Chapter 476

Hearing this, Henry shook his head. Without saying anything more, he turned around and walked out of the yard.

Jenny looked at Henry and then looked at Chieftain Li with an anxious face. " Chieftain Li, how about you..."

"Shut up!" The young woman shouted.
"Didn't you hear what our patriarch said?
Get out of here!"

"Young girl, I've made up my mind. Please leave." Chieftain Li said.

Jenny opened her mouth but didn't say anything in the end. She followed Henry out of the courtyard.

After Jenny and Henry left, the young woman looked at Chieftain Li and said, "Patriarch, should I..."

When the young woman spoke, she made a gesture of raising her hand and cutting down like a knife.

"No need." Chieftain Li shook his head.

The young woman snorted and glared at the direction Henry and Jenny left. "It's the most convenient to kill these kinds of people!"

Jenny drove Henry out of Li's Village.

"What are you going to do next?" Jenny asked.

"There are a lot of methods. It depends on which one I will choose." Henry looked out of the window. If it was not necessary, he really didn't want to make things big. After all, it was not good for the Lins Group. But since Li's Village had an attitude like this, he had to take some tough means.

Once Henry decided to take tough measures, these problems would be solved easily.

Jenny shook her head and said, "This matter has caused a lot of trouble recently."

You have to deal with it properly."

"I understand. By the way..." Henry suddenly thought of one thing.

"What's wrong?" Jenny was a little confused.

"My wife Sylvia, what did she say to you?" Henry asked.

Yesterday, Jenny asked if he had quarrelled with Sylvia. He did not answer, but when he went home, he found that even the door lock had been changed.

Upon hearing this, Jenny's face showed an unnatural look. "No... nothing..."

"Nothing?" Henry looked at Jenny. The unnatural look on her face did not escape his eyes.

"No. What can your wife say to me?" Jenny rolled her eyes. "There's something I should deal with in my company. Where can I drop you?"

"The intersection in front of us." Henry stretched out his hand and pointed at it.

Jenny nodded. When she arrived at the intersection, she stopped the car.

After Henry and Jenny separated, he went to the hospital first and checked up on the injured staff of Lins Group. Most of them were okay. There was only one person whose arm was fractured. After asking, Henry learned that he was beaten by the people from Li's Village with sticks.

Henry comforted the injured employees and bought some fruits. Then Henry returned to the Lins Group. The villagers of the Li family who were originally gathered at the door of the Lins Group dispersed when they saw that the Lins Group was closed.

However, Henry still noticed that there were a few people who had been looking at Lins building from the side. They must be watching some kind of surveillance.

Henry didn't care about them. He went into the Lins Group and went to the security office to check the surveillance for the past couple of days.

On the day when Lin's stuff got bitten, Henry saw that there were more than a hundred people gathered in front of the entrance of the Lins Group. Some people even picked up bricks and threw them at the Lins Group. A security guard of the Lins Group stood out and was punched on the spot. Then they hit his arm with a stick. That was the man with a fracture that Henry just saw in the hospital.

In the surveillance video, although Henry couldn't hear any sound, he could see the mouth shape of those villagers in the Li's Village, and they didn't say anything nice.

Henry turned off the surveillance video and took a deep breath. Since the people of Li's Village didn't want to solve this matter peacefully, he didn't have to endure his anger anymore. Some people would always think that they had the final say in this world if they didn't get beaten.

After leaving Lins Group, Henry contacted Wade first and asked him to check Sylvia's whereabouts. He had to find out where Sylvia was first. Henry always felt that there was something wrong with Sylvia's departure this time. He also told Wade to let all the people around Yinzhou gather together.

This time, Li's Village made such big trouble. It was certainly impossible to kill them directly. Not to mention what would happen to the public. The trouble caused by this village had even alarmed the top level in China. The forces behind them had to be investigated, but they could still do it. The police would not let Green Leaf manage this matter. Then, let the Reapers take charge of it!

Henry's way of doing this was to warn toplevel people in China.

Wade understood.

Before Henry hung up the call with Wade, he heard his phone ring constantly. Someone called him.

Henry looked at the number and it turned out to be Channing.

"Well, I have to pick up another call, bye." Henry hung up the phone call with Wade and picked up Channing's call.

As soon as the phone was connected, Henry heard Channing's crying from the phone, "Brother-in-law, come to the Rosy Night Club. These people are too shameless!"

On the phone, Henry heard a tinkling sound.

"Wait for me. I'll be there right away."

