Chapter 2471

"What's the matter?" Su Luoyan saw that Wang Fan took the initiative to go to the corner, and immediately realized that it was wrong. She couldn't help asking.

"Some clowns know that our pockets are cleaner than our faces, so they send money here. Let's find a place to collect it." Wang Fan said with indifference.

"Ah? Are you sure? " The vegetable falls wild goose in the heart can't help but a surprised, more subconsciously grasped Wang Fan some.

Although she felt that Wang Fan's words were strange, she could still understand Wang Fan's meaning.

Wang Fan did not answer, because he had stopped, and looked back coldly at the people behind him, "I thought it was the beating chengpai who came after me, but I didn't expect it was you."

With Wang Fan's voice, Su Luoyan has seen four men coming towards them.

One of them, who had been in Qiu's courtyard before, almost forcibly took away the man with her face full of flesh.

"Boy, you are very brave. You even dare to go to this alley when you know I'm chasing you."

"Do you think that if there is a law in Nantian City, I dare not move you? I tell you, if you think that way, you are wrong. "

"In such a place, even if I kill you, no one will know!"

The man with a face full of flesh stares at Wang Fan angrily, and his eyes are full of killing intention.

Obviously, he is going to kill Wang Fan.

The other three people didn't speak, just stare at the pretty face pale plain wild goose, eyes are about to fall out.

Zhang Hu didn't cheat them. This woman is really the best of the best.

Wang Fan didn't care about Zhang Hu's threat at all. Instead, he said faintly, "kill me later. I want to ask, do you have enough silver?"

"What? "Silver?" Zhang Hu four people listen to this, can't help but Leng for a while. But then they reacted.

"You want to die!" Four people are almost at the same time roar, then have no hesitation, grab a short blade from the body, then crazy toward Wang Fan.

In this case, even if Wang fan is not afraid, he still wants to fight them. This is an insult to them.

Su Luoyan saw that the four men took out the short blade to kill him. She couldn't help but scream. She immediately tried to rush forward and help Wang Fan block one.

But before she rushed forward, she felt a strong attack, and Wang Fan dragged her behind her.

"Just four ants. I dare to give you advice. I'm really blind." Wang Fan disdained to say, toe has suddenly stepped on the ground, also killed four people.

At this time, he seems to have returned to the secular world, back to Jinzhou City, back to the scene when he was besieged by gangsters.

Yes, in his eyes, these four guys are completely out of class gangsters. At most, they are just a little bit more ruthless than ordinary people and dare to fight and kill.

Even if his accomplishments were not there, he was also a master of internal strength. How could he be afraid of a few thugs?

Wang Fan just turned his body and avoided a sharp blade. Then he suddenly stepped out of his right leg and kicked his left side hard!

Bang!

A sound, left that person eye bead suddenly stare of roll round, instantly cover stomach to be kicked to fly out, the short blade in the hand also fell on the ground.

Wang Fan didn't pick up the short blade on the ground. At the moment of kicking the man, his right hand suddenly popped out and snapped. In an instant, he grasped another man's arm.

He grabbed the man's arm, jerked it, then pulled it.

Click!

Bang!

Two harsh sounds, the man also followed a scream, arm fracture at the same time, head knock on Wang Fan's knee, directly fell down.

Wang Fan's momentum was like a rainbow. He stepped forward two steps and dodged Zhang Hu's short blade. Then he pressed his head with one hand and hit the left wall.

Bang!

Zhang Hu's head broke through the blood and then fell to the ground.

In an instant, three people were knocked over, and at last the man was stupid.

He froze in place, only feel legs are a little trembling.

Practice family? How is that possible?

Didn't Zhang Hu say that this guy is just a civilian? How can a civilian have such skill?

Zhang Hu also looked at Wang Fan inconceivably, even forgot the pain of smashing his head.

If you have this kind of skill, you still need to go to Qiufu to eat and drink?

His face was very ugly.

Wang Fan didn't pay attention to Zhang Hu's ugly face at all. He walked over and stepped on him. He said condescending,

"now, do you know why I dare to go to this alley? I can trample countless ants like you. "

Wang Fan coldly said, has looked at the only person who was not injured, "go, take their silver to me, if the action is slow, you know the consequences." "Yes, yes." That person hears Wang Fan's words, where dare to have a little bit hesitant, hurriedly rolling and crawling to comply with.

Just in less than a minute, he ransacked all the silver on Zhang Hu's body, and also took out all the silver on his body, shivering to Wang Fan.

Wang Fan took the silver and nodded with satisfaction.

There are more than 500 silver coins and more than ten gold coins on these four guys, which seems to be enough for him for a period of time.

"You're good. Now you can knock them out, and then you can knock yourself out again." Wang Fan put away these silver coins and gold coins and said lightly.

"Ah?" The man opened his mouth, but he didn't dare to hesitate. He quickly knocked Zhang Hu out, and then bit his teeth and knocked himself out.

Wang Fan see four people all faint in the past, this just take plain wild goose to leave quickly.

For these four guys, even Zhang Hu, he didn't want to kill them.

One is disdain; the other is that he doesn't want to challenge the law of South Heaven. After all, killing is a big deal.

Su Luoyan followed Wang Fan blankly, only feeling that his mind was blank.

She didn't understand why Wang Fan, as a monk, could practice the body refining move of ordinary mortals. She also did not expect that Wang Fan would be so powerful after losing cultivation.

Wang Fan got so many gold and silver coins that he didn't have to go to the construction site to earn silver.

He bought some clothes, some easy-to-look materials and a box of silver needles at the stall, so he found a small inn to live in.

He had planned to open two rooms, but the price of the room was not very cheap, and he didn't want to earn money, so he only opened one.

The vegetable falls wild goose to see Wang Fan unexpectedly just opened a room, the whole heart has already thumped to jump up.

Although she said that she would rather stay with Wang Fan than be trampled and insulted by those mole ants. But when she was really alone with Wang Fan in the same room, she was still a little uneasy.

But she clenched her lips and did not speak.

Wang Fan took a look at Su Luoyan, "you first go to bed and sit down, then close your eyes, I'll change your face for a while, then change your clothes and leave here immediately."

The vegetable falls wild goose to hear Wang Fan's words, Leng for a while, she wants to say what, but still didn't say finally.

She just hesitated a little and sat down on the bed and closed her eyes.

So far, she can only listen to Wang Fan.

Wang fan saw plain wild goose didn't twist, this just satisfied of nod, and then quickly began to change.

He secretly congratulated himself on what he had learned in the secular world. Otherwise, even if he wanted to change his appearance, it would be difficult for him to do so.

When Wang Fan changed his appearance for Su Luoyan, one person appeared again in the comatose alley of Zhang Hu.

This man, the uncle of the autumn family, beat Cheng.

A few minutes later, he left.

Half an hour later, dozens of strong law enforcement men rushed here. At the same time, a sensational news spread all over Nantian city.

A man and a woman were so bold that they killed four people in Nantian city. They were insane!

Chapter 2472

The law of Nantian is supreme.

Even if the children of big families can escape from the law, it is in secret.

On the surface, no one dares to touch the law of South Heaven.

No matter who dares to touch the law of South Heaven in the open, they will be severely punished, without exception.

In the law of South Heaven, killing is undoubtedly the most serious.

Now, there are four murderers in Nantian City, and this kind of thing has spread. It's strange that law enforcement is not crazy.

If this matter does not have the result, the law enforcement goalkeeper prestige sweeps the floor!

Dozens of law enforcement members poured into the Hutong and surrounded the bodies of Zhang Hu's four people.

After just a few breaths, they locked one of the positions. Except for a few people who were waiting here, all the others chased after them.

In the hotel room, Wang Fan has transformed them into a middle-aged couple.

He did not hesitate to put on his new clothes in front of Su Luoyan, and then said to Su Luoyan, "you should put on your clothes as soon as possible, and then we will leave here."

Su Luoyan originally saw Wang Fan changing clothes in front of her face, and she blushed a little. Now when she heard that Wang Fan asked her to change clothes here, her pretty face became even more red.

As a powerful person in the holy land, she has been devoting herself to cultivation all these years, and has never encountered such a thing.

