Chapter 1781

Murong hate face suddenly changed, instantly turned to see, immediately found that this mouth is a black face servant.

He jumped, and immediately came to the black faced servant. He grabbed his collar and said, "where is he? Take me!"

"Yes, yes." The black faced servant was so caught by Murong that he immediately turned pale and quickly called him.

After Murong hen released him, he did not hesitate, then took Murong hen to the distance.

Murong hate eyes ferocious, closely behind the black face, eyes only moriran kill.

But Murong hate did not find that the black faced people in the moment of turning to lead the way, eyes flashing a deep irony.

Watching the two leave in an instant, the servants around them all have some doubts.

Because they didn't know the black faced man at all, or even never met him.

However, due to the fear of Murong hate, they did not dare to remind.

The black faced servant took Murong hate to walk for more than ten minutes in the bottom warehouse, and then came to a rather hidden corner.

At this time, Murong hate already had some impatience, in the eyes of the murderer is already more and more prosperous.

Just as he couldn't help asking how long it would take, the black faced man suddenly stopped.

"What about people?" Murong hen Leng for a moment, looking at the half figure, even a corner of the house, can't help asking.

"Isn't this here?" With a sly smile, the black faced people changed their previous submissive appearance, and their eyes became abusive.

At the same time, he grabbed his hands on his face, and immediately restored the young man's appearance when he had offended Murong hen.

"It's you?" Murong hate looking at this scene, his face suddenly become iron green, "boy, you still have a mother kind ah, even dare to bring your grandfather here."

Murong hate said, but also looked around, "here is so remote, it is really a good place to kill people."

Wang Fan listened to this, the same sneer, "in my opinion, you are really kind, dare to come to me alone."

"I thought you would bring your elder, but you were so arrogant that you came alone."

"But you are right in saying that this is a good place to kill people."

Wang Fan said, quickly arranged a layer of border restrictions to wrap this area, then his right hand has suddenly grabbed the shadow knife, full of aura crazy surge, directly toward Murong hate crazy roll in the past.

He is extremely sharp, a hand will use seven Jue Dao, without the slightest hesitation and procrastination, the purpose is to make a quick decision.

Let's not say it's fengluan fairy's private boat. There are countless experts on the boat. Let's say that Murong hates the strong king behind him, and Wang Fan has to be careful.

Even if he arranges the border prohibition, if the fight is delayed for too long, it is likely to attract the attention of those experts, and Wang Fan will be in danger at that time.

"Yes, yes, yes! I'd like to see how you can kill me, just a servant! " Murong hate to hear Wang Fan, and then see Wang Fan even dare to take the initiative, immediately gas gnash teeth up.

It's just a servant who dares to attack Murong hate. He's looking for death!

But soon his anger turned to horror.

When Wang Fan's shadow sword was just cut out, its power was not so terrible. But soon, the killing power became violent.

In an instant, he felt as if he was in the wind and waves, the waves were rough and boundless, but he was just a boat that could be submerged at any time.

"What a terrible skill!" Murong hate was shocked and faded. He madly urged the aura in his body and quickly retreated.

At the same time, he had already caught a purple arrow in his right hand, and the arrow was dancing wildly, imagining that all over the sky the knife wave was splitting away wildly.

Boom boom!

The violent waves collided with each other and made a huge noise.

Under the fury of the sword wave, Murong hate was blasted back and forth, and his blood gushed out like money.

Wang Fan was shocked to find that Murong hen was wearing a purple and gold inner armor. The inner armor was extremely magical and strange, and even let out most of his strength. And most importantly, even his head was protected by the inner armor.

People with a background are really not simple. Wang Fan never thought that Murong hen had such inner armor.

If it wasn't for this inner armor, the previous seven Jue sword would be enough to kill Murong hen several times.

But it was because of the existence of the inner armor that Murong hen was injured, but he didn't die.

"What a terrible strength, you, you are really a servant?" Murong hen's face was pale and frightened. He had retreated to the corner.

"It's really unusual to have a good father. I'd like to see how many knives you can take me." But Wang Fan was too lazy to talk nonsense at all, and then he chopped it down again. "Stop, I'm a member of Murong family. How dare you kill me?" Murong was shocked and screamed.

Boom!

Just as his voice had just fallen, Wang Fan's shadow knife had already split on him again.

Although he was protected by the inner armor, he was not torn, but the terrible force still poured into his body through the inner armor, which made him spew out several mouthfuls of blood again.

"Boy, this is on the ship, not outside. You killed me on the boat. You can't escape. It's not just you, it's your partner, and it's absolutely impossible to escape. "

Murong hate wiped the blood from the corners of his mouth and screamed again.

He was really scared.

He didn't think that a servant he accidentally offended was such an adverse existence.

He Murong hen is a strong man in the three levels of Wei Jing. Although he has accumulated the three levels of Wei Jing with cultivation resources and pills, he is not waiting for the idle people to provoke him.

Just a servant, the strength is even stronger than him, how can he not be afraid, how can he not be surprised?

"Threatening me? It's good to threaten me at this time. I'd like to see how many more knives you can take me. " Wang Fan disdained to smile and continued to wave his knife.

Although his shadow knife can't cut through the inner armor, it will release most of its strength. But if it goes on like this, Murong can't bear it. Sooner or later, he will be killed.

"How dare you kill me?" Murong hate ferocious laugh, at the same time suddenly stand up, crazy bombardment from Wang Fan layout that layer of array border.

He knew that if the boundary was not broken, things here would not be noticed in a short time.

He must open the border as soon as possible, so that he can have a chance of life.

"I dare not kill you." Wang fan light smile, has again several knife ruthless bang in Murong hen body.

Boom boom!

Violent voice spread, a moment, Murong hate finally can no longer bear, soft fell on the ground, completely dead.

He didn't even think that he was dead, and he died in the hands of a servant.

.....

almost at the moment when Murong hen was killed -

boom!

A breath of terror suddenly came from a luxurious room on the third floor, followed by an angry voice.

"How dare you kill my nephew Murong hen! Just a servant, I really underestimate you. If I don't cramp you, I swear not to be a man

With this angry voice to the extreme, Murong hate uncle Murong cloud jumped out of the room and ran to the bottom of the warehouse with lightning speed.

Chapter 1782

"What, Murong hen was killed by that servant?"

"How can this be possible? Although Murong hen is not good, he also has three levels of strength. How can he kill a servant?"

"In my opinion, Murong hate is mostly really killed by that servant, otherwise how could Murong Yun be so angry?"

"People can't judge their appearance. I didn't expect that a mere servant should have such strength."

Those big people around hear Murong cloud's angry, immediately have color, can't help but exclaim.

They all know what happened in the trading house and have seen Wang Fan.

In their eyes, Wang fan is just one level of status.

Although a servant has a level of strength, it's really strange. But even so, it's impossible for Wang Fan of the first level to kill Murong hencai of the third level.

But now looking at Murong cloud's anger, even if they no longer want to believe it, they have to believe it is true.

In a luxury room, Liu Yueru also heard Murong Yun's angry drink, and her face became shocked.

She did not expect that Murong hen was killed by the servant.

Murong hate to find Wang Fan this matter she knows, she also begged the master, begged the master to come forward, want to keep Wang Fan.

Although she has a strong character, she does not want to involve innocent people. But to her helplessness, the master did not agree.

Originally because of this, she was already very guilty. Now when she heard that Wang Fan killed Murong hen, she was shocked and even more guilty.

If Wang Fan didn't kill Murong hen, there might be a turning point in this matter, but since Wang Fan killed Murong hen, there would be no turning point at all.

In this case, if her master comes forward, it is to have a bad relationship with the Murong family. In order to offend the Murong family, it is impossible for her master to do such a thing.

