

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3324

When Tang Hao reappeared, he was already in the air.

With a wave of his sleeve, rays of divine light flew out. They were all array flags and array discs.

In the next moment, the array flags glowed brightly and formed a large array, sealing the void.

“What’s going on?”

“What’s going on?”

Seeing this, the four Dragon demons all cried out in shock.

“Come in!”

Tang Hao scanned his surroundings. He spotted an Island and glided over.

He held the gods Palace with his left hand and reached out his right hand to grab the island. The ten or so Dragon demons on the island flew out and were thrown into the gods Palace.

“Clang! Clang!”

The sound of chains clanking could be heard in the hall.

He had to first suppress these Dragon demons, then subdue them and make them a member of the gods Palace.

After collecting these old monsters, he swept to the side and continued to collect.

“It’s that human monster!”

“He barged in, and he’s going to suppress all of us! Quick, contact the King!”

Soon, some Dragon demons recognized him, and they were all scared out of their wits.

This human genius was an extremely terrifying figure in their hearts.

They couldn’t even think of fighting him head-on. Even their King wasn’t a match for this guy, let alone them.

Quite a few people started to bombard the formation, wanting to escape.

Some even took out their Jade talismans, wanting to send out the news.

However, it was all in vain. The void had been completely sealed.

“We’re finished! Our dragon clan is finished!”

“How did this monster get here?”

Very quickly, they all revealed a look of pessimism and despair.

“Come in!”

Tang Hao swept through the islands and divine mountains. In the end, he landed in front of the immortal Palace with the gods Palace.

Groups of demonic Dragons were caught by him and stuffed into the gods Palace.

In less than ten minutes, the entire immortal Palace had been swept clean.

All the Dragon demons here had been suppressed by him.

“Including those human Celestials, there should be 7000 to 8000 earth Celestials!” In the end, he did some calculations.

He was quite satisfied with this number.

“My Lord!”

The old silver Dragon flew over and smiled.

“You’ve done a great job this time. Tell me, what do you want? Treasures, Taoist connotation, anything is fine!” Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

“Master, you know me, I’m not good at these things.”

The old silver Dragon rubbed his hands and chuckled.

Tang Hao's face twitched when he heard that.

F * ck!

This old pervert didn't even want a treasure!

"Alright! Take that female demon with you. Also, pick a few more from here." Tang Hao opened the temple and let him choose.

Perhaps, this was a good thing!

He pondered while looking at the old silver Dragon.

Although the Dragon race was lustful, due to their high cultivation, their fertility rate was not very high. On the other hand, it was easier for the Dragon race to produce offspring when they mated with other races. Therefore, there were not many pure-blood Dragons.

For this race, even after he had suppressed all of them, there were only eight to nine thousand true dragons.

It would be better to let the old silver Dragon work hard and maybe give birth to more to strengthen the clan.

With more true dragons, wouldn't his gods Palace become more and more powerful?

"I can also make some more progeny pills and let the old silver Dragon try!"

He touched his chin and pondered.

“This one, this one, and these few, what do you think, your Lord?”

After looking around, the old silver Dragon picked more than 20.

“Alright!”

“Remember, work harder and have more children,” Tang Hao said.

“Alright!”

The old silver Dragon chuckled. This was what he was best at!

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao did not confiscate the immortal Palace. He did not want to disturb Dragon King Tian’s seal.

Bringing the old silver Dragon with him, he flew out of the crack and quickly returned to the Holy Spirit dynasty.

A day later, a ripple appeared in the nearby void. A burly figure shuttled through the void and walked out.

It was Dragon King Tian!

“The harvest this time is not small, and we’ve even made an Alliance agreement. From now on, we can rest easy!”

His face was filled with joy.

This time, he accepted the invitation of the dark night King and went to the toad clan. He discussed with the other monster Kings and signed an Alliance agreement to guard against that monster.

That monster was too terrifying!

Not only was he powerful, but there were also two immortal kings behind him. He couldn’t resist them at all with his strength. Only by joining forces with the great demons would there be hope.

“I’ll just let that brat be arrogant for a while. When I break through to the immortal King realm, I won’t be afraid of him.”

He snorted coldly as he headed back to his house.

With the help of this opportunity, his cultivation had been rising rapidly recently. He was very confident that he could finally break through to the celestial King realm with this opportunity.

At that time, he would have nothing to fear!

“I’m back!”

“You don’t have to be afraid. That demon can’t threaten us anymore!”

The moment he entered the spatial Rift, he laughed out loud.

However, his expression quickly froze, and his smile stopped.

Then, his dragon eyes widened as he stared in front of him in disbelief.

There was no one there!

“Where is he?”

“Where did everyone go? Come out!”

He roared and rushed forward, madly releasing his divine sense to search.

However, after he had thoroughly searched the place, he still could not find a single person.

“How did this happen?”

He stood in front of the immortal Palace, dumbstruck.

They were all his clansmen and subordinates. They had been together for thousands of years, so it was impossible for them to leave him for no reason. There was only one possibility, and that was that something had happened to them!

Two days after he left, someone broke in and captured everyone.

“Who is it?”

He clenched his fists, and his expression became ferocious and terrifying.

“Could it be that kid?”

The first thing he thought of was that human genius.

However, on second thought, something was not right. How could that brat find his way here? this was his old lair, and it had not been exposed for ten thousand years. Moreover, he had not seen that brat for a long time, so it was impossible for him to be exposed.

Besides, that kid couldn't have known that he would be going out in these two days.

However, who else could it be other than that kid?

Those old demons at the meeting?

It was possible that they were either doing it themselves or working with others!

The more he thought about it, the less likely he was to kill that kid. On the contrary, the old Toad and the others were more suspicious.

Although they were all demons, there was no small conflict between them.

The Dragon race was proud of their powerful bloodline and had always been overbearing. Many demons viewed them as enemies.

“Which one is it?”

“Don’t let me find out. Otherwise, I, Dragon King Tian, will exterminate your entire clan!”

He stood in front of the palace and roared madly, his anger soaring to the sky.

Meanwhile, in the capital of the Holy Spirit Kingdom, Tang Hao had already begun to subdue the true dragons.

In just two days, he had subdued all the true dragons and given them some spiritual essence to increase their strength by a lot.

With the addition of more than 8000 true dragons, the power of the gods Palace was undoubtedly raised to another level.