However, thinking of her own situation, she didn't wriggle. After a sound, she quickly turned to change her clothes.

Although Su Luoyan is extremely beautiful and graceful, Wang fan doesn't have the heart to see her change.

I don't know why, at this time, he had a kind of uneasy feeling, as if there was some danger coming.

Although this kind of feeling is very inexplicable, but Wang fan is very confident in this kind of feeling.

He didn't want to stay here for a moment. He wanted to leave quickly.

"I, I'm fine." A soft voice interrupts Wang Fan's thoughts. Su Luoyan has changed her clothes and walked to Wang Fan's side.

Although her appearance has been changed by Wang Fan's very ordinary appearance, but also changed into a very ordinary stall goods, but her noble temperament is still not to be able to cover.

Su Luoyan see Wang Fan did not peek at her change of clothes, nervous mood is finally relaxed a lot, in the heart of Wang fan is also good.

Even if her appearance is covered, Wang fan is the one who has seen her appearance, and her figure is not covered.

Wang Fan was able to be a gentleman without peeping at her changing clothes, which shows the noble character of Wang Fan.

Wang Fan didn't know what she was thinking. When he saw her change her clothes, he immediately grabbed her and walked towards the window.

"Let's get out of here first." At the time of saying this, Wang Fan had already held Su Luoyan and jumped out of the window.

At this time, he felt more and more uneasy, as if his life would be in danger if he did not leave.

Su Luoyan did not speak, just hugged Wang Fan, let Wang Fan with her jump from the window more than ten meters high.

Bang, Wang Fan just landed, he was acutely aware that dozens of strong people with strong breath rushed to this side.

He didn't dare to have a little hesitation at all, and took the wild goose to hide in a hidden grass.

He was sure that these people were coming for him, but he wanted to know who they were.

Because from the breath, these people don't look like the subordinates who beat up.

"That pair of murderer men and women live in this inn, surround here immediately, absolutely can't let them escape!"

"If you dare to commit murder in our southern Tiancheng, you will kill four of them. This kind of crazy murderer must be severely punished and must not be tolerated!"

A harsh voice came from afar, and then the dozens of strong men were divided into several groups.

While a group of people swarmed into the inn, the other groups quickly began to surround the outside of the inn.

"Law enforcement?" Wang Fan's eyelids jumped and his face changed in an instant!

Even if he had never met the law enforcement men, he could guess his identity by looking at the clothes they wore and their vigorous style.

But he was a little confused. He didn't kill Zhang Hu at all. Who was harming him?

By the way, it must be the batter!

Wang Fan soon thought of Ou Cheng. After all, he didn't know anyone else except beat Cheng when he first arrived.

Wang Fan did not continue to think, because the situation at this time has not allowed him to continue to think, the most urgent thing is to leave here.

Even if Wang fan can deal with these dozens of strong men, it will never be easy.

What's more, there must be more than just a few people in the law enforcement department. Once more people come, he will not escape."Woof, woof, woof!"

Just as Wang Fan was about to leave, a sharp dog barked suddenly. Then he saw a nearly two meter high hound rushing towards him while shouting.

"There's someone over there!"

"The murderer is over there!"

This sudden scene not only made Wang Fan's face suddenly changed, but also the faces of the strong law enforcement men who were in charge.

The face of the plain wild goose is more white.

No matter how strong Wang fan is, once she is surrounded by so many experts, there is only one way to die. Even she has made plans to be abandoned by Wang Fan.

After all, people are selfish, Wang Fan promised to take her, it is only based on the safety of both sides. Once Wang Fan himself becomes dangerous, he will definitely not take care of her.

This kind of thing she Su Luoyan see is too much, even she will not blame Wang Fan.

Because if they change their positions, she is likely to do the same.

Su Luoyan takes off the hairpin on her head. She has made a decision. Once Wang fan leaves her, she will die immediately.

She would rather die than fall into the hands of these ants.

"Get on my back, hold me tight, I'll take you out." At the moment when she was ready to die, Wang Fan's voice came to her ears.

The vegetable falls wild goose tiny a Leng, the eye Mou unexpectedly unconsciously some moist.

For a short time, she didn't hesitate for a moment to get on Wang Fan's back.

At this moment, she only felt that her dusty heart was really split into a gap, and a strange and warm feeling that she had never had before poured into her heart.

At this moment, she finally realized that although she was a powerful man in the holy land, she was a woman in the first place.

There are many deficiencies in her life, at least this dependence, she has never felt.

Looking at the not wide back in front of her, she suddenly felt as if this back could cover everything for her.

Whoa!

A harsh voice woke her up. After she recovered, she saw that the tall hound had been killed by Wang Fan.

Wang Fan didn't have time to think like Su Luoyan. After he chopped the hound, he turned around and rushed to one of the directions without hesitation.

In that direction, there are three strong internal forces, which is also the best place to break through.

Chapter 2473

"What a brave murderer! It's nothing more than killing people in my South Tiancheng. He even dares to kill the hounds of our law enforcement department. He's looking for death!"

"Take this murderer for me at all costs!"

When the law enforcement officer saw that Wang Fan had killed the hound with a knife, he was so angry that his lungs almost exploded!

Once upon a time, someone dared to challenge the authority of his law enforcement?

Wang Fan didn't want to talk nonsense at all. He killed Su Luoyan crazily in a direction.

He knew that it was useless to say anything now. Even if he said that the four Zhanghu were not killed by him, people would not believe it.

Once he and Su Luoyan are taken to the law enforcement gate, it will be really difficult to fly.

Although Nantian city can not cultivate aura, it is also a place where the strong are respected. It has no strength and can only be bullied.

"Stop him!"

"If you dare to resist, you will be killed!"

The law enforcement men saw that Wang Fan wanted to run away, and roared wildly again. At the same time, they killed Wang Fan.

Wang Fan didn't pay any attention to the pursuers behind him. In a flash, he came to the three strong law enforcement men.

The three strong law enforcement men saw that Wang Fan had the courage to rush to them, and they were very angry.

"To die!" They roared and danced wildly. They attacked Wang Fan fiercely.

Wang Fan felt their attack, and his face didn't change at all.

Even he didn't even have the idea of avoiding. He suddenly stepped on the ground with his right foot, and the speed increased instead of decreasing. When he rushed to the three people, his body jumped up in an instant, swept his right leg and rolled out crazily.

Bang bang!

Wang Fan's right leg set off a strong wind and swept over the three men's fists and feet. The terrible force burst open. The three men only felt a pain in their fists and feet, and immediately began to retreat.

Even one of them could not help spitting out a mouthful of blood.

They raised their heads and looked at Wang Fan strangely. Their eyes were full of shock.

Nantian City, when did such a terrible inner strength come?

You know, although the three of them are at the bottom of the inner strength, they are also solid inner strength.

But now, Wang Fan just one leg, they will easily beat back the three, and even let one of them suffer internal injury, this is absolutely a very strong internal strength.

Wang Fan didn't care about them at all. After sweeping them away, he rushed out from the gap.

"No wonder you dare to be so arrogant. It turns out that you are also strong inside! However, even if you are strong inside, you can't violate the law of Nantian city! "

The rest of the law enforcement men looked at the scene, and their faces were burning.

Dozens of them came to capture Wang Fan. If they really let Wang Fan escape, their faces would be lost.

"Each team is ready. One team shoots arrows and shoots two people with all its strength. Two groups, three groups, I'm going to chase you. You can't let him escape! "

With a crazy order, the law enforcement forces immediately began an orderly operation.

Whoosh, whoosh!

Countless arrows shot madly at Wang Fan, and Wang Fan's face immediately became ugly.

These arrows are very powerful, and each one has at least great power.

If you can use your aura, if you still have accomplishments, this is nothing.

But when you can't use your aura, you can only use your physical strength and internal strength.

The most important thing is that the speed of these arrows is still very fast. They are definitely faster than the bullets of the secular world.

If Wang fan is the only one, he can completely ignore these dense arrows.

But he carried the wild goose on his back, that's different.

He can hide, but he can't guarantee that these arrows won't hurt the wild geese.