"Ah." Liu Yueru sighed bitterly. She could only pray that Wang Fan could survive the crisis, but she knew that the possibility was very small.

At the moment when Liu Yueru sighed bitterly, fengluan fairy naturally knew about it, but different from others, there was a strange color in her eyes.

Wang Fan killed Murong hen in the first level. Even if Murong hen in the third level was still in water, it also showed that Wang Fan had a big secret. Otherwise, why can Wang Fan kill Murong hen?

"You go to the bottom warehouse and have a look. If possible, help the servant." Feng Luan fairy thought of here and said to two of his subordinates.

"Don't worry, my Lord. We will definitely arrest that man." One of them nodded quickly, but soon felt that it was not right, "my Lord, what do you say, help that servant?"

"Yes, help the servant." Feng Luan fairy nodded, "no matter how to say, he is our people, if we don't even face, it's too cold."

"Good." The two subordinates nodded and quickly backed out.

But their heart is some doubts, when did Feng Luan fairy become so human?

You know, Feng Luan fairy is extremely cold-blooded, which can be seen from her killing Lin Qian without hesitation.

And the Phoenix Luan fairy who is merciless to his guard now wants to help a servant. It's really weird.

Of course, if they want to think about it, they dare not say it. Otherwise, Feng Luan fairy next killed, it is very likely that they.

at the moment when countless people were shocked by Wang Fan's strength and boldness, Murong hen's uncle Murong Yun had arrived at the place where Murong was killed.

Looking at Murong hen, who was shocked to death and killed by brute force, his heart was filled with anger.

"Good, good, good." He said three good words a little, and then grabbed Murong hen's body, mental power crazy spread out.

He wants to see where the audacious servant has gone. He dares to kill his nephew in such a way. He wants the servant to look good.

With Murong cloud's terrible strength, his spiritual power has covered the whole bottom warehouse in an instant. But what made him frown was that he didn't find Wang Fan.

Murong cloud quite some doubts, the first time thought of Yirong. So, he madly found Song Rumei, found a man and a woman together.

But soon, his face changed again, completely gloomy.

Because he still had nothing to gain, even he did not see which servant's face had the mark of changing face.

"What a treacherous boy!" Murong Yun was so angry that he was furious.

He is a powerful man, but now he can't find a mole ant. It's a joke to tell.

But no matter how funny he is, he has to accept the reality. As a last resort, he could only go to fengluan fairy with shame and find out the bold servant with the help of fengluan fairy.

This is fengluan fairy's spaceship. I know most about those servants, who belong to fengluan fairy. Now in this case, only through the Phoenix Luan fairy one by one screening, it is possible to succeed.

At this time, Murong Yun really hated Wang Fan, and his hatred for Wang Fan has reached an unimaginable level.

Wang Fan killed Murong hate even if, unexpectedly still so treacherous, let him Murong cloud is about to disgrace, how can he not hate?

Murong hate not willing to roar, flash instantly disappeared in the bottom warehouse.

It shouldn't be too late. He will go to fengluan fairy for help immediately.

He knew that behind Murong hen, there were powerful people in the king's kingdom. With the means and strength of the powerful people in the king's Kingdom, I'm afraid that Murong hen would soon be killed and arrive here.

After Wang Fan left, without half hesitation, he flashed to a hall where countless servants were working, and pretended to work.

There are at least hundreds of people in this hall. With so many people, one more Wang Fan will not appear abrupt at all. And Wang Fan did not believe that these people knew each other.

As for song Rumei, she had already been sent here by Wang Fan.

Of course, Wang fan knows that he can only hide for a while, but not for a lifetime. But for him, as long as he can spend the time temporarily, it is enough.

Sure enough, Wang Fan almost just flash into the hall, make a pair of work appearance, then feel, a terrible spirit crazy swept over.

Wang Fan's heart sank, but on the surface he didn't move. He pretended he didn't know anything and went on working.

His in the mind secret way is very dangerous, that Murong hate behind of person reaction can be really quick, unexpectedly so quick to investigate to come over.

If he takes another step at night, the consequence will be that Wang fan can't help sweating.

As for song Rumei on the other side, as well as other servants who work, they have no sense of Murong hen's spiritual power and are not aware of the other party's investigation, so Wang fan is not worried about song Rumei's exposure.

Wang Fan's heart is alert, but the surface is silent, still pretending to work, until the spirit disappeared, just completely relieved.

However, after a turn, they still did not find any trace of Wang Fan. Even if they asked, no one knew where Wang Fan had gone.

At this time, Murong cloud has come to fengluan fairy's room, knocked on the door of fengluan fairy.

"Younger martial sister fengluan, I'm really ashamed. I need her help when I have something to do." After the door opened, Murong Yun said straight to the point.

"Brother Murong is really polite. If you have a word, please don't hesitate. As long as fengluan can do it, she will never refuse." Feng Luan fairy heart such as a mirror, the surface is polite said.

As the owner of the spaceship, she naturally knew that Murong Yun had not found Wang Fan. At this moment, I come to the door mostly for this matter.

"I'm not welcome. As you know, my nephew muronghen was killed by a servant. It's just that he's very cunning, and he's even good at changing faces. "

"I can't find the trace of this person after searching, so I can only ask the fairy for your help."

Murong hate face iron green, quite angry said.

"Ah, I've heard about it. I feel very sorry for my nephew's accident on my fengluan's spaceship."

"Brother Murong, don't worry. As long as the man is still on the boat, I will find out for you."

"I just want to remind my elder martial brother that the man is not the real servant of my spaceship, but a subordinate who doesn't know the rules. In order to earn the spirit stone, he carries it on the way. If he has escaped from the ship, then I have no choice

Murong Yun naturally already knew that Wang Fan was not the real servant of the spaceship, so he was not surprised. He nodded and said, "it's natural, so I'd like to trouble my sister Feng Luan."

"No harm." Feng Luan fairy waved his hand, and then immediately rang a silver bell. Before long, more than a dozen guards rushed to fengluan fairy's room.

"Lord fairy, what can I do for you?" After these guards appeared, they bowed slightly at Murong cloud, and then asked respectfully at fengluan fairy.

"You must all know about Murong hen's nephew being killed on my spaceship?"

"Go to the bottom warehouse immediately and check the servants one by one for me. Be sure to find them out for me and give an account to elder martial brother Murong Yun."

Feng Luan fairy face those guards, a change before face Murong cloud smile, tone is quite cold command way.

"Yes." The guards listened to these words, without any hesitation, immediately backed out and rushed to the bottom of the warehouse.

"Thank you very much, younger martial sister fengluan. I'll leave first." Murong cloud see feng Luan fairy arrangement, also did not stay too much, boxing thanks, then left the room.

in a few minutes, the big guard has arrived at the bottom of the warehouse and gathered all the servants together.

Hundreds of servants lined up in rows, all of them worried.

Although they know that the guard's sudden arrival is mostly for Murong hen's being killed, they are still worried.

After all, they are servants. In the eyes of these guards, they are not even as good as a mole ant.

Even if they have nothing to do with Murong hen's death, once the guards are upset, even killing them is in vain.

"My Lord, everyone is here. What do you think we should do next?" The steward in charge of the subordinates asked respectfully at the head guard after calling all the subordinates together.

In fact, his heart is also very uneasy. After all, there is such a number one person in his management. If he doesn't find out, he can't sleep well.

After all, he often yells at the servants. If he offends the brave servant, he doesn't know how to die.

But if we don't scold those servants, we can't say that it's difficult to manage, and he can't show his prestige.

"Well." The first guard nodded faintly, then said, "you check first, is the number correct?"

The guard said and blinked at the steward.

Obviously, this is to remind the manager to answer correctly whether he is right or not.

