

Chapter 509

"No one knew where The Conqueror came from. He was like a meteor, appearing and shining, but he was more eternal than a meteor. Some people have counted that The Conqueror has gone through 2,329 battles. During these battles, The Conqueror almost got killed, but he never surrendered. It's not too much to say that he climbed out of the bones."

"It is said that when The Conqueror was fifteen years old, he held a dagger and killed all 37 members of Sir Jude's family. It was only because Sir Jude spat in a beggar's bowl on the road."

"The Conqueror was arrested and imprisoned for three months. At that time, he escaped from the so-called darkest prison in the world. The prison was located on an isolated island. It was heavily guarded, and no one could come to prison. No one knew how he did it."

"When The Conqueror was seventeen, he appeared in the underground world with a ghost mask. He said that he would punish all the people who bully the weak, and because of him, the Reapers were established."

"It only took him a year to punish tens of thousands of people. At that time, countless organizations offered high rewards for his head. But in the end, just those organizations were destroyed."

"When he was nineteen years old, he started a war and was powerful enough to overturn the underground world. People in the underground world called that war 'Revolution!'"

"The Revolution started. It lasted for seven years. In these seven years, countless people and forces in the underground world died. But The Conqueror, who stood at the forefront of the storm, became more and more powerful. He proved to the world that he had the strength comparable to that of God!"

"Until the establishment of Radiant Island, under the worship of tens of thousands of sects, The Conqueror grew from a nobody to a level that made the whole underground world tremble. In this world, only The King Region who ruled the underground world for thousands of years could compete with him."

"A few months ago, The Conqueror went to The King Region in Europe and fought against their leader. No one knew the result of that battle. There were rumors that The Conqueror was seriously injured, and he was disabled. Some thought that The Conqueror had died, and his legend had ended."

"However, today, The Conqueror showed up and told everyone that he was still a legend. He didn't die. This underground world is still... the world of The Conqueror!"

All kinds of voices came from behind Sylvia. From the beginning, the voices were low, but now they became louder and louder.

Sylvia listened. This was the first time that she had heard about Henry and his deeds so clearly. This was the first time that she knew how great her man was.

It was a man in a black-and-white robe and his collar stood straight. He slowly raised his head, and his eyes were like scorching meteors, which made people dare not to look directly at him. He stood there and did not move, but he made people feel a mountain-like pressure. He was the king of the underground world, and he was the ruler of the underground world! He was the so-called strongest man in the world!

Under the starry sky, the most powerful man was The Conqueror!

At this time, those armored Reapers standing behind Alex all knelt down on one knee in unison and said in a deep and thick voice.

"Greetings, my King!"

At the same time, the nine kings of Radiant Island faced Henry and knelt on one knee.

"Greetings, my King!"

On the spectators stand, someone got up first, and then knelt down on one knee, facing the platform in the middle.

The king of the underground world didn't just rely on his strength alone. In that revolution, he rescued too many people from the hard time. They adored The Conqueror from the bottom of their hearts and treated him with respect!

"Greetings, my King!"

"Greetings, my King!"

The sounds came from the stands one after another. The king of the underground world had been so powerful like God for a long time.

When Megan, who was sitting in the first row, saw the person on the stage, she was stunned. Her eyes were full of disbelief, and she kept muttering, "Impossible! Impossible! Impossible! No! No! It's not true, it's not true!"

"Megan, what's wrong?" Mary looked at Megan with dissatisfaction. She thought that Megan's performance was too exaggerated. Although The Conqueror was very famous, he shouldn't have made her lose her composure like this. It was so embarrassing.

"You don't understand." Megan murmured and kept shaking her head at Mary. Megan's muttering grew louder and louder, and even screamed out, "You don't understand! The person on the stage... the person on the stage, he is..."

"Greetings, my Queen!" Wilbur's voice sounded from the side. He slowly got up from his seat, walked to Sylvia, and said, "Miss Lin, it's the first time for this island to welcome its Queen. Please come to the stage."

Wilbur's words attracted the eyes of the big families sitting around him.

King's wife! This girl was King's wife!

No wonder, no wonder she could sit here. No wonder, one of the 10 Kings, Alex, would come to bring her tea in person!

