

Chapter 315

In the past half a month, there had been a lot of open and secret strife between the Zhao's Group and Lins Group.

The appearance of Zhao's Group was beyond many people's expectation. The capital of this group had reached 8 billion yuan. With the support of a mysterious consortium, hundreds of elites were transferred from other places to maintain the operation of the company on the first day of its establishment. Moreover, many orders were obtained.

Originally, Lins market occupied a total of 48% in Yinzhou. With the appearance of Zhao's Group, Lin's share decreased by 13% at once, and only 35% was still in their hand.

Meanwhile, the current shares of Yinzhou market of the Zhao's Group had reached 25%, only ten percent lower than that of the Lins Group.

One must know that this was the result of the Zhao's Group, which had only appeared for half a month.

In the usual business negotiations, Lins Group would argue with Zhao's Group.

In the bidding competition, Zhao's was also the most powerful opponent of Lins Group.

In this recruitment, Lins and Zhao's were also competing for talents.

Lins and Zhao's were separated into one exhibition hall. There were more than a dozen exhibition pavilions in each exhibition hall. Some small companies would gather in groups on a small exhibition stand. After all, the price of this exhibition stands alone was up to 800,000 yuan. Small enterprises couldn't afford to pay for it. All the companies would unite to pay it together. If they could find useful talents, the money they spent was worth it. If they couldn't find it, they would consider it a loss.

Meanwhile, Lins Group and Zhao's Group owned a whole exhibition stand. The name of their own enterprise was hanging on it with the big word "HOT". The exhibition stand was full of business proposals and in the need for talents.

On the stand, the HR department of Lins Group was in a hurry at the moment.

"What do you think? Have you signed all the most promising ones this time?"

"Not yet. The offer proposed by the Zhao family is at least one level higher than ours. This is deliberate against us."

"They're trying to mess with us!"

While a group of people from the business department were discussing fiercely, Manager Chen of the HR department came over.

10:02 ■

"Well, you should talk slowly first. I just received a message that Henry, President Lin's husband, is coming and will be responsible for the recruitment. All of us can assist him." Manager Chen said to everyone.

The staff of the HR department was shocked by Manager Chen's words.

"What? President Lin's husband is coming?"

"What is he doing here? Does he know how to recruit?"

"Please, Manager Chen. We are in a mess. Please don't make trouble for us."

A burst of complaints arose everywhere. Who didn't know how many of these people who entered the company by wearing a dress were really capable? Previously, Richard Wong, sitting in such an important position in the company, only ate, drank and played every day, but also added chaos to others.

Although they had never come into contact with Henry before, they could think of something just by thinking about him.

Manager Chen also knew what everyone was thinking. He had met Henry before. On the first day of work, he asked for a security position, but he was stunned by President Lin's aunt. From this point, it could be seen that he was absolutely an arrogant and unbridled person. If he came here, even if he didn't care about anything, everyone would have to listen to him.

This matter was arranged by President Lin. Even if Manager Chen had any opinion, he did not dare to say it out loud. Now he only hoped that Henry was a reasonable person.

"But Henry, last time when the building was on fire, he saved President Lin desperately. He won't go too far, right?"

"Haha, if my wife is the boss of a company with a market value of ten billion yuan, I wouldn't want to save her. Today, if he comes here and he does nothing, it will be our fault!"

"That's right. If he wants me to play with my life, I'll play with my life. He can see that every day we play with our lives and make money for him. We could make ten billion yuan. Everyone could play!"

The staff of the HR department all showed an angry expression.

"All right, cut the crap. He'll come soon. Maybe he'll leave very fast." Manager Chen comforted them.

"When he leaves, it will be too late. Now there are only a few remaining talents. If we can't recruit them, they might deduct our salaries. We still have family to feed!"

"Yes!"

"You are all stupid. Now you leave. When he comes, just say that everyone is busy. It is impossible for him to call you back! Go, go, go out." Manager Chen waved his hand.

Hearing that, the employees didn't hesitate.

"Let's go, let's go."

"Let's go."

A group of people left the stage in pairs. Soon, there was no one else in the recruitment seats of the Lins, except for a few people who worked with documents.

At half-past two in the afternoon, Henry strolled slowly to the exhibition centre.

