

Chapter 578

The silver-haired beauty who appeared in front of the young man in black was one of the former kings of Radiant Island, the owner of the multi-coloured King's ring, Cesia.

Cesia swung her long hair and slowly walked to the young man in black. She turned around playfully and said, "Do you know who I am?"

The young man in black shook his head slowly with a look of obsession in his eyes.

"This is Ms. Cesia!" There was a shout from the jet.

"Cesia!" The young man in black was shocked. How could he not have heard of one of the ten kings on the island?

"Peze agreed to your request to deal with The Conqueror, but..." Cesia smiled at the young man in black. "You have to change your way. Don't tell your master Henry's identity and start attacking people around him. Do you understand?"

She reached out and lifted the young man's chin.

"I... I understand..." The young man in black nodded his head dazedly.

Cesia was a seductive demonish woman. Henry once said that she was the best psychiatrist in the world. She could unconsciously make people fall into a state of hypnosis.

"Since you understand, go ahead and do it, haha." Cesia let out a laugh.

A rope fell from the jet in front of her. She gently grabbed the rope and flew away with the jet.

It was not until the jet left for five minutes that the expression on the young man's face disappeared. He dialled President Zhao's number and said, "Second Master, Mr. Peze agreed, but we have to change the way."

On the jet, Cesia wiped her fingers with a wet wipe. She had just touched the young man's chin. Under Cesia's feet, there were countless white wet wipes, she also applied disinfectant, but she still wiped her fingers hard.

"How's the situation in the team four?" Cesia asked while wiping her fingers.

"They all got killed." The pilot answered, "The Tang family Citadel was completely destroyed, and no one came out. The rest of them have arrived at Radiant Island now."

"Oh, I knew it." Cesia chuckled and looked out of the window at the island beyond. She muttered, "Brother Henry, you're getting more and more unexpected!"

The jet flew directly to the sky and disappeared above the blue sky.

Henry was also on a plane, hovering in the blue sky. He leaned against his seat. In the past, when he was travelling, Henry would wait quietly and be calm. But he didn't know what had happened to him this time. His heart was full of impatience, and he had an impulse to lose his temper.

Henry understood very well that this kind of impatience was not a good thing, but he just could not control himself. He could only make himself close his eyes and fall asleep as soon as possible.

The plane continued to fly for more than ten hours. After stopping to get additional fuel, it landed at Yinzhou airport.

As soon as the plane landed, before it even stopped, Henry opened the cabin door and jumped out. For some reason, his heart was filled with anger. He felt that if he stayed on the jet a second longer, he would go crazy.

When he stepped on the ground, he finally felt much better.

Looking at the time, it was three o'clock in the afternoon, and it was already autumn. The breeze was already a bit chilly, and all the people on the road had put away their shorts and short skirts.

Henry walked out of the airport, thought for a moment, and then took a taxi to the Lins Group.

When he arrived at the Lins Group, as soon as he entered the door, Henry heard the greetings.

"Mr. Zhang."

"Mr. Zhang, you are back."

"Hello, Mr. Zhang."

Hearing these greetings, Henry frowned. He saw that the two people from reception were not standing straight. He felt an impulse to scold them, but he still held back. This was something that had never happened before. When dealing with a lot of things, Henry was very clam, and he would never be dissatisfied with this kind of thing.

At the same time, when he saw a stain on the ground, he couldn't help but want to make a comment.

Henry shook his head hard and wondered what had happened to him. Why was he so anxious all of a sudden? Was it because there were so many things in his mind recently that he was under too much pressure?

He got into the elevator, and the elevator went straight to the top floor.

Henry got out of the elevator and looked at the situation in front of him in astonishment. He had only been away for couple of days, but the layout of the top floor of the Lins Group had changed entirely.

Initially, there was only one office for Sylvia on the top floor of the Lins Group and a desk for Cathy, the secretary. But now the place was divided into three offices.

Henry looked around and saw the words "Hengyuan Trading Company" on the door of one of the offices.

"What's going on?" Henry asked in confusion.

As soon as this question came out, the door of the office in front of him was opened from the inside.

Jenny, who was wearing a beige windbreaker, appeared in front of Henry. Her hair was hanging down, and her tall figure made this windbreaker look very distinctive on her body.

The moment Jenny saw Henry, she was stunned at first, and then she said in surprise, "Henry, you're back!"

"Mmm." Henry nodded and looked up at the door tag. "Jenny, what are you doing..."

"President Qin's company has encountered some problems, and the rent has just expired. And we have an empty floor, so I rented it to President Qin." Another woman's voice sounded in the house.