Henry left Lins Group immediately and took a taxi to the Rosy Night Club.

It was just 12 o'clock in the afternoon, and there was no one in the whole bar street.

From a distance, Henry saw that the door of the Rosy Night Club was open, and it was a mess inside.

Henry walked to the door and saw more than 30 people standing in the bar. They were all young people, holding the things of the Rosy Night Club in their hands and constantly smashing them to the ground. The tables and chairs in the bar were all smashed. The wine cabinet, speakers, as well as the chandelier, were all smashed.

Channing and a group of members of the Green Leaf stood aside. There were more than 50 people, and each of them had obvious bruises on their faces.

"What's going on?" Henry walked into the door and shouted.

Henry's shout was like a clap of thunder. The people who were still fighting in the bar could not help but stop and looked at him.

Channing and the others, who were standing in the corner, breathed a sigh of relief at the sight of Henry as if they had seen their saviour.

"My brother-in-law, you're finally here." Channing ran over with snot and tears in his eyes.

Henry looked at them and asked, "Did they you beat like this?"

More than 50 people fought with more than 30 people. It could be said that Channing's side had a number advantage, almost double. As a result, Channing's team was injured. On the contrary, the thirty opponents didn't even have one scratch.

Channing and one of the members of the Green Leaf nodded in embarrassment and felt ashamed.

Henry looked at the 30 or so people and frowned even more. Henry had seen several of them today in Li's Village, all of whom were villagers of the Li's Village.

Henry said to them, "I'm afraid it's not appropriate for you to smash our things like this?"

"Da*n you, you are bullying us because we are honest people. This bar is illegal and you stole our money. Of course, we have to smash these things!" One of the villagers said.

Chapter 477

"What do you mean by 'stealing your money'?" Channing couldn't help but say, "You came to drink here and say that we're stealing your money?"

Li's village villagers smiled and said, "You sell a bottle of beer for 15 yuan, but in our village only costs three yuan. That means that you want to steal our money!"

"The items in our bar are clearly priced. You ordered the beer from the menu, but in the end, you said we stole your money?" Channing was very angry. It was the first time he had seen such a person.

The villager shrugged. "I didn't go to school, and I don't know how to read. You just wanted to steal my money, so I hit you."

Even a fool could tell that these people from Li's Village were obviously looking for trouble.

Henry frowned. "If you think it's illegal, you can complain to relevant departments. If you smash our things, it's against the law."

"What law? There is no law in our village. We are going back to the village." The leading villager waved his hand and wanted to leave with more than 30 people.

"No one is allowed to leave!" Henry stepped in front of the door and blocked the way of the people of Li's Village.

Henry took out his mobile phone and called the police station.

"The villagers of Li's Village are smashing things on the drinking street. Is there anyone who can handle it?" Henry said directly to the phone.

"Hello, we will send someone now." A voice came from the phone and then hung up directly.

The police station was only 20 minutes walk from this street, and it only took less than 5 minutes to drive. What's more, Henry just saw that there was a patrol car not far away.

After Henry called the police, he turned his head and took a look. The patrol car, which was originally driving around the wine street, suddenly turned around and disappeared.

Henry called the police again, but no one answered. It seemed that Director Wei had already informed everyone that they should not interfere in the affairs of Li's Village.

"As I said, our village has no law. Get out of the way!" The leading villager from Li's Village grabbed Henry's shoulder.

Henry shook his shoulder and shook off his opponent's hand.

Henry's action made the leading villager's eyes freeze. "A martial arts practitioner?"

Henry grinned. "Since there's no law in your village, I'll teach you what is the rule outside the law!"

After Henry finished speaking, he raised his hand and shouted, "Disable them all!"

As soon as Henry finished his words, five figures immediately appeared behind him and rushed into the Rosy Night Club at an extremely fast speed.

Before the leading villager could even see what the comer looked like, he was punched in the face and knocked over on the spot.

More than 30 villagers of Li's Village were suddenly shocked, but they did not panic. They casually picked up their things and began to fight with others.

Every Reaper was an elite, and every one of them had been through the most vicious training. Even if there were several special soldiers who had undergone outstanding training could not get close to one Reaper.

But now, the five Reapers who appeared in the bar were evenly matched with the people of Li's Village. Although the Reapers still had some advantages, they couldn't destroy the people of Li's Village with overwhelming force.

Henry stood aside and didn't make a move. He looked at the movements of these people from Li's Village. The other side used some punching skills that he had never seen before. And everyone obviously had been through the systematic training and they were very familiar with the ways of punching and exerting strength.

