

Chapter 288

Henry looked at the young man in front of him. At the moment when the young man exerted his strength, Henry was observing, observing the young man's way of exerting his strength, and the other side's punching skills. However, the young man gave Henry a strange feeling from head to toe.

Henry didn't dare to say how knowledgeable he was, but for most of the punching skills, Henry himself had some impression. However, Henry didn't see any kind of punching skills in the young man's starting posture.

When the young man rushed to the front of Henry, Henry raised his hand to fight back.

As far as Henry and the young man were concerned, Henry could have completely outclassed his opponent with all his strength, but he didn't do it. Instead, he kept defending and cracking under his opponent's attack, trying to find something.

In the eyes of those who were not proficient in martial arts, Henry was beaten almost as soon as they started. However, in the eyes of those who were proficient in martial arts, Henry's behaviour was also very shocking.

Frank widened his eyes and looked at the arena. He had just finished fighting with the young man, so he knew very well how strong the suppression of this series of moves of the young man was. He could only use his fists and feet to fight with the young man, and he couldn't use Henry's moves at the same time.

"Awesome. His Excellency is worthy of his name!" Frank was so excited that he didn't even blink his eyes for fear of missing a crucial moment.

Sofia frowned and said strangely, "No, Henry's strength is definitely not as simple as that. How could he be suppressed?"

"Little girl, that is to say, you are still inexperienced. He is not being beaten. This young man named Henry Zhang is studying opponent's moves! And you see, he is even learning the opponent's way of exerting strength. Give him a little more time, he will probably be able to learn the opponent's punching skill. He is really a horrible person!" Sofia's teacher's eyes were filled with fear when he looked at Henry.

"Studying moves!" Sofia's beautiful eyes were full of incredulity. The person who could learn the moves on the spot had to have strong confidence and strength. Otherwise, he would not be able to resist the attack. It was hard to say whether he could resist the attack.

Some of the people outside the arena could see what Henry was doing. As the young man who was Henry's opponent, how could he not feel it? Henry's behaviour made him feel like he had never been humiliated before.

"Boy, you're courting death!" The young man suddenly punched at Henry's face.

Henry stretched out his hand to hold his opponent's fist, but at this moment, he felt something was wrong.

Normally, when a person punched out, the wind of the fist would bring forth a kind of indomitable power. Whether it was strong or not could be resisted in an instant. But now, Henry did not feel this way. In the wind of the young man's seemingly fierce fist, there was a kind of soft power, like a water snake, winding and twisting.

Under this force, the young man's fist cut through Henry's palm, passed through the defence line of Henry's hands, and hit Henry's shoulder.

As soon as he succeeded, the young man smiled proudly. "Boy, I was just playing with you."

"This is..." Henry carefully savoured the power of the young man's punch, and his eyes were filled with horror.

"A monkey like you, of course, you don't understand, what is a real ancient martial art!" The young man's eyes flashed, and he attacked Henry again. At this moment, every punch and kick of his were full of the strength of the combination of hardness and softness.

Henry always felt that something was flashing in his mind, but he couldn't grasp it. He just let go of his defence and resisted every move of the young man with his strong quality. He used the most intuitive way to feel it.

The young man punched and kicked hard on Henry's body. The onlookers shook their heads. It seemed that this big shot surnamed Zhang was just a talker, and his strength was also ordinary.

The more the youth fought, the more excited he became. With a long shout, he jumped up and kicked toward Henry's head.

At this moment, Henry's brain flashed. He grabbed something, and the doubt in his eyes turned into clarity. Facing the young man's kick, he strode forward and used his shoulder as the impact point. Before the young man's foot reached him, he hit the young man's body first.

How could the young man withstand such a strong force? He was forced to fly out and fell on the ground.

The young man got up and was about to rush to Henry when he heard a loud shout from outside the arena.

"Enough!"

This shout made the young man stop himself.

Henry looked down and saw an ordinary-looking middle-aged man standing in front of the door of the guest hall. At the same time when Henry looked at him, the middle-aged man also looked at Henry.

