

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3337

“F * ck!”

Tang Hao was a little depressed.

When he was in Pangu world, someone wanted to destroy it. Now that he had finally arrived in the immortal world, someone wanted to destroy it again?

What the hell is this!

“I also do not know who is trying to shake the regional wall, but it clearly did not succeed.” The night Immortal King said.

She looked at the void and frowned slightly.

A touch of worry appeared on her seductive and beautiful face.

Although she wasn't clear about this matter, she had a bad feeling about it.

“Then what is the so-called Great Tribulation?”

Tang Hao looked at her and asked.

“Sacrifice!”

The night Immortal King hesitated for a moment.

“Sacrifice?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

In the next moment, he had a look of realization.

No wonder!

Back then, the celestial feather King had left behind his inheritance and the celestial feather sword in his palace, as if he had deliberately left behind his last words for his descendants.

At that time, he was still a little puzzled as to why the feather Immortal King would do such a thing. But now, he understood.

The so-called sacrifice was naturally to take those immortal kings and great eternity Immortals and throw them to the Dragon count celestial race. They would sacrifice them to protect the entire immortal world.

“You were born in the lower realm. You’re still young, so you might not know about some of the secrets of the ancient times. You don’t know how our immortal world was born.” The night Immortal King said.

“I know!”

Tang Hao interrupted her. “It’s just the long Bo clan!”

“You actually know?”

The night Immortal King was taken aback.

But then, she thought of something and said, "That's true! You have the ten thousand laws divine mountain, so you must have learned about the ancient times from that senior's soul."

"When the celestial world was first established, Emperor Tianhuang made a contract with the celestial race to protect the celestial world through sacrifices. Many celestial Kings died in the last round of sacrifices, and the rest went into hiding."

"There are still more than ten celestial Kings in the entire celestial world, and only that guy and I dare to show up."

"The previous immortal encounters were all deliberately given by us, the immortal kings, by cutting off our cultivation bases, in order to create some immortal kings to be scapegoats."

Tang Hao nodded slightly when he heard that.

So it was like this!

"Then how much longer until the sacrifice?" He asked.

"Soon! Three to five years!" The night Immortal King said.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that.

Since the sacrifice was almost done, why would the Dragon count clan still attack the regional wall?

Could it be that ... Things had changed?

“Alright, let’s go back! I have to go and discuss with the other celestial Kings!” The night Immortal King said.

After saying that, she tore open the void and left quickly.

“This ... Is not good!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looked at the sky.

If he was alone, of course, he wouldn’t be afraid. But now, he had brought quite a few people up. Ji Ruyin, the old silver Dragon, su Xuezi, ye Siyao, and the others were all in the Pingtian sect.

If the Dragon count divine clan really wanted to break through the regional wall and destroy the immortal world, then things would be bad.

The Dragon count celestial race was extremely powerful and had a huge number of ancestor gods at the immortal Emperor level. Just two or three of them would be enough to suppress the entire immortal world. Even if the Tianhuang Emperor were to appear, it would be useless.

“Motherf * cker! We have to bring him back again!”

Tang Hao mumbled. He was extremely depressed.

In the end, he still had to return to Pangu world.

He turned around and headed back to the fair sky sect.

“Young master, you’ve come!”

He landed in the main hall of the Pingtian sect. Ji Ruyin was bent over a table, carefully studying a scroll.

Sensing the aura, she raised her head and immediately revealed a look of pleasant surprise.

She stood up and walked over to him in high spirits.

These few years, the young master rarely came. Every time they met, she had to look forward to it for a long time before she could see him again.

“The situation has changed. Call everyone back and make preparations. You will bring them back to the lower realm.”

Tang Hao said.

“Go back? Go back for what?”

Ji Ruyin was startled and asked in surprise.

“The situation in the immortal world is still unclear. I can’t take the risk, so I’ll arrange for you to bring your people back first. If you’re safe, I’ll come down and bring you back.” Tang Hao said.

If the Dragon count divine clan really did come, then the people of the fair sky sect would be a burden to him. They would only drag him down.

“Alright!”

Ji Ruyin answered after a moment of silence.

She also knew the pros and cons. If it wasn't for the fact that there was a problem that couldn't be solved, the young master would definitely not let them return to the lower realm.

“I'll make the arrangements then!”

She said with a serious expression.

Tang Hao nodded. He gave her a few more instructions, then left the main hall.

“Young master Tang!”

He met su Xuezi in a cave.

She hadn't changed much since the first time they met. She was still as gentle and beautiful as ever. She wore a white chiffon dress that clung to her body, accentuating her exquisite curves.

She was in the manor cave, watering the flowers in the garden with a serious expression.

“How come you have time to come?”

Upon seeing him, su Xuezi was also a little surprised, and there was even a hint of surprise in her eyes.

“There are some things!”

Tang Hao briefly explained what happened in the lower realm.

Su Xuezi’s eyes immediately darkened.

Back in the great fate sect, she had secretly vowed to stay by his side forever. However, things did not go as she wished and she found that she did not even have the right to be by his side.

Therefore, when she was at the stellar mountain, she had cultivated so hard just to ascend and find him.

After going to the higher realm, she had indeed fulfilled her wish and reunited with him again, staying in the Pingtian sect.

But now, they were going to part again!

“Mm! I’ll listen to you!”

Even though she was unwilling, she still nodded her head obediently.

It’s a good thing that he wants me to go with the fair sky sect. It means that he already sees me as one of his own!

As she thought about this, her face blushed slightly. She was a little shy and a little sweet.

“Also, don’t worry. I’ll take good care of Siyao and wait for you to come back to pick us up!”

She raised her head and smiled.

“En!”

Tang Hao nodded.

When he walked out of the cave, he turned back to look at her.

She was still standing there, looking at him with her limpid eyes. When she saw him looking at her, she pursed her lips and smiled, waving her hand.

Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat.

He vaguely remembered everything that had happened in the great fate sect. He remembered being saved by her and then taking off her clothes and applying needles on her ...

“This debt of love ... Is difficult to repay!”

He sighed in his heart.

He understood lady su and that silly girl ye Siyao’s intentions, but he really didn’t have the time to respond. There were too many things weighing on him.

And even Ji Ruyin ...

He stood at the door and looked at her for a long time. Then, he turned around and left to see ye Siyao.

This girl was much more lively. She pulled him and complained for a long time, saying that it was too boring to stay in the sect.

He was still calling her a big liar.

“This girl ...”

Tang Hao looked at her and smiled.

This girl was too innocent, so innocent that she was a little silly. She had even wanted to elope with him back then.

After chatting with her for a while, he finally talked about the lower realm.