However, no matter how strong they were, they were still no match for the Reapers.

"Ah! My hand! My hand!" A scream rang out. It was a villager who got his hand cut off by a Reaper.

"Help me! Cousin, help me!"

As the first scream rang out, the other screams rang out one after another.

After more than two minutes of fighting, more than 30 villagers of Li's village were defeated. The Reapers would not show mercy. Since Henry said that he wanted them disabled, then they would break all the hands and legs of these people.

More than 30 villagers from the Li's village were lying on the ground, covered in blood. Their eyes were filled with hatred. Everyone's eyes were staring at Henry Zhang.

Henry had seen this kind of gaze too many times. He waved his hand, and the five Reapers left. Henry said to Channing, "Go and call the police. Tell them that all your things have been smashed. If the police don't care about it, post it on the internet and find a lot of bots to repost it. As for these people, let them be."

After Henry finished speaking, he turned around and walked out of the bar.

Originally, Henry wanted to wait for two days to see the movement of Li's village. But now, the people of Li's village had been bullying them. If he could bear it, he would not have become the King of Hell who made the whole underground world tremble.

Henry walked out of the bar, but there was no one around him. He said as if he was talking to himself, "Tell all the people who can to come to Lins Group. Don't show mercy, don't kill people, but don't let anyone escape unscathed!"

After that, Henry took out his phone and called Cathy. "Ask the drivers of the company to drive all the cars back to the company and create an illusion that everyone is going to work. Tell them not to show up if anything happens. Just hide in the company. That's it!"

Henry didn't give Cathy a chance to question him, so he hung up the phone.

If someone who was familiar with Henry saw Henry's state at that moment, he would understand that he was angry. Every time he was angry, he would let people see his fierce side, and his enemy should pay a heavy price.

In the commercial area of the Yinzhou's CBD.

It was a sunny afternoon. The sun was not too strong and the air was very gentle. But sensitive people would find that there was something wrong with everything. The entrance of Lins Group that had been originally locked was suddenly opened, and cars that belonged to Lins Group slowly drove to the entrance of the company. People got out of the car and walked into the building.

Just around Lins building, a man, who was sitting there eating sunflower seeds, quickly took out the phone when he saw the door of the Lins Group opened. "Brother, tell father that the company is open."

Such a scene happened in many corners around Lins Group.

Ten minutes after the door of the Lins Group was opened, nearly a hundred people, with shovels and sticks in their hands, appeared in front of the door of the Lins Group and kept making abuse.

"Fu*k, Family Lin, your death will be painful!"

"Lins b*stards!"

"Come out and accept your death!"

"B*tch!"

Henry sat in a small restaurant opposite the Lins Group. In front of him, there was a bowl of exquisite fried rice.

Henry took a spoon, leisurely picked up a mouthful of rice, and slowly put it into his mouth.

At the moment when Henry was about to put the rice into his mouth, dozens of figures wearing black clothes and ghosts masks appeared behind the hundreds of Li's village villagers who gathered around the entrance of the building.

At the same time, more than a dozen helicopters flew over Lins Group, with a small bag tied to them. When they flew over to Li's village, all the bags exploded at the same time and sprayed white powder.

"Kill!"

A deep voice sounded in the air.

Chapter 478

In the sky, tons of powder sprinkled down, and those Li's villagers gathered in front of the entrance of Lin's building didn't understand what had happened, but they felt that everything in front of them was white, and they couldn't see anything.

Streaks of cold light flashed, and screams came out of the white powder one after another.

After more than a dozen drones, another stream of drones flew from afar, carrying the bag filled with powder, and exploded in the sky above the Lins Group.

The white powder, like a rainstorm, kept pouring down and only covered a small part of the area.

In Lin's company, the employees who just drove here heard the screams in front of the company's door, and they didn't even dare to show their faces.

Cathy was also in the company. When she recalled Henry's order to her, and she heard the voices coming from outside, her heart trembled. She felt that this was the first time she had met the real Mr. Zhang.

Countless powder and the screaming in front of the entrance attracted the attention of many people around. However, when they looked over, they couldn't see anything. The white powder completely blocked their sight.

The powder lasted for three minutes. After three minutes, everything was settled.

Nearly a hundred villagers from Li's village was lying on the ground, screaming and whimpering. Some of them were even unconscious.

The red blood and powder mixed together to form a bright red sticky substance. Some timid people would get goosebumps at first sight of it.