Sylvia was wearing a slightly neutral grey coat with her hair tied up behind her head. This style gave people an incredibly refined feeling. Not only did she not lose her beauty, but she was also very elegant.

When two women stood together, it was hard to tell which one was more beautiful. It was two completely different styles.

"When did you come back?" Sylvia stood next to Jenny and smiled at Henry.

"I just got off the plane." Henry opened his arms to Sylvia. "Honey, it's been a long time since we last saw each other. Give me a hug?"

"Come on." Sylvia glanced at Henry, and a blushed.

There was a hint of displeasure in Jenny's beautiful eyes. "Well, you two talk first. I have something to do."

Sylvia stepped out of Jenny's office and hooked her finger at Henry. "Come, I have something to tell you."

"Okay." Henry smiled and followed Sylvia to her office.

Looking at their backs, Jenny pursed her lips and closed the door of the office.

As soon as he entered Sylvia's office, Henry made himself comfortable on the wide leather sofa.

Sylvia poured Henry a cup of tea and sat down beside him. She said, "President Qin's company had an accident. Look at this."

She threw a few contracts to Henry at the same time.

Henry opened the contract, glanced at it, and frowned. "These are all signed by Jenny?"

"Yes, President Qin signed it personally." Sylvia nodded and smiled bitterly.

"Is she giving money away?" Henry was puzzled. These contracts were all signed by Hengyuan recently. The benefits distribution was very unreasonable. Hengyuan was just doing its job for nothing.

Chapter 579

"And this rental contract, you should have a look." Sylvia handed another document to Henry.

"The rent has been risen by 50%? There is no good business project in that land, right? Even if Hengyuan had developed well until now, the rent shouldn't have risen so much. Do they think Jenny is a fool?" Henry frowned more and more tightly.

"There is something wrong with her recently." Sylvia shook her head. "I have seen some contracts that President Qin has recently signed without any questions. In the past two days, President Qin was working in Lins Group. When negotiating, she has no confidence at all. I suspect that it has something to do with her mental state."

At this time, Sylvia's face was full of worry.

"According to my observation in the past few days, President Qin has no problems with her daily life. But every time she needs to make a business decision, she doesn't seem to have her own opinion at all. She will accept whatever others say. Fortunately, I have terminated these contracts. I have been experienced in the recent cooperation negotiations. Otherwise, I am afraid that Hengyuan would suffer heavy losses."

Henry took a sip of tea and reached out his hand to knock on the table. "So, you asked Jenny to move Hengyuan to Lins Group?"

"Yes." Sylvia nodded. "Since President Qin is here, I can take care of her more or less. Anyway, President Qin has become like this now. I can only do some trivial things to make up for her."

Sylvia sighed, and her eyebrows were full of helplessness.

"Well, Honey, don't blame yourself for this matter. No one wanted to be like this." Henry stood up and walked behind Sylvia. He reached out his hand and gently pinched her shoulder. "You have been under a lot of pressure since adding Hengyuan directly to Lins Group. Lins Group is on the top of the storm and is the target of public criticism. Hengyuan's development is seen by everyone. Your approach must have made many gossips outside."

Sylvia sighed and did not speak.

Just then, someone knocked on the door of the office. The voice of the secretary, Cathy, came from outside the door. "President Lin, those reporters are here again. I'm afraid you have to come out this time."

Hearing this, Sylvia turned to look at Henry and said, "Speaking of the devil, You're really a jinx."

After Sylvia finished speaking, she rushed out of the door and said, "Hold on for a while. I'll go down right away."

A few minutes later, Sylvia and Henry appeared in the lobby of the company.

Henry saw that in front of the company, there were already reporters with all kinds of cameras and microphones in their hands. If it weren't for the strong security of their company, these reporters would have rushed in.

"President Lin, please explain why you suddenly rented a whole floor to Hengyuan Trade at such a low price. Is there any ulterior motive?"

"According to our investigation, the rent for one floor of Lins Group should be 1.3 million per year. Why did the Lins Group suddenly do this?"

"Someone told me that Hengyuan's recent contracts were signed by President Lin. Why?"

"President Qin from Hengyuan hasn't returned to her house for four days. I wonder if Lins Group has restricted President Qin's freedom in some way?"

"Could you please invite President Qin to show up?"

The questions asked by these reporters were very tricky and difficult to answer. Once she answered wrong, there would be more follow-up questions. These questions were aggressive. If Sylvia remained silent, what would be written as headlines tomorrow?

The president of the Hengyuan Group, Jenny Qin, had disappeared for four days, but Mrs. Lin did not come forward to respond?

Since the appearance of these reporters, all of them had been premeditated.