A few seconds later, the middle-aged man looked at the young man on the stage and said, "Kurt Xiao, you have crossed the line."

"Uncle, I..." Just as the young man was about to say something, he was stopped by the middle-aged man's gaze.

"Get off the stage, now!" The middle-aged man said briefly. After that, he put his hands behind his back, turned around and left.

The young man named Kurt Xiao glared at Henry with an unwilling look, then jumped off the ring and went to the door of the guest hall.

In the eyes of outsiders, this match could only be said to be a draw. However, the two internal experts, Frank and Sofia's teacher, knew that Henry had the upper hand in this match.

Outside the guest hall.

Kurt followed the middle-aged man, and his eyes were full of confusion. "Third Uncle, why didn't you let me teach him a good lesson?"

"Teach him a lesson? You?" The middle-aged man glanced at Kurt beside him. "If you continued to fight, all your kung fu would be learned by him! And don't forget what our rules are. You've been too flamboyant these days."

"I..." Kurt opened his mouth but said nothing. He clenched his fists and his eyes were full of hatred.

Kurt's departure also brought the challenge tournament of this gathering to an end.

Frank followed Henry respectfully, which scared the rest of the people. "Where did I get the courage to shout at such a big shot who even Young Master Shang has to be careful?"

Henry was sitting on a single sofa, with Frank still standing in front of him. He didn't dare to sit.

"By the way, is Y&Y Venture your family's company?" Henry asked.

"Yes." Frank nodded repeatedly. "If you need anything to, just tell me."

"There is an investment company in Xiao's Group. You can accept it."

"No problem!" Frank did not even ask about any project. He quickly nodded and agreed. At the same time, he called his assistant and told her that he would invest as much as the Xiao family wanted.

Milan sat next to Henry, and her beautiful eyes were shining. Now she could see that Henry's identity was definitely not as simple as she had always thought with Sylvia. Her best friend really found a treasure.

Cody and Tyler hid in a corner and looked at Henry with a grim face. They really wanted to do something, but they didn't have the courage.

Chapter 289

Fear came from the unknown.

Currently, Cody and Tyler only knew that Henry had a force that people couldn't underestimate. However, they didn't know the details, which made them deeply afraid of Henry and dare not provoke him.

Cody and Tyler didn't dare to provoke Henry now, but it didn't mean that Henry would let them go.

As for what Tyler had done and what Tyler had said to Sylvia, Henry would not let him go. As for Tyler's personal information, they had already been confirmed. Some black materials that could drive Tyler's father away were also ready. The day Henry left Hangshi would be the time for Tyler's family to crash down.

As for Yongfeng Industry.

Henry asked Frank directly, "Do you have any cooperation with Yongfeng Industry?"

"We have a few." Frank replied as he recalled.

"Cut the ties with them." Henry's words determined the future of Yongfeng Industry.

At this moment, in the Yongfeng Industry Building.

Josh stood in his office, looking at the person in front of him with fear in his eyes.

"Josh Yang, do you know why the organization raised you?" A graceful and sexy figure sat in Josh's executive chair. Her slender legs were outlined with black stockings and were placed on the desk in front of her, which was particularly attractive.

In the face of such a scene that made people's blood boil, Josh did not dare to look at it at all. "There was an accident."

"An accident?" This graceful figure wore a white mask, and the mask was in the shape of a holy angel face. Josh couldn't see the expression of the woman under the mask, but he could hear the coldness in her tone. "Was it an accident that your son was caught? Wong told me that he found three people to protect you closely. Your excellent son drove them away, right? Do you know that the research material you sent out will help people connect it to us?"

"Er..." Beads of cold sweat broke out on Josh's forehead. "It's my son's ignorance that made..."

"He doesn't know how to behave!" The woman's voice suddenly rose high. "If your son doesn't know how to behave, you need to teach him. Otherwise, I don't mind doing something in person!"

Josh's face immediately collapsed and he was full of fear. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry. Please give me another chance. I won't let you down."