Wang Fan almost did not consider, forced to twist the body, right hand waving a dagger horizontal split out.

Dangdangdang!

There were several harsh sounds of Jinge. Three arrows were swept down by Wang Fan, but the same arrow hit his left rib.

Fortunately, Wang Fan's body was strong, and the arrow didn't pose much threat to him. However, under the great strength, his body still couldn't help stepping back.

Whoosh!

Two more arrows came from the side, but the target was the wild goose on his back.

As soon as Wang Fan's face changed, his body suddenly twisted, and his right short blade swept out again, the whole person also moved quickly to the left.

But in spite of this, although he swept down one of the arrows, the other one was still nailed to his left rib again, and it was still the previous wound.

Hiss a, this time, that arrow directly nailed into Wang Fan shoulder rib, took up a cluster of blood fog.

Wang Fan's face changed wildly! He knew that he underestimated the inner strength here.

There are more powerful people here, no matter in strength or archery, than those in the secular world.

"How are you?" Su Luoyan looks at Wang Fan's blood mist on his left shoulder. His eyes are instantly moist. He only feels his heart hurt.

This arrow was originally aimed at her, but Wang Fan helped her block it with his own body.

"I'm fine." Wang Fan simply said, without any hesitation, turned around and ran away, even the arrow on the shoulder rib didn't have time to pull out.

He has to go, and he has to get out of here as soon as possible.

Before, he thought that even if he was surrounded by these people, he could kill himself.

But now, he knew he was wrong.

If he is really surrounded, the possibility of his killing will be less than one percent!

"Chase

"Keep shooting!"

Law enforcement is still orderly, a group of people from both sides of the crazy chase to Wang Fan, a group of people are crazy along the middle continue to shoot arrows at Wang Fan.

Countless dense arrows shot at Wang Fan again, this time, Wang Fan almost did not even hide.

He just went to avoid the arrows that shot at his key parts and the wild geese behind him, while the other arrows let them hit him.

Hiss, hiss, hiss!

Because of Wang Fan's way of doing this, just for a moment, Wang Fan's body was once again pierced out of countless blood holes, red blood jet out.

His whole body has almost been dyed red by blood, and the whole person has become a blood man.

Su Luoyan looked at this scene, but she couldn't help but burst into tears. She choked and said, "Wang Fan, why don't you leave me to escape? If you go on like this, none of us can escape."

She was really moved by Wang Fan. From childhood to adulthood, she has never been moved like today.

There is a man, for her, willing to use his body to block the arrow that can kill.

Wang Fan did not speak, did not leave the wild goose, just in the crazy run.

Although his injury looks very serious, but only he knows, this injury is nothing to him, not to the root.

He's a monk of the king's body. If it hurts the root, it's really a joke.

Whoosh, whoosh!

Several more arrows hit Wang Fan, bringing up clusters of blood mist.

The salty blood splattered on Su Luoyan's face. Su Luoyan couldn't help crying, "I don't want to follow you. You can leave me, you can leave me" she cried as loud as she could, and she was tearing her heart and lungs

Chapter 2474

"Don't talk. I'll take you out." Wang Fan still has no superfluous words, or such a sentence.

With the fall of the voice, he is more and more far away from those who are strong in law enforcement.

Even if there are still arrows that can hit him, the damage to him is almost nonexistent.

A few minutes later, Wang Fan has completely escaped from the sight of the law enforcement, disappeared without a trace.

"Who is this man and why is he so strong?"

"When did such a terrible strongman come to Nantian city? Is he a new comer or a hidden master

The strong members of law enforcement looked at each other with solemn faces.

You know, those powerful people in Nantian city are all registered in the law enforcement department.

Not to mention the strong internal force, even those with strong external force have been put on record. But Wang Fan, they have never heard of or seen him.

"One group and two groups, you continue to pursue. This man has been seriously injured and has been shot by our poisonous arrow. He can't escape far."

"Three groups and four groups, you immediately go to Qiu's house and ask who they are and see if there are any clues."

"Five groups, six groups, follow me immediately. If one group and two groups can't catch them, they will immediately mobilize people to conduct an identity census for all the people in Nantian city. "

"In any case, these two people must be found out. No one can challenge the law of our southern city, and no one can challenge the authority of our law enforcement. "

"Whoever dares to kill people in our southern Tiancheng must be punished and must not be allowed to escape from the law."

A tall, hale and hearty old man said in a deep voice.

"Yes After hearing the voice of the old man, the strong law enforcement men did not hesitate and took orders one after another.

Wang Fan with plain wild goose escaped from the sight of the law enforcement, immediately ran to the remote area.

He is now dripping with blood. If he takes the wild goose to downtown, he is looking for death.

Half an hour later, he stopped under a humble bridge, and then put down the wild goose.

"What's the matter with you? Are you ok?" As soon as Su Luoyan came down, she grasped Wang Fan's hand nervously.

Looking at Wang Fan's bloody body, she felt that her heart seemed to be pricked by a needle.

"You don't have to worry, I have nothing to do. This little injury can't kill me. " Wang Fan took a look at the wild geese and said that he didn't care.

Just as his words just fell, his face suddenly changed. He even felt that his spirit began to be in a trance, and there was a dizziness in his mind.

"Arrows are poisonous!" As soon as Wang Fan's face changed, he soon realized something.

Previously, his nerves had been tense and he could resist the toxin, but now he relaxed and his resistance weakened immediately.

"What's the matter with you?" Seeing Wang Fan's expression, Su Luoyan immediately became more worried, and some of them had no idea.

She hated that she had lost all her accomplishments and that she had no ability.

She hated that she could only watch Wang Fan suffer, but could not help him.

"I'm fine." Wang Fan hard to spit out three words, and immediately sat down, and then without hesitation pulled out the nail in the body of a few arrows.

After pulling out the arrows, he quickly grabbed the silver needle and pricked it up on himself.

Only ten minutes later, his face changed again.

Although he can force out toxin by means of silver needle, the speed of toxin diffusion is even faster than that of he.

That is to say, if he goes on like this, sooner or later he will fall into a coma.

Wang Fan's face was completely ugly at last, and there was some anxiety in his heart.

Under the current situation, he must not go into a coma.

Once he's unconscious, he'll be dead.

"Don't worry if the injury is serious. I'll bandage and stop the bleeding for you now."

Seeing that Wang fan stopped needling, Su Luoyan's face became extremely ugly, and she was also anxious.

Stabbing.

She did not hesitate to remove the broken dress, and then folded into a cloth, is about to stop bleeding for Wang Fan.

Wang Fan looked at this scene, his heart could not help but touched for a moment, quickly stopped the action of the wild goose, said, "it's useless, this can't solve the problem."

He said, and directly took out all the silver on his body, handed it to Su Luoyan, and said apologetically, "I'm sorry, I'm afraid I can't protect you. The arrows were poisonous, and I underestimated the power of the poison.

"Even if I can force the toxin through the silver needle, the speed I can force the toxin is not as fast as the spread of the toxin. If it goes on like this, I will still fall into a coma sooner or later. "

"Take the silver and run for your life. If possible, remember to avenge me. ""Ah?" Su Luoyan opened his mouth, and then shook his head crazily, "no, I won't go, I will die together."

She said, even without hesitation in the mouth of Wang fan that infected with toxins on the wound, began to suck desperately.

Wang Fan was stunned, but soon surprised.

Because he found that with the sucking of the wild goose, the toxin in his body was really sucked away.

Although she sucks very little toxin, if she uses the needle to force the toxin, the toxin will disappear faster than it spreads.

That way, he'll have a chance to get rid of all the toxins.

Wang Fan did not care to be grateful or even to speak. He immediately took out the silver needle and continued to force poison.

An hour later, the toxin in his body was completely forced out of his body, but Su Luoyan was completely in a coma.

Wang Fan looks at Su Luoyan who is in a coma. Without any hesitation, he quickly grabs the silver needle and begins to force poison for her.

Because the wild goose only inhaled a small part of the toxin, the speed of diffusion was far less than that of Wang Fan.

Just ten minutes later, the toxin in the body of the wild goose had been forced out by Wang Fan.

However, perhaps because of this period of time nerves too tight, but the goose did not wake up.