When the reporters saw Sylvia, they all squeezed toward the room as if they were crazy.

"President Lin, please answer!"

"President Lin, why don't you tell us? Is there any conspiracy?"

"Is President Qin still alive?"

All kinds of questions come one after another. The more popular the news was, the more eye-catching the headlines would be. If Sylvia couldn't handle these things well, it would lead to a lot of negative effects for Lins Group.

Sylvia took a deep breath and opened her mouth. Just as she was about to answer, she heard a shout coming from behind.

"Why do you ask this? Who let you come here and shout? Do you want to die? Get out of here. Do you hear me?"

Because of this shout, not to mention those reporters, even Sylvia was shocked. Sylvia looked at Henry beside her, and her eyes were full of confusion. The person who scolded was Henry.

In Sylvia's opinion, Henry was not such an impulsive person at all. His understanding of the overall situation was much more precise than hers.

After a short moment of astonishment, the reporters came to their senses and asked all kinds of questions, just like the ants whose nest had just exploded.

"May I ask who you are? Should we assume that what you just said to us was a threat?"

"Do you intend to bury the truth on purpose by doing this?"

"Could it be that the Lins think that they can control the world and they don't take the people and the government seriously?"

These reporters were able to catch a person's slip of the tongue and ask out a lot of questions, not to mention Henry's loud reproach just now. All of a sudden, these reporters found countless questions to ask, including the scene of Henry's shouting just now. It would definitely be put on the news tomorrow.

"Secretary Lee, Henry is too tired from his business trip. Let's take him to rest first." Sylvia gave Cathy a wink.

How could Cathy not understand what was going on? She quickly grabbed Henry and walked towards a room next to the hall. The reporters were about to rush in, but they were stopped by the security guards.

"Well, everyone, I think I can answer your questions." Sylvia stretched out her hands and said brightly, "Why did President Qin come to our Lins Group? I can tell you clearly that Hengyuan has reached a cooperative relationship with our Lins Group, including President Qin herself, who also lives in my house."

"President Lin, we need to know is that person your husband? Is your husband connected to the mafia?" A reporter asked urgently.

Sylvia's eyes widened. "Nonsense, If you insist on smearing my husband, I will sue you for slander!"

When the reporter heard this, he was not afraid, but very arrogant. "President Lin, I'm just talking about things. Your husband just threatened the safety of all of us..."

In the room next to the lobby, Henry had been taking deep breaths. Just now, even he himself didn't know what was going on. Seeing the reporters constantly asking specific questions, he couldn't tolerate it for a second. He shouted out those words, which was completely inconsistent with his character.

Chapter 580

Henry tried hard to calm down. He had an impulse to rush out and crush those reporters to death.

"What's wrong? What's wrong with me?"

Henry held back the impulse in his heart and kept asking himself. From the moment he left the island, his heart and mind had not calmed down, and he was always in a state of agitation.

Cathy made Henry a cup of tea.

After a long time, Sylvia came in from the door and glanced at Henry without saying anything.

Looking at Sylvia's tired face, Henry also knew that what he had just done had added a lot of trouble to Sylvia. When he was about to say something to apologize, Sylvia said, "What do you want to eat tonight? You just came back."

On Sylvia's face, there was no hint of blaming Henry.

This made Henry feel calm, and his anger was reduced a lot.

"How about we go to some street restaurant?"

"All right. Your call today. I'll get the car, and you can call President Qin." Sylvia raised the car key in her hand, turned around, and walked out of the door.

Henry looked at Sylvia's graceful back. Although this woman never said anything, she always cared about others.

Henry came to the top floor of the Lins Group. As soon as he got out of the elevator, he saw Jenny going out.

"Where are you going?" Henry looked at the time. It was 5:30 p.m.

Jenny smiled at Henry and said, "Since you're back, I can't stay at President Lin's place anymore. I'm going to pack my things."

Henry had just heard from Sylvia that Jenny lived in their house. He said to Jenny, "There are so many rooms, just stay there. Anyway, it's convenient for you to go to work together. Let's go to eat some street food."

After Henry finished speaking, he pulled Jenny's arm and walked into the elevator without saying anything.

He was also very worried about Jenny's condition. After hearing what Sylvia said, he was more concerned about Jenny's living alone. If she was living in their house, everyone could take care of each other.

When Henry and Jenny arrived at the underground garage, Sylvia was waiting in the car.

Sylvia shook her head to Jenny and said, "Let's go, President Qin. Today's meal is on Henry. We'd better treat ourselves very well."

Jenny smiled slightly, opened the car door, and sat in the passenger seat.