"It's not that I won't give you a chance." The woman put down her slender legs, straightened her black silk dress, and stood up. "Well, your son's finger was cut due to the organization's affairs. The organization has always rewards people for their contribution and punishes people if they're wrong. This afternoon, I'll send someone to pick up your son to cure his hand. All you need to do is, to be honest and complete your task!"

The woman walked out of Josh's office with sexy steps.

After the woman left, Josh didn't dare to look up. There was a struggle in his eyes, but he was willing to accept his fate.

As the old saying goes: "The more you know, the more you realize how small you are."

In the eyes of ordinary people, Josh was a successful person, but Josh knew that he was too small compared with some people. If they wanted to, they could cultivate another Yongfeng Industry at any time.

The woman left the Yongfeng Building, took off her mask, and revealed her beautiful face. Her black hair was fluttering in the wind, and the lace long skirt matched her slender legs with black silk outlined, which attracted the attention of the pedestrians.

The woman took out her mobile phone and dialed a number. "All according to the plan. Xiao's company completed that project, but there was a little accident in the middle. Some unknown forces are helping Xiao's company. Of course, these are unimportant. The worse the spokesperson of Xiao's company is, the more uneasy those people will be. Gradually, these arrogant people who think they are superior will emerge!"

At four o'clock in the afternoon.

A yellow Porsche 718 drove out of the private club.

As soon as they walked out of the gate of the club, Milan, who was driving, boldly tore off her sky blue dress and put on her black t-shirt.

Milan let out a long breath and said, "It's still more comfortable like this!"

The black T-shirt perfectly showed off Milan's figure, which had a beautiful S-shaped curve and white and tender skin.

Henry was sitting next to Milan. Even if he tried to avoid it deliberately, he couldn't avoid this beautiful scene.

"If you want to look at it, just look at it in a generous way. You've seen it before. Don't say that you sew my wound with your eyes closed," Milan said, pursing her lips.

As soon as Milan said this, the scene that what Milan had said unconsciously occurred in Henry's mind.

At that time, he was a doctor, so Henry didn't think too much about it. However, when she mentioned it, he felt a little embarrassed.

Henry looked at the street in front of him and said, "I booked a ticket back to Yinzhou, but I didn't tell my godfather. Please tell him for me."

Milan holding the steering wheel increased her consciousness and asked as calmly as she could, "Are you leaving today? Don't you want to have a drink with my dad?"

Henry smiled and shook his head, saying, "No, my godfather has been busy recently. Sylvia has gone back, and I should go back earlier. I also said that I would train those doctors and so I should take advantage of this much free time."

"Okay." There was some disappointment in Milna's eyes. She nodded and said, "You can go back. I have to go back to France in two days. Nico has to go back first. There are so many troubles every day."

"This is life. Stop the car in front, and I'll go to the airport myself."

"I'll give you a ride," Milan said as she pressed the gas pedal harder and drove to the airport.

In the parking lot of the airport, Milan put on the long dress again. Her hair was a little messy, with a sense of wildness.

When the two got out of the car, a pair of young men just passed by and looked at Henry and Milan with a strange look.

The young man gave Henry a thumbs-up when he saw Milan's unwashed long dress and messy hair.

As an experienced woman, how could Milan not understand what was going on in this man's mind? She curled her mouth, and her pretty face turned red.

Henry smiled awkwardly. He didn't know him, so he couldn't catch up with him and tell him that he really didn't do that kind of thing just now.

In order to avoid similar misunderstandings, Milan tidied up her clothes and hair, and then went to the airport building together with Henry.

Standing at the entrance of the airport lounge, the breeze blew over, blowing Milan's long skirt.

"Well, I don't know when we will meet next time. Don't forget me!" Milan stood in front of Henry and tidied up Henry's collar. Then she felt that she was too close to him, so she quickly took back her hand.

Henry chuckled. "Don't worry, my memory is very good. I won't forget what I said."

Chapter 290

"Is that so?" There was bitterness and unwillingness in Milan's eyes as she looked at Henry. "Ten years ago you promised me something, didn't you?"

