

Chapter 1159

Prabhat Dongfang, who was floating in the air, roared, "Deadwood!"

This roar caused another flash of lightning to light up the night sky.

Elyot looked to the skies and said, "It seems that Old Fellow Dongfang's Qi-cultivation is the most powerful among us, seeing that he is now capable of commandeering the natural phenomenons of heaven and earth."

Prabhat Dongfang looked at Deadwood from above. "34 years ago, in order to practice evil your evil ways, you slaughtered a village of 67 families, butchering a total of 283 people. You killed even the chickens and dogs. The sins you've committed shall not be forgiven even if you were to be tortured for the rest of your life!"

"Haha." Deadwood cackled. It sounded incredibly unpleasant. "My old friends, you all are still using this so-called morality to denounce me. We Qi-cultivators resist the heavens, and battle ourselves. All that falls below the Qi-controlling realm are nonentities. What's wrong with crushing some insects in exchange for power-ups? Few natural treasures exist in this world, but there is an abundance of humans, so much so I can't kill them all, and neither can I use them all up."

"Rubbish!" Prabhat Dongfang roared once more.

"I actually agree with your point." the giant ape said.

"What a thing to say. An abundance of humans, so much so that you can't kill them all or use them all up." Henry, who had been sitting cross-legged on the deck, suddenly opened his eyes. He slowly got up, walked to the bow of the ship, and looked at the ship opposite his. "Hey cheetah, have all your men arrived?"

As soon as Henry said those words, the foxy woman that had been standing next to the giant ape disappeared in an instant.

Strong winds suddenly blew violently across the surface of the sea. The dark clouds surged across the skies, blocking out the moonlight with another layer of clouds, causing the world to turn duski-er.

A figure pale as death dived into the water, creating a monstrous wave to surge towards Henry's ship.

In the air, Prabhat Dongfang unsheathed his sword. Another crash of thunder erupted.

A shadowy figure appeared behind the giant ape and a cold light gleamed as it slashed at the back of his neck. From this moment on, the battle began!

There were no one else on the high seas. All the great fighters were free to exchange blows however they liked with no restrictions whatsoever.

Prabhat Dongfang's sword commanded thunder and lightning, that was the nature of his Qi.

The giant ape roared ferociously. Its towering physique had grown by another 30 centimeters, making it look like a giant in the sea. The cold gleam that had slashed at the back of his neck had not even managed to cut through his skin.

The one who let out that cold gleam hid in the darkness. This was an expert who was proficient in the Shadow Slaughter technique and was not one to fight recklessly. Although he did not make another move, his existence was enough to serve as a deterrence.

The patriarchs of the Qin and Xue Family leapt into the air in unison. At that exact moment, Old Deadwood waved the walking cane in his hand, shooting a ray of light that was then dodged by the Patriarch of the Qin Family. As the ray of light hit the water, several fish surfaced with their bellies upturned. Having merged with the Poison Toad's genes, each move of Old Deadwood was combined with a deadly poison.

The cheetah man and others at the late stage of the Qi-concentrating Realm did not dare to be careless in the face of such a battle. They transformed into their most powerful forms, in order to unleash their powers at full capacity.

"Hahaha, we from the Alvin League have finally gotten the opportunity to fight against all these elite experts. What an honour this is for us of the Alvin League!" A loud laughter sounded, and a shark's fin emerged on the surface of the sea. A man seemed to be standing on the surface of the sea. His legs were still and unmoving, yet he was headed at their direction with extreme speed.

"Shark!" Cleve yelled. His red robe fluttered violently as he charged towards the incoming threat.

This was a great battle!

It was the greatest battle in the world since the era of saddharma-vipralopa. Although the number of people involved was not great, every one of them were of the few elite experts in the world! 2

In such a fierce battle, Henry was like a tiny raft. He was the weakest among them all, but he was also the most excited.

Looking at the cheetah man that charged towards him, Henry licked his lips and a long purple blade was condensed in his hand.

The World Destruction Technique – the enemy shall come, and the enemy shall die. The heart would take the owner to wherever he desired!

The World Destruction Technique was most quickly cultivated through battle!

Aiming precisely at the cheetah man that came charging, Henry stabbed swiftly at its face with his blade. His attack was fast and accurate, and was directed straight for the kill.

A look of astonishment appeared in the eyes of the cheetah man. He could clearly tell that this man was now much powerful than before! His capabilities had actually increased again in such a short period of time. Just how terrifying was the combat talent he possessed?!

As he thought of this, the cheetah man made up his mind that since they had already had a falling out with each other, this man must not be allowed to live. If he was left to continue developing himself, it was very likely that a second Justus would emerge in this world!

Justus Lu, also known as the well-known Lu fairy!

