

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3203

“Oh my God!”

Many figures stood in the void.

They looked at the battlefield in front of them with shock on their faces.

That was the battlefield of the great eternity Immortals!

The momentum was incomparably shocking, and just a little bit of aura rippling out was enough to make them tremble with fear.

“I wonder who will be the final winner?”

Before, they thought that the primitive sect would win for sure. Then, when the zenith heaven Immortals arrived, they thought that they were going to win. However, the battle was still in chaos after a long time.

“There are too many people, it’s too complicated!”

They sighed.

The situation on this battlefield was too chaotic. Although there were many Celestials of the great all-embracing heaven, they all had their own plans. Everyone wanted to seize the opportunity to suppress that demon, then escape with their people.

In this way, they could monopolize all the treasures.

That monster's performance had shocked them even more. They found it hard to believe.

This monster wasn't a real great eternity immortal, but he could deal with these great eternity Immortals for so long. In their eyes, this was really incredible.

"Kid, don't run if you have the guts!"

A Grand Luo immortal had just made a move and exploded a piece of the immortal spirit body's body. He was about to take advantage of the victory and pursue when he saw the immortal spirit body instantly escape into the void and disappear.

He immediately cursed and stomped his feet in anger.

Such a situation had already occurred many times.

He had thought of sealing off the void in all directions, but it was impossible. As long as he made a move, the kid would run out of the sealed area.

Moreover, the other people here would not allow him to seal the void.

"Tsk! This kid is really slippery!"

Xuanyuan Zheng took out his Emperor brush and smashed it on the immortal spirit body, causing a large area to explode. However, he was unable to suppress it.

He had the immortal Emperor's Supreme treasure, the Emperor brush, and that kid had the ten thousand laws divine mountain. They were not inferior to him at all.

“It doesn’t matter. He won’t be able to hold on for long. If this continues, his immortal spirit body will collapse. Once it collapses, he’ll just be a puny golden immortal. It’ll be easy to crush him!” Another Xuanyuan clan celestial venerable said with a smile.

He was not worried at all.

At this rate, this kid’s immortal spirit body would not last long enough for him to refine those few gold Immortals to death. Once his immortal spirit body collapsed, it would be the time for Xuanyuan clan to take him away.

Here, the Xuanyuan clan had the most people. When the time came, the one with the most hope of snatching people would naturally be the Xuanyuan clan!

“That’s true!”

Xuanyuan Zheng nodded and continued to look around for that kid.

“Soon! It’s almost there!”

He became more and more excited when he saw the immortal spirit body being cut off and exploded.

“It seems like it won’t work!”

“The speed of rebirth is very slow. He should be exhausted.”

The people from all four sides also gradually understood and shook their heads.

In the beginning, this immortal spirit body could recover quickly after being injured, but now, the recovery speed was getting slower and slower, which meant that the demon was starting to exhaust his strength and couldn't hold on any longer.

It would not be long before that monster would be suppressed.

"What a pity!"

They all sighed.

"Little brat, you can't take it anymore! Hmph! You're only a golden immortal after all, and you're trying to fight against us great eternity Immortals. You really don't know your own strength!"

With the Emperor brush in his hand, Xuanyuan Zheng drew a stroke, and a golden divine light blasted out, smashing into the immortal spirit body.

Bang!

With a loud bang, the immortal spirit body's body exploded and a huge hole appeared.

His body trembled and he flew backward, falling to the ground.

"He can't make it!"

"This is a good chance to suppress him!"

The eyes of all the Grand Luo Immortals in the surroundings lit up.

They moved in unison and rushed down. Their faces were all filled with extreme fanaticism and greed.

As long as they could subdue this kid, the two immortal Emperor Supreme treasures and the heaven-defying Mystic technique that could allow a gold immortal to soar in cultivation base for a short period of time would all be theirs.

Before they arrived, they began to fight with each other. Divine light exploded and boundless brilliance exploded.

“Get lost!”

“This kid is from my Xuanyuan clan!”

The four celestial Venerables of Xuanyuan clan shouted and rushed out together. They shot out beams of divine light to stop their fellow Daoists from all directions while rushing down.

“Collect!”

Xuanyuan Zheng flicked his hand, and a pitch-black jar flew out. It instantly expanded and covered the ground.

A powerful suction force emerged from the opening of the can and covered the huge immortal spirit body, pulling it into the can.

The immortal spirit body was pulled up, and its body began to shrink. Soon, it reached the mouth of the can.

Xuanyuan Zheng was overjoyed.

As long as he entered the jar, everything would be settled.

However, in the next moment, his eyes narrowed as he saw the immortal spirit body, which had been motionless, suddenly raise its hand and grab the can.

Then, under his horrified gaze, the immortal spirit body grabbed the jar and threw it at him.

“This ... How is this possible?”

His eyes were wide open, and he was in a daze.

That kid, wasn't he exhausted?

Where did he get this power from?

Could it be that the five golden Immortals had already been refined to death?

Bang!

While he was still in a daze, the can came like a meteor and smashed heavily on his body, causing him to groan. His face was distorted, and his body was sent flying backward like a cannonball.

“Collect your mother!”

The immortal spirit body moved again and waved its huge palm.

Xuanyuan Zheng didn't stop and was smacked by the palm. He grunted and flew back, looking extremely miserable.

All the great eternity Immortals were stunned.

This kid's aura had recovered!

Moreover, he had beaten the old monster Xuanyuan into such a sorry state!

Without waiting for them to recover, that giant palm that blotted out the sky came slapping towards them. Peng, Peng, Peng. With a single slap, a large area was smacked, as if they were smacking mosquitoes.

Then, all the great eternity Immortals groaned and flew out.

"Preposterous!"

When they stopped, their faces turned ashen and they were furious!

They were high and mighty great eternity Immortals, but now they were actually injured by a kid. It was too embarrassing!

"Brat, you're looking for death!"

They shouted in a muffled voice, and their bodies trembled as their auras rose crazily. Some of their bodies even burst out with shocking divine light, and their bodies began to swell. It was clear that they were going to use the immortal spirit body.

All the immortals were completely dumbfounded.

When they came to their senses, they all cried out in alarm and frantically retreated.

Without using their immortal spirit bodies, the battle was already so intense. If all these great eternity Immortals used their immortal spirit bodies, the situation would be unimaginable. Half of the continent would probably be destroyed.

At this moment, a ripple appeared in the void above the battlefield, and a figure walked out.

Her entire body was covered in immortal radiance, and her face could not be seen clearly. However, one could still vaguely see that it was a woman with a graceful figure and shocking curves.

“What’s going on?”

As soon as she appeared, she looked down and let out a soft gasp.