It could be said that inside and outside the exhibition centre, there was a sea of people. At present, everyone was under a lot of pressure. Among the five people, one had no job. Among the remaining four, only one had a good offer, and the remaining three were uncertain.

In this fair, not only did jobless people come to take chances but some working personnel also specially asked for leave to see if they could find a job with better benefits.

Henry came to the exhibition centre. He took a look at the slightly shrunk picture and found the exhibition hall of Lins Group.

By the time he arrived at the exhibition stage of Lins Group, the stage was already crowded with candidates. Everyone handed over their resume. Whoever passed the resume would be able to take part in the next interview.

For most of the candidates, it was the Lins Group that chose them. Only a few elites would be able choose the Lins Group themselves.

Now, the Lins Group lacked such elites.

Manager Chen had been waiting in front of the stand for a long time. When she saw Henry, Manager Chen immediately came up to him.

"Mr Zhang, here you are." Manager Chen looked at Henry. He and Henry had seen met before. Looking at Henry's cheap casual clothes, he was stunned. This was President Lin's husband, a husband of a boss with ten billion yuan in her bank account.

Henry nodded, looked at the stage, frowned and asked, "There are too many candidates here. If I remember correctly, this time twenty-three people from the personnel department came to help with fair, so how come the efficiency is so low?"

Manager Chen smiled awkwardly. Usually, there wouldn't be so many people. But just now, he knew that Henry was coming and they had been sent out, so naturally, the efficiency of doing things was reduced.

"Well, Mr Zhang, this time, we have several good goals, but we haven't got the talents yet, so everyone went out to search for talents." Manager Chen explained.

"Went out? Call them back. They have to handle things here properly first. Why are they running around?" Henry blamed him.

Manager Chen was a little embarrassed. "But those high-quality talents..."

Henry glanced at Manager Chen and said blandly, "I give orders here."

Chapter 316

At 2:45 p.m., all the employees who had been sent out returned to the stand, but everyone had a look of anger on their faces. They really didn't want to come back, but manager Chen told them that if anyone was not back within 15 minutes, he or she would have to hand in his or her resignation letter.

All the employees of the Lins were forced to come back, and everyone's heart was full of resentment.

Henry sat in the resting room behind the stage. Through the huge glass window, he could see what was going outside. He made a cup of tea and drank leisurely.

The personnel staff next to him shook their heads in disappointment when they saw him like this. He was indeed a person who came to make trouble.

Soon, the people who came up to the stand to look for a job slowly dispersed. Everyone's introduction was taken in and they were waiting for the next notice.

Henry looked at a long-legged and thin-waist girl from head to toe. This girl was particularly conspicuous in the crowd, just because of her beautiful appearance and temperament that others could not compare with.

"Call her in." Henry pointed at the girl and said to Manager Chen.

The staff of the personnel department of the Lins Group also noticed this girl. She was really beautiful, but her education was too low. She just graduated from college and had no work experience. Instead, she started her business for a few years and lost money in the end.

Hearing that Henry wanted to call the young lady over, everyone showed a look of disdain. He was the same as Richard Wong. Without any ability, he could do anything to harm the young lady. They really didn't know what President Lin thought of such a man.

Soon, Manager Chen called the beautiful girl over.

Those who were looking for a job with a girl also showed a look that they had expected this. Now the hidden rules were put in the open. Beautiful women always enjoyed the attention.

At the same time, the girl's resume was placed in front of Henry.

On a table, Henry was sitting in front of the table, drinking tea and looking at the girl's resume. The girl was standing in front of Henry, wearing a long red dress.

"Cici Rui? This surname is quite rare. At the age of twenty-six, you graduated from college and started your own business for eight years. Please introduce yourself." Henry put the resume on the table and looked at Cici.

Cici smiled slightly and said, "Hello, interviewer. My name is Cici Rui. I'm..."

"Stop." Henry made a prohibited gesture. "I forgot to tell you how I want you to introduce yourself. I don't want to listen to your prepared speech. You just need to tell me three points. First, your advantages. Second, your disadvantages, Third, your opinion on the Lins Group."

Cici was slightly stunned, and then muttered, "Sorry, I can't make such a self-introduction."

Henry smiled slightly and seemed to have expected that Cici would answer in this way. He asked, "Why?"

"The first thing I can say is my opinion on Lins Group, the second is my disadvantage, and my advantage should be put at the end." Cici gave such an answer.