Wang Fan didn't wake up the wild goose. After carrying her, he left here quickly.

He wants to find a place to clean the blood stains on the two people, then change their appearance again, and then find a place to settle down.

After settling down, he will go to Zhentian tower to see what's weird there and whether there is a way out.

Half a day later, Wang Fan finally found a deserted courtyard in the civilian area, and took the wild goose to get in.

Although the environment here is very bad, it is enough to survive for a short time.

When Su Luoyan woke up, she found herself lying on a bed, while Wang Fan was lying on the ground not far away to rest.

Looking at Wang Fan lying on the ice cold stone floor, her tears ran down uncontrollably again.

Why, why are you so nice to me?

If Wang Fan came from the same school with her, she would not have such deep feelings for her.

But in fact, he was hostile to Wang Fan, and it was because of her pursuit that Wang Fan fell into this kind of Jedi.

"Are you awake?" When Su Luoyan got up, Wang Fan had already noticed, and then quickly stood up.

However, as soon as he got up, Su Luoyan rushed to him and hugged him, "why, why do you want to be so nice to me"

Chapter 2475

Wang fan is a little confused.

He didn't expect that after losing cultivation, Su Luoyan would become so perceptual. It can be seen that this is a woman who has almost no life experience and is only practicing for so many years.

He touched his nose and said, "elder martial sister Luoyan, since I promised to take you, I have the responsibility to protect your safety. You don't have to do this."

"Don't say it." But before Wang Fan finished his words, he was interrupted by Su Luoyan,

"I'm not blind. You've done so much for me, and I can see it clearly. Don't call me elder martial sister in the future, just call me Luoyan. "

"You can pay so much for me, even regardless of life, I can also do anything for you, without turning back."

Wang Fan has a headache all of a sudden, and some regret whether he should not agree to take Su Luoyan with him.

Looking at Su Luoyan's expression, he knew that what he said was meaningless, so he didn't continue to say more.

Wang Fan changed the topic and said, "elder martial sister Luoyan, I'm going to visit Zhentian tower. Are you going with me or waiting for me here?"

"I'll go with you." Su Luoyan said without hesitation.

"Good." Wang Fan nodded, did not continue nonsense, fast again for two people began to change face.

He also has no way, the strength is poor, if really nothing, even go out are not dare to use his true colors.

Two hours later, they changed face again and became the image of middle-aged men and women. They left the dilapidated courtyard and rushed to the location of Zhentian tower.

Zhentian tower is located in the center of the square in the north of South Tiancheng, where countless people come to experience every day.

In Nantian City, Zhentian tower is absolutely the best place for those with strong internal and external strength to improve their strength, so it is so hot.

When Wang Fan came to the square with Su Luoyan, there were hundreds of people on the square.

Among those hundreds of people, there are those with strong internal strength and those with strong external strength. In a word, they are all upper class people in Nantian city. They don't need to worry about life at all.

There is only one goal for them, that is, continuous cultivation, continuous experience, continuous improvement of strength and breakthrough to a higher level.

Civilians have no leisure and time to come here, and among those civilians, there are too few strong people who can be born.

Hundreds of people are in the square, some are practicing boxing alone, some are fighting with each other to break through themselves.

As for the Zhentian tower standing in the center, naturally, some people are constantly going in and out.

Wang Fan stood on the square, looking at the towering Zhentian tower, and suddenly felt uncomfortable.

This kind of feeling is very abrupt, and he doesn't know why.

He did not immediately go in, but carefully looked up the town tower.

The whole tower is painted black, and the whole body is covered by a thin layer of black fog, so the eyes can't sweep in at all.

On the left and right sides of Zhentian tower, there are two huge steles.

The two steles are like two crystal displays. On each stele is a miniature model of Zhentian tower.

On the miniaturized model of the Zhentian pagoda, 18 layers are also clearly depicted, and some of them have some light spots.

Wang Fan took a look, the first layer has the most light spots, with nearly 100. When it comes to the second layer, there are only 20 or 30 light spots left. When it comes to the third layer, there are only less than 10 light spots left.

As for the fourth layer, there are only two light spots. There are no light spots on the fifth layer or above.

Just for a moment, Wang Fan understood that most of these light spots represent the number of people entering each floor of Zhentian tower.

Obviously, the number of people who stay on the first floor is the largest, and then decreases in turn. As for the fifth floor and above, no one has gone up yet.

"The fifth floor, someone has entered the fifth floor! Oh, my God, someone actually climbed the fifth floor. Today, I've opened my eyes. I just don't know who is climbing the fifth floor. "

A scream came suddenly. Wang Fan immediately saw that one of the fourth layer's light spots had disappeared, and at the same time, one more light spot had appeared on the fifth layer.

"Well, it's just going to the fifth floor. What's the fuss? Over the years, although few people have been able to reach the fifth level, it is not without them. If this person can reach the sixth level, it's called ability. "

A faint voice followed, and there was some disdain in the tone.

"Well, it's just going up to the fifth floor. You really dare to say that if you have the ability, you can go up to the fifth floor for me?"

"Over the years, although some people have climbed the fifth floor, they are rare, aren't they?"

"As for the sixth floor, how dare you think! If I remember correctly, the highest record in history is only the eighth level of law enforcement, and that was 20 years ago. "

"After the eighth level of Master Wu's highest record, if I remember correctly, it seems that the highest one is the sixth level, and only two people have been up there?" Before that person hears unexpectedly someone disdain, immediately then export retort way.

And with his retort, the voice of disdain, immediately faltered speechless, left.

Wang Fan listened to the two men's conversation, but he couldn't help but gasp.

Zhentian tower has only 18 floors in total, and the eighth floor is already the highest record. Is that exaggeration?

He had planned to climb the 18th floor to see if he could find the way out. Now it seems that he is naive.

Even if he thinks that he is more powerful than the one here, he doesn't think he will be so powerful.

"It's the sixth floor. It's the sixth floor. Who is it

Just when Wang Fan was in a daze, another sharp voice suddenly came out, and then he saw that the light spot on the fifth floor disappeared, and there was one more light spot on the sixth floor.

"God, the sixth level, it's incredible. No matter who this person is, his future achievements are absolutely limitless!"

"The sixth floor, this is the second record in the history of Zhentian tower, although it is not the only one!"

Looking at the sixth layer of flashing light, the whole scene thoroughly boiling.

They all looked at the sixth layer of light with shocked eyes. Their eyes were hot and their breath was short.

"I'll go in and see. Are you going in or waiting for me here?" Wang Fan was not as shocked as others, but asked Su Luoyan quickly.

"I, I'll go in and have a look. If I come out, I'll wait for you here. " Su Luoyan said.

"Good." Wang Fan nodded, and then entered the Zhentian tower without hesitation.

The wild goose did not hesitate, and rushed in immediately.

The entrance of the two did not attract many people's attention, because at this time most people's eyes were looking at the light spots on the sixth floor of Zhentian tower on the two stone walls.

When Wang Fan and Su Luoyan entered Zhentian tower, hundreds of strong law enforcers had also launched a census of the whole Nantian city.

Wu Chunhou, the current leader of law enforcement, is also the strongest in Nantian city.

He is also the record holder for climbing to the eighth floor of Zhentian tower 20 years ago.

Even though he is devoted to cultivation and seldom cares about the affairs of the world, someone even killed four people in Nantian city and walked away calmly under the siege of his law enforcement forces. This incident still aroused his great attention and anger.

Although he did not follow the people to carry out the census in person, he was still at the door of law enforcement.

Once there is any news of Wang Fan, he will pass in the first time.

Just as Wu Chunhou was waiting for news, suddenly, an explosive news came to him.

Someone has climbed the sixth floor of Zhentian Tower!

Chapter 2476

"Send someone to Zhentian tower immediately. Someone has climbed the sixth floor there. No matter who the other party is, please come to our law enforcement door."

Hearing the news, Wu Chunhou could no longer sit in silence. After giving an order, he immediately went to Zhentian tower.

The person who can climb the sixth floor of Zhentian tower is absolutely talented.

This kind of person, the law enforcement door must be in their own hands, if not control, it can only kill.