What did the title "Lu fairy" resemble? Absolute dominion! Hearing his name alone would cause many great lords to tremble in fear!

It was no exaggeration to say that the great battle that took place on the sea was a battle of the gods.

Everyone was walking on air. Prabhat Dongfang's sword fell and cut the ship the giant ape stood on in two.

The ship that was worth millions, split open from the middle and sank into the sea.

None of them cared to notice the ship. Money bore no meaning to them.

The dark clouds concealed every inch of the moon, as if God did not want anyone to notice anything that was happening there.

The sea raged on, countless fishes were upturned, revealing their white bellies on the surface of the sea.

A violent explosion sounded. Henry's ship had completely exploded. The light from the explosion shot into the night sky, lighting it up.

The moment the curtains of this battle were raised, none of them held back in their attacks.

As the weakest link, Henry naturally received a lot of "care" from the Alvin League. While Old Deadwood dealt with the patriarchs of the Xue and Qin family, he did not forget to direct a few surprise attacks at Henry.

Although it was just a casual blow from Old Deadwood, it was difficult for Henry to deflect even a casual blow from an expert who was at the level of the Divine Realm, in addition to the fierce attacking of the cheetah man, as well as the surprise attacks of the chameleon man from time to time, Henry was already covered in numerous bloody wounds.

"I'll go slay those two rats first!" the patriarch of Xue Family roared.

"No!" The Patriarch of Qin Family extended his hand to stop him. "Let Henry do this on his own. This battle was avoidable for him, yet he still chose to fight. This shows that he doesn't wish to run from it any longer."

"But in his current state, those men, he can't possibly defeat them at all. Lu fairy didn't teach him anything about Qi, he has only been practicing the ways of Qi for a short while now. Don't forget that back then when we met him, he even..."

The patriarch of Xue Family was sharply interrupted by the patriarch of Qin Family.

"You just said that was back then. It is true that Lu fairy did not guide him much in training his capabilities, yet he has still grown to become what he is today. If Lu fairy would accept him as his disciple, then his talent and potential isn't something you and I can speculate on. As for the enemy, and you and I, all of us too fought our way out of seas of blood. That is the path one must take to evolve into a champion. I can clearly see Henry's determination in this battle today."

The patriarch of Xue Family was surprised. "What determination?"

The patriarch of the Qin Family looked at Henry, who was bloodied from head to toe, yet had an excited expression all over his face. "He is fighting in this battle to reach the stage of The. Divine. Realm!"

Chapter 1160

"The Divine Realm!"

These three words had stopped countless in their paths of Qi-refining!

Saying it was easy, but there were hundreds of thousands of Qi Practitioners, yet how many of them could actually reach the level of the Divine Realm?

The word "Divine" of the "Divine Realm", signified how difficult it was to attain it.

Back then, Prabhat Dongfang and the others were at the late stage of Qi-concentrating Realm, just a level away from the Divine Realm. They had announced that they were going to enter the process of closed-door meditation, and announced their deaths to the rest of the world, then had their families hold their funeral. They entered a closed-door meditation to the death. If they did not break through and attain the level of the Divine Realm, they would meet their death in the process of their meditation. Countless chosen men had chosen this path back then, but in the end, only a few of them returned from their closed-door meditations.

Most of those who had attained the level of the Divine Realm, did it through experiencing the natural energies of heaven and earth while in their closed-door meditation.

However, Henry was attempting to fight his way into the Divine Realm! He was forcefully stepping into the Divine Realm through challenging his limits between life and death!

Dark clouds rolled on in the night sky.

The sea water below it raged on. The great battle that ensued was extremely terrifying.

The pale-skinned octopus sneaked behind Henry from underneath the sea. It struck at Henry with the intention to kill the moment it surfaced.

Being kept busy by the cheetah's vicious attacks, the chameleon's surprise attacks, and Old Deadwood's poisonous fog, Henry was completely helpless to the sudden attack from Water Snake.

At the critical moment, a thunderbolt struck from the sky and hit Water Snake who suddenly popped out from behind Henry.

A thin sword fell next to Henry's feet.

"You are free to fight to your heart's content. Don't worry about the rest!" Prabhat Dongfang's voice boomed. He could also see the determination of Henry.

Henry nodded. He did not need to worry too much from then on. All he needed to do was to focus on his fight!

Two long purple blades were condensed in unison, and Henry held the blades in both of his hands.

The light emanated by the purple blades was particularly enchanting in the dark.

The cheetah man stared at the two blades in Henry's hands with a solemn expression. He had just been scratched by the long sword and experienced its sharpness.

At the other side of the battle, the crazed shark who had just arrived was engaged in a battle with Cleve.

