

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3309

Saint spirit Imperial City.

A beam of divine light descended and fell into the city.

In the bright moon Palace, Tang Hao opened his eyes.

He flicked his sleeve, and golden Dao beads flew out, floating in all directions of the hall.

There were more than four thousand of them.

Most of them were snatched by him, and some were taken from his clones.

The cultivation level of the clone was relatively weak. Even if it was at the Golden celestial stage, it would not be able to snatch too many Dao beads. It could only win by using numbers!

“I can increase my cultivation by quite a bit!”

He smiled, opened his mouth, and inhaled. All of the Dao beads trembled, and golden Dao accumulation gushed out and gathered together, turning into a torrent that was swallowed into his stomach.

Soon, in his Natal world, Dao stars were formed and spread in all directions.

” 5000 stars!”

After he finished absorbing, he counted.

His cultivation had only been at the thousand star realm. Now, it had soared to 5000 stars. His cultivation had soared, and his battle prowess had also improved by leaps and bounds.

“That’s quite fast. He’s already reached 5000 stars. Maybe it really won’t take long for him to reach 100000 stars and have a chance to break through to the celestial King realm!”

He was slightly emotional.

He had not advanced for long, and he had already reached 5000 stars. It was really fast.

“It seems that there will be many celestial Kings this time!”

He said to himself.

Since the beginning of the upheaval, the immortal encounter had never stopped. In every continent, at most one or two days, there would be an immortal encounter. Some were even faster, with an immortal encounter every half a day.

And every immortal encounter would at least give one to two hundred Dao beads.

Up until now, countless Dao beads had been scattered throughout the immortal world.

“The more the better, it’s good for me!”

He grinned.

If he didn't have this opportunity, his cultivation might stagnate, and he might have to spend a few hundred years or even a few thousand years before he could reach the realm of 100000 stars. But now, he probably wouldn't need a few years.

"The Pingtian sect is doing pretty well. The old silver Dragon and the others have gained a lot ..."

"There's nothing much going on at the Holy beast Palace either!"

Then, he sent a few Jade talismans to the sacred beast Palace and the Pingtian sect to understand the situation.

After receiving the Jade talisman, he opened it and looked at it. He was relieved.

"I'll put this sea calming divine Pearl in the immortal abode!"

He took out the divine Pearl and placed it in the immortal abode, together with the ten thousand Arts divine mountain and the great void divine furnace.

Then, he stood up and left the hall.

"Young master, you're back!"

Accompanied by a gust of fragrant wind, a beautiful figure swept over and hugged his arm.

He turned his head and saw a charming face with a sweet smile. A pair of beautiful eyes curved up with a smile. It was very beautiful, and the eyes were lively, somewhat mischievous.

It was Ji Qiuci!

“What are you doing here?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“Why am I not here? Young master is here, so of course I’m here!” Ji Qiuci smiled.

“Then Ming Yue, she ...”

“Oh! Her! He was busy! She’s the Saint Emperor, so she has to deal with some national affairs. The immortal world has been in chaos recently, and many things have happened in the Saint spirit dynasty. She definitely doesn’t have time to play.” Ji Qiuci said, “she talks about it every day. She says that you tricked her.”

“This isn’t a trap!”

Tang Hao chuckled.

The position of the sage Emperor was something that the other princes could only dream of. She had picked it up for free, so wasn’t that good?

Once he became the sage Emperor, he would no longer have to worry about his cultivation level. He could take any resources in the celestial dynasty he wanted. Now that he had an immortal encounter, the celestial dynasty had obtained many Dao beads. It wouldn’t be long before that girl, Mingyue, would have the chance to reach the zenith heaven realm.

“She’s just saying. She still admires you a lot. When she talks about you, her eyes will light up.” Ji Qiuci chuckled.

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao smiled again.

“You can take these Dao beads!” Tang Hao sized her up, then took out the remaining Dao beads and gave them to her.

Previously, he had prepared quite a number of Dao beads for the two sisters, allowing them to reach the advanced golden immortal realm. This batch of Dao beads was enough to allow them to reach the peak.

“Thank you, young master!”

Ji Qiuci took it and smiled sweetly.

“Alright, you can go back first and quickly absorb it!”

Tang Hao said, waving his hand.

“Yes, young master!”

Ji Qiuci let go of his hand and took a few steps. She suddenly stopped and turned back. She stepped forward, stood on her tiptoes, and kissed him on the cheek.

“Hehe!”

She smiled slyly. Before Tang Hao could react, she turned and left.

“This girl ...”

Tang Hao stood where he was for a moment. He was confused.

Although this girl had always been rather bold, this was her first time being intimate.

“Fellow Daoist!”

Just as he was in a daze, he suddenly heard someone shout outside the bright moon Palace.

He was very familiar with this voice. It was the nation protecting Saint.

He immediately gathered his thoughts and dashed out.

Outside the palace, he saw the nation-protecting Saint standing in front of the palace.

“Fellow Daoist, what’s the matter?”

Tang Hao asked after they exchanged a few words.

“I really do have something to trouble fellow Daoist.” The nation protecting Saint said with a serious expression.

“Oh? What is it that requires my help?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“Don’t worry, fellow Daoist. It’s not a troublesome matter. It’s just the two old Saint emperors of the celestial dynasty. They’re preparing to undergo their tribulation. The current situation is chaotic, and all kinds of great evils and great demons are appearing frequently. Furthermore, the Saint spirit dynasty is now the focus of all parties in the celestial world. ”

“Therefore, the two old sage emperors were a bit worried that their tribulation would be disturbed, so they wanted fellow Daoist to protect them and ensure that their tribulation would go smoothly!”

The country protecting Saint said.

“I see!”

Tang Hao nodded slightly when he heard that.

Indeed, the current status of the Saint spirit dynasty was very special, and everyone was paying attention to it. If the two old Saint emperors were to undergo the heavenly Tribulation like this, it might really cause some interference.

With the means of those major forces, they could still do it.

Even if he left, it would be of no use. In the eyes of the world, the Saint spirit dynasty was already tied to him.

“Alright!”

After a moment of silence, he agreed.

“May I know when the two old sage emperors will undergo their tribulations?”

He asked again.

“There’s no rush. Let’s wait a little longer. It’s more secure this way. About half a month later!” The country protecting Saint said.

“That’s good! Just let me know when the time comes!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Good! Let me first thank fellow Daoist on behalf of the two old sage emperors!”

The nation protecting Saint smiled and bowed.

“Al! No need to be so polite!”

Tang Hao waved his hands.

The increase in the strength of the Saint spirit dynasty was also beneficial to him. If the two old Saint emperors became zenith heavens, his side would have two more powerful forces.

After chatting for a while more, the nation protecting Saint left.

Tang Hao returned to the bright moon Palace and sat down.

His immortal soul left his body once again and started to chase after the immortal encounter, continuing to plunder the Dao beads.

In ten days, he had traversed more than ten continents and obtained more than eight hundred Dao beads.

After absorbing it, his cultivation level rose again, reaching the realm of six thousand stars.

Two to three days after his return, the nation protecting Saint arrived and informed the two old divine emperors that the Tribulation would be five days later.