In other people's eyes, this way of answering was stupid. It was just three points, and the order you answered didn't make any difference.

But in Henry's eyes, it was completely different.

"Very well, you are accepted." Henry took out his mobile phone and looked at the time. "At 5:30 a.m., you can come here. I will talk to you about the salary."

Henry's words made Cici's eyes lit up. If one looked carefully, he would find that there was a kind of approval in Cici's eyes. Yes, it was an unusual thing for her, a college education candidate, to look at the interviewer of the Lin's with a look of approval.

Cici stretched out her hand to Henry Zhang and said, "You are very special. I hope that we can cooperate happily."

In the phrase of delight in cooperation, Cici expressed a more different meaning.

"I also hope so." Henry smiled and gently shook Cici's soft hand.

The people next to him looked at him. Henry told her that she had been admitted so easily. How could he recruit an employee? Obviously, he wanted to recruit a mistress for himself!

"I knew that this kind of person would only make trouble for us. When he finishes playing later, he will leave and leave the mess for us."

"Yes."

"Alas, it's all because of the great power of his family."

The staff of the HR department whispered.

Seeing that it was so easy for Cici to apply for the job, a beautiful woman, Linda Mao introduced herself and winked at Henry. "Hello, interviewer. My name is Linda. I graduated from college and also want to find a job."

When Linda spoke, she deliberately opened her mouth more, which was really enchanting.

Henry glanced at Linda and said, "Follow the procedure of finding a job."

Linda heard this and saw Henry's cold attitude. She rolled her eyes, turned around and left. At the same time, she made a sound, "Don't pretend to be so important!"

Linda's resume had just been rejected by Lins Group.

Linda's words were unanimously approved by the staff of the HR department. They also thought that Henry was putting on an act. He had just easily employed a beautiful woman, and now he was pretending to be a gentleman.

After a while, a young man in a suit came to the stand of Lins Group with a briefcase in his hand.

The appearance of this young man immediately attracted the attention of many HR department employees. They still remembered that this person was one of the few high-quality talents.

Several people immediately ran to the stand to take the young man to the lounge.

As soon as the young man entered the lounge, he shouted, "I won't beat around the bush with you. The Zhao Family offered me an annual salary of 300,000 yuan. My intention is to get a salary of 350,000 yuan per year. Now whoever can give me my ideal number, I will work for them."

As soon as the young man finished his words, the staff of Lins Group looked at each other. Finally, they looked at Manager Chen and asked him to make the decision.

"Three hundred and fifty thousand..." Manager Chen thought for a moment, then took out a pen and paper, wrote for a long time, and finally gritted his teeth. "350,000 yuan! OK! If there is no problem, we can sign the contract now!"

This young man was the key target of the personnel department of the Lins Group, and they wanted to sign him very much.

There was a trace of arrogance on the young man's face. "Then let's sign the contract."

Looking at the arrogance on the young man's face, the staff of the Lin's showed no dissatisfaction. If the young man really took up the job, he might become their boss in no time.

Henry sat next to them, frowned and said, "Manager Chen, what kind of talent is he? How can he directly ask for an annual salary of 350,000 yuan?"

"Henry, this is Pang Guang, twenty-three years old. He has already got a master's degree at Capital University. When he was at school, he got four scholarships. At the same time, his major is also in line with the two most important projects we have now." Manager Chen said as he handed a resume to Henry.

Henry only glanced at it and said, "We don't need him."

Chapter 317

"Don't want?"

Henry's words made the employees of the HR department open their eyes wide. This kind of talent, he actually didn't want it!

"Henry, I can't refuse this." Manager Chen whispered in Henry's ear, "This is a rare talent."

Henry took a sip of tea, shook his head and said, "If I say no, then we don't want him. Pang Guang, right? You can go now."

Henry threw Pang's resume on the table and then did not look at Pang again.

A hint of anger appeared on Pang's face. "Fine! If you don't want me here, there's another place that does!"

Pang stepped forward, grabbed his resume, slammed the door and left.

The staff of the HR department, including Manager Chen, looked at Pang's departure in a daze. They could not recover from the shock.

"Is he really gone? He's such a high-quality talent!"

At the moment, they had unspeakable bitterness in their hearts. Henry's arrival was not as simple as just adding trouble to people. He was a total troublemaker.