As the head of the three cardinals of the Recluse Association, Cleve's capabilities could be regarded as terrifying. As for the crazed shark, he was no easy opponent either. The two of them fought from beneath the sea, then in the sky, and back again beneath the sea. The sea raged on, forming massive waves. A zone formed where both of them fought. No one dared to interfere with it.

The giant ape's physique had reached nearly three meters long. He suddenly rose and rushed at Prabhat Dongfang who was in the sky.

The giant ape did not wield any weapons, but his fist was the size as a cauldron, which was enough to prove that he did not need a weapon.

Everyone was busy with their opponents. Ever since the snake lady disappeared from beside the giant ape, she never showed herself again. The silhouette that had attacked the giant ape before was also well hidden. Neither of them appeared, both looking for the best opportunity to hit their enemy with a fatal blow.

"Ha-ha-ha!" A burst of laughter that sounded like the chimes of silver bells rang. "I found you."

A glint of green light suddenly flashed, and the Snake lady appeared suddenly and launched a blow into the air in front of her.

A silhouette suddenly appeared with a flash of cold light, deflecting the Snake Lady's attack and disappeared once again.

"I've already caught your scent." The Snake lady covered her mouth as she laughed, disappearing into the darkness as well.

This was a battle of assassins. Their battle styles were strange, silent, and less intense. However, each time they struck, death might be served.

The cheetah man who was engaged in battle with Henry, was now wounded all over, his expression more and more anxious by the minute.

"Let's make quick work of this kid. He's using us as practice."

The chameleon man appeared behind Henry once more. He was also a user of the art of assassination. However, just as he appeared, the glow of the purple blade came at him before he could do anything.

Silas and the others had praised Henry's fighting instincts highly. Henry might not have been able to adapt to battling with experts such as the cheetah and chameleon men at first, but now, he had completely grasped the attack rhythm of them both. Moreover, Henry, who was covered in injuries, had gradually gotten hold of some initiative. Although his injuries were still increasing in numbers, he was not simply being suppressed. Instead, in the face of cheetah and chameleon men, he kept taking the initiative to attack.

Henry's immense combat potential was revealed at this moment. A few days ago, Henry had fought with an expert of the late stage of the Qi-concentrating Realm, resulting in both of them sustaining heavy injuries. In the end, he killed the expert with the use of tricks.

Today, in the face of the men at the late stage of the Qi-concentrating Realm that had their genes animalised by the Alvin League, Henry was already capable of getting hold of the initiative in battle. The lotus flower above his head rotated slowly, curtains of pure energy formed by the lotus flower were suspended from it, protecting Henry's entire body.

Henry felt that he was fighting more and more smoothly with every passing second. The cheetah that used to be as fast as a blur in his eyes, could now be seen moving in normal speed. As for the chameleon man hidden by the side, Henry could even feel the flow of air caused by his actions. All these feelings made Henry feel particularly comfortable, it felt as if he had full control of the battle.

Henry did not notice that the colourless lotus over his head now contained a purple glow. The lotus rotated with increasing speed, and the curtain of energy increased in layers and also carried a purple glow. 5

With the addition of the purple glow to the curtain of energy, it became much more resilient. The cheetah man was shocked to find that his attacks could no longer cause any damage to Henry!

The giant ape, who was battling Prabhat Dongfang, seemed to sense something and suddenly looked to the direction of Henry.

At the same moment, Old Deadwood, who was fighting against the Patriarchs of the Qin and Xue Family, also turned his gaze at Henry.

In the distance, the crazed shark and Cleve paused almost at the same time and looked at the direction of Henry with seriousness in their eyes.

Being the focus of everyone's attention, Henry did not feel any changes to his body. He only felt very comfortable at that moment. Every movement of his was as smooth as the clouds that floated and the water that flowed. He could now perform different means of attacks that he could only imagine of doing. The two purple blades in his hands condensed even more, and the speed of his movements increased greatly, so much so that the cheetah man could not even keep up with his movements!

"This is..." staring at the lotus above Henry's head, Old Deadwood's eyes were filled with shock and disbelief. He muttered to himself, "The Sacred Lotus! Legend, the legend is actually true!"

"Lu fairy succeeded!" Prabhat Dongfang gulped. "Dozens of years ago, I heard that Lu fairy used his own strength to forcefully separate the Qi from soldiers in order to balance out the Yin and Yang of the world. His true motive was to cultivate a divine lotus!"

Even the giant ape, who was fighting Prabhat Dongfang, stopped fighting temporarily at that moment to continue after Prabhat Dongfang's words. "Nobody knows what the so-called Sacred Lotus really is, nor does anyone know whether or not it truly exists, but if it truly exists, I'm afraid that would be it."

"Sacred Lotus..." the Patriarch of the Qin Family looked at Henry, and his body trembled with excitement. "The product of balancing out the Yin and Yang of the world. What on earth is the Sacred Lotus?" 5
