

Chapter 537

After receiving the address, Henry said goodbye to Sylvia and said that he had something to do and was about to leave.

Sylvia was still sitting on the edge of the bed and said, "Honey, go and do your work. Leave this to me."

When Henry saw Sylvia like this, he couldn't help but sigh. Since when did this ice queen become such a sensible little girl?

The man and the woman lived in an ordinary hotel in Yinzhou.

This made Henry a little confused. At that time, they offered a lot of money in order to compete with him for the crystal. It seemed they didn't lack money. On the other hand, the hotel they lived cost sixty yuan a night, and even the bathroom was public. It didn't look like a place where a person who had a million yuan of cash would stay.

Although it was called a hotel, it was actually a motel. There were no working staff or reception desk. There was only one motel owner. The facilities were very simple and crude. There was no air conditioner in the room, and the old-fashioned fan was used. As soon as one entered the door of the motel, he could smell a sense of mildew.

There was almost no one in the guest house. At this time, the owner of the guest house was sleeping. When Henry came in, he didn't even notice it at all.

Henry was also speechless. This boss was too brave.

Wade had already sent Henry the two rooms where the man and the woman stayed.

There were two floors in the motel, and the wooden stairs made a creaking sound. When Henry went upstairs, he heard the sound of water splashing.

On the second floor, the light of the public bathroom was still on. Because it was necessary to save electricity, there was no light in the corridor. The light of the public bathroom was not very bright, giving people a feeling of dimness.

Henry saw a chair in the corridor and sat down, waiting for the sound of running water in the bathroom to stop.

More than ten minutes later, the sound of running water gradually stopped in the bathroom. The bathroom door opened, and a graceful figure with long hair appeared under the dim light of the bathroom.

Wearing a white bathrobe, the young woman walked briskly, swaying her long wet hair and rotating in the dim light.

"Do you like dancing very much?" Henry's voice suddenly sounded.

The sudden sound in the corridor scared the young woman, and the dance suddenly stopped. She suddenly looked in the direction of the sound and said, "Who is it?"

"Your alertness is much worse than your senior brother's." Henry stood up from his seat and slowly walked toward the dim light.

"It's you!" The young woman recognized Henry the moment she saw him, and at the same time, she pretended to be cautious.

"Relax." Henry spread out his hands. "I come here with no malice. I just want to make a deal with you."

"A deal?" The young woman frowned.

"That's right." Henry nodded. "It's about the crystal from the last auction."

Hearing Henry's words, the young woman stared at Henry. After a few seconds, she said, "Okay, wait for me."

After the young woman finished, she went to a room and knocked hard on the door. "Senior brother, the man has come."

As soon as the young woman's voice fell, the door was instantly opened. The young man stood in front of the door and saw Henry at a glance. His eyes showed surprise. "Brother, have you figured it out?"

"Let's talk about it first. I will wait for you at the barbecue restaurant outside." Henry pointed to the outside of the corridor and then turned to leave.

Henry walked out of the motel and came to the barbecue restaurant. About ten minutes later, the man and the woman rushed over. It could be seen that the young woman's hair was not dry yet. She had just changed her clothes and came here.

The two sat opposite Henry, looked at each other, and the young man said, "Brother, I heard from my junior sister that you are here to make a deal with us. What do you mean?"

Henry leaned on the sofa of the barbecue shop, stuck out three fingers and kept knocking on the table. "Do you really want that crystal?"

"Brother, have you thought it through and decided to sell it to us?" The young man couldn't hide his excitement.

"No." Henry shook his head. "Tell me what the crystal is first, and I'll consider it later."

The young woman curled her lips. "You still want to know about it."

Seeing that Henry was not going to sell the crystal to him, the young man said regretfully, "Brother, it's not that I don't want to tell you. It's just that it's not good for you to know this."

Henry raised his hand that kept knocking on the table and waved it gently in front of the glass next to him. Henry's hand obviously did not touch the glass, but let the glass go along the table and slid violently in front of the young man.

The young man and the young woman's pupils almost contracted at the same time. "The Qi!"

Henry smiled slightly and did not speak.

In the previous fight in Li's village, Henry integrated the Qi into his moves, so that he could strengthen his control of Qi. Before that, Henry had to punch hard to release his Qi. Now, as long as he wanted, he could release his Qi. Although he couldn't be like the man in a linen robe, he was much stronger than before.

The young man took a deep breath and said, "Brother, you have reached the Qi Controlling Realm, but you don't know what the crystal is used for?"

Henry shrugged his shoulders.

The man and his junior sister apprentice looked at each other and said, "Well, since you have reached the Qi-controlling Realm, sooner or later you will know that the crystal you took is a Spiritual Stone!"

"Spiritual Stone?" Henry's face was full of doubt.

"That's right." The young man nodded. "Brother, can I ask which clan are you from?"

Henry replied without thinking, "Zhang Clan."

"Zhang Clan?" There was a thoughtful look at the young man's face. In his memory, there was no such clan. Of course, he would not think that this was just Henry's random words.

"There are so few people, and now I'm the only one left. It's normal that you haven't heard of it," Henry said.

The young man nodded. "Brother, if that's the case, the two families can share the Spiritual Stone! Of course, we will never let you suffer losses. We will pay you the corresponding cost."

"Share? How?" Henry asked curiously.

The young woman looked at Henry as if he was an idiot. "You are from a clan. Don't you know that thousands of people can use a piece of Spiritual Stone for ten years?"

Henry was shocked by the young woman's words, but he didn't show anything on his face. He shook his head and said, "I'm afraid that's not the case. The energy inside is not that strong."

Henry didn't know what the young woman meant by using the Spirit Stone at all. He was just talking nonsense.

The young man smiled and said, "Brother, I'm afraid that you haven't fully mastered the method of using Spiritual Stones. The Spiritual Stones are full of energy and are enough for thousands of people."

"The family record is incomplete, and I only know a little about it. There are very few records about how to use Spiritual Stones." Henry's words were partly true and partly false. In terms of the method of using Spiritual Stones, he really only knew that Future could extract the energy.
