

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3523

Whoosh! Whoosh!

Beams of divine light shot out from all directions of Yuan Ling Island and entered the void ripple.

“They’ve entered!”

In the palace on Mount Jade Dragon, a few pairs of eyes peeked out and stared at the entrance.

When they saw the two figures, one red and one white, their eyes turned cold and revealed a sharp killing intent.

This trip was for these two people.

“That brat must die!”

In the hall, there was a sudden ripple in the void, and a burly figure was faintly visible.

His tone was cold and filled with a monstrous killing intent.

It was this kid who had borrowed the power of the formation to kill hundreds of thousands of his Asura Kingdom’s soldiers in one fell swoop. He had even destroyed a wisp of his soul with a single palm strike. The humiliation of that day could be said to be engraved in his bones and engraved in his heart.

Today, he would exact his revenge and at the same time, he could give Emperor Shenwu a blow.

“Don’t worry, this brat is dead for sure!”

A Jade Dragon Mountain High Holiness said with a smile.

This brat had a blood feud with his Jade Dragon Mountain. This time, no matter what, he had to kill this brat in the Yuan Ling divine world.

“Let’s go, don’t let that kid wait too long!”

The Shura Emperor shouted and disappeared into the void again.

“Let’s go!”

In the next moment, the seven high holiness of Jade Dragon Mountain stood up, put away their palaces, and flew toward the altar.

“Mount Jade Dragon ... Is moving! Their target is indeed that mu guy!”

In the palace on war god mountain, Feng Bai smiled slightly, as if everything was under his control.

“As the saying goes, the Mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the Oriole behind. I am the Oriole!”

He smiled smugly, got up, and followed.

“It’s moving! Looks like that guy’s good days are over!”

On the side, in the palace on Cang Ming mountain, Wang Feiyu laughed and followed.

He wanted to see that fellow being killed with his own eyes. If there was a chance, he could still make a move and snatch that fellow over for himself to kill and devour.

The flesh, blood, and essence of a four-star sun god were very precious.

“This aura ... As expected of the ancestral God field!”

A vast world appeared in front of Tang Hao after he passed through the passage.

As far as the eye could see, it was a towering mountain range covered with dense forests. An extremely dense aura of vegetation hit one’s face.

He looked around and was a little surprised.

He had never seen a world with such strong vitality.

“Here, you can just throw a seed and it will grow immediately. In one or two hundred years, it will grow into a yang grade divine medicine.” Mu hanyan said.

“It seems that the rumor is true!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

There must be treasures left behind by the origin spirit God ancestor in this world. Otherwise, the life force here would not be so strong.

“You mean the remains of the origin spirit God ancestor?”

Mu hanyan asked as she glided over.

“That’s right!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“This legend is most likely true, but unfortunately, no one has been able to find it. Even those Nine Star great sovereigns haven’t been able to find any clues.” Mu hanyan shook her head, feeling a little regretful.

“Let’s go over there!”

She looked around and pointed to an area in the distance.

This area was mostly occupied by people, and if they tried to snatch it, there would definitely be a conflict.

“You go, we’ll split up!”

Tang Hao turned around and glanced at her. “It’s safer that way!”

“This ... Alright!”

Mu hanyan hesitated for a moment, but she still nodded.

“Then be careful.”

She warned him and continued on her way.

Tang Hao turned to the left and dashed away.

“They’ve separated!”

“Which one are we chasing?”

In the distance, the seven people from Jade Dragon Mountain stopped. They looked around and hesitated.

These two people were their targets.

“Let’s go after that kid first and kill him. As for that mu girl, there’s no hurry. It’s not too late to catch her after we’re done with that kid!” The leading high holiness pondered for a moment and had an idea.

“Alright!”

The group immediately moved and chased to the left.

“It’s really sprouting!”

Tang Hao stopped after a while. He took out a few seeds and threw them on the ground.

Not long after, the seeds began to sprout and grow at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“This life force is so strong, where did it come from? Where is the source?”

Tang Hao’s eyes shone as he looked into the ground.

However, after scanning for a long time, he did not find anything.

It seemed that this life force was hidden in the earth, just like the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth, omnipresent and without a fixed source.

He squatted down and grabbed a handful of soil to pinch.

This soil was far inferior to the deity soil he had obtained in the heavenly desolate Palace.

The deity ground was cultivated by Emperor Tianhuang. It was a top-notch deity ground, and the spiritual essence it contained was much stronger than the soil in front of him.

Although this soil was stronger than ordinary soil, it had not reached the highest level.

“It’s still because of this life force.”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

He was sure that there was a source to this life force.

If there was no source, after so many years, this life force would have long receded and would not continue.

However, even though his gaze had reached the deepest part of the earth, he still did not find anything unusual.

“He must have used some sort of method to hide himself!”

He muttered.

He didn’t give up. As he flew, he activated his divine eyes to look around.

“What is this kid doing?”

In the distance, the seven people from Jade Dragon Mountain followed.

They looked at him with doubtful expressions.

Everyone else was fighting for the godly medicine, afraid that they would be a step too slow and harvest a few less. However, this guy had no intention of collecting the godly medicine at all. He was just loitering around.

“I think he’s looking for something!”

“Look for what? Oh! I know, this kid must have believed that legend and wanted to find that treasure! Hahaha! He was too naive! Even so many great seniors couldn’t find him, what makes him think he can?”

“This kid is really delusional!”

The few people from Jade Dragon Mountain sneered.

That legend was well-known. Before this, countless people had come to search for it. Even his Jade Dragon Mountain had sent out great senior to search for it several times, but to no avail.

“This isn’t a good place to fight, let’s wait! Let him search for it first!”

They didn’t attack immediately, but followed from a distance.

“That guy, could he be looking for the treasure?”

Behind the seven people, the genius of war god mountain was following from a distance. When he saw the situation at the front, he was also stunned and somewhat confused.

Then, he laughed out loud.

This mu guy was really stupid and naïve!

If that treasure was so easy to find, would it even be his turn?

Why didn’t he use his brain and think properly!

“No wonder. He’s just a guy with a perverted background. How smart can he be? after all, not everyone is as smart as me!” He laughed and felt a little proud.

“Find the treasure? Buzzzzzz! This guy is really delusional!”

On the other side, the Cang Ming mountain genius also noticed and sneered.

In front of them, Tang Hao was still searching. He activated his divine eyes and scanned every corner of the world.

Very quickly, his expression changed as he made a discovery.
