

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3157

“Shopkeeper, why aren’t you coming out?”

The group of people blocked the entrance and shouted loudly.

“They’re here! They’re here!”

A person hurriedly walked out from behind.

“Everyone, take a look. They’re all full. Why don’t you wait for a while?” He came closer and said with some difficulty.

“Wait? You want us to wait? Believe it or not, I’ll smash your broken restaurant. What Haotian restaurant? It should have closed down like the Haotian Association! It’s our mercy that you can drive until now, and we didn’t attack you, the remnants of the clear sky Association.”

The leading gray-robed old man raised his head and sneered coldly.

His eyes were filled with contempt.

Taoist Changchun was originally an individual immortal with low cultivation. He was lucky enough to join the Haotian Association at the beginning. That was how he became rich. In just a few years, his cultivation had reached the heaven celestial stage and he became famous. He was once very famous.

However, with the fall of Haotian, this guy would reveal his true colors. He was still a small individual immortal!

“Guys, how about this, give me some time and I’ll make some space for you.”

Daoist Chang Chun smiled apologetically.

With that, he quickly took out a universe bag and stuffed it into the hands of the grey-robed old man.

“Now this is more like it!”

The old man opened it and nodded in satisfaction.

“Then I’ll give you some time. Hurry up!”

He mumbled as he kept the bag.

“Yes, yes!”

Taoist Chang Chun responded and looked around. He walked to a table and whispered a few words. He then took out a heaven and earth bag and stuffed it over.

The people at that table nodded and quickly got up to leave.

The group of people walked over and sat down at the table.

“The business is really good!”

“Hey! “These people have all come for this signboard, wave after wave. I really don’t know what’s so good about this broken signboard. The Haotian club has long been gone, and that demon has long hidden away.”

They looked around and started to discuss.

“Business is good here, so we can also get some profit!” The gray-robed old man smiled smugly as he took out the Qiankun bag and weighed it.

“I’ll keep it first, I’ll distribute it to you later!”

Then, he kept the bag.

“That’s true! If it wasn’t for the money, who would stay in this broken place? it’s been almost five years, and there’s no trace of that demon at all. ” One of them mumbled.

“I don’t think that kid will come at all. He’s not stupid. He’ll die if he comes back!”

“That’s right. He must be hiding again. He won’t dare to come out without a few thousand years. Last time, he managed to escape because the zenith heaven seniors were caught off guard. If he dares to come out this time, he’ll definitely die!”

“That’s for sure. If he dares to show his face again, he won’t be able to escape! What heaven-defying monster? no matter how heaven-defying he was, he could really overturn the heavens! He’s a person who’s going to die!”

They discussed loudly with cold smiles on their faces.

The outside world was almost deified by that monster and held him in high regard.

However, in their eyes, that monster was nothing more than this. No matter how monstrous he was, so what? he was still young, and his cultivation had just reached the level of a golden immortal. He had no foundation at all. As long as he revealed one more flaw, he would die without a doubt.

Those Grand Luo immortal seniors definitely wouldn’t let him go.

It was useless no matter how demonic a person who was bound to die was!

“I don’t think so!”

At this moment, a clear voice rang out in the restaurant.

The few of them were stunned. Their faces sank and they turned around to look.

“Who are you?”

The grey-robed old man narrowed his eyes and stared at him coldly.

The person who spoke was a young man in a blue immortal robe. He had a handsome face and a gentle temperament.

“I just feel that what you guys said is a little wrong!”

The young man in blue said.

“What’s wrong?” The grey-robed old man coldly shouted.

“You said that if that person dared to show up again, he would definitely die, but I think that with that person’s ability, even if he really showed up, nothing would happen to him! Last time, so many great eternity Immortals chased after him, but he was still safe!”

The young man in blue laughed.

“Hmph! That time, it was because that demon was too cunning, and the zenith heaven seniors did not expect it, so they let him escape. If this happens again, that kid will not be able to escape!”

The gray-robed elder said.

“Oh, really? I don’t think so! If there’s a first time, there will be a second time!”

The young man in blue said.

“Who the hell are you? The way you speak to that evildoer, is it related to him?”

A tall, muscular, and red-haired old man beside the grey-robed old man slammed his hand on the table and stood up.

“It’s nothing much, just some admiration, that’s all, so I came here to admire you!”

The young man in blue said.

“Oh, really? You’re quite bold! Do you know our identities?” The grey-robed old man narrowed his eyes and sized up this person before sneering.

“So what if I know?”

The blue-clothed young man’s expression remained the same. He wasn’t afraid at all.

“What big words!”

The red-haired elder shouted angrily, "one look and I can tell he's just a little kid. He's arrogant and doesn't know the immensity of heaven and earth. Let's teach him a lesson first!"

As he spoke, he took a step forward and walked towards the table.

BOOM!

His body trembled, and a monstrous aura burst out, turning into air waves that spread in all directions.

In an instant, the expressions of everyone in the restaurant changed.

This included the young man in blue. He didn't expect that these people would dare to fight here because there were rules in an ordinary Immortal City that forbade fighting in the city.

"Hahaha! Are you afraid? I'll teach you a good lesson first and see if you'll still speak up for that demon!"

The red-haired old man laughed and raised his hand to slap at the blue-clothed youth.

He was a late-stage heaven immortal and was very close to the peak. His aura burst forth and pressed forward, immediately suppressing the young man to the point where it was difficult for him to move.

Seeing that they were really going to make a move, everyone in the building flashed and instantly swept out.

Bang!

There was a loud explosion.

The young man in blue grunted and was sent flying. He only stopped when he sent a few tables flying.

He fell to the ground in a sorry state.

"Hahaha!"

The red-haired old man laughed proudly.

He didn't dare to go all out here, but against a child like this, he just had to exert a little bit of strength.

"Little doll, come here!"

He strode over and struck out with his palm again.

The young man in blue grunted again as he was sent flying.

"Little child, you have to pay the price for saying the wrong thing. Didn't your elders teach you? Alright, I'll teach you today. You have to remember it well!" The red-haired old man laughed and slapped again.

The young man in blue received the palm and grunted again, his body flying backward.

Just as he was about to hit the wall, a hand suddenly reached out from the side and pressed on his waist. The force was gently released, and he was caught steadily.

The young man in blue was stunned.

Even the red-haired old man and the others were stunned.

They thought that everyone had run away and didn't notice that there was another person sitting in the corner.

In an instant, they all focused their eyes and looked at this person with unfriendly expressions.