"Er..." Henry felt a little embarrassed. He touched his nose but didn't say anything.

Ten years ago, Milan said that she would marry him when they grew up. At that time, both of them were ignorant, and Henry agreed as a joke.

Looking at Henry's embarrassed look, Milan burst into laughter. "Well, I won't tease you anymore. Time to go. Anyway, we won't be unable to get in touch with each other as we did ten years ago. Come on, one hug?"

Milan opened her arms, and the woman's mouth curved into a smile. Her hair fluttered in the breeze, and there was a hint of sadness in her smile.

The person who she had been looking for ten years was right in front of her, but he would never belong to her.

Henry put his arm around Milan's shoulder, and the unique fragrance of the woman's body rushed into Henry's nose.

"Okay, I have to go. I'll come to France to visit you when I have time." Henry patted Milan's back and loosened his hands.

Milan's hands were hanging around Henry's waist. When she was about to take the courage to hug Henry, she felt that there was nothing in front of her.

Feeling a strong sense of loss in her heart, she lifted the hair on her face and said, "Okay, you go. I won't send you in."

"Okay." Henry nodded and walked into the lounge.

Looking at Henry's back, Milan's whole body seemed to be fixed here. It was not until Henry's figure disappeared completely that Milan turned around.

"Sylvia, I'm sorry..." She shed tears along her face. At the moment when Henry turned around, her eyes were already red.

When she saw Henry for the first time, Milan regarded Henry as a love liar. She only wanted to expose Henry. Gradually, she saw how nice Henry was to Sylvia. She began to approve Henry and wish her good friend good luck.

After that, Henry saved Milan and removed the tumour. He risked life for Sylvia. No woman would turn a blind eye to such a man who didn't care about his life. Milan didn't know when she began to envy Sylvia for finding a man who could be entrusted to her for life.

This trip to Hangshi had changed Henry's position in her heart again. She had never thought that Henry was the person she had been looking for ten years. In her memory, she could not even remember what kind of person he was. From that moment on, her heart was in conflict.

On one side was the person she had been looking for so long. On the other side was her best friend.

Looking at the airport lounge, Milan muttered, "Maybe I should stay in France. I have such a huge harem there!"

A plane took off from the airport of Hangshi and went straight to Yinzhou.

When Henry returned to Yinzhou, it was already dark. He was ready to call Sylvia, but his phone was out of power. Henry shook his head helplessly.

Walking to a dark place, Henry waved his hand to the darkness.

Three figures appeared quietly.

"Boss?"

"Who has 13 yuan in cash? I'll take an airport bus!" Henry said calmly.

The three of them were in the dark, and their expressions were quite wonderful.

"Let's..."

After China entered the internet age, very few young people used cash.

After buying a bus ticket, Henry took the bus to the downtown area.

It had been half a month since the big fire of Lins Group. The two floors on the top of Lin's mansion had been completed. Tomorrow, Lins Group should go back to normal.

As the president, Sylvia had been dealing with a problem for two days. The problem was about Zheng's Group.

Some time ago, Sam Zheng, the future successor of Zheng's Group, was suspected of rape and framed others on purpose. He was in detention.

Jenny Qin did not hold back. With all the files, she brought Sam Zheng up to court. There were still three days left before the court.

During this period, Fiona Wong, the mother of Sam Zheng, was crazily trying to use her power to rescue her son. However, Fiona Wong found that the power she could rely on was all destroyed during this period. Hearing this, those who had received all the benefits before shook their heads at her requests.

After knowing that this matter had something to do with Henry, the director of the Yinzhou City Public Security Bureau attached great importance to it. The director of the City Public Security Bureau was very clear about Henry's personal strength. Last time, the director of the Ministry of State Security and other important figures came to Yinzhou because of this matter. As the head of the whole military region of Ning province, Will Ning was completely defeated.

How could the director of the City Public Security Bureau dare to play with fire? Under his pressure, no one dared to intervene in this matter.

