

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 601

“Ha! What a boast!”

Captain Lei sneered and looked at Tang Hao coldly.

“Kid, who do you think you are? How dare you be so arrogant in front of my SWAT?”

Then, he said to Zhao Wuyang, “Captain Zhao, I’ll be the first one to disagree. Don’t act rashly! You have to think about the three children. What if an accident happens?”

“There won’t be accidents!” Tang Hao said coldly.

“You’re in no position to speak here, kid!” Captain Lei frowned and reprimanded unhappily.

“Then Captain Lei, what do you have in mind?” Zhao Wuyang said.

“Well...” Captain Lei was at a loss for a reply.

There was indeed no viable solution. They could only wait for a negotiator to placate the other party, then look for an opportunity.

“There’s no good solution right now, but you can’t send this guy in!” Captain Lei said.

Zhao Wuyang smiled and said, “You don’t know how powerful he is, Captain Lei! Leave it to him. There’s no problem. I’ll bear the responsibility.”

“Moreover, the perpetrator’s emotions are extremely unstable. If this drags on, there might be unneeded tragedies.”

“Well...” Captain Lei was anxious.

The surroundings were also in an uproar.

The police officers were in disbelief. Captain Zhao was usually a sensible person. How could he make that absurd decision?

It was a matter of life and death. How could he rely on that young man with a dubious background?

“That’s enough, Captain Lei. I am the commander here!” Zhao Wuyang said.

Captain Lei’s face turned red. He looked at Tang Hao, then at Zhao Wuyang. He grunted angrily and stopped talking.

Zhao Wuyang looked at Tang Hao and said, “What are you going to do?”

“Go in from the next room!”

Tang Hao lifted his hand and pointed to the classroom next to it.

“Uh...” Zhao Wuyang was stunned.

‘How is he going to get into the classroom from next door?’

Just as he was about to ask again, Tang Hao turned around and walked toward the stairs.

The police officers at the stairs hesitated for a moment, but they made way for him anyway.

All eyes were focused on that figure. Some were suspicious, while some were apprehensive.

Everyone held their breaths.

One step, two steps... the figure walked up the stairs, along the corridor, and entered the classroom next door.

Once there, Tang Hao walked to a corner. He could sense the situation through the wall.

The perpetrator's stifled breathing and the sobs of a few children could be clearly heard.

"Dammit, don't move. If you move again, I'll stab you!" The perpetrator cursed fiercely.

Then, there was a slap on the face.

Those children immediately cried even harder.

Tang Hao's gaze turned cold and flashed with shocking killing intent.

He took a step forward and walked into the wall in front of him. In the next moment, he appeared at the other end. He looked around and saw everything in the classroom.

The prisoner was grabbing a girl. He held a knife in his right hand and fiercely waved it at the two boys huddled in a corner.

He almost jumped when he saw Tang Hao suddenly appear.

He thought that he was seeing things. He rubbed his eyes and looked at him again.

“Wh... what are you?” He blurted in panic.

Tang Hao didn't say a word. He went forward, grabbed the knife, and kicked him.

Bang!

The man flew backward and hit the opposite wall before sliding down.

The three children were stunned and stopped crying. They stared wide-eyed at Tang Hao.

“Everything's fine now! Big Bro will teach him a lesson!”

Tang Hao smiled and patted their heads. When he turned around, his expression turned cold.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Tang Hao grabbed that man's head and gave him a good beating.

The police officers rushed upstairs when they heard the commotion in the classroom. When they kicked open the door and barged in, they were stunned.

The perpetrator was lying on the ground, beaten within an inch of his life. His face was swollen and bruised.

When the police officers saw that the children were fine, they immediately heaved a sigh of relief and cheered.

After that, they were puzzled.

They saw that guy enter the classroom next door. How did he come over?

Did he come in through the window?

It was obviously not possible. The windows of the two classrooms were very far apart.

They scratched their heads, and some even went to look at the window. They were all puzzled.

“What is going on?”

Captain Lei poked out of the window and looked around. His face was filled with confusion.

Zhao Qingxue was also relieved. She walked over to the three children and comforted them.

Zhao Wuyang smiled at Captain Lei and said, “So what do you think? I was right!”

Captain Lei sheepishly opened his mouth but could not find anything to say.

He had to admit that the kid was powerful, and he still could not figure out how the kid had gotten in.

'He couldn't have passed through the wall, right?'

He glanced at the wall beside him and could not help but laugh.

'That's impossible!'

"Thank you, Tang Hao!" Zhao Wuyang stepped forward and shook hands with Tang Hao. "Leave the rest to us! Ha! You beat him up so badly that his face is swollen."

At that moment, a police officer walked in and said, "We've managed to ID him, Captain Zhao. His name is Zhang Sihai. He's unemployed and is a compulsive gambler. A few days ago, his wife left him. He must have been provoked by that and wanted to take revenge on society."

"Tsk! He's scum!" Zhao Wuyang frowned annoyedly. "Take him away!"

Tang Hao said coldly, "There's no need. He's better off dead!"

He turned around and said to Zhao Qingxue, "Take the children out!"

Zhao Qingxue was surprised. She took the three children and left the classroom.

Tang Hao lifted his hand, and a gun appeared in his palm. He aimed it at that man's head and fired.

Bang!

The loud gunshot shocked the police officers in the room.

They were all dumbfounded. For a moment, they could not react at all.

“What did you just do?”

Everyone exclaimed in surprise. Many police officers, especially those from the SWAT team, reflexively pulled out their guns and aimed them at Tang Hao.

Calm down, everyone! Calm down!”

Zhao Wuyang hurriedly waved his arms.

When he saw the corpse on the floor, cold sweat started to drip from his forehead.

‘What the hell? What did the kid just do? Why did he suddenly pull out his gun and kill the man? How should I report this to the higher-ups?’

Tang Hao calmly lifted his hands and said, “He was the one who wanted to snatch my gun. You all saw that, right?”

The police officers could not help but roll their eyes.

Although they also hated scum like that man and wished that they could shoot him, they were police officers with a code of ethics.

“That’s intentional homicide, kid! Also, where did you get the gun? Put it down!” Captain Lei roared.

Tang Hao did what he was told and tossed the gun on the ground.

“Where did you get the gun, kid? Not only have you killed him on purpose, but you’ll also be charged with illegal possession of firearms!” Captain Lei stepped forward and picked up the gun.

“Ahem!”

At that moment, Zhao Wuyang said, “Well... Captain Lei, he’s from the military!”

Captain Lei was stunned. “The military? That doesn’t mean he can kill arbitrarily!”

However, his tone had softened.

Things were different if that kid was from the military.

He sized up Tang Hao and said, “Which department are you from, kid? You can even carry a gun when in civilian clothes! You should be at least a Lieutenant, right?”

Tang Hao did not say a word and tossed his military ID at him.

“Ha! How arrogant! Let me see what rank you are!”

Captain Lei muttered and took a look at his ID. Once he looked closely, his whole body trembled, and his eyes widened.