Moreover, he had a vague guess that most of the people who climbed to the sixth floor of Zhentian tower were those who killed four people in a row in Nantian city and escaped surrounded by the powerful members of his law enforcement sect.

After all, it's a coincidence that such a strong man suddenly appeared in Nantian city yesterday, and today someone climbed the sixth floor of Zhentian tower.

Wang fan doesn't know what happened outside. At this time, he has taken the wild goose into the first floor of Zhentian tower.

Just in the moment of entering the Zhentian tower, he only felt an invisible force oppressing himself, and the plain wild goose had already disappeared in front of him.

"Portal?" Wang Fan was stunned in his heart and immediately understood something.

The entrance of the first floor of Tianta in this town is actually a portal, and it is also a very high-level portal. Otherwise, he would not be separated from Su Luoyan.

Wang Fan raised his eyes and looked around. There was a vast expanse of white in his eyes, let alone plain wild geese. He didn't even see anyone.

He was even more shocked. You know, he clearly saw that there were nearly 100 people on the first floor.

But now, he didn't even see anyone, or even feel the breath of others, which shows the strangeness of the Zhentian pagoda.

"I hope you're lucky." Wang Fan murmured, then did not think much, while adapting to the pressure here, began to step forward.

This kind of pressure exerts pressure on people's physique, which is obviously the best place to practice.

However, Wang Fan's refined body has reached the level of Wang's body. The refined body under such pressure has little meaning to him.

Wang Fan walked slowly and soon saw a faint road. He walked along that road and soon saw nearly 100 people.

These nearly 100 people are all masters of external strength or internal strength.

At this time, some of them are trying their best to resist the pressure of the first layer, while others are staring at the front.

Along with their eyes, Wang Fan soon saw a ladder entrance, but at the entrance of the ladder, there was a huge monster standing.

Yes, it's a monster. Although the level of this monster is not high, it's really a monster.

Wang Fan's heart is shocked!

You can't use aura here at all, and there is no aura between heaven and earth, and you can't absorb it for cultivation. But where is the monster from? Why can this monster use aura?

As soon as Wang Fan thought of it, he saw a man stepping out of nearly 100 people and walking towards the entrance of the stairs.

Almost at the moment when this man stepped into the entrance of the stairs within 100 meters, the huge monster also fixed his eyes on this man.

"Roar!"

Then, with an angry roar, the monster suddenly jumped up and killed the man crazily.

The man did not neglect, a drink, the same crazy toward the monster killed in the past.

The sound of BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM BAM is resounding, and the two soon fight together, extremely fierce and extremely dangerous.

Wang Fan looked at this scene, his heart moved slightly, without hesitation, and then stepped out.

Nearly a hundred people saw that Wang Fan stepped in under such circumstances. First, he was slightly stunned, and then a touch of disdain appeared in his eyes.

Even if someone wants to fish in troubled waters in such a situation, it's like looking for death!

If they could fish in troubled waters in this way, they would have started fishing in troubled waters long ago. Where would they wait until now?

Wang Fan didn't notice the expression of those people at all, and soon he had stepped into the entrance of the stairs within 100 meters.

However, whether it is the strong who is fighting with the monster or the monster, it doesn't pay attention to Wang Fan at all.

Wang Fan looked at this scene, can not help but some doubts.

Can you fish in troubled waters like this? If that's the case, why didn't others do it?

Just as he thought of it, two more furious roars came out from the entrance of the stairs, and then two huge monsters rushed out madly.

Although these two huge monsters are still low-level monsters, each one is stronger than the previous one.

Wang Fan secretly scolded me, and finally understood why no one was fishing in troubled waters.

If you want to fish in troubled waters, the difficulty of entering the second level will be doubled.

He didn't continue to think about it. He killed the two monsters crazily.

It's just two low-level monsters. Even if his cultivation is not there, it's easy to get rid of it just by Wang's body and internal strength. Whoosh!

He was keen to avoid the sharp claws from one monster and the huge mouth from the other. His body was agitated madly, and two backhand fists pounded on the heads of the two monsters.

Bang bang!

Two deep explosions, the heads of the two monsters exploded in an instant, spattered countless blood mist, and fell down.

Wang fan is going to see if there are animal nuclei in these two monsters, and see if he can recover some accomplishments by absorbing the aura in the animal nuclei.

Just at this time, the two monsters that fell to the ground and died miserably suddenly turned into blood mist and disappeared.

At the same time, a terrible force was exerted on Wang Fan, who was caught off guard and pushed directly into the entrance of the ladder.

When he reappeared, he had found himself in the second level.

At the entrance of the stairs, nearly a hundred strong people were staring at the scene in front of them, and their eyes were full of incredible.

In the face of such powerful two monsters, there are people who can blow up with two fists so easily. Isn't that a little too terrible?

Who on earth is this person? Why have they never met?

Bang!

At the moment of their shock, a deep explosion came. On the other side, the man who was fighting with a monster was hit by the monster.

His body splashed out countless blood arrows at the same time, the whole person was wrapped in a faint black light, and disappeared here in an instant.

Obviously, he failed to enter the second layer and was sent out.

Wang Fan stood on the second floor of Zhentian tower. When he looked back, the ladder leading to the second floor was no longer there, and it was still white.

However, the pressure of the second layer is more terrifying than that of the first layer, which has increased at least ten times.

Of course, this kind of pressure still does not have much effect on Wang Fan. He soon adapted to it and continued to move forward quickly.

In the entrance to the third floor, there is still a very powerful monster guard. On the periphery, dozens of people were also standing. But there was no one to fight with the beast.

Those people also saw Wang Fan coming slowly, but Wang Fan didn't pay any attention to them and directly stepped into the third level.

Looking at this scene, most people have a look of disdain in their eyes, obviously disdaining Wang Fan's arrogance.

However, soon the disdain in their eyes disappeared and was replaced by shock.

A punch, still just a punch, the monster was blasted by Wang Fan, Wang Fan successfully ascended the third level.

At the moment when Wang Fan ascended the third floor, the square outside was completely blown up.

Chapter 2477

See, that originally in the sixth layer of light disappeared, appeared in the seventh layer.

In a flash, the whole square, are thoroughly boiling!

"The seventh floor, even on the seventh floor, so terrible!"

"Who on earth is this man? He can climb the seventh floor! If he can get to the eighth floor, he will be the second person to get to the eighth floor in the history of Nantian city! "

"I didn't expect that such a talented person would appear again in southern Tiancheng."

Countless monks screamed and cheered, and their eyes were full of fanaticism and worship!

Even Wu Chunhou, who had just arrived at the square, also had a dull face.

As the only person who has ever climbed the seventh and eighth floors of Zhentian tower in the history of Nantian City, he knows better than anyone the terror pressure faced by the seventh and eighth floors.

If this person doesn't fall ahead of time, he will be a strong one, an absolute strong one who is not weaker than him!

In a short period of time, the story of someone climbing on the seventh floor of Zhentian tower has spread and caused a sensation in the whole Nantian city.

At this moment, even the killing of four people in Nantian city has been covered up.

Innumerable people with strong external and internal strength rushed to the square outside Zhentian tower, and soon the whole square was already overcrowded.

They all want to see who is on the seventh floor of Zhentian tower. At the same time, they also want to see if this person can climb the eighth level in the legend.

In the other side of this dazzling light, no one noticed that there is also a person, is moving at a fast speed.

Almost in a short time, he has crossed the first, second, third, fourth and reached the fifth floor.

If there is no one who ascends the seventh floor and someone ascends the fifth floor, it will definitely cause some sensation.

But now, with the existence of that person, there is no one to pay attention to the person who ascended the fifth level.

Even if this person is equally excellent, he is still much worse than the person who has reached the seventh level.

The wild geese had already been sent out and landed in the crowd.

She was defeated by the monster at the entrance to the third floor, and then sent out.

Originally, when someone was sent out, it would certainly attract other people's attention.

It's just that there are too many people here now, and most people are still paying attention to the seventh layer of light, so no one has noticed her being spread.

At this time, Su Luoyan looked at the spot of light on the number of layers of the Tianta, and looked around.