The pupils of Steve and Mary contracted violently at this moment.

King's wife? Sylvia was King's wife! She was King's wife! What was going on? What the h*ll was going on?

Steve suddenly understood that the reason why he could stay in the castle last night was not that his uncle was very powerful, but because of Sylvia. It was all because of her!

Mary's contemptuous look disappeared at this moment. In her eyes, there was only horror and disbelief! This person turned out to be The Conqueror's wife!

Sitting in the back row, the man and two women of the Xiong family were trembling all over at this time. How could they not miss this scene? The person they bullied last night was actually the hostess of this island.

Compared with The Conqueror, what was the Xiong family? They were nothing!

The man of the Xiong family, who used to be fierce, trembled and wet his pants at this moment. If they really looked into this matter, he definitely would not be able to leave this island!

Sylvia only felt that her feelings were very complicated.

The reason why she left Henry was that she was afraid that she would get Henry involved in her own troubles. But now she knew that these were just her thoughts. She had always looked down on him and had never realized his strength!

Sylvia looked at Henry, and Henry also looked at Sylvia at the same time. He smiled at Sylvia. Then, he turned his eyes to King Olle and others and began to speak.

"For my friends, I welcome you to Radiant Island.

But for my enemies, what I want to say is..."

At this moment, the lights in the whole venue were turned off. It was so dark that people could not see anything.

Henry's voice came out from the darkness.

"Welcome to hel!"

Chapter 510

In the darkness, Henry's voice made people shiver.

The darkness lasted only ten seconds.

Ten seconds later, the lights were turned on again.

Henry still stood where he used to be, as if he had never moved. And those who had just challenged him all lay down on the stage. Blood flowed from their necks to the edge of the stage, slowly dripping and hitting the ground, making a ticking sound.

At this moment, the heads of King Olle and the others were neatly placed on the side. Each of them had eyes wide opened. From their expressions, it seemed that they had seen something incredible before they died.

Among these people, one ranked 2nd on the World List, and the other ranked 7th. However, in just ten seconds, all of them were beheaded. There was nobody like them in the world.

This simple thing made everyone present understand that The Conqueror was not as weak as the rumour said. He was still the legend! He was still the strongest man in the world.

Henry raised his hands high and said, "Get up, all of you."

When Henry finished his words, those kneeling on the spectators stand slowly got up.

Wade and others also slowly stood up and walked to their thrones.

The Reapers behind Alex raised their heads again.

In the middle of this platform, there was a throne. On the edges of the throne were a huge monster's claw and an angel, who was pressed on the ground by the huge claw and his feathers were pulled out.

On the top of the throne, there was a dark gold gem. Even in this pitch-black environment, the gem still radiated demon-like light.

This seat belonged to the owner of the Holy Ring of Radiant Island, The Conqueror.

Henry did not walk to the throne. He glanced at the woman in a white dress under the stage and slowly walked over.

Sylvia stood in the same place and quietly watched Henry getting closer and closer to her. Her eyes were getting redder and redder, and her eyes were full of tears.

No one made a sound at the scene. Everyone watched this scene quietly. They knew that this was for Radiant Island to welcome its Queen.

Henry came to Sylvia and looked at her beautiful face. He smiled and said, "Honey, welcome home."

At this moment, Sylvia couldn't help but burst into tears. At this moment, she let go of all her worries and burden. She opened her arms and threw herself into Henry's arms.

She repeatedly refused this man, gave him a cold shoulder and made him feel embarrassed, but he always treated her nicely. "Welcome home" were the most romantic words a man could say to a woman!

"Greetings, King's Wife!"

The Reapers behind Alex once again knelt down on one knee and made a sound in unison.

"Greetings, King's Wife!"

The people on the stand once again knelt on one knee.

Hearing the words "King's wife", Sylvia's face turned a little red.

"Henry, I... I can't accept it..."

Although Sylvia was called the business queen of Yinzhou, it was just a title. She had never experienced such an imperial treatment before.

Henry put his mouth close to Sylvia's ear. He gently blew a breath and whispered, "Let me tell you a secret. I can't accept it either, but if you don't accept, they will think that you have some opinions about them. So, just endure it. In fact, I prefer to do the cleaning at home."