Manager Chen's face was full of bitterness. If it was a regular leader, he would dare to say something. But it turned out that he was President Lin's husband!

Manager Chen watched Pang walk to the booth of Zhao Enterprise next door, and was received by Zhao Enterprise's people.

Henry sat in the lounge behind the stage. Every time a person applied for Lins Group,

10:04 ■

Henry had to look at that person's resume, and sometimes asked them to introduce themselves. Some people who were supposed to sign the contract were rejected by Henry. However, some people who didn't even have a resume, Henry would accept.

After two hours, Henry Zhang hired about ten people and rejected the seven people who were going to sign the contract. His behaviour made the HR department staff unwilling to complain. The job fair, which had made everyone full of confidence, was completely ruined because of Henry's presence.

5:25 p.m.

There were fewer people at the fair than before.

Cici Rui, who was wearing a long red dress, came to the exhibition stand of Lins Group and talked with Henry about the salary.

In Yinzhou, the salary was divided into several grades.

Three thousand to five thousand, five thousand to eight thousand, eight thousand to ten thousand, and then the year-end bonus. Kind of a person with an annual salary of more than 250,000 yuan was a top talent in Yinzhou, such as Pang Guang. He had a master's degree from Capital University and an annual salary of 350,000 yuan. If he went out of the province, he would definitely be a successful person in the eyes of the people in Yinzhou.

They didn't know how Henry talked about the salary with Cici, but when Manager Chen printed the contract, Manager Chen and others saw Henry Zhang's salary and even suspected that they had added one more zero by mistake.

An annual salary of one million yuan!

In Yinzhou, there was not a company that had such a high salary for its employees!

If Manager Chen heard other people's asking for this salary, he would let them go to other companies immediately. One million! The genius with a master's degree from Capital University only wanted three hundred and fifty thousand yuan, but the graduate with this major got one million yuan?

"He is indeed a rich man. In order to play with this woman, he is spending a lot of money!"

"This woman's annual salary is one million yuan. In the future, she will have to stick her tail and walk in the company!"

"I've been working in Lins Group for almost ten years. Now I only have 8,000 yuan a month. This major's graduate directly gets one million yuan per year?"

The staff of the HR department expressed their dissatisfaction in private.

While they were talking, they saw a group of people walking to the stand of Lins Group.

All the employees in the HR department of the Lins Group knew these people. They were from the Zhao family next door.

The HR manager of Zhao's company took the initiative to bring people to the stand of Lins Group. Beside him, Pang Guang, who had been rejected by Henry before, was also there.

When the manager of the HR department of Zhao's company saw Manager Chen, his face was full of gratitude. He shouted, "Oh, Manager Chen, thank you very much. Such a good talent and you don't want him. You really gave advantage to our Zhao's company. We got this double-master's talent for an annual salary of 300,000 yuan. By the way, some things may have been forgotten by Pang Guang. However, we still checked it. Pang Guang once held a lecture in major schools because of his excellent grade. He earned 210,000 in a year."

The words of the Zhao's manager made the people from Lins' HR department look very unhappy. The other party signed the contract for 300,000 yuan and Lins wanted to give him 350,000 yuan. Moreover, Pang Guang was even more excellent than they had imagined. He started his business in college and earned 210,000 yuan a year. How many people could do this now? He was definitely a businessman!

Manager Chen did not speak and ignored the HR manager of Zhao's Group, but the HR manager of Zhao Enterprise did not intend to end this easily. Everyone had been fighting openly and secretly these days, and they all held back their breath. Today was the last day of the recruitment meeting. It was about to end, so they had to come over and put a good fight. He glanced at the contract in Manager Chen's hand. "Wow, Manager Chen, an annual salary of one million yuan? Who is this talent? Cici Rui? I am a little familiar with this name. Oh, I remember, a vase with a BA from a professional school!"

Manager Chen's face became even darker. If this matter was spread out, it would definitely make the HR department of Lins Group a laughing stock in the industry. A talent review department is known for being strict and professional, with an annual salary of one million dollars for an ordinary graduate, just because the other party was beautiful?

"Haha." Henry's chuckle sounded aside, "The so-called vase refers to the appearance without any personality. I don't know if this vase refers to your people or my people?"