Fiona had a lot of connections, but she couldn't do anything about it. She was anxious and began to play the game of mutual destruction.

In the past few days, the Zheng's Group had launched all kinds of the economic impact on the Lins Group, and at the same time, Hengyuan's business was involved.

Lins Group was able to deal with the Zheng's Group. Under the desperate attack of the Zheng's Group, the Lins Group could expect the loss of hundreds of millions of yuan.

However, Hengyuan's business was different. Although Jenny's company had a good prospect, its foundation was far less than that of Zheng's company. Under the attack of Zheng's company, Hengyuan felt that it was on the verge of collapse.

It was too late. Sylvia and Jenny were sitting in their respective office.

In front of Jenny stood many board members, who were trying to dissuade her.

"President Qin, we can't compare with the Lins Group, and we can't compete with the Zheng's Group. You didn't suffer any substantial injury in the last incident. Please withdraw your complaint. If it goes on like this, it will ruin Hengyuan."

"Yes, President Qin. At the worst, we can slowly take revenge on Zheng's Group in the future. Now is the key moment in the company's development, so we can't afford these things."

"President Qin, let's forget about what happened!"

The attitude of the shareholders was almost trying to dissuade Jenny.

"Do you think that this matter should be settled like this?" Jenny looked at these people in front of her and said, "Do you think that after this incident, Zheng's Group will pretend that nothing has happened? What kind of person Sam Zheng is? Did you dare to say that you haven't investigated?"

Several shareholders looked back and forth, and there was a hint of viciousness in the eyes of two of them.

"Okay, President Qin, you have made up your mind, and we can't say anything. I only hope that President Qin won't regret today's choice later in the future!"

At the same time, in Lins Group.

"President Lin, it's 400 million yuan. All gone. We're businessmen. We can handle all these rumours. What you're doing now is not going to go with money!"

"Yes, Master Lin gave the company to you, but he doesn't want you to do whatever you want. Even if you don't consider us shareholders, you have to consider the future of the company and so many employees!"

Chapter 291

At this time, both the Lin's and the Hengyuan's shareholders began to put pressure on their bosses.

In the dark, outside the Lins Group and the Hengyuan Group, there was a group of people hiding. These people covered their faces and hid in the dark.

Henry took the airport bus and came to the downtown area.

Hengyuan's recent development was very good. They had taken down several transportation lines in Yinzhou, like an airport bus. The end of the bus line was on the street in front of Hengyuan's business.

Henry had just been counting the money, he just paid 13 yuan to take the airport bus. It was obviously unrealistic to take a taxi home, so he simply decided to walk back.

He got out of the bus and walked towards the home. The nearest path was next to Hengyuan Building.

Henry subconsciously glanced at the Hengyuan Building. Several black shadows flickered in the window, which made Henry's face change.

Henry looked up. On the top floor, the light of Jenny's office was still on, but the door of Hengyuan was locked.

Jenny sat in the office, and the shareholders had just left.

To be honest, Jenny could understand the attitude of the shareholders. After all, businessmen were thinking about problems from the perspective of interests. However, even though she could understand, Jenny still felt a little disappointed.

After packing up, Jenny got up and was about to leave when the door of the office was kicked open.

Five strong men appeared outside Jenny's office. All of their faces were covered with masks. When they saw Jenny, their eyes were full of dirty expressions.

"Tsk, tsk. She's really a beautiful woman. I'm willing to do this job even if they don't give me money."

The leader made a teasing sound and kept looking at Jenny with his eyes.

She wore black silk stockings which emphasized her long legs and a black formal suit. Together with Jenny's beautiful face and perfect figure, it was a great temptation.

At the moment when these people appeared, Jenny's face showed some traces of panic. She tried to calm down and shouted, "Who are you? Please go out immediately!"

"Go out?" The leader smiled playfully. "Of course we will go out, but not now. Hey hey, what a stunner! Who goes first?"

"Boss, you can do it first. Let's share a meal." The other four men also laughed obscenely. Their eyes were full of possessiveness when they looked at Jenny.

