

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3347

After hearing this, the old man was very confused.

A woman who had just advanced to the zenith heaven realm was obviously unable to cause any harm to the Lei clan's geniuses. It was time for someone else, a human Celestial King, to make a move.

However, even if it was a human Celestial King, how could he suppress the Lei clan's genius to the point where he couldn't even send out a trace of help?

The Lei clan genius was not stupid. If he had seen the strength of his opponent, he would definitely have a countermeasure.

"Maybe that human Celestial King is too cunning and sealed the void in advance, so there's no news of him asking for help ... It doesn't matter. As long as we find the place where he died and find a bit of his aura, we can track that guy down."

"At that time, I will capture him and bring him back to the Shen clan!"

The old man on the bridge sneered.

He placed his hands behind his back and looked into the distance. His eyes were filled with killing intent.

A mere human dared to kill a member of the gods race. He was really courting death!

"Then I'll leave it to senior. We must capture him and punish him!" The Lei clan genius said.

He had no doubts about the strength of this senior.

This was a powerful figure in the Yang God Realm, close to the five-star realm. To the human race, the Yang God Realm was the celestial King realm.

With his celestial race's powerful bloodline and shocking divine powers, how could a human Celestial King be a match for a celestial race's yang God?

"Don't worry!"

The old man laughed arrogantly.

As long as he found it, suppressing it would be as easy as stretching out his hand.

"Let's go!"

He gave a low shout and brought the Lei clan genius with him as he sped off.

"This place should be the place where they fought. Look, these marks are still very new."

The two of them searched for an entire day before finally confirming that the house had landed.

The two of them revealed looks of joy.

After confirming the location, the rest was easy. As long as they could find a little aura, they could easily track it with their divine powers.

Even if that fellow ran to the ends of the earth, he would not be able to escape their pursuit.

“Senior, quickly!”

The Lei clan genius was overjoyed and shouted.

“Hahaha! Good!”

The old man laughed and released his divine sense to cover the ruins below and began to search for auras.

However, the smile on his face quickly froze.

“This ... How is this possible?”

Gradually, he revealed a look of disbelief.

The ruins below had been cleaned up completely. Not even a trace of aura was left behind. This was simply unbelievable!

Because in such a great battle, there would definitely be some minute auras that would leak out and scatter in all directions. It would be very difficult to completely eliminate them.

However, this fellow had done it!

Not a single trace of his aura was left behind!

What kind of terrifying level of caution was this?

“Senior, you don’t have one?”

The Lei clan genius was startled and asked in shock.

“No, I didn ‘t!”

The old man forced a smile and shook his head, “this guy is not ordinary! He must be one of those extremely cautious and cunning people!”

“Then ... What should we do?”

The Lei clan genius said anxiously.

Without any aura, how were they supposed to track him?

“Is there anything on Lei Jue that can be traced back to you?” The old man looked at him and said in a deep voice.

“This ...” The Lei clan genius pondered for a moment and suddenly revealed a look of surprise, “yes! He had a treasure on him that I was planning to refine, but he took it away. I almost forgot about it. ”

“Inside, is there your Soul brand?”

The old man was overjoyed and rushed forward excitedly.

This was an unexpected surprise!

“What kind of treasure is it? tell me.”

“It’s a zenith heaven artifact of the human race. I thought it was quite exquisite, so I wanted to keep it for my own use. Just as I was about to refine it, he took it out to denounce me. I can’t remember what happened before. ” The genius said.

“Hahaha! Good! That’s great!”

The old man laughed out loud.

That Celestial King of the human race must be an extremely cautious person. Ordinary means wouldn’t be able to track him.

However, such an unexpected coincidence would allow them to successfully track down that guy.

No matter how careful that fellow was, he would never have expected such a coincidence!

“Hurry up!”

The old man laughed and took out an eight-trigram compass.

After extracting a trace of the genius’s soul and putting it in, he began to activate the compass to search.

The needle on the compass was spinning quickly.

The two of them gradually became excited.

“When I find that guy, I’ll teach him a lesson!” The old man sneered in his heart.

After chasing for so long and not catching up, he was already filled with a stomach full of anger.

After a while, the needle finally slowed down. Gulp, gulp. It spun one round and stopped under the two’s expectant gazes.

When the two of them focused their eyes, their bodies trembled as if they were struck by lightning.

The two pairs of eyes couldn’t help but widen, filled with disbelief.

The needle had actually returned to its original position.

In other words, he had failed!

Even this treasure didn’t track that guy’s whereabouts.

“I’ve seen a ghost!”

“That’s impossible!”

Two exclamations of shock.

The two of them could not believe their eyes.

Logically speaking, he should have been able to track him down. That treasure had a wisp of his mark on it. Even if that guy had lost it, the eight trigrams compass should have been able to sense his location!

But now, there wasn't even a single direction!

It was really strange!

"What's going on? I couldn't find any trace of his aura just now, and now, even this compass can't track him. That guy ... Is he really so cautious to this extent?"

The old man murmured, his mind in a daze.

He had never seen someone so cautious before!

Moreover, his methods were extremely brilliant and could easily erase all traces, making him unable to find any useful traces.

"Se ... Senior, what ... What's going on?"

The Lei clan genius looked at the old man and asked in a daze.

He had never seen such a situation before and was instantly stunned.

"This must be an extremely cunning and sinister old monster. He must have lived from the ancient era for tens of thousands of years." The old man shook his head and said.

Only such an old monster would be cautious to this extent.

“That’s true!”

The genius was stunned for a moment, but then he felt relieved.

It was possible if it was such an old monster.

“What do we do now?”

The old man frowned and pondered for a long time before shaking his head again.””With our abilities, I’m afraid we can’t find that guy. If we want to deal with this old monster, killing some Immortals and threatening him is useless. Such a person has long lost his feelings and won’t be moved by external things.”

“The only thing we can do now is to report back and ask the ancestor God to take action. The ancestor God’s divine powers are mysterious and unpredictable. There must be a way to find this person and capture him!”

“Alright!”

The genius nodded his head.

This was the only way now.

They were already at their wit’s end.

Only the ancestor God could catch this person!

“Let’s go!”

The old man hurriedly flew up and headed towards the immortal ancient bridge.

The Lei clan genius stood up and quickly followed.