Henry looked at the HR manager of Zhao's company.

"Of course everybody knows who I'm talking about. It is a known rule that BA graduates should have a monthly salary of three thousand yuan. I think it's too high!" The manager of the HR department of Zhao's company crossed his arms over his chest.

Henry glanced at Pang and said, "Actually, I think that the talent you signed should have an annual salary of 100,000. You overestimated him."

"What a joke!" Pang laughed out loud. "When I started my own business, I could earn more than 200,000 yuan a year. 100,000 yuan? Dream on!"

"Really?" Henry smiled and said, "You earned 200,000 yuan a year, and then? Does it prove that you are capable? The money he made is all virtual. Only when the money is in your hands can you prove that you earned it. Excuse me, have you got the money?"

"Bullsh*t!" Pang snorted with disdain. Of course, he could not get any money from the operation of the virtual model.

Henry looked at Manager Chen and asked, "Do you think he can survive under my control for a few days with his character? 10 million yuan a year would not be enough for him to pay for the medicine!"

When Manager Chen heard this, he smiled awkwardly. He had seen Henry's temper when he encountered President Lin's aunt. She had fainted so easily. He was definitely not a good person.

Henry looked at Pang again and said, "The ability is made for yourself, and you shouldn't show off. In the company, what you have to do is to contribute to the company, not to show your own value. The so-called company's output can be divided into two categories. The first kind is to create profits for the company, the second kind, to bring profits to everyone."

Chapter 318

Henry stretched out two fingers and said, "I won't consider the company's interest for the time being. Let's talk about personal interests first. If you show me respect, it will affect my mood. In my opinion, a good mood is also a symbol of benefits. So, you have already affected my personal interests, including in the company, and you will also affect other colleagues' feelings. So, I will fire you immediately."

"It's ridiculous. Who do you think you are? I'm capable. Any company will do everything to hire me!" Pang said arrogantly.

Pang's arrogance came from the bottom of his heart. From the bottom of his heart, he thought that he was a top student who graduated from Capital University and had a double master's degree. When he came to this small city of Yinzhou, no matter which company he went to, someone would fight for him and he was superior to others.

Henry shrugged his shoulders. "Whatever you think, if you want to tell me about your ability, I have to ask you, what ability do you have to get the annual salary of 350,000 yuan? Is it the school education that represents your ability?"

"Of course!" Pang raised his head.

Henry waved his hand and said, "Cici Rui, tell me, what did you do during the eight years since you started your business?"

Cici replied, "Internet sale."

"Internet sale?" Hearing this, the HR manager of Zhao's company was stunned at first, then laughed a few times and said disdainfully, "It's really interesting. Does that count? Internet sale is only a hobby. Who doesn't know that the so-called internet sale is just one or two thousand yuan for the agent fee and to do some things on social media!"

Cici explained, "I sold IP domains for eight years."

After Cici said the name of the domain, the faces of the HR manager of Zhao Enterprise, Manager Chen, and Pang all showed a trace of doubt.

Henry said, "The so-called IP domain is the website selling from many years ago, but now it is in another form. I checked just now. The most expensive website in China, and the official website of the security guard 361, costs 100 million yuan to buy it. Cici, tell me, how much money did you make in eight years?"

Cici nodded and continued, "In the past eight years, I spent more time on hype and sales of foreign IP domains. I didn't make any profit at all. At the best time, the annual profit reached 47 million dollars."

"Pretending!" Pang smirked. "47 million dollars? You really made so much money, do you still need to come to this small city to work?"

Cici gave a hand indifferently. "It's just that I've lost all my money."

"Haha, everybody could say that." Pang's face was full of disbelief.

"I don't know if she is telling the truth or not." Henry shook his head. "But I can still believe the financial magazine in those days."

Henry opened a website on his mobile phone. It was an American financial magazine four years ago. On the cover of the magazine was Cici who was standing in front of them at the moment.

There was only one short sentence on the magazine's cover about Cici.

A cross-generations businesswoman.

Henry smiled and said, "You can see the website clearly. Whether it's real or not, whether it's a photoshop or not, you can figure it out by yourself. Do you think that such a person is a vase? The vase is signed by you. This so-called double master, without any achievements, a high-calibre student who is arrogant. Is he a vase?"

