

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3504

It must be fake!

It was an act!

That was Wang Feiyu's first reaction.

This was because this decibel was a little too exaggerated. Even a normal girl from a good family wouldn't have such a big reaction, not to mention the demoness of the heaven sunflower Palace, and she was even an immortal card.

However, as he listened, he gradually realized that it did not seem to be fake.

"Impossible! How can this guy be so powerful!"

He was still unwilling to believe it.

Fighting one against five and still being so brave, such a person could not possibly exist!

"How long has it been? why hasn't it stopped?"

He sat there, waiting for the sound to end, but no matter how long he waited, it didn't stop. Instead, it was getting more and more intense.

15 minutes, 30 minutes ...

After two hours, the sound continued.

As for him, he was sitting on the bed, completely dumbfounded.

An entire two hours!

Was that guy really human? How could he be so powerful?

“No! I can’t admit defeat!”

Suddenly, he gritted his teeth and pulled himself together.

He wanted to compete with that guy again.

He was ambitious, and his heart was filled with boundless ambition.

However, just two minutes later, all of his ambitions and pride were gone.

He sat by the bed, looking dazed and Haggard.

He was gone again!

How could it be like this?

He used to be so brave, so why was he so dispirited now?

“It used to be one, but now it’s five. Five times the happiness, of course it’s hard to withstand. It seems like I’m fine, but ... That guy, he has five too. How can he be so brave?”

He sat there, once again in a state of deep self-doubt and self-denial.

“It’s been four hours!”

“It’s been six hours!”

He just sat there, listening to the movements outside.

As time passed, he became more and more shocked, dazed, and even a little ashamed of his own inferiority.

“As expected of him, he’s still so powerful!”

“This time there are five, five immortal cards together!”

Outside, it was already boiling with excitement. It was an unprecedented Grand occasion.

Previously, this general mu, no, now it was King Xiaoyao, had caused a sensation in the Jade pool pavilion twice. This was the third time, and each time was more powerful than the last.

The news spread out of the Jade Lake Pavilion and caused a sensation in the Imperial City. Many people came because of its fame.

Just like that, a day and a night passed.

Tang Hao walked out of Lotus Moon Pavilion feeling refreshed.

Of course, he was just pretending.

This one day and one night had really tortured him to death. Five beautiful women putting on an act in front of him. That scene ... It was simply too torturous.

“Young master, slow down!”

Fairy lianyue and the rest followed him out, all of them looking radiant and radiant.

“Young master mu, you’re still so powerful!”

The beautiful woman in red came up to him and chuckled, but her eyes were filled with surprise.

One of them was so powerful, and five of them were still so powerful. It was incredible!

“Young master, why don’t you eat something to nourish yourself? although your cultivation base is high, you can’t bear to lose like this. We have a lot of nourishing things here, such as Dragon whips and Tiger whips. There are a lot of them.”

She joked.

“I don’t need to!”

Tang Hao said, waving his hand.

How could he possibly need such a thing?

“A lot? Why didn’t I know about this before?” Zheng Tong’s expression changed.

“Does young master Zheng need it? I can give you a few to supplement your body!”

The beautiful woman chuckled.

“No... No, no, I want it. Of course, I don’t need it for myself. But I have a friend who hasn’t been in good health recently. He might need some nourishment. I’ll buy him a few.”

Zheng Tong said guiltily.

“Oh!”

The beautiful woman nodded with an understanding expression.

“Young master, take care!”

The five beauties walked Tang Hao to the door and said their goodbyes reluctantly.

“Hmph!”

Behind him, Wang Feiyu walked out of his Pavilion and looked at the door with a face full of jealousy.

This bastard surnamed mu had not only humiliated him in terms of strength, but he had also humiliated him in that aspect. He would take revenge for this one day!

“He can’t just be talented. He must have some other powerful tricks up his sleeve. After I kill him and get my hands on this trick, I’ll be the most courageous one.” He said to himself.

“Aiyo!”

He turned around and was about to walk into the house, but he lost his balance and almost fell.

“Not good! I’ve hurt my Foundation too much. I’ll have to recuperate after I go back!” He held onto his trembling legs and walked back.

In the previous day and night, in order to compete with that guy, he had been tormented hundreds of times.

Even if he was a three-star sun god with a powerful cultivation and abundant qi and blood, he could not withstand such a torment.

“Brother mu, let’s go!”

They left the Jade Lake Pavilion and walked down a Street before Tang Hao parted ways with Zheng Tong and the others.

“It’s all Zheng Tong’s fault. I only went to shop, but who knew I would be dragged to such an indecent place.” Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He turned around and walked toward the Street of Shops.

He went to shop around and asked about some materials.

However, he did not gain anything.

The grade of the materials he wanted were too high.

“Forget it!”

He turned around and returned to his residence.

“You’re back!”

As soon as he entered, he saw a figure standing not far away from the door, looking at him with a smile.

“Argh! He’s back!”

Tang Hao nodded.

Then, he frowned and felt that there was something wrong with her gaze.

“I heard that you’ve become famous again. This time, it’s not just one, but five. You’re pretty good!” She walked around Tang Hao and sized him up.

“It’s alright!”

Tang Hao touched his nose and said awkwardly.

Last time, he had said that he was a decent man and that he didn't want to go to that kind of place anymore. However, he didn't expect that he would be caught red-handed now. It was really embarrassing.

"Five immortal tokens! Tsk tsk! Amazing! Amazing!"

She complimented him from the bottom of her heart, smiled, and walked away.

Tang Hao grinned when she was far away, then returned to his little Pavilion by the lake.

In the next few days, he stayed in the pavilion and studied the method of re-refining the immortal spirit body.

Outside, it was quite lively.

After destroying the three divine kingdoms, the divine martial Kingdom occupied the land and built new city walls. These were all major events, and the entire divine martial Kingdom was in a busy state.

One day, Tang Hao was still studying the method of re-forging when someone suddenly knocked on his door.

"Who is it!"

He raised his eyes and looked out the door.

After seeing it clearly, he was stunned.

Standing outside the door was a woman in a white dress. She looked pretty.

“It’s her!”

Tang Hao quickly remembered who she was. She was mu hanyan’s servant, and he had met her a few times.

“What is she doing here?”

He felt a little strange.

After a moment of silence, he got up and went to open the door.

“Here, this is the Jade talisman my young lady gave you. She wants you to go and find her. It’s an emergency!”

The woman stretched out her hand and handed over a jade talisman.