The hot air caused by Henry's words had been tickling Sylvia's earlobe. Feeling the strangeness in her ear, Sylvia blushed even more. She quickly pushed Henry away and said, "Okay. If you like cleaning, I'll let you clean every day in the future."

"No problem!" Henry made a gesture of OK, and then took Sylvia's hand and walked to the throne.

"Well, everybody, as usual, if you have anything to say, just say it." Peze looked at Henry with a regretful face. For a long time, he had regarded Cesia and Henry as a couple, but in the end, it was just his infatuation.

As soon as he finished speaking, one person on the stand stood up and said.

Henry was not in the mood to listen to what they were talking about. Every time in the underground world meeting, it was like a arbitration meeting. Some forces said that their people were threatened by someone, and the other party was not willing to compensate. Henry handed over to Peze to deal with this kind of thing.

To put it bluntly, the underground world meeting was the gathering of all the forces in the underground world to decided who would make the decision during next year!

"Honey, you look beautiful in this dress." Henry sat on his throne, and there was a seat next to his throne, which belonged to Sylvia.

Sylvia rolled her eyes and said, "There are so many people. What are you talking about?"

Henry smiled and said, "So what if there are too many people? Can't I just express my love to my wife? No one is talking about me."

"No one dares to talk about you!" Sylvia curled her lip. "You are The Conqueror. Who dares to talk about you?"

"What's wrong with me being The Conqueror? You're still the wife of The Conqueror. Haven't you heard that the men conquer the world and women conquer men?" Henry said with a sigh.

Sylvia blushed slightly, then seemed to think of something and her face changed. "Tell me honestly, you are an underground king. Why did you come to our Family Lin to be son-in-law? Also, you have been hiding it from me for a long time. Do you think it's funny? Did you want to surprise me with your identity?"

Sylvia fired the questions as quick as a cannonball.

Henry gave a wry smile. "Honey, it's not what you think. There was a reason why I didn't tell you at the beginning. But when I wanted to tell you later, you didn't listen to me."

Sylvia snorted. Indeed, once, when Henry wanted to tell her his identity, she didn't let him to tell her.

Sylvia was really angry with Henry at that moment. She just felt that what she had done during this period of time was too stupid. If Henry knew it, he would laugh at her.

"Well, my dear wife, why are you angry with me?" Henry asked the question. He had been confused for a long time. "I don't think I've done anything bad to you recently, have I?"

Hearing Henry's question, Sylvia's eyes showed an unnatural look. She just wanted to keep him from knowing, but he asked now!

"Honey?" Seeing that Sylvia did not speak, he reached out his hand and waved it in front of her.

Sylvia turned her head directly and ignored Henry.

"Honey, what's wrong?" Henry reached out his hands and was about to put his arms around Sylvia's shoulders when something strange happened.

A violent explosion came from the top of the venue.

Chapter 511

The loud noise came from above with a strong airflow. Countless gravel fell down with smoke and dust.

"Explosion!" Someone shouted and looked up.

There was a huge opening on the top of the venue, which was built from a strong rock. A ray of sunshine suddenly sprinkled the original dark venue.

"Who is it?" Future shouted, and meanwhile, she flew into the sky, two barrels stretching out from behind her.

At this moment, the word "attack" appeared in everyone's mind.

Who had the guts to attack Radiant Island?! The people present, even the strongest forces of some countries, didn't even dare to think about it, let alone to do it.

"Boom!"

There was another explosion. The huge stone fell from above and aimed straight to Sylvia, who was sitting next to the Holy throne.

At this critical moment, Henry took Sylvia into his arms and jumped.

Sylvia only felt that she was surrounded by a warm feeling. She lay in Henry's arms and looked up, and was able to see man's facial features. Henry looked ahead, and his eyes were like a vast sea of stars.

It was the first time that Sylvia was so close to Henry. She carefully observed him. In his arms, Sylvia had an unspeakable sense of security. If all the problems in the past no longer existed, then she could be able to accompany him without pretending to be strong and deliberately showing a cold face. She could act like most women, she could do whatever she wanted to do, spoiled by her loved one, and tell him that she wanted to cuddle him all the time.

