

Chapter 544

Henry was a little speechless. He had never been to college, and he didn't expect these college students to gossip so much.

At the same time, Henry was also a little remorseful. He was not blaming himself for causing any trouble to Lam. Last night, he just did what a man should do and took the woman to a safe place. He blamed himself for that video just now. Obviously, it was someone who shot it secretly, but he didn't realize that. If this was done while he was carrying out a mission, would he be exposed to others' sniper guns all the time?

This matter also reminded Henry that he had been too relaxed recently.

"Daisy, what are you talking about with your brother-in-law? Why are you two so sneaky?" Sylvia took a basket of leek and came over from the side. She asked curiously.

"Ah?" Daisy, like a frightened rabbit, looked at Sylvia guiltily and shook her head repeatedly. "No... nothing. Sister, why did you pick so many leeks? Did you prepare them for my brother-in-law?"

Daisy's words immediately made Sylvia blush. This leek had another name among the people- sex grass.

"Daisy, don't worry about your sister and your brother-in-law." Robert came over from the side with a smile. "But then again, Sylvia, when will you two have a baby? I'm is waiting for them to be born, so there would be four generations in our family."

"To get a baby?"

Sylvia blushed and looked at Henry. She and Henry had had the marriage certificate for a long time. Except for staying together for two nights at Chris Xiao's place, they did not sleep in the same bed. They only held hands occasionally.

"Grandpa, we... we..." Sylvia lowered her head, and her face was red as watermelon. She didn't look like an ice queen at all.

"Henry, men should focus on their career, but family is also essential." Nelson came over from the side. "I know this girl, Sylvia. There is only work in her mind. As a man, you should take the initiative. My friends are holding grandchildren every day. I am very envious of them."

Henry didn't expect that he and Sylvia would be urged to have a baby as soon as they came here. When he looked at the expressions of Nelson and Robert, it was evident that they had prepared for it. He took Sylvia's little hand and gently scratched Sylvia's palm.

Sylvia felt the itch in her palm. When she looked up, she saw Henry was winking at her.

"Henry, you should take what I said to heart. Sylvia is sometimes too willful. Don't spoil her too much." Nelson's voice sounded again.

Sylvia obviously saw Henry's smiling face.

"Dad, I know. Don't worry. When I come back from my business trip, I will take time to work on that with Sylvia." Henry replied.

"Okay." After hearing Henry's words, Nelson nodded with satisfaction.

Sylvia was shocked and looked at Henry. "Do you need to go on a business trip?"

"Yeah, I have something to deal with in the company. I plan to leave tomorrow." Henry nodded.

Now, Sylvia had already aware of Henry's identity. She knew that Henry had something to do, so she didn't say anything.

Soon, the dinner began. In the dining room, peoples were obviously ordered by Robert to persuade Sylvia and Henry to have a child as quickly as possible, which made Sylvia blush all the time.

"Hey, Sylvia, you are too shy. We are a family. Don't be shy. Besides, you and Henry have been married for a long time." Daisy's mother said.

No one in the family would have thought that nothing had happened between Sylvia and Henry since they got married.

After dinner, Henry drove Sylvia out of the manor of the Family Lin. Sylvia had not recovered from the family's continuous explosions, and her mind was full of words like "a baby". She was confused.

Sylvia couldn't help but think, "Am I really going to have a deeper relationship with Henry?"

As soon as this idea came to her mind, Sylvia immediately shook her head. "No, no, no, he is a man. He has to take the initiative to deal with this matter."

"Honey, what are you thinking?" When Henry was driving, he saw Sylvia was stunned for a while, and then she shook her head hard. He felt strange.

"Ah? No... nothing." Sylvia quickly turned her head to the window.

After returning home, Henry found the business card that the young man left for him yesterday and Henry called him.

The phone just rang for a second, and the other side had already picked up.

"Hello." A young man's voice sounded on the phone.

"I've thought it over. When can we set off?" Henry asked.