Because fengluan fairy had given an order. Just go through the scene. You can't find out Wang Fan, let alone give it to Murong Yun.

When the steward saw the head guard blink, he was puzzled and didn't understand each other's meaning. But even so, he quickly nodded, "OK, OK."

With that, he quickly began to count. After a while, he answered with seven words, "back to your honor, the number is correct."

The head guard was very satisfied with what he said, but on the surface he frowned, "the number is right. How can this be possible?"

"You mean that the servant who killed Murong hen and his female companion are not among them?"

The steward was surprised and quickly said, "I don't know if they are among them, but the number is really right." "There are 518 people in the small management. If those two people are here, there should be 520 people in total. But now, there are only 518 people. "

Steward said, but also quickly took out the corresponding identity information registration and portrait, "you see, their information is here."

However, as soon as the manager said this, before the guard took over the information registration, he suddenly felt a suction coming, and then the information registration in his hand flew out.

This sudden scene, whether it's the guard or the manager, is changing color one after another.

They turned to see, immediately have seen, I do not know when, Murong cloud has appeared not far away, and a grasp of the book in the hand.

Looking at Murong cloud, steward in an instant scared to silence, a dare not pit.

Although the head guard was a little angry, he didn't dare to show it.

If Murong cloud does not appear, he may be able to go through the stage, and finally said that he did not find Wang Fan.

But Murong cloud all appeared, how dare he still walk through the stage? It can be said that as long as Wang fan is among these people, he will definitely be found out.

On the third floor, fengluan fairy also noticed this scene, and pretty face became gloomy immediately.

Murong Yun's move is also beyond her expectation. It's obvious that she doesn't trust her.

However, although fengluan fairy was angry, she didn't show up at this time.

Although she is interested in Wang Fan, she is not interested enough to offend Murong Yun for Wang Fan.

At this time, Murong cloud has grasped the information registration, one by one compared with those servants.

His face was full of gloom and murder.

Before Murong Yun came here, he had already looked for the whole Di Cang. It can be said that now all the people in Di Cang have gathered here.

He believed that Wang Fan and Wang Fan must also be here. If Wang fan can't be found here, then he really can't help it.

Chapter 1784

Murong Yun's mental power gushed out crazily and swept over those servants.

He inquired very carefully, very seriously, and tried not to let go of any clues.

However, with the passage of time, his face became more and more gloomy.

He has checked 500 people, but he still can't find Wang Fan.

By the time the last person was detected, his face had completely turned pale.

Among these servants, he did not find Wang Fan at all.

The outrage from Murong cloud emerged, he almost had a kind of impulse to slap all the servants to death.

His heart is not willing to roar, not willing to roar: how can this be, how can not find Wang Fan?

Can't it be that Wang Fan's face changing technique is so against the heaven, even to the point where even he can't see the clue?

The guards felt the anger of Murong cloud, and they also had a dignified face. They didn't dare to say a word.

The head guard set off a storm in his heart.

Actually did not find Wang Fan, can't it be that Wang Fan has left the spaceship?

But it's obviously impossible.

If Wang Fan left the spaceship, how could Feng Luan fairy not be aware of it?

No one knows that Wang Fan and song Rumei were hiding in a corner of the main hall at this time. Around them, Wang Fan also arranged countless hidden borders.

In order to be on the safe side, Wang Fan let song Rumei sleep in the past, he is convergence body breath, do not dare to move.

The so-called most dangerous place is the safest place. When he learned that these guards would investigate the servants one by one, he took song Rumei to hide in.

What Wang fan used was the lax mentality of those guards and Murong Yun.

In his opinion, all the servants were gathered in this hall. The other party would not go out of their own way to investigate this hall. Everyone's attention will be focused on the lower class.

In this way, the other party's laxity is Wang Fan's vitality.

On the contrary, now that all the servants are gathered in this hall, Murong Yun will search the other positions of the bottom warehouse carefully, so if he hides elsewhere, even if he arranges the array to form a border, he will not escape Murong Yun's perception.

Murong Yun is a strong man in the king's realm. If he is negligent, he may not be aware of his array. But if the other party is serious, Wang fan is not sure that the other party is not aware of it.

Of course, Wang Fan also knows that the risk of doing so is as great, but he has no way.

"Look, my Lord." At this time, the head guard could not help but speak.

"Hum." Murong cloud a cold voice, the hand of the information register casually dropped, and then angrily left.

He was very unwilling, very subdued, but there was no way.

In his opinion, most of Wang Fan had left the spaceship, otherwise he would not have noticed.

"It's all gone." After Murong Yun left, the guards and managers were also greatly relieved. The first guard said, and left with the same frown.

The manager was a little confused and confused. The servant who killed Murong hen was hiding in this warehouse, but why couldn't he find it?

However, this scene has become a mystery.

After everyone left, Wang Fan was also greatly relieved.

After waiting for about half an hour, he quickly opened the boundary of the array and ran out of the hall with song Rumei in his arms.

He's going to get out of this ship as soon as possible, or he'll have a lot of trouble.

In fact, Wang Fan had planned to leave here before, but before he left, the large number of guards had already arrived at the bottom of the warehouse. This makes him in helpless, bold hide here.

Wang Fan had already used his mental strength to investigate the situation of the bottom warehouse, so his goal was very clear, and he went straight to one of the windows.

In the whole bottom bin, only that window is open, and all the other windows are closed. So he wanted to leave. He had to go there.

Murong Yun's face was very gloomy. After he left the bottom warehouse, he naturally recovered his mental strength.

After all, he had previously explored the whole bottom warehouse with his mental strength, even every tiny inch of it.

If Wang fan is in the bottom warehouse or hiding in the main hall, he can definitely find out.

Now that he has not found Wang Fan, it shows that Wang Fan has either left the spaceship or changed his appearance into a servant.

In either case, he will not be able to find Wang Fan.

However, Murong Yun always feels that something is wrong. He seems to have overlooked something, but he didn't think of what he had overlooked.

Murong Yun frowned and soon returned to the third floor.

However, just as he wanted to go back to his room, he suddenly realized that the door of fengluan fairy's room was opened, and then fengluan fairy flashed out with a sneer. "Sister fengluan, who are you Murong Yun looked at the scene, could not help but frown, asked.

Feng Luan fairy is also a little surprised, how she did not expect, just out of the room, unexpectedly met Murong cloud.

The reason why she left the room in such a hurry was that she noticed that Wang Fan was approaching the unclosed window at an incredible speed.

See Wang fan is about to escape, Feng Luan fairy nature is not willing, this just in a hurry out.

She is different from Murong cloud. Her mental power has been paying attention to everyone's every move in the bottom warehouse.

And this spaceship is her Feng Luan's, Wang fan can use fluke psychology to avoid Murong cloud's investigation, but can't escape her perception.

Originally, Feng Luan thought that Wang Fan would choose to stay at the bottom of the warehouse and arrive at the lung'ao Empire safely after escaping the disaster. So she is not in a hurry to take Wang Fan, but plans to miss today.

But she did not expect that Wang fan should be so cautious and directly planned to jump out of the window to leave.

Looking at Murong cloud, Feng Luan heart a sigh, she had just immediately to catch Wang Fan, unexpectedly did not notice back to the third layer of Murong cloud.

She knew that her behavior had aroused Murong Yun's suspicion, and now it was impossible for her to hide for Wang Fan, so she said directly,

"elder martial brother Murong, I found the bold servant. At this time, he was planning to escape, so I plan to take this man for elder martial brother Murong."

Murong Yun listen to this, first is a Leng, followed by the spirit of instant spread out.

Just a moment later, he realized that a man and a woman were running away at the bottom of the warehouse at an incredible speed.

Murong Yun looked at this scene, his eyes cold, murderous, "boy, I finally found you, I want to see, how do you hide this time!"

