immediately cupped his hands and smiled.

Four connate spirit items and one Celestial King-grade Dharma Treasure ... This trip was worth it!