Henry rolled his eyes and said, "It seems that you two have been getting along well during this period."

Along the way, Sylvia and Jenny talked very openly. They were talking about women's topics, cosmetics, bags and so on.

Henry sat in the back seat and looked at the two women in front of him. His heart calmed down a lot.

The three of them went to an ordinary street restaurant and ate something casually. It was getting dark.

After returning home, Henry went to his room first. As soon as he opened the door, Henry heard someone behind him calling him.

"Henry."

"Huh?" Henry turned around and saw Jenny standing behind him. "What's wrong?"

"You..." Jenny pointed at Henry and the door. She could see the clothes hanging in the room. "Don't you and President Lin sleep together?"

"This..." Henry was stunned by Jenny's question. He really didn't realize this problem and didn't know how to explain it now.

"I am, I am..." Henry didn't find a suitable reason even after a long time. The room was full of his clothes, and he couldn't come up with an excuse.

Jenny covered her mouth and smiled. "I thought you were so charming that you could seduce President Lin. In the end, I overestimated you."

After Jenny finished speaking, she turned around and walked away, leaving Henry a graceful back view.

Henry gave a wry smile and went back to his room. He lay down on the bed and fell asleep.

The next morning, when it was just dawn, a burst of noisy sound passed through the window and got into Henry's ears, waking him up. Henry picked up the pillow and covered his head, but the sound was still clear.

Henry got up from the bed and opened the window. At a glance, he saw a villa opposite him was installing a fence, and the sound came from there.

A sense of anger arose from Henry's heart. He resisted the urge to swear and looked at the time. It was already eight o'clock, and the other party was entirely in line with the requirements of the community's renovation time.

Henry walked out of the room with a look of impatience.

"Honey, have you seen my watch? I've been looking for it for a couple of days already."

As soon as Henry went out, Sylvia's voice came from the side.

For a long time, Sylvia had been used to asking Henry about things that she could not find. Henry could tell her every time.

But this time was different.

The moment he heard Sylvia's question, he felt an irrepressible sense of agitation. Henry replied impatiently, "I don't know. Why don't you take good care of your belongings?"

Hearing Henry's words, Sylvia, who was walking up the stairs, suddenly trembled and her expression froze. This was the first time that Henry talked to her in such a tone since they got married.

Not only Sylvia was stunned, but also Henry was stunned.

"What... what's wrong with me? Why did I do this? Why did I yell at Sylvia?"

That kind of deep regret arose in the bottom of Henry's heart. He quickly reached out his hand. "Hon..."

As soon as Henry uttered a word, he saw Sylvia striding down the stairs.

Henry regretted and knocked his head. In the past two days, his mood was uncontrollable. It seemed that he had to see a psychologist. The psychologist he invited for Jenny should arrive in two days. At that time, he could also check his state.

Henry ran to the bathroom, washed his face with cold water, and completely calmed himself down. Although the noise outside the window still made him feel very uncomfortable, he couldn't control himself as just now.

When he came downstairs, Henry saw Sylvia was in the kitchen. He didn't know what she was doing.

Soon, Sylvia came out of the kitchen with a plate in her hand. She was not angry at all. She smiled at him and said, "Did you wash your hands? The breakfast is ready. Come to eat. Although it can't be compared with your cooking skills, it is still edible."

Henry looked at it. There were two ordinary fried eggs on the plate. In Sylvia's other hand, there was a cup of fresh soybean milk.

Henry knew that Sylvia didn't know how to cook, and she had only been to the kitchen for few times. Seeing Sylvia's current change, Henry felt even more indebted to her. Thinking of the scene when he yelled at Sylvia, Henry couldn't wait to slap himself.

"Honey, I just..."

"Honey, I'm sorry."

Before Henry could finish his words, he heard Sylvia's apology.

Chapter 581

Sylvia put the plate on the table and slowly walked to Henry. "I'm too ignorant. I've been used to asking you to take care of everything. If there were anything wrong, I would ask you first without thinking."

"Honey, I..." As soon as Henry opened his mouth, Sylvia took the initiative to hug him.

"Honey, I know that you have to deal with your own things. It's something that I can't help you with. I can see that since you come back this time, you have been under pressure. Sorry, I always cause you trouble. From now on, I won't be like this. Don't be angry with me, okay?"

Hearing Sylvia's words, Henry slightly lowered his head and saw Sylvia looking up at him with a pitiful look.

At the moment he saw Sylvia's eyes, Henry held her in his arms and said, "Honey, thank you."

Sometimes, there were some things that didn't need to be explained too clearly. It was good that partners knew the truth in their hearts. The partners should learn how to understand each other without saying too much.