"People from Radiant Island, get ready to fight!" The voice of Future rose from the sky, and flames spewed from her feet. Behind her, two cannon barrels burst out flames and shot out from the hole on the top of the venue.

Everyone felt a sense of unreality. This was a real attack on the island. Who on earth dared to do such a thing? Not to mention the power of the 10 Kings of Radiant Island and The Conqueror, just the warships around the island, the radars that could detect the attack for far away, the thick wall that was not easy to break through were enough to keep people away.

After Future shouting, the entrance of the venue was suddenly opened. Those Reapers rushed out of the venue and shouted.

Sylvia looked up and saw countless flames coming toward Future, which made her clench her fists nervously.

"Don't worry." Henry's voice sounded in Sylvia's ear. "As long as this island is still there, no one can threaten Future, not even me!"

As if to prove Henry's words, when those flames flew to the front of Future, she moved a few times flexibly in the air, and then made a strong counterattack. The explosion happened behind Future, stirring up a wave of air, but Future did not look at it at all.

Sylvia widened her beautiful eyes. Future, although she was only 18 or 19 years old, was calmer than a veteran.

"Red Hair, give me a ride!" With a machete in his hand, Alex shouted.

"Come!" Red Hair held Alex's collar with one hand, and countless bats poured out from his robe. These bats formed two huge wings and gradually took off.

"Future!" Alex roared as he got closer and closer to the hole above the venue.

Future didn't even take a look at Alex and said directly, "At six o'clock!"

The 10 kings of Radiant Island had gone through countless wars together. There was no need to say much. Everyone had a tacit understanding in their hearts.

After Future said, Alex threw the machete in his hand hard. The machete was like half of a boomerang, spinning out with a strong wind as if it could cut everything.

With a loud bang, the machete returned to Alex's hand. At the same time, he jumped out of the venue and stood on the roof.

Sylvia clearly saw that after the loud noise, a wreckage of a jet fell from the big hole in the roof and brought a burst of fire.

Moon Goddess's purple dress fluttered in the air. She held a silver flute in her hand and waved it hard. The silver flute turned into a long whip. When the long whip hit the roof, Moon Goddess floated up.

Each of the 10 kings of Radiant Island was the top-notch role in the world and could not be underestimated. Even the two beautiful women, Moon Goddess and Future, had the title of Reapers leader.

When the door of the venue opened, everyone rushed out of the venue.

"Miss!" Megan ran to Sylvia and did not dare to look at Henry. If Henry knew that she had looked down on him countless times and introduced other men to his wife, she would die a terrible death!

Henry glanced at Megan and said, "Protect your lady. Do you understand?"

"Got it!" Megan nodded with some fear.

While they were talking, a flame came and hit the ground, stirring up a cloud of smoke and dust. The stones from the roof of the castle fell down to the ground not far away from Henry, causing the ground to shake a little.

Looking up, he saw that there was a combat jet hovering above his head.

"Wade!" Henry's eyes narrowed, and he shouted. Then he kicked his feet hard on the ground. With this kick, Henry's whole body shot up to the sky like a cannonball. The ground where he just stood was cracked.

Henry jumped 8 meters in the air, which was far beyond normal people's understanding of jumping limit.

Just as Henry's momentum was slowing down and was about to fall...

"Here!" Wade rushed from the distance and threw out his black machete. The machete flew straight into the air where Henry was. Henry, who was going to fall, took the opportunity to step on the machete with his feet. He raised his body again and flew to the combat jet.

The pilot's eyes widened. Obviously, he did not expect that someone could jump over 20 meters relying on his own strength. At this moment, it was too late to pull up.

Henry jumped onto the combat jet and stood on the top. He did not mind the strong airflow and stood steadily here. Through the glass, he smiled at the pilot and then punched on the cockpit.

The solid glass of the cockpit was shattered by Henry's punch.

Henry punched again and completely smashed the glass of the cockpit. He grabbed the pilot who was in a panic and threw him out of the cabin.

The combat jet circled in the air and then fell to the ground.

Henry was waiting for the perfect moment. He jumped from a height of 20 meters and landed on the ground. However, he was completely unharmed.

The jet fell behind Henry, causing flames to fly up to the sky.