In just a few minutes, the police arrived.

"Hurry up! Call the ambualnce, help them!"

"What happened? Who saw it?" A policeman said, collecting evidence from the crowd.

The onlookers shook their heads. Just now, they couldn't see anything.

At this moment, Henry also finished eating the things in front of him, slowly walked out of the small restaurant and walked to the front of the entrance of the Lins Group.

"We need your cooperation to get the surveillance video!" A police officer came to the entrance of the Lins Group and said to the security guard of the Lins Group.

"I'm sorry, officer. Our surveillance was broken by these people a few days ago. We haven't repaired it. We don't have any surveillance." Henry, who came over from time to time, said.

Looking at the nearly 100 wounded people on the ground, the police officers didn't know how to deal with them, so they quickly called Director Wei.

When Director Wei heard this, he directly gave an order. "Take all the injured to the hospital. Do not do any more investigation!"

Director Wei had been sitting in this position for a long time, so he understood many things. Everything was already clear to him. He knew that these things could not be handled by him, so he had to report.

On the night of the incident, in front of the entrance of the Yinzhou City Hospital.

The village chieftain of the Li's Village stood there with a peach wood cane.

The young woman who had scolded Henry and Jenny was standing beside the village chieftain.

"Patriarch, it must be the two of them who did this today. Brother Tiger said that when they were in the bar, it was the man who found them and broke their legs. We can't bear this! When did the Longxi Li family suffer such grievance?" The young woman was full of resentment and clenched her fists.

The chieftain shook his head. "Let it go first. Soon, all the branches will go back to the family. I will report this matter, and naturally, someone will come to deal with it. During this period of time, we have been showing up too much."

"But!" The young woman still wanted to say something, but the chieftain Li waved his hand to stop her.

"Well, that's it. We can't let go of Lins easily. If she dares to beat our Li family, they won't have a good end!"

After nearly a hundred people in from Li's Village were injured, the peace was finally restored at the entrance of Lins Group. Henry paid special attention, and the people who were secretly looking at the building did not appear again.

About the incident in the Rosy Night Club was smashed, Channing called the police and asked someone to post the video to the Internet. However, the video on the Internet disappeared in less than ten minutes, and the account from which the video was released was also blocked.

As for the incident of Lins Group, no media dared to report it. All of them were suppressed.

During this period, Henry asked Channing to send someone to find out where the private foreman was. He personally stayed in Lins Group for a few days. When he found that the people from Li's Village had completely disappeared, he was relieved.

During this period, Henry especially went to the land that the Lins family bought and looked at the so-called Li's ancestral temple but found nothing useful. There was an old site of the ancestral temple under the ground, but unfortunately, it had been a long time, and there was nothing valuable to explore.

In this way, after three days, the people of Li's Village did not appear in the Lins Group again, and the whole Lins Group had returned to its normal working order.

Henry lived in Helen's house, dealing with some affairs of the company during the day.

When he was having lunch at noon, Henry received a phone call from Wade.

"Boss, you asked me to investigate the whereabouts of my sister-in-law. I have found out, and there are some things that I have to show you." When Wade spoke, he had a careful feeling.

"Send it to my mobile phone."

As soon as Henry hung up the phone, he received a few pictures sent by Wade on his mobile phone. The person in the photo was Sylvia.

Henry glanced over and found that in all the pictures, Sylvia was together with a strange man. He didn't know what she was talking about, but the angle of the pictures was taken secretly.

At the same time, another voice message came from Wade.

"Boss, sister-in-law has been in Capital City recently. I'll send you information about her address first."

Henry looked at the message from Wade and kept silent. He didn't think that Sylvia didn't contact him because of this man in the photo. Also, she had changed the door lock. There must be something that he didn't know.

Anyway, now the crisis of the Lins Group was over. Henry directly asked Wade to book him a ticket to Capital City. Tonight, he would go there and ask Sylvia face to face what happened between them.

It would take two hours to travel from Yinzhou to the capital.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, Henry appeared at Capital Airport. Henry had long been accustomed to flying back and forth in China. In the past, his life enabled him to adapt to the climate of any place in the world in a very short time.

Capital City, the centre of China, was the gathering place of powerful and influential people.

Some people said that in Capital City if you see a Lamborghini, you can still provoke it. But when you see a BMW or Audi, you must not, because you don't know which high-ranking official is sitting inside. It was very likely to be some not good-looking who was the head of some province.

In this place, the boss of a company with a market value of ten billion yuan did not dare to speak loudly.