Murong cloud roared, his figure flashed and disappeared here.

Feng Luan's face was slightly heavy. She hesitated and followed.

.....

when Wang Fan escaped from the hall, his heart sank completely. Because he felt a strong mental force fall on him.

He can tell that this spiritual power does not belong to Murong Yun, but it is definitely a strong king.

Wang Fan's heart is greatly terrified, where still dare to have a little bit hesitation, more is to run wildly.

It wasn't long before he felt that another strong mental force fell on him. And this person is Murong Yun.

Chapter 1785

At this time, Wang fan is not far away from the unopened window. He realizes that Murong cloud's mental power is sweeping, and his face changes again. The fog and streamer urge him to the extreme and escape madly.

Murong Yun noticed this scene and grinned grimly, "you can't escape. It's just a mysterious place. If I let you escape, I don't need to practice."

Murong cloud's ferocious smile, body shape a flash, already quickly toward Wang Fan chase.

As a strong king, he is faster than Wang Fan. I don't know how many times. Just in an instant, the distance between them has been greatly reduced.

If there were not many prohibitions on the spaceship, I'm afraid he would have caught up with Wang Fan with his speed.

Wang Fan noticed that Murong cloud came after him, and his face changed wildly. He ran away madly and tied a seal madly.

In any case, he can't be overtaken by Murong cloud, or he will die.

Under the dancing of his hands, the footprints of palm size suddenly condensed, and then began to merge.

At the same time, he was getting closer to the window.

Murong Yuncha explored the scene, and his face didn't change at all. On the contrary, there was a touch of irony in his eyes.

It's just a level of mystery. Even if his martial arts skills go against the sky, he is not afraid of Murong Yun.

His aura was surging wildly in his body. Just two steps ahead, the distance between him and Wang Fan was shortened again, less than 2000 meters.

At the same time, Wang fan is only 100 meters away from the unclosed window.

"Boy, you can't escape." Murong Yun grinned again and stepped out.

This step, he has already stepped to Wang Fan's back in an instant, and put out a big hand, grasped to Wang Fan.

Wang Fan felt this scene, eyes crazy, speed does not reduce, but suddenly turned back, left hand grasp the fusion of the mountain seal suddenly drink, "go!"

In a flash, the mountain climbing seal soared into the sky, like a meteor, setting off the power of destroying the sky and the earth, and shooting rapidly at Murong cloud.

Murong Yun felt the power contained in the seal, and his speed was slightly stagnant, and a touch of surprise appeared in his eyes.

Obviously, he did not expect that Wang Fan could exert such powerful martial arts skills.

However, he was only surprised, but he did not have the slightest fear.

After all, Wang fanxiuwei's martial arts skills are too low to threaten him.

"I can't help myself." Murong Yun gave a cold smile, one hand suddenly waved out, all over the sky aura crazy surge, in a moment in the air gathered into a big hand.

After the big hand took shape, it immediately grabbed the mountain climbing seal at a faster speed.

Bang!

The big hand grasps on that to turn over the mountain print, sends out a dull sound, but has not had the afterwave overflow to disperse actually.

After the big hand disappeared, what disappeared with it was the mountain print.

Wang Fan's face was gloomy. He didn't expect that there was no threat or even a ripple in front of Murong cloud.

However, with the help of Murong yunlengshen's Kung Fu before, he had already flashed to the window and jumped out.

Murong Yun sneered and once again poked out his big hand. But what he caught was Wang Fan's clothes, but he didn't catch Wang Fan.

This scene made him slightly stupefied for a while, and then found that Wang Fan had fallen to the ground rapidly.

Looking at Wang Fan, Murong cloud's face is blue again. He is a little bit. He rushes out without hesitation and pursues him.

Just as he was just chasing out, he suddenly heard a unique voice.

The voice seemed to be very far away from him, but it seemed to be very close to him, just like yingyanyan was teasing, full of chaotic state.

"Is this the voice of huanmi king?" Murong Yun listen to this sound, face suddenly changed, suddenly stopped in the air, do not dare to move.

Although the sea of the devil abyss has innumerable demons, it has many forces. But in the sea of magic abyss, there are three kings.

These three kings are the most powerful three in the sea of Moyuan. Their strength is unfathomable. It is said that they have reached the peak of the Kingdom, and few people dare to provoke them.

And this huanmi king is one of them.

This huanmi king is the only woman among the three kings. No one knows how old she is, but her life style is extremely chaotic.

It's said that this woman has countless faces. She drives the spaceship all day and travels in the sea of the devil abyss with many hands.

And this kind of sound will be heard from her spaceship, but those who hear it must stop and give way, otherwise it will be regarded as provocation.

Although Murong Yun's strength is good, he is not confident enough to compete with huanmi Wang.

He secretly scolded his bad luck, but he did not dare to chase Wang Fan.

Sure enough, not long after Murong Yun stopped, a very luxurious magic weapon of flying car had come from a distance, passed in front of him, and then quickly left. After the magic weapon of flying away, Murong Yun once again exerts his mental power to find Wang Fan, but he has lost his trace.

.....

Wang Fan's face is very gloomy. Even though he escaped from the spaceship, he still doesn't relax. On the contrary, his sense of crisis is getting stronger and stronger.

He has already noticed that Murong cloud has chased out.

However, just when Wang Fan plans to unite again to turn over the seal and give it to each other, he is shocked to find that Murong cloud has stopped chasing.

Although Wang Fan didn't understand what was going on, he didn't think much about it. Instead, he sped up and fled crazily.

"Wang Fan, did you hear any strange sound just now?" At a certain moment, Song Rumei in his arms opened her eyes and asked a little ruddy.

"Voice?" Wang Fan frowned, "what voice?"

Song Rumei looked at Wang Fan's picture and couldn't help wondering.

She had heard a strange sound before. It was as if countless men and women were having fun.

However, as a woman, she was naturally embarrassed to say such words. She simply said "Oh" without saying any words.

Wang Fan did not think much and continued to escape.

But soon his face changed. Because he found that several friars were standing in the same place, with their heads down, and seemed to be very frightened.

And those people in see the rapid escape of him, the eyes also emerged a touch of surprise and strange.

Wang Fan felt that something was wrong, so he quickly stopped and asked the monks, "friends, why are you like this? What happened?"

But what made him helpless was that none of the monks paid any attention to Wang Fan, but his eyes became more and more strange.

Wang Fan felt that something was wrong, and he was just going to learn from each other's appearance and bow his head to make a panic, but at this time, a cold female voice came over,

"hearing the immortal voice of huanmi King's car, you dare to run. You are really brave."

"Happy king?" Wang Fan listens to these three words, the facial expression immediately is cannot help a change, thoroughly card white.

After wandering in the sea of the devil's abyss for such a long time, he had heard of huanmi king. He even knew the rules of huanmi king.

But he was a little depressed that he didn't hear the fairy voice of the other side's car at all.

At this time, Wang Fan's mental power has been swept, a very luxurious small flying car, from far and near, quickly swept over.

Chapter 1786

After seeing this magic weapon, the monks' faces changed one after another, and then their heads lowered, and their expressions also showed extreme respect.

Wang Fan naturally did not dare to neglect, and quickly made the same movement and expression as those people.

The magic weapon of the flying car soon stopped in front of them, and then a man and a woman came out slowly.

The man was dressed in white, elegant, and very handsome, just like cream.

But his body is a soft breath, the face is also some unnatural pale.

As for the woman, she was also charming, with endless charm on her body. Especially her beautiful red lips and proud upper circumference are more attractive.

Standing there, she didn't move, but it felt like she was twisting her delicate body, which was hard to control.

Wang Fan's mental power just sweeps these two people for a while, then hastens to withdraw, does not pay attention.