After breakfast, Sylvia and Jenny went to Lins Group together, while Henry did not go to the company. Because of the things he had done yesterday, he had been targeted by reporters. If he showed up today, he would definitely be besieged by those reporters.

Moreover, Henry himself didn't really want to go to the company. He didn't have the confidence that he could suppress the anger when seeing those reporters. That temper was too strange, which made him a little scared. Therefore, Henry chose a place where no one was around so that he could get in touch with the Qi.

Their courtyard was a good choice, but the tinkling sound on the other side made Henry unable to calm down.

Henry chose the park on the outskirts of the city. This park was very vivid. Every day before breakfast and after dinner, there were a lot of people around here. But on the working days, only some retired older people liked to wander around the park.

The park was full of trees. During this season, the leaves had turned yellow. From time to time, leaves would fall to the ground.

Henry looked around and saw that there was no one around. He took a deep breath, and then exerted strength to all the muscles in his body. At this moment, an invisible Qi shield covered Henry's whole body. Before Henry had not been able to gather strength at once, but now he could use it easily.

What he needed to do now was to make his body feel the Qi in the best possible way. His body and the Qi should reach the state of harmony. Only after reaching that state, his body could adapt to the Qi. And then, Henry could try to absorb more Qi into the body.

Henry felt that the Qi in his body was limited, but he was not clear about the specific limit. What he knew was that the more Qi there was, the better it would be. He had taken four-fifths of the liquid during that battle, and his body could handle it. The Qi in his body was many times stronger than it was now. That kind of strength and amount of Qi enabled him to walk in the sky. If he could store so much Qi in his body regularly, wouldn't he be immortal?

Henry had experienced the power in the past, and now he had his ambitions.

When the Qi covered Henry's whole body, Henry began to practice as before. This time, he could not only clearly feel the changes of the Qi every time he punched and kicked, but also could achieve more delicate control.

For example, when Henry kicked out, the Qi could be into kind of invisible whip. If he could use this flexible Qi whip when fighting with an enemy, his combat capability would be greatly improved.

Henry just thought about the effect in his mind and felt inexplicably excited. At the same time, he also had some feelings in his heart. He seemed to be extremely powerful before, but compared with the master of Qi-controlling Realm, he was still far away. He didn't know when he could reach the level of the man in black on the island that day.

The scene of being hit by someone with one finger had left a deep impression in Henry's mind. It was like there was a huge stone pressing against his chest, making it difficult for him to breathe.

He began to practice his fists. Unconsciously, he was fully immersed in it. During his practice, the anger in his heart slowly disappeared.

If Future could use her instrument to observe Henry, she would see that as Henry's use of Qi became more flexible, the white whirlpool in his body gradually suppressed the red whirlpool.

Henry's punches and kicks with Qi affected the fallen leaves all around his body. He was like a kungfu master from the TV series.

Just when Henry was completely immersed in it, the phone rang and interrupted Henry.

Henry took out the phone, glanced at the caller, and answered, "Daisy, what's wrong?"

"Brother-in-law, I heard that you are back!" Daisy's voice on the phone sounded a little anxious.

"Yes, I just came back yesterday."

"Then come to our school quickly. Something happened." Daisy said. She was afraid that Henry didn't understand, so she added, "It's about Lam."

After hanging up the phone, Henry rushed to Yinzhou University without hesitation. He still remembered what Daisy told him last time. Someone had photographed the scene when he took Lam to the hotel that night, and it was spread around the school.

While Henry was rushing to Yinzhou University, in the office on the top floor of the Zhao's Group, a young man in black stood behind President Zhao. "Second Master, you are looking for me."

"Did you arrive in the middle of the night yesterday?" President Zhao asked without looking back, leaning on his crutch.

"Yes." The young man in black nodded.

President Zhao turned around, stared at the young man in black, and said, "Let me ask you a question. What did Mr. Peze tell you? Tell me all the details."

"Second Master, Mr. Peze means that this guy does have a cooperation relationship with Radiant Island. If we directly attack him, it will be too ugly if Radiant Island doesn't show up. Mr. Peze ordered us to start from the people around this boy, such as his wife, the Family Lin!" When the young man in black said the name of the Family Lin, his eyes lit up.

"Is this really what Mr. Peze told you?" There was a hint of suspicion in President Zhao's eyes. According to his understanding of Radiant Island, everything was based on preferences, and there were no rules. How could Mr. Peze say that it would not be convenient to attack this man directly?

"Absolutely!" The young man in black nodded, with no hint of hypocrisy in his eyes.

Seeing the expression of the young man in black, President Zhao was relieved.
