

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 887

“F*ck!”

The monkey was also shocked.

Using the power of the divine bone to unseal one’s chakra? That was crazy! What was even crazier was that the guy was actually going to succeed!

“Is he even human?”

He cursed inwardly and produced a black staff on his hand. He was about to charge forward.

At that moment, the light on Tang Hao’s chest suddenly intensified. It was a brilliant purple light that filled the entire cave and dazzled everyone.

“Ahh!” Everyone cried out and covered their eyes.

“He unsealed it!” They cried out in extreme shock.

They had never thought that they would witness the birth of a three-chakra prodigy there.

At that moment, the third chakra barrier in Tang Hao’s body collapsed, and his Zigong chakra was unsealed. Streams of purple qi gushed out and spread to his limbs and bones, strengthening his body.

That was also the unique effect of the Zigong chakra.

At the same time, waves of energy surged into the chakra.

The qi aura on his body also expanded crazily.

“Kill him and extract the divine bone!”

The crown prince of the Ye Kingdom had a savage expression on his face, and his eyes were filled with jealousy and hatred.

The divine bone belonged to him! Only he was worthy of the divine bone. That guy deserved to die for stealing something that belonged to him.

“Spit it out!”

The two old men shouted ferociously. They attacked him from both sides and fired two golden beams. The beams were two golden wheels that spun at high speed toward Tang Hao.

Tang Hao lifted his head. His face was still twitching.

He managed to calm down the qi currents in his body to a certain extent, but there were still qi currents coursing around chaotically, which caused his qi aura to be somewhat unstable.

His gaze turned cold as he activated the Fleetfoot Stride and his body disappeared with a whoosh. In the next moment, he appeared by the side of the white-clothed old man and struck out with his palm.

The old man was shocked. At the critical moment, he activated his defensive Artifact.

Bang! The flaming palm struck the light barrier.

The light barrier trembled violently and distorted, but it did not break. However, the old man was sent flying.

The old man was drenched in cold sweat, utterly unnerved.

The people around him were all shocked.

“Oh my god! So fast!”

“How did he do that?”

Everyone was shocked by Tang Hao’s display of astonishing speed and strength.

That old man was a Golden Core cultivator, but he was sent flying by a palm strike. It was unbelievable.

“What terrifying strength!”

“Who on earth is he? Where did he come from?”

Everyone was shocked and dared not step forward.

The monkey opened his mouth but could not say a word.

The situation remained in a deadlock until the crowd realized that something was amiss. A ray of light shot out from that guy's left shoulder.

"Oh... oh my god! He... he's trying to unseal the fourth chakra!"

Someone trembled and shouted with all his might.

The crowd was stunned.

Before they could react, another ray of light shot out of his right shoulder. The two incidents were only a few seconds apart.

Hiss!

Everyone gasped at the same time.

"The fifth chakra! That's the light of the fifth chakra. He's unsealing two chakras at the same time!"

Everyone was shocked beyond words.

"This is utterly ridiculous!" The Perfected Masters were dazed.

Not only the kid unsealed three chakras in a row, but two of them were unsealed at the same time!

They had never heard of something like that before.

As far as they knew, chakras were difficult to unseal. Most of them had only unsealed one or two chakras, and some did not even bother to try.

That was why they understood the sheer absurdity of the situation!

“Good heavens! Where did that freak come from?” The monkey was flabbergasted.

“Hurry up! Attack him! Kill him!”

The crown prince of the Ye Kingdom was about to lose his mind from jealousy. That despicable guy had snatched what was supposed to belong to him.

The two old men gritted their teeth and attacked Tang Hao again with their golden wheels.

However, it was already too late.

Before the golden wheels struck him, Tang Hao’s shoulders shone brightly, signifying that the two chakras on his shoulders were unsealed.

His eyes opened, and a beam of light as bright as lightning burst forth. His qi aura was awe-inspiring, and it was similar to that of a Golden Core cultivator.

His body flashed and avoided the two golden wheels. He covered three meters in one step and appeared in front of the black-clothed old man.

He did not use his Artifacts in order to hide his identity, and so he struck out with only his palm.

Flames, lightning, and ice swirled around his palm.

Bang! The light barrier was broken, and to the surprise of the old man, the palm landed on his chest.

The old man let out a muffled groan, flew backward, and crashed heavily on the cave wall before sliding down. His body trembled, and his face was pale. He clutched his chest and spat out a mouthful of blood.

“Tsk!”

Tang Hao frowned, not entirely satisfied with the outcome.

He was not a Golden Core cultivator after all. Even though he had unsealed five chakras and was not as powerful as a Golden Core cultivator, he could put up a fight.

If he had unsealed another chakra, he would have killed that old man with that palm strike.

He was about to continue charging forward when the white-clothed old man attacked him with the golden wheel.

Tang Hao turned around and charged toward the white-clothed old man. He appeared in front of him and struck out with his palm.

The old man had been prepared and managed to react in time. He used his palm to block.

Bang!

After exchanging a blow, the two people’s bodies trembled slightly, and they stepped back.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Tang Hao's figure flashed as he went around the old man. At first, the old man could block Tang Hao's attacks, but gradually, he could no longer keep up with Tang Hao's speed.

Bang!

After another palm strike, the old man let out a miserable cry and fell backward.

"Let's go!" The old man got back on his feet and shouted at the other old man.

Then, he rushed toward the crown prince and said, "We'd better leave, Young Master!"

"Leave? No, kill him! I want that divine bone! It's mine!" The crown prince roared ferociously.

"If you don't want to leave, then you can stay here forever!"

Tang Hao grunted coldly, and his figure flashed. In the next moment, he appeared behind the crown prince.

The crown prince turned around and was scared out of his wits.

Following that, his face twitched viciously, and he shouted, "Don't you know who I am? You wouldn't dare to lay a finger on me. If you know what's good for you, hand over the divine bone."

"No, Young Master!"

The two old men cried out and rushed over.

“How arrogant!” Tang Hao laughed coldly. His eyes were brimming with killing intent.

He raised his hand and slapped at the crown prince.

The crown prince stood no chance against Tang Hao’s five-chakra cultivation. His chest ruptured instantly, and he flew backward. When he landed on the ground again, he was already dead.

“How dare you!”

The two old men were furious?

“How dare me? I’ve already killed him!” Tang Hao sneered disdainfully. “I’ll kill you two too!”

As he spoke, he dashed toward the two old men.

“Go!”

The two old men were shocked. They picked up the crown prince’s body and fled.