These two people's manner is quite arrogant, after they come out, the line of sight first slowly sweeps the public, satisfied nodded, finally fell on Wang Fan two people.

The man took a look at Wang Fan and cheered coldly, "you are so brave. When you meet Mr. Wang huanmi passing by, you don't stop to give way. Are you looking down on Mr. Wang huanmi?"

Although the woman didn't speak, her eyes also swept to Wang Fan, and her beautiful eyes showed extraordinary color.

Wang Fan listened to these words, but he couldn't help sinking. He said respectfully, "I'm sorry. I didn't understand the rules when I came to the sea of the devil's abyss. If I offended you, please forgive me."

When he was talking, he was secretly complaining. He never thought that he had just escaped the pursuit of Murong cloud. In a twinkling of an eye, he was targeted by huanmi king, who was more powerful than Murong cloud.

At the same time, his heart is also quite uncomfortable, this cream Xiaosheng is just a mysterious eight levels, he can easily kill it, but now he has to be respectful to others.

"No rules? Hum That man cold hums a, "collided Huan Mi Wang adult, isn't you a don't understand a rule then can erase?"

"What you did was because you were killed immediately. But who makes us feel soft. You two go up with us. Lord huanmi wants to see you. "

Wang Fan was depressed when he heard this.

Huan Mi Wang wants to see him? If he gets on the fast car, won't he have to be killed by the huanmi king?

It is said that Wang huanmi's private life is extremely chaotic, and his face is countless. He doesn't want to see such a woman.

But even if Wang fanqian didn't want to, he didn't dare to refuse at this time. If he refuses, he will be killed.

"Good!" Wang fan can only bite his teeth and nod.

The man saw Wang Fan nodding, still did not give Wang Fan how many good faces, and the woman went back to the car. Wang Fan quickly takes song Rumei with him.

It's not big, but it's not small. After the man got on the fast car, he soon took Wang Fan and Wang Fan to one of the rooms.

He fell on his knees, knocked on the door, and said respectfully, "master, I have brought you."

"Let them in." A charming voice came from the room, and then the door opened without wind, revealing the scene inside.

This room is not big, only more than 100 square meters, but the style inside is extremely ambiguous. In the room, there was a confused aroma.

In the middle of the room, there was a big bed, surrounded by white gauze.

Wang fan can vaguely see that there is a misty and graceful figure in it.

At this time, song Rumei's face had already appeared an unnatural red tide. Her delicate body began to tremble, and her eyes were even more blurred.

Wang Fan looked at the scene, and quickly input a aura into it, which made it sober.

After Wang Fan and Wang Fan entered the room, the door had already closed automatically. As for the white faced man, he had left and never entered.

"I've done you two a big favor today. Don't you thank me?" A charming voice that made people tremble slowly came out from behind the gauze, and even Wang Fan had a short absence.

However, he soon reflected it and understood what the other party was referring to, so he quickly said, "thank you, Lord huanmi."

Wang Fan complained in his heart. He didn't understand what the woman wanted to do, but he knew there was no good.

If this woman wants him to be Wang Fan's face, as long as Wang Fan wants to think about it, he will feel numb on his scalp, and layers of goose bumps will keep surging up.

No matter how charming and beautiful the woman was, Wang Fan felt disgusted at the thought of her countless faces.

"Cluck, it's good to know your kindness. I like people who know your kindness best." The people behind the gauze giggle, then open the gauze, a woman appeared in front of them.

Wang Fan looked at the woman, slightly stunned.

Because this woman looks like she's only in her twenties, but her figure is already mature, with a touch of indescribable amorous feelings. She was wearing a light blue veil, half covered and half exposed, which was crazy enough.

However, Wang Fan knew that although the woman looked young, she was actually an old monster who had not known how many years of cultivation.

If someone can reach the peak of the kingdom in his twenties, Wang Fan will not believe it at all.

What's more, he has long been a preconceived disgust to this huanmi king, so even if the other party is attractive, his mood has not changed at all.

Huan Mi Wang was surprised to see that Wang Fan was so calm after he saw him, even his eyes didn't show lust.

Her eyes are very natural to emerge a touch of resentment, and then red lips gently, Jiao voice said, "I want to accept you two as disciples, you two are willing to?"

Song Rumei in see each other in the moment, the mind has again out of control, eyes in the emergence of confusion.

She is about to kneel down and say yes, but Wang Fan has put a aura into her body again to make her sober.

Song Rumei is shocked. What kind of person is this? A woman can make song Rumei lose her mind. This shows the horror of huanmi king.

Wang Fan quickly bowed his head and said respectfully, "it's my honor to be able to worship Lord huanmi Wang as my teacher, but I already have a school. I'm afraid I'm going to disappoint my predecessors."

It is absolutely impossible for him to learn from this person. Because he knew that this woman's apprentice was just a slave.

Even if Wang Fan died, he would not be his teacher.

"Think about it?" Huanmi Wang is an old monster who has lived for countless years. How can he not understand Wang Fan's meaning?

She didn't get angry, but said softly, "well, the king will give you time to think about it. When you think about it clearly, you can come back to the king."

Then, with a slight movement of her finger, a woman came in from the outside and left the room with Wang Fan after a smile.

"It's a bit interesting. I'm not confused by Wang. It's interesting." Huan Mi Wang looked at Wang Fan's back, and his eyes twinkled with interest.

After Wang Fan left the room, his face was suddenly gloomy.

It's really dangerous just now. If that huanmi king is not happy, I'm afraid his life will be gone.

Chapter 1787

Under the woman's leadership, Wang Fan and Wang Fan soon came to a room.

This room is pretty good. It's countless times better than those inferior cabins on the spaceship.

Of course, it's also related to the identity of huanmi king. After all, it's not only her fast car, but also her pleasure spot. Naturally, the conditions are not too bad.

Along the way, Wang Fan met many men and women. These men and women, regardless of their strength, have one thing in common, that is, men are more handsome and women are more beautiful.

When the men and women saw Wang Fan, most of them were very friendly and nodded. Only a few of them had bad looks. It was as if Wang Fan had robbed them of their treasure.

Wang Fan felt this scene, quite speechless.

"Younger martial brother, this is your temporary residence. I'll leave first." After the woman takes two people to the room, charming smile, Yan Ran says.

"Please, elder martial sister." Wang Fan responded politely, and then took song Rumei into the room.

Just as he entered the room, his face became gloomy.

For no reason, he was taken to the flying car of huanmi king, one of the three kings of the sea of magic abyss. It's strange that he can be happy.

If we don't find a way to escape as soon as possible, let alone that he is likely to be taken further away from the rono Empire and lost again, and his life is likely to be in danger.

"That huanmi king is so terrible, even I almost lost." After entering the room, song Rumei said that she was a little shaken.

She is really afraid. After all, she is a woman and a normal woman.

But even so, she almost lost in the charm of huanmi king, which shows the horror of huanmi king.

"This woman is really terrible. We have to find a way to get out of here as soon as possible, otherwise we will all be in danger." Wang Fan nodded, but he didn't say a word.

He felt that it was too evil for the king of Huan Mi to eat all men and women, but this kind of thing was hard to say, otherwise it would only make song Rumei more nervous.

As long as the thought that this woman should eat both men and women, Wang fan is even more disgusting.

He had a bad premonition that the reason why huanmi Wang's private life was so chaotic was mostly related to his practice.

Maybe, this woman is through this way to absorb aura, and then practice.

At the thought of this, Wang Fan's sense of crisis is even stronger.

After comforting song Rumei, Wang Fan grabs Murong hate's space ring.

He remembers that when the trade fair was held on fengluan fairy spaceship, it seemed that a magic weapon of spaceship was traded by Murong Yun, and Murong Yun seemed to return it to Murong hen.