After Henry finished speaking, the other party was obviously stunned for a few seconds, and then there was a surprised voice, "Tomorrow! There is a plane to Mountain City early tomorrow morning! Eight o'clock in the morning."

"Okay, see you tomorrow." Henry did not say much and directly hung up the phone.

After contacting the young man, Henry contacted Future and asked her to send the Crystal to Mountain City. He would pick it up tomorrow. At the same time, he also arranged Future come to Mountain City and deal with some emergencies at any time.

This time, Henry was going to an unknown clan. Henry didn't know who was in the clan at all. He had travelled for so many years, so of course, he didn't believe the young man's one-sided words. He was fully prepared for everything.

When Sylvia returned home, she sat in the living room. She had been thinking about that question all the time. She had been married to Henry for a long time, and now she had such a relationship with him. Was it too unfair to him? Or, should he try to sleep with her today? Just to sleep in the same bed, nothing else.

Sylvia felt that her face was burning. When she looked outside, it was almost dark. He thought about it, took a deep breath, plucked up her courage, and knocked on Henry's door.

Usually, when Sylvia knocked on the door, Henry would open the door immediately. But today, Henry didn't respond to Sylvia's knock on the door for a long time.

"Honey, are you asleep?" Sylvia's voice sounded.

Henry still did not respond.

Sylvia stamped her feet. D*mn Henry, she had been thinking so much, but he fell asleep as soon as he came back!

Sylvia twisted her body. When she was about to leave, Henry's door creaked and slowly opened. There was no figure of Henry in the room.

"Honey?" Sylvia walked into the room with a strange look on her face. She had just sat in the living room, so she didn't see Henry go out.

Henry's room was very neat, and everything was classified and placed by him. His neat appearance made Sylvia feel a little ashamed.

When Sylvia walked to the window in the room, she saw Henry's figure.

She didn't know when he had gone to the backyard. He stayed in the courtyard and lay on the ground. He only used his right index finger to support his body and did the push-ups.

Chapter 545

When Sylvia saw this scene, she was shocked.

What happened on the island more than 20 days ago was still vivid in his mind. Henry was called The Conqueror. He was not born this way, neither he depended on luck. He only relied on his own efforts.

Sylvia still remembered that Henry was hit away by someone with a snap of his fingers that day. Such a thing definitely had a significant impact on Henry. The pressure he bore was much greater than that of her, but he never showed it in front of her. He quietly endured it. Standing in front of her, he always had a naughty smile and leisure appearance. He didn't want the pressure he was feeling affecting his emotions.

Sylvia stood by the window and looked at Henry in the courtyard. There was a hint of obsession in her eyes. Unconsciously, Sylvia had gradually fallen into it and was intoxicated.

One night passed quietly.

When Sylvia opened her eyes, she found herself lying in Henry's room, covered with a quilt.

Recalling what happened last night, Sylvia didn't even know why she fell asleep near the window. Now she was lying on the bed. It must be Henry who did it.

"Honey." Sylvia shouted in a daze, but no one responded. She rubbed her sleepy eyes, got off the bed, and went to the living room. When she saw the clock on the wall, it was already half-past ten in the morning.

There was exquisite breakfast on the table, and it was covered with a heat-proof cover. When the heat-proof lid was lifted, the fragrance came to Sylvia's nose, which made her feel sweet. At the same time, she saw the note left by Henry on the table at a glance.

"Honey, I have something to do in Mountain City. Take care of yourself."

Sylvia couldn't help but smile. She carefully put the note away.

At this time, Henry had already taken a plane to Mountain City with the young man and the woman.

On the way, the young man introduced their clan to Henry.

The Tang clan in Mountain City was mainly dedicated to stratagem techniques and poison and was good at concealed weapons. The young man's name was Uriah Tang, and his junior sister's name was Teresa Tang.

"Tang's clan? Tang's Sect?" Henry suddenly thought of this sect that was often seen in novels.