Listening to Henry's words, the face of the HR manager of Zhao's company was a little ugly. As a person who was on the cover of the American Weekly, Cici must be very valuable.

This Cici could suffer a loss in business. You could only say that she was unlucky. She couldn't catch up with time, but you couldn't deny her ability. If she could find a suitable platform, the benefits she brought would be huge!

Henry looked at Pang and shook his head. "School education doesn't mean your ability. When you really can turn your school education into ability, you are qualified to show your arrogance. But now, to be honest, you are just a newcomer who knows nothing."

After Henry finished speaking, he turned around and walked into the lounge.

Pang stood there with a terrible look on his face. He couldn't imagine that a person who was only a BA student could be on the cover of the economic newspaper in the United States!

Manager Chen took out his mobile phone. On the website Henry just opened, he really saw the introduction of Cici Rui. Moreover, in this magazine, there was a very high evaluation of Cici. There were even some financial barons who made a special speech and praised her.

Manager Chen put away his mobile phone. When he looked at Cici again, his eyes were full of excitement. She was absolutely a talent, a super talent! If they signed such a person with an annual salary of one million dollars, it would be absolutely a big profit for the company! As long as she could be given a platform, the value she could show would be unimaginable! She could even surpass President Lin! You know, President Lin was such an excellent woman, and she had never been on the cover of the financial newspaper.

The value of the financial newspaper was known by all the people in the industry.

This Cici was ten times more powerful than Pang!

Manager Chen's gloomy mood was swept away. In the two-day job fair, no matter how many talents others had recruited, it would not be enough to beat him.

Manager Chen thought for a moment. If he had signed Pang for 350,000 yuan, and Zhao's signed Cici for one million, he would definitely be depressed and sleep bad for a few days after knowing Cici's ability. People like Cici Rui were the real top talents!

The HR manager of Zhao's company was no longer as proud as he was just now. He knew that he had lost to Lins Group in this confrontation.

"Manager Chen! Oh my god, it's amazing!" An employee of the HR department of the Lins Group ran out of the lounge with excitement.

"Well, you know?" Manager Chen asked curiously. The reason why these people were so excited was probably that they knew about Cici's ability.

"What do you mean?" The employee, who ran out excitedly, showed a hint of doubt.

"Then why are you so happy?" Manager Chen asked.

"Manager Chen! Just now! The person Henry recruited is a man in his forties. He has no education background. He is actually the judge of the investment in the Dragon Investment Company!" The staff shouted.

"What!" Manager Chen's face was shocked, and then he became overjoyed.

People in Yinzhou had heard of the Dragon Investment Company. It was a very small company. There were only two people at that time, and the starting capital in their hands was less than one million. In a short period of a year, it was made into a company worth more than ten million dollars. Such a development speed was inseparable from the judges of the Dragon Investment Company. His eyes were very sharp. Even Sylvia Lin, who had offered a high price of five million yuan at that time, wanted to sign that man but was refused by the other party.

Now, this person was actually recruited by Henry?

Chapter 319

"How much for his salary?" Manager Chen asked excitedly.

"Manager, you won't believe it even if I say it. The annual salary is 100,000 yuan, and the commission is 1% of the service." The employee's face was full of disbelief.

"An annual salary of 100,000 yuan! Small commission?" Manager Chen was somewhat unbelievable. At that time, President Lin intended to hire him for five million yuan, but now he was signed by Henry?

The staff member of the HR department looked back at Henry, who was sitting in the lounge, and there was no longer that kind of dissatisfaction in his eyes.

Henry signed this talent at this price. If President Lin knew that, the whole HR department would be praised. According to President Lin's character, there must be a lot of rewards. This kind of talent was much better than those top students who only had a degree.

At that time, the legal person of the Dragon Investment Company took the money and ran away. So many people wanted to recruit the investment judge who invested in the Dragon Investment Company, but there was no way. The other party also disappeared for several years.

Before the shock of Manager Chen was over, another female employee ran out of the lounge. "Manager Chen, good news. Good news. The lady that you rejected, was called back by Henry. It turned out to be responsible for the development of the project for Qinxin Heart Courtyard. Just a few years ago, it was popular and reported to borrow money everywhere. Finally, the project was taken by others and earned more than a billion yuan."

"She?" Manager Chen frowned slightly. "Isn't there a criminal report in her resume?"