Wang Fan wants to see if the magic weapon of the spaceship is in Murong hate's space ring.

If you are here, it will be much easier to do. Wang fan can find a way to escape just by making a sacrifice. But if he's not here, he'll have to think about how to escape.

When Wang Fan's spiritual power penetrated into Murong hate space ring, he found that Murong hate space ring has a strong prohibition and protection.

Generally, people who have reached a certain level of strength can set up a forbidden guard in the space ring.

Of course, the premise is that you have to be able to find a master of the array, or you are a master of the array, otherwise it is impossible to set such a forbidden guard.

"It's worthy of being a descendant of the king's powerful people. It's really not simple." Wang Fan was aware of that layer of forbidden guard and couldn't help sneering.

This is the first time that he has noticed the forbidden guard in the space ring. In the past, the space rings he captured had no forbidden at all, and the contents could be taken out at will.

If Wang Fan hasn't studied the array, he can say that he has nothing to do with this prohibition.

If he dares to break it by force, he will not say whether he can succeed or not, but it is very likely to damage the whole space ring and cause the loss of its items.

However, Wang fan is a master of array. He has some knowledge of array, and his attainments are quite good.

With a sneer, without any hesitation, his mental power immediately shrouded in the past towards that layer of prohibition, and began to study it carefully.

Half a day later, Wang Fan has thoroughly studied the prohibition. He flashed in his eyes, and his mental power suddenly gathered into a sharp edge, and fiercely moved towards one of the positions.

Boom!

In a flash, the ban broke like a fragile piece of paper. Wang Fan found out the contents without any barrier.

"What a rich guy." When Wang fan saw the items in Murong hate space ring, he was shocked.

Rao thinks that he is rich and has seen the world, but at this moment, he only feels that he is a bumpkin.

In muronghen's space ring, piles of high-quality spirit stones are piled like garbage, just like several hills. If you take a rough look, it will not be less than a few hundred million. After the stone, there are countless pearls, which are only more than the stone.

After the first-class Lingzhu, there are lingcao. These lingcao are even more dense, and the lowest is grade five. As for those below grade five, there is no one.

In addition, there are also some top-quality spirit stones, but the number of top-quality spirit stones is not very large, only more than 100.

Wang Fan looked at these things, his whole heart jumped out of control.

This Murong hate is really rich.

He is so rich, then the Murong family behind him is not richer?

You know, Murong hen is just a descendant of Murong family. Just a descendant, so rich, we can see the Murong family's heritage.

Wang Fanqiang held back his inner excitement, and his mental strength finally fell into one of the corners.

In that corner, there is a spaceship lying quietly.

This spaceship is not big, but it can take five or six people at most. However, it contains a layer of vicissitudes of life, obviously a long time ago.

Wang Fan didn't dare to take the spaceship out of the space ring. After all, this is huanmi King's territory. In case he takes it out and causes huanmi King's attention, it's not good.

He hit all his mental strength on the spaceship and began to investigate carefully.

He wants to check whether the spaceship can be used normally and whether it is damaged. By the way, he wants to study the operation array above.

The time of three days is fleeting. During these three days, Wang Fan has been immersed in the research of the spaceship.

Even if three days passed, he could not understand the array on the spaceship.

The array on the spaceship is too mysterious. Wang fan is sure that it is a top treasure.

That array includes not only drive array, attack array, but also defense array.

With Wang Fan's attainments in array, he only studied how to drive the spaceship in three days. As for how to attack and defend, he didn't penetrate at all.

Similarly, since Wang Fan was brought to this room, huanmi Wang's mental power has been on Wang Fan, staring at Wang Fan tightly.

Chapter 1788

In Huan Mi Wang's opinion, Wang Fan will certainly find a way to escape.

But she didn't expect that after three days, Wang Fan had been practicing all the time and didn't want to leave.

This scene makes Wang huanmi have some doubts. Is it because he is wrong? This guy didn't mean to leave?

Although huanmi Wang was confused, he did not relax his attention to Wang Fan.

She loves the people that Wang likes, but there is no one who can escape. Wang Fan will surely become her great tonic.

As time went by, ten days later, Wang Fan was still immersed in cultivation, and there was no sign of waking up.

Although huanmi Wang has been constantly seeking pleasure these days, he has never relaxed his attention to Wang Fan.

On this day, Huan Mi Wang, who was in the process of making music, drove away two men and women who served her. He waved and said, "go and bring those two younger generation. I want them to serve me today."

She has some impatience, if this time Wang Fan dare to refuse, then don't blame her impoliteness, directly strong.

Although the two men and women who served her were not happy, they did not dare to disobey. They knelt down and said, "yes."

After that, they put on their clothes and left the room in a hurry.

They soon came to Wang Fan's residence and knocked on the door.

Wang Fan opened the door and immediately frowned.

He has already seen at a glance that these two people have just done that kind of thing before, combined with his conjecture of huanmi king, they can't help but feel more disgusted.

Of course, he didn't show it on the surface.

"Elder martial brother and elder martial sister, what can I do for you?" Wang Fan said respectfully.

"Lord huanmi calls you to go there. If it's too late, watch your dog's life." The man's face was ugly, and he said unhappily.

"Well, I'll be right there." Wang Fan quickly nodded, then took song Rumei out of the room.

His face did not change, but his heart was gloomy.

He knew that the king of Huan MI was impatient. If he dared to refuse again this time, most of his life would be lost.

A few minutes later, Wang Fan and Wang Fan were brought into huanmi Wang's room again.

As soon as he entered the room, a sense of chaos came to his face, which made Wang Fan feel even more disgusted.

See Huan Mi Wang wearing a red gauze clothes, quietly sitting in a chair, looking at Wang Fan coldly.

She is still so charming, so sexy, so enchanting, so attractive.

However, her face is not the day when Wang Fan's smile, instead of just cold.

"Do you think about taking this king as your teacher?" Huan Mi Wang looked at Wang Fan and asked coldly.

"Think about it." Wang Fan nodded quickly, "it's my honor to be able to worship you as a teacher. I'm willing to defeat you as a teacher."

While speaking, Wang Fan's face was full of ingratitude. "In fact, when I went back that day, I already regretted that I didn't promise to worship you as my teacher."

"I wanted to look for adults, but I was afraid that it would make adults unhappy. That's why"

Wang Fan said. His eyes secretly glanced at huanmi Wang's enchanting body, and there was a deep hidden passion in it.

Of course, he did all this on purpose to let huanmi King relax his vigilance.

Although his eyes were very obscure and deep, he could not escape the perception of huanmi king.

Huan Mi Wang sees Wang Fan's this appearance, his eyes are quite puzzled, but after perceiving Wang Fan's obscure eyes, his doubts dissipate a bit.

She is very confident in her charm. In fact, she doesn't believe that Wang fan can resist her charm.

"That's good. Now that we've thought about it, why don't we hurry up and worship?" Huan Mi Wang said, the slender legs slightly open and close.

Wang Fan's breath stagnated again, and a strong blazing appeared in his eyes.

He did not hesitate to pull song Rumei forward. While doing things, he knelt down and said, "little master" but as soon as Wang Fan's voice fell, before he knelt down completely, he suddenly hugged huanmi Wang.

Huan Mi Wang's face changed slightly, but he didn't make any action, let alone resist.

In her opinion, most of it was Wang Fan who couldn't resist her temptation and wanted to do the wrong thing.

But just at this time, Wang Fan has suddenly seized her left index finger, hard down a roll!

In a flash, the space ring that huanmi Wang wears on his left index finger has been pulled down by Wang Fan and grasped in his hand.

"Good courage!" Huan Mi Wang's face finally changed and became extremely gloomy.

