

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3314

“Something’s wrong!”

“This place isn’t right either!”

In the mountain, the treasure Daoist was still walking around.

A day had passed, and he had almost walked through the entire mountain range.

However, he still didn’t find anything.

The ruler was still shining with a divine light and didn’t stop for a moment.

“You still haven’t found it?”

Outside the mountain, Tang Hao was bored from waiting. He found a place and lay down.

“Hmph! I don’t believe that there’s a treasure that I, abundant treasures, can’t find!”

Treasure Daoist gritted his teeth, and his fighting spirit was reignited.

The harder it was to find, the more he refused to believe in heresy and insisted on finding it.

“It must be this stone! There’s a great mystery to this stone!”

Another day passed.

Treasure Daoist stood in front of a rock, staring at it with red eyes.

He was madly activating his divine eyes to explore the void around the stone, trying to find traces of the formation.

Tang Hao rolled over and almost fell asleep.

“Senior, you really have great perseverance!”

He looked in that direction and yawned.

Then, he lay down again and closed his eyes comfortably.

“Hahaha! There was! I didn’t guess wrong! It’s this stone! Hahaha! I’ve succeeded!”

Suddenly, a burst of laughter came from the mountain.

Tang Hao immediately rose to his feet and saw treasure Daoist standing in front of the rock. He was dancing with joy.

“Senior, good job!”

Tang Hao smiled.

Then, he saw the treasure Daoist walk around the stone a few times and suddenly disappear.

“It’s my turn!”

Tang Hao waited for a while, then rushed over.

He followed the way treasure Daoist walked, and the next moment, the void around him twisted, and he was in another world.

“Heavens!”

When he looked up, he was stunned!

His eyes couldn’t help but widen in shock.

What appeared in front of him was a mountain, an extremely majestic mountain. It was completely golden and flowed with a divine light. The peak of the mountain was covered with a circle of seven-colored divine rings. It was dazzling.

A vast, vast, and extremely majestic aura hit his face, causing his mind to tremble.

He was all too familiar with this aura!

Emperor might!

This was the might of an immortal Emperor!

This mountain was an item of the immortal Emperor!

In the immortal realm, there was no other immortal Emperor. In the end, there had only been one immortal Emperor, Emperor Tianhuang, who had created the immortal realm and ruled over everything!

This mountain undoubtedly belonged to the Tianhuang Emperor!

Tang Hao's scalp was about to explode when he thought of that. He wanted to turn around and run as far away as possible.

He was only at the zenith heaven realm, so he was no match for an immortal Emperor. Once he encountered one, he would die!

However, he raised his foot and moved it a little, but he still put it down.

As far as he knew, the Tianhuang Emperor had not appeared for thousands of years. He was either in seclusion or not in this world. The possibility of him being in this celestial mountain was extremely low.

Moreover, if Emperor Tianhuang was still here, how could he and the treasure Daoist enter? they would be sensed and killed immediately.

He composed himself and looked up. Halfway up the mountain, he saw Daoist many treasures, who was still alive and well.

This also proved that the Tianhuang Emperor was not here.

"Hahaha! He struck it rich! I'm rich!"

Treasure Daoist was crazily laughing while holding a statue.

It was a statue of an ancient beast, a Suan ni, its whole body was red and shining with divine light. It was clearly made of the top immortal material, Phoenix essence gold.

There were many more on both sides of the mountain road, all of which were ancient beasts of various colors.

“Motherf * cker, why is it so hard!”

After laughing wildly for a while, treasure Daoist was about to break the sculpture off, but after a long time, the sculpture did not move at all.

“Forget it, I’ll open it later. Let’s go up and see if there are any other treasures!”

After a while, he retracted his hand and walked up.

Tang Hao also started walking up the mountain.

In front of the mountain was a majestic mountain Gate with a majestic aura, but there were no words carved on it.

As he stepped on the steps, the Emperor pressure became even more intense.

He raised his head and looked up, feeling as if he was suffocating.

The celestial mountain in front of him was even more shocking than the ten thousand laws divine mountain.

The steps were made of gold and iron, the entire mountain was made of gold and iron, but the material was different. The sculptures and railings around the steps were made of better materials, they were all top grade gold and iron immortal materials. As for the steps and the mountain, they were slightly inferior.

But it was still an immortal material, it was extremely valuable.

He had already started to estimate how much his immortal spirit body would improve if he fused with this mountain.

“There’s also the pavilion, the stone, and the Jade. They’re all extraordinary!”

As he walked, he saw a few pavilions and some vegetation.

These were all rare plants that were planted in the rainbow-colored deity ground.

“This is good stuff!”

Tang Hao’s eyes lit up when he saw the deity ground.

This seven-colored deity ground was cultivated by an immortal Emperor and was of a higher grade than the soil in his cave abode.

This was definitely the best deity ground in the world!

“Dig! Dig them out!”

He immediately rolled up his sleeves and started digging.

It wasn't easy for him to tear down the statues because they were one with the mountain. However, the soil was easy to dig out. He dug out all the celestial soil along with the plants, then opened the mobile immortal's cave and sent it in.

With this deity ground, it would be much easier for him to plant the bamboo.

He moved quickly and dug all the way up. He dug even more cleanly, not even leaving a speck of dust.

Just like that, he dug all the way to the mountainside.

Halfway up the mountain, there was a majestic palace.

Every brick and tile was extraordinary!

“Mother! He struck it rich! I'm rich!”

Tang Hao looked left and right. He was almost dazzled by the colorful lights.

Treasure Daoist was even more excited than him. He laid on the ground and touched the floor tiles with an infatuated look. That was a top-grade immortal Jade. If it was taken out, a small piece would be worth a city.

However, in this place, every Palace was paved with this kind of immortal Jade.

Tang Hao only managed to calm down after a long while.

He glanced at treasure Daoist and walked in the other direction.

He didn't want to expose himself yet.

“Waa! Another ten-thousand-year-old immortal tree!”

“Could this Lotus be the turbid world Black Lotus?”

“And this peach tree is at least twenty thousand years old!”

As he strolled through the halls, he became more and more shocked and excited.

This place was full of treasures!

All kinds of rare and even extinct plants could be found here. They were all extremely old, at least ten or twenty thousand years old. Every one of them would make Immortals fight over it.

Not to mention the various immortal materials, there were so many types that he almost couldn't count them. top grade bamboo, top grade wood, all kinds of legendary items, they could be found everywhere.

“This is too F * cking extravagant!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looted the place.

Wherever he went, as long as it could be moved or pried, he would take it away. Whether it was floor tiles, vases, or coffins, he would not let go of anything.