"Yes. At that time, her capital chain was broken and the loan was not paid. She was sentenced for financial fraud. She just came out of prison. She couldn't find a job because of the previous record. I didn't expect that she was called by Henry. It was said that this big sister was set up by someone. Otherwise, she would have been the boss of hundreds of millions of yuan long ago!"

As soon as the female employee finished speaking, another excited voice came from the lounge.

"Manager Chen! You may not believe it..."

The HR manager of the Zhao Family stood aside and listened to the good news discussed by the employees of the Lins Group. His face was so gloomy. The top talent, who had just graduated, was signed by the Lin's at such a low price, and all of them were on a commission system. According to these people's abilities, as long as one of them could bring profit to the company, his benefits would be unimaginable. Looking at Pang, the HR manager of the Zhao's group, he had an impulse to slap him. He was just graduated, but he actually gave him 300 thousand annual salary. In contrast, he was simply a fool!

Manager Chen stood on the stand and looked at Henry, who was slowly sipping tea in the lounge. The contempt in his heart had long been gone, but there was only deep admiration! Henry, as expected, was not as simple as he looked on the surface. His way of dealing with things was really profound.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, the exhibition centre was closed. The large-scale job fair this time was completely over. Every company had a lot of gains, but the biggest harvest was from Lins Group.

Just half an hour after the contract was signed, the HR department staff of the Lins Group found that almost all the people signed by Henry were talents, and these talents were ignored by them before.

"Henry, we're very curious. How did you do it? There are a lot of things that haven't been written on the resume of those talents." Manager Chen couldn't help but ask.

After Manager Chen asked this question, the employees of the personnel department also looked at Henry with a curious look. This was the question they also wanted to know.

Henry smiled and said, "In fact, it's very simple. Manager Chen, if I ask you to apply for a job with an annual salary of one million dollars now, will you apply for it?"

Manager Chen shook her head. "No."

"Why?" Henry asked.

"I know I don't have this ability." Manager Chen answered honestly.

Henry snapped his fingers. "That's right. After thinking about it, a person's CV is very difficult to read. One doesn't have an education background or many awards, but he dares to apply for an important position. You have to learn to interview such a person, not directly refuse because of his resume. The way you ask is very simple. I only used one method. First, let the other party talk about their own advantages, then disadvantages. Finally, you can ask the other party's opinion on Lins."

"What's the difference?" Manager Chen asked doubtfully.

"Of course." Henry Zhang nodded. "A company's construction is equivalent to a building. Your HR department is equivalent to the material approval of this building. For example, if a brick falls from a wall, will you choose the most suitable one to buy or buy a sum of bricks of all sizes, and finally choose the nearest one to the size?"

Manager Chen answered without thinking, "Of course, I choose the most suitable one to buy it."

Henry nodded. "By the way, there is a 90% chance that a capable person will put his opinion on Lins Group first, because he knows his position very well and knows what he can do when he comes to the company. Even on the first day of work, he will take the initiative to do some work without the arrangement of his superiors.

Others, on the first day of work, will sit in front of their desk and wait for their superiors to assign some work that they don't understand."

Listening to Henry's words, all the employees of Lins had a sudden understanding of Henry and they were full of admiration for Henry in their hearts.

"Henry, we really learned something this time!" Manager Chen gave him a thumbs-up and said sincerely.

At this moment, these staff members of the HR department of the Lins Group were ashamed of their previous thoughts.

Originally, they thought that the president's husband came here to make trouble. In the end, the other party's means were much higher than theirs. After this incident, they could understand why they were only employees. Henry, who could be the boss, was obviously confined in the limitations of thinking, and it was difficult for him to develop better.

Manager Chen called and reported today's "victories" to Sylvia. At the same time, he also told her that Henry had found a lot of high-quality talents.

After hearing this, Sylvia was not surprised at all. After spending so much time together, Henry had become an excellent man in Sylvia's heart.

On the top floor of Lin's building, Sylvia was sitting in her office. She cocked her head and thought for a while. Then she took out her mobile phone and dialled Henry's number. Before the phone was connected, the woman said to herself, "Well... this is as a reward for your victory today. I'll treat you to a big meal."

Henry's phone was busy.

Sylvia waited for five minutes before calling Henry, but it was obvious that no one answered.