As soon as the aura in her body dispersed, the huge pressure immediately shook Wang Fan away, and then her right hand became empty, and she grabbed Wang Fan.

Wang fan is mad a smile, the left hand suddenly a wave, a spaceship suddenly appears. Then, he is burning aura crazily. While taking song Rumei to the spaceship, he grabs the shadow knife with his right hand and displays it crazily. All this, Wang Fan did very quickly, just happened between breathing.

Huan Mi Wang looked at the sudden appearance of the spaceship, and then looked at the oncoming Dao Lang, disdained to smile, stretched out a hasty jade finger at random.

That piece of horror knife awn, then already in a bang sound of rapid collapse, dissipate.

Wang Fan naturally didn't expect seven Jue Dao to hurt huanmi king. After all, seven Jue Dao didn't even hurt Murong Yun. If it could hurt huanmi king who was more powerful than Murong Yun, it would be a joke.

All he did was just to buy himself time.

He believed that Huan Mi Wang would attack Dao Lang first, and then he would come back to deal with him.

Sure enough, at the moment when Daolang was easily defeated by huanmi king, Wang Fan had already taken song Rumei to the spaceship.

At the moment of flashing on the spaceship, Wang Fan's mental power suddenly surged. He grabbed dozens of top-quality spirit stones and put them in the groove, and then urged to start the array.

"It's so bold of you to attack our king secretly. You're dead!" Huan Mi Wang was angry, but her words just came out.

With a buzzing sound, the spaceship has been flying rapidly, at a speed hard to see by the naked eye, frantically rushing towards the back window.

At the same time, Wang Fan's sarcastic voice also came out, "you shameless bitch, if you want to accept me as an apprentice, don't dream. You're so dirty. Even if I look at you, I'll feel sick. "

Huan Mi Wang's face was ugly, but he didn't speak. Instead, he waved his hands and bombarded the spaceship crazily.

Bang Bang twice, under her attack, the spaceship began to shake rapidly, but even so, in a bang, they still frantically smashed the big window and disappeared in the clouds.

"What a speed Huan Mi Wang's face changed again. She didn't expect that her attack could not damage the spaceship, and the speed of the spaceship was so fast.

Without any hesitation, she flashed and ran after her.

At the moment, her hatred for Wang fan is already overwhelming.

Let's not say that Wang fan is just a bit of a person. He even teased her and scolded her as a slut. Let's say that Wang Fan took away her space ring, and she can't let Wang Fan go.

Chapter 1789

On the spaceship, Wang Fan couldn't help gushing out a mouthful of blood. His face turned pale in an instant, but there was an irrepressible surprise in his eyes.

He didn't think that he just understood the skin of the spaceship defense array, and even resisted the huanmi King's attack.

Even if the huanmi king only attacked casually and didn't use any martial arts, it was enough for Wang Fan to be shocked.

The reason why he spurted blood was not that he was hurt by huanmi king, but that it was the backfire caused by the crazy urge array.

Wang Fan took out the ring from huanmi Wang's hand, and his heart thumped wildly.

A Murong hen is already so rich. How rich the huanmi king will be is beyond his imagination.

Now he only prays that huanmi king can't catch up with the spaceship and he can escape smoothly.

Thinking of this, Wang Fan directly grabbed all the top-quality spirit stones and tens of millions of top-quality spirit stones from Murong hate ring, and started a crazy urge.

In such a terrible aura, the speed of the spacecraft is also faster and faster, even the naked eye has been difficult to distinguish.

Huan Mi Wang's face is very gloomy. She has been chasing Wang Fan for more than half an hour, but she has not shortened the distance between her and Wang Fan's spaceship. On the contrary, they are getting farther and farther together.

This made her realize that Wang Fan's spaceship is indeed a top treasure.

But she did not understand how Wang Fan got such a treasure.

In fact, the original owner of the spaceship traded the spaceship because he couldn't understand the array on the spaceship and couldn't use it. Otherwise, he will definitely not do it.

Of course, if he knew that the speed of the spaceship was so fast that even huanmi king, who had a great reputation in the sea of the devil abyss, could not catch it, even if he could not understand it, he would not do it.

It's just a pity that he can't know all this, and the spaceship is now owned by Wang Fan.

A few hours later, huanmi King stopped completely, because the spaceship had disappeared in her mental power.

"I want to kill you, too! The next time we meet, it's your time to die! "

"If I remember correctly, the younger generation was on the fengluan spaceship, then I will go to fengluan to find out the identity of this person."

The king of Huan Mi roared and disappeared.

Wang Fan didn't know how long he had controlled the spaceship. He didn't stop until he felt that Huan Mi Wang couldn't catch up with him.

He took out the map he had bought and compared it with it. He found that he had already arrived at the periphery of the sea of magic abyss. As long as he walked another 30000 Li, he could reach the territory of the Long'ao empire.

Wang Fan secretly said that he was lucky, and he took control of the spaceship for more than an hour. He didn't take off the ship until he got out of the sea of magic abyss.

This ship is a top-level treasure. It must not be seen by others. Otherwise, once a great power comes to snatch it, he may not be able to keep it with his strength.

Wang fan made a quick journey and stopped just a few thousand miles away from the territory of the Long'ao empire.

He plans to improve his strength first. Anyway, he has enough spirit beads, spirit stones and spirit grass. It's a waste not to use them.

Moreover, he felt a sense of crisis, but he couldn't figure out where it came from.

However, after opening up the cave, Wang Fan finally knew where the sense of crisis came from.

It turned out to be a space ring from huanmi king.

He not only felt the powerful array prohibition in huanmi King ring, but also felt a touch of spiritual brand.

Obviously, this spirit brand is left by huanmi king. As long as there is a certain distance between them, the other side can feel it.

Wang fan out of a cold sweat, and then did not hesitate to quickly eliminate the spirit of the brand.

If this thing can't be eliminated, he doesn't dare to take this space ring, otherwise he will die.

For more than ten days, Wang Fan was frantically destroying the spirit brand, until ten days later, he completely eliminated it.

In the elimination of huanmi Wang spirit brand moment, Wang Fan heavy relief, weak soft down.

This huanmi King's spirit brand is really terrible. If it wasn't for his strong spirit and his mysterious golden energy, it would be impossible to eliminate it.

At the moment when Wang Fan wiped out the brand of huanmi Wang spirit, a enchanting figure suddenly stopped more than 20000 miles away from Wang Fan.

Her pretty face, the emergence of a cold intention to kill, "even the spirit of the king's brand erased, the king really underestimated you!"

Huan Mi Wang said coldly, his figure flashed and disappeared again.

After wiping out the spirit brand of huanmi king, Wang Fan didn't rush to crack the array prohibition in the ring, but began to cultivate.

At the same time that a large number of spirit stones and beads were turned into powder and dissipated, his cultivation also began to move wildly. There are two levels of location, three levels of location and four levels of location.

In less than half a year, his strength has been upgraded from the first level to the fourth level.

Song Rumei's strength was also promoted to the seventh level of xuanjing with the help of pills and Lingshi.

Wang Fan looked at this scene, quite a bit unbalanced.

If it is said that he can improve one small level of strength by using a top-quality spirit stone, song Rumei can improve five or six small levels.

With the same cultivation resources, the gap between them is so huge, which makes Wang Fan a little depressed.

However, he was just a little depressed, and he didn't think much. After all, for him, song Rumei's strength is also a good thing.

During the six months of Wang Fan's cultivation, he didn't know that a great event had happened in the Empire.

Huanmi king, one of the three great kings of the sea of the devil abyss, came to the Dragon Austria empire.

First, she made a scene in fengluan city. After killing countless friars and thoroughly suppressing fengluan fairy, she killed Murong family.