Uriah nodded. "There are some traces of the Tang Sect, but not all of them. There are many examples of the Tang Sect recorded in ancient books, which come from our clan. Once upon a time, how glorious our Tang clan was. Anyone who mentioned the Tang clan would have a respectful look on their face, but now, alas..."

When Uriah said this, he couldn't stop shaking his head. Teresa, who was next to Uriah, also looked disappointed.

Henry could understand the feelings of these two people. If the Tang Sect in the ancient books were really the original form of the Tang family, then the Tang clan, although their glory in the past was not as bright as of the royal family like the Li family of Longxi, it was not much worse. But now there was only one master of Qi in the Tang family, which was really not ideal.

Uriah first brought Henry to his company. Henry had seen the name P&S Group on Uriah's business card. To put it bluntly, it was a 300 square meter display room. The decoration was elementary. Henry really didn't know what it was for.

Uriah told Henry that if he wanted to contact with the clan, ordinary phone calls would not be able to call the clan directly. They had to pass through the landline first. If those clan members outside wanted to return to the clan, they had to report to the elders of the clan first.

Normal clans, even ancient families, had their own properties, but the desolate Tang family could no longer afford the normal operation of the whole clan. Many people worked outside. If it went on like this, the clan would inevitably be assimilated by the world. Once that happened, the whole Tang family would be completely extinct after hundreds of years of tradition. In another generation or two, no one would remember that there was a Tang clan.

After Uriah made a phone call, he told Henry that the clan would send someone to pick them up. Usually, it would probably take half a day.

"Brother Zhang, why don't I take you around Mountain City first?" Uriah suggested. On the way here, he also learned Henry's name.

"No." Henry refused with a wave of his hand. "I happen to have a friend in Mountain City. I will go and meet with her. Call me directly when they are here."

After hearing Henry's words, Uriah did not force him.

The friend Henry mentioned in Mountain City was Amity.

It had been nearly a month since he saw Amity last time. Henry just wanted to see how Amity was now. Henry was very fond of this good-natured girl.

After getting into a taxi, Henry went straight to Mountain City's World Hotel.

As one of the highest-level hotels in Mountain City, there were all kinds of big shots in the hotel every day. There was never a shortage of luxury cars in the parking lot of the hotel. There were almost no people who took a taxi like Henry.

Henry walked into the hotel. At that time, he asked Samuel to arrange a position for her, but he didn't know what would that position be. It was early now. He didn't contact Amity, so he began to look for her.

The World Hotel was huge. It was not only a place to stay or to eat, but there was also an entertainment area and spa.

"Ah, Henry, you're here?" Just as Henry was about to look for him slowly, a surprised voice sounded behind him.

Henry turned his head and saw Amity's mother standing behind him and looking at him with surprise.

"Auntie." Henry smiled at her. He looked at her clothes and found that her clothes were not as cheap as before. Her face was much younger, and her attitude was much better.

She came over quickly and asked. "Henry, are you here to see Amity?"

"Yes." Henry nodded. "I happened to have something to do here, so I came to have a look. By the way, how is uncle recently?"

Hearing Henry's words, Amity's mother immediately showed a look of guilt on her face. "Henry, you still dare to mention this? Tell me, how much money did you give as the deposit last time? During this month, the hospital was giving him the best medicine and said that the money you gave was enough to cover it. I asked the hospital, but the hospital didn't say anything."

"Haha, not much." Henry waved his hand. "I happen to know the director of the hospital, so he gave me a discount."n give me a higher price for the medicine."

Henry randomly found an excuse.

"Alas." Amity's mother sighed. "Henry, I know you're a good person, but you've made me feel like I don't know how to repay you. Now you're the one who helped me find this job, and it's all thanks to you. If it weren't for you, I really don't know what kind of life I would live now."

Henry looked at her appearance and shook his head helplessly. The character of Amity and her mother was really the same. Both of them didn't like to make trouble for others.