She didn't know what level Wang Fan had ascended, let alone whether Wang Fan had been transmitted.

But she knows one thing, that is, the person who ascends the seventh floor is definitely not Wang Fan.

Wang Fan, no matter how rebellious and powerful he is, is definitely not so fast.

At this time, Su Luoyan was worried and anxious.

Originally, she thought that there would be no problem waiting for Wang Fan here.

But now there are so many people here. It will never be easy for her to find Wang fan or Wang Fan to find her.

After all, there's no mental energy here.

What worries Su Luoyan most is not those, but those who enforce the law.

She not only saw hundreds of law enforcers, but also heard that Wu Chunhou, the most powerful law enforcer, who once climbed the eighth floor of Zhentian tower, also came here.

This makes her worried, worried about whether they can walk out of the square alive.

"Somebody's on the sixth floor!"

A sudden scream suddenly wakes up the thought of Su Luoyan, and then Su Luoyan has seen that there is an extra light spot on the sixth floor.

"Is it him?" Su Luoyan looked at the light spot and could not help murmuring in a low voice.

She has an intuition that this person is Wang Fan.

At the moment when Su Luoyan looked at the light spot, countless people also looked at the light spot.

If we say that under the dazzling aura of someone climbing the seventh floor, someone climbing the fifth floor won't attract much attention.

If someone goes up to the sixth floor, it's enough for everyone to pay attention.

You know, the sixth floor is the second place in the history of Nantian City, even if more than one person ascends the sixth floor.

This kind of person, though not as good as the one who ascends the seventh level, is enough to be valued and respected by anyone.

Wu Chunhou, the leader of the law enforcement sect, also looked at the sixth layer of light with astonishment, and his heart was shocked.

He did not expect that even when someone climbed the seventh floor, there were still people climbing the sixth floor.

This kind of genius is hard to come across in several years, but today, there are two.

...

when Wang Fan appeared on the sixth floor, his face was already very ugly.

He knew that under the increasing pressure, he could reach the ninth floor at most. No matter how high it is, I'm afraid even he can't go up, unless his cultivation is restored. The pressure of the sixth layer is really too great, which is beyond his imagination. In addition to the pressure, the sixth floor has a space wind blade.

If this space wind blade exists alone, Wang Fan will not care at all. But now, he has to resist that kind of pressure, and at the same time, he has to face the wind blade of space, which is a little choking.

Those space wind blades cut him like sharp blades, which made him feel sharp pain. Fortunately, his body was strong enough, so he didn't cut many wounds.

Wang Fan resisted that kind of pressure and space wind blade, while madly moving forward. Soon, he had come to the entrance to the seventh floor.

At the entrance, the monsters are not one, but four, and they are more powerful than the ones in front of them.

Wang Fan did not hesitate, crazy to meet up.

It took him half an hour to kill the four monsters and successfully enter the seventh floor.

Almost at the moment when he entered the seventh floor, at the entrance to the eighth floor, a man had been hit by a powerful monster and sent out of the seventh floor.

Because of too much coincidence, in the eyes of the people in the square, they only see the sixth floor light spot disappear, but the seventh floor light spot is still there.

In other words, in their eyes, the strong man who ascended the sixth floor has been sent out of Zhentian tower. The strong in the seventh layer, however, have not been transmitted.

After all, the miniature Zhentian pagoda on the stone tablet is just a miniature Zhentian pagoda.

It only shows the number of light spots on each floor, but it can't judge the specific location of those people through the light spots.

At this time, in the center of the square, Wu Chunhou, the owner of the law enforcement gate, has basically confirmed the identity of the person who boarded the seventh floor through investigation and inquiry.

Beat the family, uncle Qiu, beat Cheng!

Wu Chunhou knows about beating family. It's a martial family in Nantian city. However, most people have never heard of this family because of its low profile.

"Beating up?" Wu Chunhou murmured, but he was a little relieved.

He was worried that the man who ascended the seventh floor was the murderer who killed four people in the South sky city and could not be used by him. Now it seems that he is worried too much.

"It's the eighth floor. It's the eighth floor. My God

A scream interrupts Wu Chunhou's thinking again, and his whole mind falls on the stone tablet again.

Sure enough, he clearly saw that the light spot on the seventh floor had disappeared, while on the eighth floor, there was one more light spot.

Wu Chunhou's whole person became excited at this moment, and the scene also became more boiling at this moment!

"God, the ninth floor. He's on the ninth floor!"

At this moment, another scream came out. As expected, people saw that the light spot on the eighth floor disappeared, but there was one more light spot on the ninth floor.

At this moment, everyone was completely numb.

It's only a few minutes. I've climbed from the eighth floor to the ninth floor. Isn't that too evil?

Even Wu Chunhou, whose heart had been covered with dust for a long time, could not help jumping up.

This is the first person who has broken his record!

Is the talent of beating the family so terrible? What a monster!

In his excitement, Wu Chunhou even forgot to find the person who was sent out on the sixth floor.

Also, compared with the beating Cheng who can break his record and reach the Ninth level, he is just a guy who can reach the sixth level, which is really nothing.

"The ninth layer of light disappeared, and the man was sent out." Another scream came out. Sure enough, the light spots on the ninth layer had disappeared, and no light spots continued to appear on the tenth layer.

Obviously, the person who ascended the ninth floor was really transmitted.

"Find Ai Cheng immediately and bring him to see me!" Wu Chunhou tried to hold back his inner excitement and gave an order as he looked around for a beating.

"Yes With his orders, those who are strong in law enforcement do not dare to be slighted at all, and they quickly look for them.

At this moment, not only the law enforcement strongman, but almost all the people in the square are looking for the evil strongman who ascends the ninth floor.

The only difference is that the strong law enforcers have determined the identity of the other party, but they are not sure at all.

In the whole scene are boiling, all the people are looking for the ninth floor of the evil strong, the crowd of plain geese, is also a face of shock.

She was also shocked that someone could climb the ninth floor of Zhentian tower, and she was also curious about who it was.

Even if she only came to Zhentian pagoda for the first time, or even to Nantian city for the first time, she still knew something about Zhentian pagoda.

What's more, she is also a person who has entered Zhentian tower. How can she not know the difficulty of climbing the ninth floor?

At this time, in the extreme shock, she even forgot to look for Wang Fan. "Don't be in a daze. Come with me and get out of here."

At the time of Su Luoyan's shock, a rapid voice suddenly came, and then she saw Wang Fan suddenly appeared beside her.

At this time, although Wang Fan looked normal on the surface, he was extremely weak, as if he had completely collapsed.

Chapter 2478

When Su Luoyan sees Wang Fan's nearly empty appearance, he has no time to think about it. It's what appears in his mind. It's Wang fan that he beat Cheng after he killed Zhang Hu.

"No way." However, he soon felt that it was wrong to beat Cheng. If the murder of Zhang Hu was revealed, how could the law enforcement people be so polite and call him beat elder?

"Ha ha, it's the back wave of the Yangtze River that pushes the front wave. I didn't expect that you're such an evil boy. It seems that your future is limitless."

While beating Cheng secretly speculates, another burst of laughter comes, and then he sees Wu Chunhou in a loose white robe coming.

Wu Chunhou is medium-sized, and his appearance is insignificant, but he has a very unique momentum.

Even if he stood in the crowd, he stood out from the rest of the crowd. People could see him at a glance, and he didn't dare to underestimate him at all.

No matter how conceited he was, he did not dare to be presumptuous in the face of Wu Chunhou.

He quickly bowed his head and said, "I've seen you before. You've really praised me. I'm far from good at this."

"Ha ha, if even the people on the ninth floor of Zhentian tower are far behind, then I, Wu Chunhou, have no face to see people." Wu Chunhou waved his hand and laughed.

Looking at the humble and polite manner of beating Cheng, his heart was very satisfied.

Beating Cheng can break his record, ascend the ninth floor of Zhentian tower, and be so modest and polite. Obviously, he is a talent.

Beating to bear to listen to this words, pour is some muddle than.

On the ninth floor of Zhentian tower?

He just climbed the seventh floor!

However, he was not a fool. He soon understood something. It seems that Master Wu misunderstood.

