

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3483

In the void of the hundred territories.

A ripple appeared, and Tang Hao walked out of it.

“The ancient God’s cave, the treasures...What exactly are they?”

He searched the souls of the three people again.

But unfortunately, these three people didn’t know much. They were just hired thugs, not the instigators.

If he wanted to find out more, he had to find the mastermind.

“The mission of these three people is to kill people, collect souls and treasures, and bring them back to the instigator. In other words, the instigator will definitely contact them again. At that time, we might be able to find him,”

Tang Hao pondered for a moment, then decided not to rush.

He didn’t kill the three of them and they were still in the furnace.

Everything they had was with him. If there was any news, it would be in his hands.

Just like that, after waiting for about a day, a jade talisman finally came.

“Stop! Come to the Black Lotus sect in the Tangshan region!”

He opened the Jade talisman and heard a deep voice.

“The Blacklotus sect?”

Tang Hao was surprised, and his expression changed.

Of course, he remembered the Black Lotus sect. It was a force in the Tangshan region that had discovered the sun god’s cave.

“The ancient God cave? It can’t be that yang God’s cave dwelling, right?”

His mind stirred, and his face darkened.

Could it be that these people’s goal was the ancient divine crystal fragment?

“Who’s the person behind this? How did he know about that cave and even found out that it was the Black Lotus sect?”

He had many doubts in his heart.

After careful consideration, he came to a realization.

Back then, he had only taken the skeleton and the divine crystal fragment from the cave dwelling. He had not touched anything else. It was obvious that the Blacklotus sect had taken it.

It was possible that the Black Lotus sect’s items had leaked out and been discovered.

“Let’s go and take a look first!”

He collected his thoughts, raised his hand to wipe his face, and changed his appearance, becoming one of the Devils.

After putting on his robe and ring, he turned into the devil.

Then, he quickly headed for the Tangshan region.

When he arrived at the Black Lotus sect, the mountain Gate was already in a mess. Collapsed palaces were everywhere, and the nine-colored divine blood could be seen everywhere.

When he landed on the main peak, he saw that there were already seven to eight figures gathered in the hall.

One of them was wearing a black robe and a white mask. He stood at the head of the hall and held a head in his hand.

Upon closer inspection, it was the Blacklotus sect master.

“This guy is really unlucky!”

Tang Hao said to himself after he saw it clearly.

That day, he had taken the best treasure, and the Black Lotus sect had only taken some scraps. He did not expect to attract such a disaster. They were really unlucky.

When he stepped into the hall, a few people turned around and looked at him.

Seeing that he was alone, she was a little puzzled.

However, he did not ask further.

Tang Hao walked to their side and looked at the masked man.

That person was obviously searching his soul.

He had observed the situation before he had entered. These people had probably just arrived here not long ago. The sect master's head had just been chopped off.

"That's right! The thing flowed out from this Black Lotus sect, and this is the source."

A moment later, the masked man spoke.

"The treasure is also in the Blacklotus sect, right?"

Someone said.

The masked man shook his head and said in a grave tone,""Those few items did flow out from here. The ancient God's cave was indeed discovered by the Black Lotus sect. But the strange thing is that the treasure did not fall into their hands."

"How is that possible?"

“Yup! They were the ones who discovered the cave, so how could they not have obtained any treasures?”

Everyone in the hall was surprised.

“According to the Black Lotus sect master’s memories, a mysterious person followed them into the cave and took the opportunity to take the treasure. Not long after, the mysterious person seemed to have successfully absorbed the treasure!”

The masked man’s voice was filled with shock.

How could such a treasure be absorbed by anyone?

Moreover, he was from a desolate place like the Tangshan region?

If not for the fact that he had seen it clearly in his memory, he would not have believed it.

“A mysterious person? Where did you get it from?”

“Already absorbed? Then what do we do?”

Everyone was a little surprised.

“What is that treasure? You have to tell us clearly so that we can help you find it. ”

“Yup!”

Then, they asked curiously.

From the start, this guy had not clearly explained what the treasure was, which made them very curious.

“It’s fine to tell you now. It’s a fragment of a divine crystal!”

The masked man hesitated for a moment before finally speaking.

“Divine crystal shards? It can’t be a perfect-grade divine crystal, right?”

Someone said.

There were three levels to Supreme divine crystals: flawless, perfect, and Supreme.

Although there were few flawless-level ones in the East continent, there were still quite a few people who had them, so it was not necessary for people to go to such great lengths.

Only perfect God crystals could drive people crazy.

A perfect-grade divine crystal was a peerless divine item that could shake the entire divine realm!

“Perfect?”

When the masked man heard this, he only sneered, his tone disdainful.

“Not perfect?”

Everyone’s faces changed, revealing a look of shock.

If it wasn’t perfect, then it must be Supreme!

“It’s not an utmost being either. It’s a ... Fragment of the primogenitor divine crystal!” The masked man said word by word.

“Ancestor?”

In the hall, there was immediately a series of gasps.

The grade of the primogenitor divine crystal was even higher than the utmost being!

“No wonder!”

They were even more enlightened.

It was no wonder that this person would make such a big fuss and would not hesitate to massacre the entire hundred territories in order to find this treasure.

“It’s just a small piece, a very small piece. However, even such a small piece is enough to make a yang God expert explode. The owner of the ancient God’s cave abode exploded and died while absorbing divine crystals!”

“I don’t know either. How did that mysterious person successfully absorb the divine crystal? it’s truly unbelievable!”

The masked man said.

“What level can he reach after he has absorbed the divine crystals?”

Someone asked curiously.

“I’m not sure.” The masked man thought for a moment and said, “if his natural talent is extremely bad, such as a low-quality seventh-grade or eighth-grade divine crystal, then after absorbing the ancestral divine Crystal Shard, he can also reach the flawless level!”

“What? You can even reach the flawless level like this?”

Everyone was shocked.

Grade seven or eight divine crystals were trash. They were no different from trash.

“Of course! That’s the primogenitor divine crystal!” The masked man said, “if his own grade is high enough, at first grade, he might be able to advance to perfect grade!”

“Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!”

Everyone gasped again.

They knew very well what a perfect grade divine crystal meant. It was definitely a top genius, and there were not many divine crystals in the entire market.

“I’m not sure what’s going on with that person either. You guys continue. Investigate more in the Tangshan region and find out the identity of that mysterious person.” The masked man waved his sleeve and shouted.

“Alright!”

The crowd responded and turned to leave the hall.

Tang Hao followed behind them and walked out of the hall.

His thoughts raced and he quickly came up with a plan.