"Okay, then I'll be the big brother. I won't be polite." The leader laughed loudly.

In their conversation, it seemed that they were sharing a delicious cake.

The leader slowly walked toward Jenny. "Little girl, which part of your clothes should I tear first?"

Jenny slowly stepped back and reached for the mobile phone on the table. As a result, the other party rushed up in advance and took away the mobile phone on the table.

"Beautiful woman? Do you want to call the police? Don't worry. When I finish playing with you and take photos, you will have plenty of opportunities to call the police!"

A wretched laughter rang out.

Jenny couldn't conceal the anxiety on her face. Who sent these people? With a little thought, Jenny could figure it out.

She really didn't expect that Zheng's Group would be so crazy. This was a flagrant crime!

The leader was approaching Jenny. Jenny slowly retreated, and in a blink of an eye, she retreated to the foot of the wall.

The leader was not in a hurry. He looked at Jenny playfully like a cat catching a mouse. "Girl, run away. I'll slowly catch you, hey hey hey."

The man stretched out his hand to grab Jenny. Jenny turned around in a panic and escaped from the man's hand, but the man pulled down her jacket, leaving only a white shirt on her body.

Jenny gasped for breath, and her breast kept rising and falling, which made the leader even more excited.

"Little girl, run, quick." The man put the jacket he had just grabbed down in front of his nose and smelled it, showing a look of enjoyment.

The whole office was so not so big, so Jenny had no place to hide. She could only hide in a corner and trembled with fear. Looking at the five people in front of her, there was not only fear but also the anger in her eyes.

"Hey, little girl, big brother is coming. Don't worry, big brother will be very gentle." The leader laughed evilly and grabbed Jenny.

Jenny stared at him. When the man came over, she kicked hard toward lower part of his body, but the man noticed it in advance and blocked it.

"Tut-tut-tut, little girl is still hot." The man grabbed Jenny's leg and pushed it hard.

Jenny could not stand steadily and fell to the ground. How could she, a woman, be a match for him?

"Brothers, come and make some adjustments for this sister." The leader smiled obscenely.

A man standing at the door took out a bottle of spray from his pocket and sprayed it in the office. The spray was filled with a delicate fragrance. When someone inhaled it, he would feel a little aroused.

Several men greedily inhaled the spray in the air, and the desire in their eyes grew stronger and stronger.

The leader even excitedly tore off the mask on his face and licked his lips. "Little girl, I promise, you will be more active than us later!"

The drug in the air made Jenny feel dizzy, and her legs were a little weak. She sat in the corner, and there was some blurred look in her eyes.

Jenny held her breath. Her body's reaction made her know the effect of this drug in the air. She tried her best to wake herself up, but it didn't work.

Several men were all grinding their hands, fantasizing about some beautiful things that would happen later on.

"Little girl, come on." The leader walked toward Jenny.

Jenny was so weak that she didn't even have the strength to resist.

The leader swept all the things on Jenny's desk and was ready to drag Jenny up to the desk.

A tinkling sound rang in Henry's ears.

When Henry rushed to Jenny's office, he just saw the leader drag Jenny to the table.

Jenny was somewhat delirious now. Her footsteps were light and her pretty face was flushed.

Seeing this scene, Henry walked to the back of the two men at the door of the office without saying anything. He formed a knife with one hand and slashed hard at the necks of those two men.

The two of them only felt a strong force coming from their necks. Their eyes went black and they fell down.

The sound of the two falling down attracted the attention of the other three people. They turned around and saw Henry.

"Little..." As soon as the leader spoke a word, he was punched in the face by Henry. The leader felt that his facial bones were almost broken by this punch.

For these people, Henry did not talk nonsense at all. After a few punches, he took their collars and threw them out from the window on the third floor.

A series of "poof-poof" sounds meant that the five people had successfully landed.

After doing all this, Henry noticed Jenny.

Now, Jenny was lying on a wide desk with a red face. Obviously, she was strongly affected by the drug.
