

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3214

“Interesting!”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow.

This Joss flame should be the power of Joss flames collected by the people of the Saint spirit celestial dynasty. No matter if they were at the Saint realm or the true immortal realm, as long as they worshipped the Saint Emperor, they would be able to produce the power of Joss flames.

Because their cultivation was high, the quality of the power of incense they produced was also high, far better than the incense he collected in the lower realm.

“Hmph! You’re so arrogant!”

The third Prince sneered.

With the support of the Saint spirit seal, his strength had skyrocketed and reached the intermediate golden immortal realm. This was already considered a very strong power among golden Immortals because late golden immortal experts were very rare and every one of them was a famous Big Shot.

This guy was at most in the middle stage, and he actually dared to be arrogant in front of him. What a joke!

He decided to teach this guy a good lesson.

He activated the seal again and absorbed the power of Joss flames crazily. Then, he clenched his fist and punched again.

The beautiful woman had already retreated and waved her hand to activate a large array, covering this part of the world.

Tang Hao shook his head when he saw the punch.

Weak!

He was too weak!

In his eyes, a punch like this was no different from scratching an itch.

He didn't even bother to punch. After taking so many primordial chaos golden pills, his body was so strong that he could even shake a zenith heaven immortal. It was too much of a bully to use it against an early golden immortal.

He merely lifted his foot and lightly stomped on the ground.

Bang!

There was a muffled sound.

A majestic aura instantly burst out and pressed forward.

The third Prince's body stiffened as if he had encountered a wall and could not move forward. The next moment, his body trembled as if he had been hit by a giant hammer. He spat out blood and flew backward.

The third Prince's eyes were wide open, filled with disbelief.

His mind was blank.

Plop!

He fell heavily to the ground and lay there, motionless. His face was completely blank.

At the side, the beautiful woman's eyes were also wide open. First, she was shocked, then, it became horror.

They had not even fought, but he had made a mid-stage golden immortal spit out blood with just his Qi. What a terrifying realm!

This person was definitely not in the middle stage, nor was he in the late stage. He could be a half-step zenith heaven, or even higher.

Thinking of this, she suddenly shivered and her face turned pale.

Even though she was a golden immortal, the consequences of offending such a terrifying senior were extremely severe.

"I'm such an idiot, why didn't I think of that! Since they're willing to be her maidservants, it proves that this person's cultivation realm is extremely high and his divine ability is incomparably powerful."

She thought to herself, her heart filled with regret.

“Senior, please calm your anger!”

She hurriedly bowed. “We were blind to have offended you, senior. However, we have no ill intentions. Please forgive us!”

“Senior, we have offended you!”

After the third Prince stood up, he also bowed.

Although he was somewhat unwilling, he also knew that offending such an old monster would do him no good. Moreover, the timing was delicate, and he could not afford to offend such a powerful old monster.

Tang Hao glared at the two of them coldly and ignored them.

“Let’s go!”

He turned around and said to the two girls.

“Yes, young master!”

The two girls nodded and followed Tang Hao out.

“This guy ... Who is he?”

After the three divine lights had gone far away, the third Prince’s face sank and he looked at the beautiful woman.

The beautiful woman shook her head blankly. "I don't know either. Daoist Ji and the others have been here for more than half a month, but they didn't mention this person. I also can't recognize which senior this is."

"What a pity!"

The third Prince looked in the direction where the divine light had gone and gave a tsk.

A pair of golden immortal sisters was gone just like that. It was truly a pity!

If he could take it, not only would it strengthen his power, but it would also help him gain some face in front of his brothers.

"I think this old monster should be in the great circle of the Golden immortal stage, or a half-step zenith heaven who has just opened his Natal world. Otherwise, it's impossible for him to send me flying with just his aura!"

"Hmph! When I become the sage Emperor and take control of the entire celestial dynasty, I'll definitely suppress him and take revenge for today's humiliation!"

He gritted his teeth and shouted.

When the beautiful woman heard this, her eyes couldn't help but flash.

If this person could really become a saint, he would indeed have the strength to do so. However, the position of Saint Emperor was not that easy to obtain. Although the third Prince had a greater chance of winning, his opponents were not weak either. The outcome was still unpredictable.

“Your Highness, we’ve lost these two golden Immortals, but we’ll have to find a few more! Otherwise, we’ll be at a disadvantage.”

The beautiful woman said.

“I know. Those guys have been restless these days. They’ve been recruiting soldiers and buying horses. I heard that they’ve really recruited a lot.” The third Prince placed his hands behind his back and said coldly, “I’ve already made preparations. In a while, I’ll go to the white bone continent, the devil Heart sect, stupa mountain ... I have connections with all these forces, and I can easily pull them over.”

“That’s good!”

The beautiful woman nodded and smiled.

Although the evil Immortals of the white bone continent did not have a good reputation, they were still quite powerful, especially the devil Heart sect. They had two golden Immortals, one old and one young. The old one was a veteran evil immortal expert.

And that little one was also a rather famous figure.

“Daoist MA, you should also go around and try to pull in as many people as possible. When I become a saint, you will naturally have many benefits.”

The third Prince said.

“Your Highness, please rest assured!”

The beautiful woman responded.

“Then I’ll take my leave first!”

The third Prince beckoned to the two guards, then took out a golden carriage and sat in it.

Aooo!

Accompanied by three heaven-shaking Dragon roars, the carriage was pulled by three true dragons, and soon disappeared into the horizon.

At this moment, Tang Hao was slowly flying in the sky above the Saint spirit celestial dynasty with the two girls.

He listened to the two girls describe their experiences in the Saint spirit celestial dynasty in detail.

“The third Prince, the great position of the sage Emperor ... A boring plot to fight for the throne!”

Tang Hao shook his head when he heard that.

He wasn’t interested in such a drama.

“Young master, this Saint spirit celestial dynasty is quite fun and lively.”

“Yup! It’s much more interesting than those immortal cities!”

The two girls laughed.

“Of course!”

Tang Hao said.

This celestial dynasty was completely different from those celestial cities. Those celestial cities were like markets in the celestial world, where true Celestials gathered. In this celestial dynasty, there were many mortals and Saint realm cultivators, who were more down-to-earth.

“Young master, do you know what the Saint spirit dynasty is most famous for?”

Suddenly, Ji chunxuan laughed.

“What? Is it the largest territory?” Tang Hao asked in surprise.

“No! It’s ores, strange stones, divine stones, and all sorts of stones.” Ji Chunlin said, “young master, let’s go. I’ll take you to a place that’s very interesting!”

“Alright!”

Tang Hao could not bear to reject her when he saw how excited she was, so he nodded.