But he couldn't explain at all. Wu Chunhou waved his hand and continued, "let's go. Let's not be here. Let's go to my place."

With that, Wu Chunhou had turned and left.

He opened his mouth and didn't say a word for a long time. He could only follow him.

"Look, that's the uncle of the Qiu family. Beat Cheng! It's so powerful. I didn't expect that he was the one who ascended the ninth floor. "

"That's natural. He's the best of the younger generation. I've seen his talent for a long time. What's so strange about his climbing to the Ninth level?"

"Haha, he was on the fifth floor just now, but I saw him leave the fifth floor and climb to the sixth floor with my own eyes."

"Well, what are you doing? I'm on the sixth floor. I saw him climb the seventh floor with my own eyes."

"Don't brag, you can get to the sixth floor?"

When people saw that he followed Wu Chunhou to leave, they immediately got excited again.

Everyone's eyes were full of fanaticism and worship, as if he was a God above.

This aura enveloped him. For a moment, he even forgot that it was not him who ascended the ninth floor, but someone else.

Along with beating Cheng ascended the ninth floor of Zhentian tower, the story was spread, beating Cheng in an instant fire, beating home, autumn home, also follow the fire.

For a time, he became the most dazzling star in southern Tiancheng and the most brilliant new star in southern Tiancheng.

His glory, his aura, his status, has climbed to a peak that no one can surpass.

All the families visit one after another and make friends with each other. The gifts are even more dazzling.

And basheng, also lost in this huge glory and aura, did not stand up to admit that he was not the one who ascended the Ninth level.

Of course, all this is just a later story.

...

Wang Fan didn't know the scenery of beating Cheng, and even less did he know that after he ascended the ninth floor, he beat Cheng for nothing. At this time, he and Su Luoyan had returned to the dilapidated courtyard where he had lived before.

After entering the room, the first thing he did was to give Su Luoyan all his silver. He told Su Luoyan to be careful and take care of himself. Then he closed the door.

Plain wild goose Leng Leng looking into the room closed Wang Fan, although doubt, but also did not ask.

To tell the truth, she really didn't understand that there was nothing to shut up in such a place where she couldn't cultivate the aura of heaven and earth.

The first thing Wang Fan did when he closed the door was to catch a black ball the size of a fingernail.

He got the black ball on the ninth floor of Zhentian tower. To be more precise, it was given to him by Ye Nantian.

Yes, it's Ye Nantian's idea!

Zhentian pagoda is not a place for trial at all, but a place to suppress Ye Nantian. That's why this pagoda was named Zhentian pagoda.

However, what it suppressed was not the real sky, but ye Nantian.

Wang Fan, on the ninth floor of Zhentian tower, just felt Ye Nantian's idea and got such a thing. As for ye Nantian himself, he did not see him. In fact, ye Nantian probably did not know that it was Wang Fan who entered the ninth floor of Zhentian tower. Because ye Nantian's idea is just to send out this nail sized black ball.

His purpose of sending this thing is also very simple, that is to help the people who get it to break the shackles and absorb the aura of heaven and earth.

Once you have absorbed the aura of heaven and earth and reached a certain level of cultivation, you can reach the top of Zhentian pagoda and rescue Ye Nantian.

It's a pity that ye Nantian has been suppressed for countless years, and his idea is just barely able to send things to the ninth floor. As for the level below the ninth floor, his mind could not enter.

For so many years, the highest record of Zhentian pagoda is only the eighth floor. Therefore, even if ye Nantian's amazing talent and thought of this way of giving things, he still hasn't been successfully rescued.

Wang Fan looked at the hand of the black ball, heart shocked.

He knew that this thing was extracted from his own spirit by Ye Nantian's means of cohesion and separation, which contained extremely terrifying aura.

But he didn't understand that ye Nantian had been suppressed for countless years. What happened to Ye Nantian he saw in the capital?

Chapter 2479

Wang Fan thought for a long time, but there was no answer. He simply did not continue to think about it, but put all his mind on the black bead in front of him.

This bead is transformed by the spirit element in Yenana celestial body, which contains extremely terrifying aura.

However, no matter how Wang Fan sensed it, he was not aware of any aura, let alone absorbed cultivation.

He knew that this was not because ye Nantian was cheating him, but because of the rules of heaven and earth here.

According to Ye Nantian, the rules of heaven and earth here have been changed by the supreme power, so people living in this space will not feel the aura of heaven and earth.

The reason why they don't feel the aura of heaven and earth is not that there is no aura between heaven and earth, but that they are bound by the rules of heaven and earth.

Similarly, just because of this, after the monk entered here, the aura of heaven and earth stored in his body would be similarly confined and bound, and he could not use any of it.

"Supreme power? What kind of power is it that can do this and change the rules of heaven and earth? "

Wang fan can't help muttering to himself. Compared with such a great power, he is simply small and can't be any smaller.

When people deal with him, they don't need to use any martial arts or magical means at all. They just need to imprison his aura or restrict his reaction to the aura of heaven and earth, and then they can easily crush him.

It is also true that ye Nantian, as a strong emperor, can be imprisoned by the other party for countless years, which shows the strength of the other party.

"If you want to break the rules, you must break yourself first. Only if you break the rules first, you can make a decision later. Although my spirit contains the effect of breaking the cocoon, it also needs to break the cocoon first and then stand up

"If you don't have great perseverance, if you're not fearless, you won't be able to absorb my spirit, and you won't be able to cultivate the spirit of heaven and earth in your eternal life. You will be trapped here until you die."

Wang Fan thought of the message of Ye Nan's tianyinian in the ninth layer, and he couldn't help but fall into meditation.

First break, then stand? So how to break and how to establish?

Why don't you do it all over again?

However, he has no accomplishments now, and he has no aura in his body?

Don't understand!

Wang fan is really puzzled!

Rao is a man who has experienced countless experiences and is extremely intelligent. He is helpless at this time.

He was sure that the idea of that silk leaf Nantian was true, and the other side didn't cheat him.

Because he had met Ye Nantian and had many contacts with him, he could not feel his idea wrong.

What's more, if it wasn't for monks, they would never have been able to reach the 18th floor of Zhentian pagoda simply relying on their inner strength.

Wang Fan firmly believes this.

Because the cultivation of monsters on the ninth floor of Zhentian tower is already equivalent to the early stage of the Kingdom, let alone the higher level monsters.

This kind of monster is not something that the strong can deal with.

Even if he is Wang Fan, in the face of the Ninth level of the king's realm monster, he is only killed in seconds, and has no fighting power at all.

"No cultivation, no aura in the body? No, No Wang Fan murmured, then suddenly shook his head, his eyes suddenly appeared a touch of light,

"according to Uncle Ye, I can't feel aura in my body, not because I don't have aura in my body, but because I'm bound by rules, I can't feel it."

"In this way, there is aura in my body. It's only because I can't feel it and use it that I subconsciously think that aura disappears in my body."

Wang Fan suddenly brightened up, he did not hesitate, quickly stretched out his fingers, crazy in their own point up.

With this kind of inching, bursts of intense pain all over the body, Wang Fan clearly felt that there seemed to be something dissipating in his Dantian.

Although he can't feel what is dissipating, he can feel something dissipating.

Obviously, that is the aura stored in his elixir field.

Wang Fan felt this scene, and his eyes were even hotter.

He resisted speed, and his hands moved faster.

Waves of heartbreaking pain hit again, and his whole body convulsed on the ground, but he bit his teeth and said nothing.

Not only that, his fingers are still shaking toward the Dantian point.

Dead, I'm dying!

This is Wang Fan's only feeling.

Countless times, he felt as if he was going to die of pain, but he relied on the strong will to support it.

Click.

I don't know how long after that, another click came, and his bones began to crumble.

"Ah In this kind of bone inch broken under the pain, Wang Fan finally can no longer help, directly screamed, completely comatose in the past.

Almost at the moment when he was in a coma, the black bead in front of him floated up automatically. At the same time, it sent out a halo and integrated into his body along his Dantian. With this integration, his body also diffused a dazzling halo.

Those halos pierce the space, as if they are piercing the invisible rules.

...