It can be said that the two sides are fighting against each other. The Murong family's city is almost destroyed. As for the Murong family, it is the fall of three strong king, can be described as heavy losses.

If not for the last moment, the ancestors of Murong family came forward and scared away the king of huanmi, I'm afraid the Murong family would be completely exterminated.

It was a great sensation in the Long'ao empire. No one knows how fengluan fairy and Murong family offended huanmi king.

At the same time, almost all the monks really understood the power and horror of huanmi king.

Huanmi king was besieged by more than ten powerful people in the Murong family, but he still killed three of them. Even if his ancestors had not come forward, the whole army would have been destroyed. This kind of strength can be called terror.

Only fengluan fairy and Murong cloud know that the reason why huanmi king is so angry is because of Wang Fan.

Their hearts are extremely subdued, they are not friends with Wang Fan, even Murong Yun would like to kill Wang Fan.

But now, because of Wang Fan, they have attracted the great enemy of huanmi Wang, which has led to such a great loss. How can they not hold back?

Compared with the two people's grievances, Huan Mi Wang is more angry.

Because she didn't find out any identity information of Wang Fan. She just knew that Wang Fan was coming to Longao Empire, which made her crazy.

She does not know the identity of Wang Fan, and how to find Wang Fan?

Especially in the Feng Luan and Murong cloud there learned that Wang fan is very good at the technique of changing face, she is even more crazy. That's why she's desperate.

"Long Ao Empire, long Ao Empire, I'm waiting here, I don't believe it, I can't find you!" The king of joy gritted his teeth.

Chapter 1790

After Wang Fan's strength reached the fourth level of the realm, he did not stop practicing, but was still madly improving his accomplishments.

There is no time for cultivation. Spring has gone and autumn has come. In the twinkling of an eye, two years have passed.

In the past two years, Wang Fan's hundreds of millions of top-grade spirit stones have been completely consumed, and even the top-grade spirit beads have been used up.

As for those spiritual herbs, they were all refined by Wang Fan and made into pills to assist cultivation, which were absorbed and absorbed by them.

However, he consumed such a huge amount of cultivation resources, and his strength was only upgraded from the fourth level to the seventh level.

On this day, Wang Fan woke up from closing his eyes and couldn't help sighing bitterly, "hundreds of millions of top-quality spirit stones, dozens of top-quality spirit stones, and countless elixirs and pills. His strength is only seven levels up. It's really too slow."

"If you want to break through the Kingdom, God knows how many cultivation resources are needed. This practice is really hard. "

Wang Fan murmured and grabbed the ring with his right hand.

He looked at huanmi Wang's space ring, and his eyes twinkled with rich and extreme golden light. "Now I can only see what resources are in it. I hope I won't be disappointed."

As he said this, his mental strength suddenly gushed out and ran into the array prohibition in the ring.

In the past two years, it was not the first time that he tried to break through the ban, but all failed.

The forbidden system in this ring is too abstruse, and the strength of the person who decorates it is too strong. Even if Wang Fan has understood some of it, his strength is not enough, but he still can't crack it.

With the crazy sprint of his mental power, the prohibition in the ring vibrated madly, but there was no sign of breaking it.

Wang fan is not reconciled, but gritted his teeth and roared, "break, give me break, I don't believe it, I Wang Fan even a space ring prohibition can't break!"

He roared crazily, his mental power was still running to the extreme, and he devoted himself to breaking the ban.

With this kind of crazy collision, his face became pale at a very fast speed, but he did not give up.

In this way, he bumped for several hours. At a certain moment, with a slight click, the forbidden ring was finally broken.

At the same time, Wang Fan couldn't help but pour out a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground.

However, even though he looked embarrassed, his eyes were full of excitement. Just a few breaths, he got up again and quickly checked the items in the ring.

Just at the moment of seeing the items in the ring, Wang Fan's eyes can't help but become strange.

The first thing he saw was not cultivation resources, but a clothes shelf.

On the clothes shelf, there are all kinds of sexy women's close fitting clothes everywhere, dazzling.

I'm afraid that these close fitting clothes are those women with open character in the secular world. They may blush after seeing them.

"This slut is a real seducer, shameless." Wang Fan couldn't help cursing and looked at other directions.

But soon he was disappointed.

He only saw one hundred million top-grade spirit stone and five hundred top-grade spirit stone, and nothing else. As for the spirit grass, there is no one to see.

"One hundred million high-quality spirit stone and five hundred high-quality spirit stone are too few. It's very good that I can break through the nine levels of the place with such cultivation resources. "

Wang Fan shook his head disappointedly. Instead of moving the top 100 million spirit stone, he grasped the best spirit stone for cultivation.

With his current strength, the top grade spirit stone has not helped him to improve his cultivation. It's better to keep it for emergency use.

Half a year later, Wang Fan completely consumed the five hundred top-quality Lingshi, and his strength was promoted to the eighth level of Weijing.

With his current strength and various means, it is no longer a problem to deal with the strong in the Kingdom, but it is still far from enough for the huanmi king.

"Sister Mei, let's go out." Wang Fan stood up and said to song Rumei.

In three years, song Rumei's strength has been promoted to the Ninth level of xuanjing, and she is one step away from entering the position.

However, with her fighting experience, if she meets the six and seven levels of the powerful mysterious realm, she is not an opponent.

After all, Song Rumei has no combat experience. It can be said that her strength is all accumulated by spirit stone and elixir.

This is also her good luck. Wang Fan, a master of alchemy, has been refining all kinds of pills for her. Otherwise, her strength would not be improved so fast.

"Well." Song Rumei nodded and stood up slowly.

Perhaps because of the improvement of strength, Song Rumei's body has a trace of aura, ethereal dust, looks more attractive.

Wang Fan takes a deep breath. After recovering his original appearance, he takes Song Rumei to leave the cave, which has been closed for three years.

.....

there are no twin cities.

This is a city that must be passed by when entering the Empire of Long'ao from the sea of magic abyss. In this city, Huanmi King has been waiting for three years.

In the past three years, her mental power has been frantically spreading at the gate of the city, paying attention to everyone who enters.

However, with the passage of time, she has become more and more disappointed and angry.

Three years later, she did not find that Wang Fan had entered the Wushuang city. Did Wang Fan enter the Wushuang City long ago, or had already gone elsewhere, and did not plan to come back to the Longao Empire?

She was rather unwilling, rather angry, but helpless.

If it wasn't for her unwillingness to let Wang Fan escape like this, she would have gone back to the sea of magic abyss.

"In three months' time, a meeting of monks will be held in the capital of the Long'ao Empire, which can be attended within the age of 50, and the rewards will be generous."

"If Wang Fan has already entered the Dragon Austria Empire, I think he will take part in the contest. In this way, I might as well go to the capital city and wait for the hare!"

Huan Mi Wang whispered that he didn't intend to continue to die in wushuangcheng, but left the city with a flash of body shape.

In her opinion, it has been three years. If Wang Fan really came to the lung'ao Empire, he would have gone in long ago. It is meaningless for her to wait any longer.

In that case, it's better to go to the Empire of rono. If at that time can not find Wang Fan, then she can only give up.

Huanmi king never thought that she had just left Wushuang City, less than half an hour, a man and a woman had already entered Wushuang city. And these two people are Wang Fan and song Rumei who she is waiting for.

If she waited even half an hour, even if she could not recognize Wang Fan and song Rumei, she would immediately list them as suspects and arrest them directly.

Wang Fan also did not expect that huanmi Wang should be so patient, waiting for three years in wushuangcheng, and he turned around at the gate of hell unconsciously.

After entering wushuangcheng, he didn't hang out, but ran directly to the restaurant.

He will first listen to if there are any big things happened in the last three years in the Empire, and then see how to return to Tianyun.
