

Chapter 125

At this time, there were quite a number of people gathered in the underground boxing field. At a glance, it was almost possible to tell that the people gathered here were roughly divided into several factions.

The people of the same faction were all dressed in the same clothes. They were all surrounded by a large circle in the direction of the iron cage. In the center of the circle sat a few people, who were the leaders of these factions.

"Hey, Leopard Kurata, do you have any rules? The society is not important for you, so these nobodies can come in?" A voice rang in front of Henry and others.

The people who spoke were Brother Tiger and the others, who had arrived earlier than Henry.

Brother Tiger crossed his arms over his chest and stared at them. "Is this a place where you can come? Are you supposed to come here? There are no rules for doing things. Get out of here!"

Brother Dragon, who was walking in front of Brother Tiger, glanced at Henry and others. He frowned and did not speak. He looked at them as if he was looking at annoying flies.

As soon as Brother Tiger's voice fell, another voice rang out.

"I say, it's not up to you to meddle in the affairs of our Brother Leopard, right? When you sit in the position of the second boss, come and tell us what to do!" A young man with long hair came over from the side.

As soon as Wade saw the young man, he quickly bowed his head and said, "Brother Chow."

"Brother Chow, I'll teach a lesson to the juniors. What's wrong with that?" Brother Tiger lit a cigarette and looked at the long-haired youth arrogantly. "You are not doing things the right way. How can people like them be present at such an important meeting?"

"Our Brother Leopard can call whomever he wants. You are qualified to say nothing. Just do your own things, Tiger!" Brother Chow retreated without fear, and then waved to Wade. "Wade, bring your people here."

"Oh, okay." Wade quickly nodded and walked toward Chow.

Henry and others followed Wade. In the eyes of outsiders, Henry was like Wade's assistant.

Brother Tiger made a gesture of cutting his own throat to them, and then he swaggered towards the iron cage.

After Brother Tiger left, the man frowned. "Wade, why are you here? Who let you come?"

"I..." Wade opened his mouth and didn't know how to explain. Brother Chow was Leopard's right-hand man. He knew clearly who Leopard would let in or not.

Looking at Wade's speechless look, brother Chow sighed and said, "Forget it, I know what you are thinking. You just want to do more for the association. But this time, you and I can't interfere in this matter."

"Brother Chow, what's wrong? I think it seems that many leaders of the gangs in Yinzhou have arrived." Wade looked at the position in front of the iron cage, where there were many familiar figures.

"It's not just the big boss of the Yinzhou club.

This time, all the big bosses of the clubs in Ning Province are here." Brother Chow pouted his lips at the iron cage. "This time, it can be said to be the biggest time that the underground gang in Ning Province has made a scene. Since our young lady got the position, she has killed many opponents. This time, she has been fighting against Black Thunder."

"Black Thunder!" Wade widened his eyes. He had heard the name of the leading underground club in Ning Province more than once. "Brother Chow, this time, we have no chance to win."

"That's not necessarily true." Brother Chow nodded. "Black Thunder is powerful, but you should not underestimate the means of our Miss. I heard from Leopard that there is a super master around our Miss. This time, the fierce Black Thunder is not going to fight with us, but to challenge us. If Miss's master is powerful enough, we still have a chance to win this time."

"Super master!" Wade looked at the iron cage with fire in his eyes. All men had a kind of unspeakable admiration for the word "super master".

Around the metal cage, there were more than ten club leaders. On the two largest chairs sat the Green Leaf's leader Helen and the Black Lightning's leader, Black Saber.

Black Saber played with the jade ring on his right hand. "Little girl, what do you want to play this time?"

Helen was wearing a beige windbreaker, leaning against the chair, like a king in ancient times. She looked at the Black Saber and said, "Big Boss, it was you who made the appointment with us this time. Instead of asking me what I want to do, I would like to see what do you want to do."

"Haha." Black Saber laughed softly and said in a heroic voice, "Alright, since you, a little girl, have already said that, I, Black Saber, will no longer be pretentious. The rules of the competition are very simple. I will send out five people and you, the Green Leaf, can send as many as you please. As long as you can defeat all five of us, I, Black Saber, will let bygones be bygones. What do you say?"

As soon as he finished his words, there was an uproar on the scene.

"Only five people of Black Thunder, and Green

Leaf can send as many as they want!"

"He... He's too confident!"

"If Black Saber can say such words, so he must be very confident. This underground ring has existed for so many years, and I have never heard that there was a time when Black Thunder failed!"

"Green Leaf, do you dare to accept it?"

"If they accept it, they will face the best of the Black Lightning. If they don't accept it, they will not be able to survive in the future!"

At this moment, everyone's eyes were on Helen.

She smiled and said, "Big boss, you deliberately let me win."

Black Saber smiled and said nothing.

Helen twisted her slender waist and stood up from the seat. She glanced at the member of the Green Leaf behind her and said in a clear voice, "Everyone, I think you have heard what Black Saber said just now. In this fight, he will only send out five people. Who wants to fight first?"

"Let me do it!" As soon as Helen finished speaking, a strong man stood out.

"It's Brother Meng of West Hall! In the past, he fought against four or five people in four gyms and a club in succession." Someone told about his identity.

The strong man was wearing a white vest. The muscles all over his body bulged, and he looked full of strength.

The place for the competition was located in the iron cage. Once you were in the cage, until there was no clear winner no one was allowed to leave. No one could interfere with the two fighters.

Brother Meng went straight into the iron cage without saying anything.

Helen gestured to Black Saber and said, "Big Boss, where are your people?"

Behind him, a young girl walked out. She looked like she was only in her early twenties, wearing an ordinary sportswear with a ponytail.

The girl didn't say anything. She also walked into the metal cage. Her appearance caused the surroundings to emit a strange sound. No one expected that the first person to fight for Black Thunder would be this young girl.

"Brother Chow, do you think Black Thunder let us to do it on purpose? Brother Meng, he can beat this girl with one hand." Wade looked at the two people in the iron cage with a strange look. In contrast, he was like a big gray wolf and she was a little white rabbit.

Brother Chow nodded in agreement. When he was about to say something, he heard voice.

"Your Brother Meng lost."