Su Luoyan is very worried. Two months later, Wang Fan hasn't gone through the customs. Is there anything wrong?

At first, she was just worried that the law enforcement people would find here, and she was always worried.

But now, she is no longer worried about law enforcement, but Wang Fan.

She wanted to go in to see Wang Fan several times, but she was afraid to disturb Wang Fan, and finally she didn't go in.

"No, I must go in and have a look. It's been two months and he hasn't heard a word. What if he starves to death? "

Su Luoyan anxiously thought that she could not help but open the door and rushed in.

Starve to death? It's such a distant word for her.

But now, she's really worried about it.

At the moment of rushing into the room, the tears in her eyes were like the torrent of breaking the dyke, which could not be stopped.

What did she see?

Wang Fan was covered with blood and curled up on the ground, as if his whole body was convulsed.

His eyes were closed, his face was twisted, and his clothes were soaked with sweat and blood.

That kind of pain, even if she just looked at it, she felt a little chilly, let alone the client Wang Fan.

"Wang Fan." Plain wild goose a sob, rushed to Wang Fan side, a will Wang Fan embrace.

Only when she hugged Wang Fan did she find that Wang Fan's bones were soft, as if they had been broken inch by inch with a hammer.

"How can it be, how can it be, what's going on?" Su Luoyan's face was full of tears. She couldn't believe her eyes.

Her tears flowed into Wang Fan's mouth like a waterline, but she didn't feel it.

Feeling Wang Fan's faint breath, Su Luoyan's hurt mood was slightly improved.

She carefully held Wang Fan on the bed, with tears in the eyes filled with firm, "you will be OK, I will not let you have something! Even if you are disabled forever, I will accompany you forever

The vegetable falls wild goose to cry of say, for Wang Fan scrubbed whole body bloodstain, put on clean clothes.

When wiping the bloodstain for Wang Fan, she was not shy at all, but had deep remorse and heartache.

After all this, she carefully took the door, and then left the dilapidated courtyard with her teeth clenched.

For Wang Fan, she wants to change.

For Wang Fan's sake, she is going to seek work and earn money to survive.

She is not afraid of hardship and tiredness, not for cultivation, only for Wang Fan!

Chapter 2480

Wang Fan felt that he was in a dark chaos without light. There was no time, no space, no everything.

He felt like a dead man, no breath, no heartbeat, even no perception, only endless loneliness and darkness.

He ran desperately in one direction, trying to escape the darkness and find a piece of light.

But he ran for a long time, in front of the still endless darkness.

In this endless lonely running, Wang Fan, who had no feeling and was like a dead man, felt tired.

He stopped and began to gasp desperately.

Only at this time did he know that he was still breathing and that space was not without everything.

At least, he felt the air.

Aware of this scene, he couldn't help rejoicing and wanted to continue to run desperately to find that ray of light.

It's just that the feeling of fatigue is like a wave, and the crazy Xi is surging on him, which makes him unable to move any more.

There was no perception before, but now with perception, there was only fatigue, which made Wang Fan despair.

Just when he was in despair, a trickle suddenly poured into his body.

He didn't know how the trickle came into his body. He only knew that after the trickle came into his body, he felt the power.

Then he felt warm.

His body again gave birth to endless strength, so that he began to run desperately again.

I don't know how long after that, he was suddenly shocked.

He finally saw the light and found it.

In front of him, there was a mark with golden light, and next to the mark, there was a milky white light.

The Milky light contains a strong energy fluctuation, giving him a very comfortable feeling.

"Mixed lines? "Aura group?" Wang Fan looked at these two things and blurted out in a flash.

Also at this time, the dilapidated room, on the bed, Wang Fan suddenly opened his eyes.

He woke up.

At the moment of waking up, Wang Fan knew what was going on, and remembered everything before.

At the same time, he has also known that the trickle is the tears of the wild goose, and the warmth is the embrace of the wild goose.

"Thank you for saving me." Wang Fan murmured gratefully, then closed his eyes and began to practice.

This time, he was really practicing.

Because he had already felt the aura of heaven and earth, and also felt the spirit yuan hidden in his body, which ye Nan tianyinian gave him.

However, his current state is too bad, almost equivalent to rebirth, so even if he wants to recover, it is not something that can be done in a short time.

But Wang fan doesn't care. For him, as long as he can practice and absorb the aura of heaven and earth, that's enough.

When his cultivation is restored, there will be no one to threaten him in this South Heaven city.

At that time, he will directly ascend Zhentian pagoda, rescue Ye Nantian who was suppressed, and then leave here directly.

Wang Fan soon fell into a state of deep cultivation, leaving only a trace of mind outside.

He will not wake up unless his life is threatened.

In a hurry, a year has passed.

This year, Su Luoyan has been completely used to Wang Fan's coma, but she has no dislike, and takes good care of Wang Fan every day.

A year is like a day, it has not changed.

At the same time, she has found a way to survive.

Help people wash clothes, cook, embroider, weave cloth, sew clothes and so on, as long as she can do, she will do it.

Just for life, just for Wang Fan.

It's really hard to imagine that Su Luoyan, the second saint of Qingyue palace and the supreme saint of Shengjing, would have changed so much in this short year.

If this scene is known by people in miracle City, I'm afraid it will shake my jaw.

In this kind of hard to survive, the original slender hands of the plain wild goose, also has numerous thick calluses, become rough.

Most of the silver she earned bought supplements and fed them to Wang Fan.

Every day, she would feed Wang Fan three meals. Every day, she would wipe Wang Fan's body on time and put on clean clothes.

A year is like a day, it has not changed.

Even if she knew that Wang Fan would probably go on like this forever and become a paralyzed person who could not wake up, she never regretted it.

She is a grateful person, at the beginning, Wang fan can even ignore life for her, so now, she can also pay everything for Wang Fan.

This year, countless people came to persuade her to "remarry" and stop guarding Wang Fan, but she ignored it. In order to survive, in the year of Wang Fan's deep cultivation, numerous events also happened in Nantian city.

The most dazzling, of course, is Tianjiao beating Cheng.

A year ago, he joined the law enforcement department and became the next owner of the law enforcement department.

At the same time, the status of the beat family and the autumn family is also rising, becoming the two most powerful families in southern Tiancheng.

With the accumulation of numerous resources and Wu Chunhou's careful cultivation, it took only half a year for him to surpass Wu Chunhou completely.

Half a year ago, he won the battle with Wu Chunhou, and his reputation reached a limit.

That is at that time, Wu Chunhou announced that he would abdicate to fight Cheng and retire behind the scenes. And law enforcement is also completely in charge of the fight.

In the first two months when he was in charge of law enforcement, everything was in order, but after two months, his nature gradually revealed.

In Nantian City, anyone who dares to offend him will be beheaded. Anyone who dares to disrespect him will be beheaded. As long as the woman he likes must be married. Otherwise, he will be beheaded.

In just four months, the whole Nantian city has been plagued by him.

However, due to the fierce strength of Bangcheng and the gradual rise of Bangjia, no one dares to say anything, dare to be angry and dare not say anything.

A few days ago, beating Cheng suddenly thought of the original appearance in the autumn of the wild goose, heart becomes hot.

In the past few months, even though he got countless beauties, he found that no one could compare with Su Luoyan.

He took out the murder of four people in a row a year ago, and started a rigorous arrest in the whole city.

He has to find the wild goose, he has to get the wild goose.

Now, Nantian City, he beat Cheng is heaven, he beat Cheng want things, must get.

However, despite the intensity of beating up the wanted criminals, they still got nothing in the end.

In this year, Su Luoyan has already dealt with a new identity for her and Wang Fan by means.

In addition, both of them changed their faces, so the person who beat Cheng couldn't associate her with Wang Fan with the murderer.

Su Luoyan also knows about the fact that he once again brought out the murder case a year ago and tried to arrest the whole city.

At first, she was worried that she and Wang Fan would be found out.

But with the law enforcement door people did not see in her and Wang Fan after abnormal, she gradually relaxed down.

Soon she stopped thinking about it and went on with her work and life.

On this day, Su Luoyan, as usual, was wiping Wang Fan's body. Suddenly, with a bang, the courtyard door outside was kicked open.
